"Life speeds away
From point to point; though seeming to stand still
The cunning fugitive is swift by stealth:
Too subtle is the movement to be seen,
Yet soon man's hour is up and we are gone."

FOREWORD

In presenting this volume of the descendants of William Sherman of Marshfield to those interested in genealogical research, I want to state that I know it is not perfect, there are necessarily always some errors in such a book. All that can be done is to be as accurate as it is possible for one to be and to hope that any error that creeps in will be judged as leniently as may be.

The plan of the book is simple. All males who have children are carried forward as heads of families and nearly all females up to the sixth generation are also carried forward. Beginning with the sixth generation, the females with their children are listed under their fathers.

I wish to thank all those who have assisted by filling in charts and in giving generously of records they have gathered themselves. Particularly I want to thank S. C. A. Lamb, Esq., of Athens, Ontario, who gave freely of his time to help although he was not a descendant of William Sherman. Without him, the Canadian branch would have been well nigh impossible to compile.

I wish also to speak of the great generosity of Miss Harriet Grace Scott who has had these books compiled, this being the third, in order to preserve the records of the old families so rapidly dying out. In the twenty or more years that I have worked for her, I have found her most appreciative of my efforts to make her books a creditable undertaking.

DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM SHERMAN

OF MARSHFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

WILLIAM SHERMAN, with whom this line of Shermans in America begins, died in Marshfield, Mass., 25 Oct. 1679. He married in Plymouth, Mass., 23 Jan. 1638, PRUDENCE HILL, possibly sister of Ralph Hill, who certainly died before him.

It has been considered possible that William Sherman was identical with a man of that name mentioned in the records of the Massachusetts Bay Colony (Vol. I, p. 25), under date, 26 Feb. 1628 [–9]: "W^m^ Sherman hath liberty for 14 daies to fech his keynes in Northampt., near ——— ferry." If this supposition is correct, he probably was about to emigrate then and was in the country before 1630, but there is no mention of him so early. He was in Plymouth before 1632. In 1640 he had lands granted to him at Green Harbor or Marshfield and removed there. He is first mentioned in the records of the town, 25 Aug. 1652. On 7 July 1653 he was made one of a committee with Josiah Winslow, Sr., Peregrine White, and Thomas Tilden to "agree with a workman or workmen" in regard to building a bridge over the South River. On 13 Aug. 1657 he was chosen grand juryman for the year and, 11 Oct. 1658, paid a tax of ten shillings.

At a town meeting held, 18 May 1663, the town granted to William Sherman and his heirs forever twenty acres of land to be added to the head of his estate. On the 27 Apr. 1668, he was appointed to sell the wheat now in the constable's hands.

He had apparently four adult children, three sons and a daughter. He evidently gave his grandson, William Stephens, some land, but the deed has not been found. He made no will and no administration was taken on his estate, but some years before his death, he gave to his three sons all of his real estate and, since he makes no provision for his wife in any way, it is evident that she had predeceased him. Unfortunately the name of the daughter has not been preserved, but it was possibly Hannah or Sarah. The records of Marshfield have the following imperfect record "[worn]h the wife of edward [worn] was Buried y^e^ I* of October 1680." This is supposed, and probably correctly, to refer to the wife of Edward Stephens and is so stated by several authorities. Possibly at one time the record was readable and hence the supposition.

* If this date is correctly read, she could not have been the wife of Edward Stephens, but it was possibly the 7 of Oct., not the 1.

Children, born in Plymouth Colony:

2. i. WILLIAM[2], b. about 1639; m. DESIRE DOTY.
3. ii. SAMUEL, b. 1641–42; m. SARAH DOGGETT and HANNAH ———.
4. iii. A daughter, b. about 1644; m. EDWARD STEPHENS.
5. iv. JOHN, b. 22 Feb. 1645–46; m. JANE HATCH.

2. WILLIAM[2] SHERMAN (William[1]), born in Plymouth Colony, probably about 1639, died in Marshfield, being buried there, 17 Nov. 1680. He married in Marshfield, 25 Dec. 1667, DESIRE DOTY, born in Plymouth Colony in 1645, died in Marshfield, 22 Jan. 1731, aged eighty-six years, daughter of Edward and Faith (Clark) Doty. She married secondly in Marshfield, 24 Nov. 1681, Israel Holmes, baptised with brothers and sisters in Scituate, Mass., 14 Apr. 1661, drowned in Plymouth Harbor, 24 Feb. 1684, son of William and Elizabeth (———) Holmes. She married thirdly, about 1686, Alexander Standish, born in Plymouth about 1626, died in Duxbury, Mass., 6 July 1702, "being about 76 years of age," son of Miles and Barbara (Standish) Standish.

William[2] Sherman served in King Philip's War, suffering so from exposure that he was subject to periods of insanity during the balance of his life. In consequence of this infirmity he was granted relief by the Colony after the War. He lived only four years after its ending and could not have been much over forty when he died. In 1676 his father gave him his homestead reserving the use of it for life and, since he survived his father only a year, he did not enjoy it long.

His wife, Desire Doty, had children by each of her three husbands. Her second husband died only four years after their marriage. Her third husband, Alexander Standish, who was about twenty years older than she, had married for his first wife, Sarah Alden, daughter of John and Priscilla (Mullins) Alden, by whom he had two sons and five daughters. It is evident that Sarah died fairly young because his children stated that he "lived a widower many years" after her death before he married, sixteen years before his death, the widow Desire (Doty) (Sherman) Holmes. He was a wealthy man for the period and was devoted to his second wife and the three young children he had had by her.

He left such a large amount of his property to them that his daughters by Sarah Alden with their husbands tried to prevent the proving of the will. Since his eldest son had married a daughter of his second wife this son Miles would not join with his sisters in the contest.*

The inventory of William Sherman, late of Marshfield, Deceased, was taken, 30 Dec. 1680, by Ephraim Little and Samuell Sprague. The personal estate, consisting of wearing apparel, his sword, stock, household furniture, and food, is all that appears in the inventory. Among those who owed the estate appear Edward Stephens, Samuel Sherman, John Phillips, and John Doten. The following settlement was effected:

"Att this Court John Sherman of Marshfeild and Israell holmes appeered in reference unto the Disposall of the estate of William Sherman Junir Deceased, The said Israell holmes haveing married Desire Sherman, sometimes the wife of the aforsaid Willam Sherman The Court haveing heard the please and Discourses Concerning, the same, have settled the prsonall estate unto the said Israell holmes, his heires executors and Adminnestrators, provided hee his heires executors or adminestrators, Doe bringe up the Children of the said Willam Sherman well; untill they Come of age; and that hee his heires executors or adminnestrators Doe pay or cause to be payed the sume of fifteen pounds in specue when they Come of age, as is expressed in an obligation; under hand and seale, of the said Israell holmes, bearing Date with these prsents." (Plymouth Court Orders, VI: I: 65, 7 Mar. 1681–82.)

"Inventory of ye estate of Israel Holmes late of Marshfield deceased taken & apprised May ye 9th 1685." by Ephraim Little and Samuel Sprague. "Desire holmes . . . swore that this is a true Inventory of ye estate of her husband late deceased so far as she knowes." †(Plymouth Colony Wills, IV: 1: 80, 81; IV: 11: 108.)

Desire (Doty) (Sherman) (Holmes) Standish survived her last husband nearly thirty years. Eight years before her death she made her will:

"Know all Men by these Presents that I Desire Standish late of Duxborough now of Marshfield in the County of Plymouth in New-England Widow of Mr Alexander Standish late of Duxborough deceased, being at this present time in Health and of Sound and disposing Memory & Understanding Blessed be God for it, Yet being Sensible of my own Mortality & being Minded to Settle my outward Estate which God hath Given Me do Make & ordain this to be my last Will & Testament to remain firm & inviolable forever:

3. SAMUEL[2] SHERMAN (William[1]), born in Plymouth Colony, probably in Marshfield, in 1641 or 1642, died in Marshfield, about April 1718. He married first about 1665, SARAH DOGGETT, born in Weymouth, Mass., in 1650, died in Marshfield, in July 1680, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (———) (Frye) Doggett.* He married secondly, about 1686, HANNAH ———, who was living in 1718.

Samuel Sherman was a farmer in Marshfield. His sons were all much older than was usual when they married. The father of his first wife, Sarah Doggett, having given to him land in Marshfield, his son Samuel and Thomas Doggett, brother of Sarah, had some trouble over bounds, after the death of Samuel, Sr. He apparently neither bought nor sold much land, appearing in the deeds mainly in settling his property.

Samuel Sherman of Marshfield "in consideration of a parcel of upland formerly granted & given by my father Wm Sherman dec'd unto his grandson Wm Stevens of Marshfield & given unto me in exchange" by William Stevens, grants to him land near his homelot and near land of William Sherman; 19 May 1688. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 8: 39.)

Samuel Sherman Sen^r of Marshfield, husbandman, for love, good-will, and affection for well beloved son Samuel Sherman, jun^r, of Marshfield, gives to him all his farm and all buildings in Marshfield, he to support Hannah, wife of Samuel, Sen^r, through out her life and to pay to the rest of the children within one year after the death of Samuel, Sen^r, forty shillings apiece, as follows, to Prudence Sherman, to Sarah Foster, to Mercy Sherman, to Desire Sherman, to Susanna White, to Hannah Sherman, to Joshua Sherman, to Patience Sherman, to William Sherman, to Caleb Sherman, to Gershom Sherman; 21 Feb. 1711–12. (ibid., 13: 166.)

Samuel Sherman of Marshfield, for £10, sells to Benjamin Hammond of Rochester, sixty acres of land in Rochester, 15 Mar. 1713–14. (ibid., 11: 24.)

Nathan Williamson of Marshfield, for £19, sells to Samuel Sherman of same, land there, 13 Dec. 1715. (ibid., 14: 57.)

Samuel Sherman and his son Samuel Sherman, both of Marshfield, for £19, sell to Nathan Williamson of Marshfield, land there. 13 Dec. 1715. (ibid.)

After Samuel Sherman's death, his children by his first wife, with Thomas Doggett, made the following deed:

We, John White & Susanna my wife, Prudence Sherman and Thomas Doggett, all of Marshfield, with Josiah Foster of Pembroke, for £30, convey to Samuel Sherman of Marshfield, Taylor, all right to the estate of honored father, Samuel Sherman, late of Marshfield, deceased, excepting what Samuel Sherman was ordered to pay to Susanna White, Prudence Sherman and Sarah Foster, excepting a way granted to William Stevens through the said land by Thomas Doggett of Marshfield, Sen^r, deceased, and also granting any right to above land given by Thomas Doggett, Sen., of Marshfield, dec'd, to Samuel Sherman, Sen., of Marshfield, dec'd, to the abovesaid Samuel Sherman, 29 Feb. 1719. (ibid., 14: 272.)

Thomas Dogget of Marshfield and Samuel Sherman of the same place agree concerning the bounds of sixty acres of land that was formerly given by

* Thomas Doggett in his will, dated 20 Jan. 1689, gave "to my daughter Sarah Sherman's children, viz: to Prudence Sarah and Susanna ten shillings apiece."

Thomas Doggett, late of same dec'd, to his son-in-law Samuel Sherman, late of same, dec'd., 29 Feb. 1719. (ibid., 14: 272.)

Samuel Sherman of Marshfield, for £10, conveys to Joshua Sherman of same place, blacksmith, land there, 21 Apr. 1718. (ibid., 15: 112.)

As Samuel Sherman had made a deed of gift to his children several years before his death, arranging at the same time for life care for his wife Hannah, he made no will.

Hannah Sherman, with Samuel Sherman as her surety, appointed administratrix of Samuel Sherman, late of Marshfield, deceased intestate, 22 Apr. 1718. His personal estate was valued at £46, 2s., 0d. and he had land in Pembroke worth £22. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18183.)

17. xi. CALEB, b. Apr. 1703; m. DEBORAH RING and REBECCA RIDER.
18. xii. GERSHOM, b. about 1707; m. SARAH STEPHENS.

4. ——[2] SHERMAN (William[1]), probably born in Marshfield about 1644, died before 2 Nov. 1689, possibly buried in Marshfield, 7 Oct. 1680. She married before 1666, Edward Stephens, who died between 2 Nov. 1689 and March, 1689–90.

The proof of the identity of the wife of Edward Stephens is contained in a deed of Samuel[2] Sherman to William Stephens, son of Edward, in which he speaks of land which his father, William Sherman, deceased, gave to his grandson William Stephens, and in the will of Edward Stephens who calls John Sherman, his loving brother.

"In the Name of God Amen—The last will & testament of Edward Stephens of marshfield in the County of Plimouth made this Second Day of November In the Year of Our Lord 1689 . . . Item I Doe Will and bequeath unto my Son William Stephens my Whole Estate both Real and personall excepting such leagacies hereafter mentioned and I Do make my Said Son William Stephens my whole and Sole Executor.

Item I do will and bequeath unto my Son Edward Stephens ten pounds . . . when he shall arrive to the Age of twenty one Years or when he shall be mairied. . . . I do will and bequeath unto my Daughter Elizabeth Stephens eight pounds . . . to be paid unto her . . . at the age of eighteen years or when she shall be married . . . and those sheepe which are in my Lands which I have formerly Given to her And also the one half of my Pewter. Item I do will and bequeath unto my Daughter Patience Stephens eight pounds to be paid . . . when she shall arive to the Age of eighteen years or when she shall be married . . . and also the other half of my pewter—And it is my will that if either of my Children shall dye before they are of age to receive their portions then that childs part shall be Equally Devided amongst the other three Children lastly I do leave my two youngest children at the Disposing of my loving Brother John Sherman and my son William for them to Dispose of s[d] Children in their Infancy for their Good as near as they Can, and farther . . . I do request my loving brother John Sherman to be overseer to this my will. In Confirmation hereof I have hereunto put my hand and seal

v. PATIENCE STEPHENS, b. 5 Oct. 1680. It is possible that her mother died at her birth and was buried on the 7 Oct. 1680, not the 1 Oct., as the record has been read. Patience married, 6 Feb. 1710, JOHN PHILLIPS of Marshfield.

5. JOHN[2] SHERMAN (William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 22 Feb. 1645–46, died there 5 Nov. 1723, aged seventy-seven years. He married in Boston, Mass., 25 Oct. 1677, JANE HATCH, born in Scituate, Mass., 7 Mar. 1655–56, died in Marshfield, 29 Sept. 1744, in her eighty-ninth year, daughter of Walter and Elizabeth (Holbrook) Hatch. Both are buried in the Old Burial Ground in Marshfield, where their gravestones are still standing.

John Sherman received from his father, William, land at Saconett near Dartmouth. He was a prosperous farmer and lived in Marshfield all his life.

"William Hinchman of Boston in the countey of Suffolke; and Collonie of the Massachusetts in New England in America Shoomaker . . . in consideration of eighteen pounds lawfull money of New England . . . to mee in hand by John Sherman of Marshfield in the Jurisdiction of New Plimouth . . . payed . . . have . . . sold . . . unto him the said John Sherman . . . all that my dwelling house; and Tract of Land Scittuate lying and being; within the Township of Marshfield . . . about twelve acrees lying at the end of the land of Arther Howland deceased, and adjoynes to the land of Timothy Willamson; In Witnes whereof I have heerunto sett my hand and seale this fift day of May . . . 1679. Willām Henchman And a Seale." (Plymouth Colony Deeds.)

Joseph Waterman of Marshfield, house carpenter, for £14, conveys to John Sherman of Marshfield, tract of salt marsh there, 20 June 1681; Sarah Waterman releases her dower. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 1: 161.)

Caleb Williamson of Barnstable, for £17, conveys to John Sherman of Marshfield forty acres of land there, formerly granted to father, Timothy Williamson, deceased, and by him left to brother Timothy Williamson, also deceased, 20 Dec. 1687. (ibid., 1: 63.)

Isaac Little of Marshfield conveys to John Sherman of Marshfield, upland and meadow in Barnstable, for £50, 20 May 1691; Bethyah Little releases her dower. (ibid., 1: 131.)

Joseph Doty of Rochester conveys to John Sherman of Marshfield, forty acres of land in Rochester in exchange for other land, 22 June 1698. (ibid., 14: 20.)

The next four deeds from the registry at Taunton, Mass., evidently show the disposition John Sherman made of the land his father gave him near Dartmouth.

"John Sherman of Marshfield . . . for . . . four pounds . . . payd by William Pabodie of Duxborough do . . . sell . . . unto him . . . a Certain parcel . . . of land . . . in . . . Little Compton," 16 Aug. 1683; Sarah * his wife acknowledged the deed with him; witnesses, Jonathan Alden, Abigail Alden. (Bristol Co., Deeds, 2: 27.)

John Sherman of Marshfield sells to William Pabodie of Little Compton, more land in Little Compton, 27 Nov. 1686; witnesses, Isaac Barker, Voluntine Dierwise. (ibid., 5: 317.)

"John Sherman of the town of Marshfield . . . husbandman . . . for . . . thirty pounds . . . to me in hand payed . . . By Rowland Robinson of Newport on Road Island . . . carpenter . . . Doo . . . sell . . . unto him . . . Certain lotts of Land . . . in Little Compton," 13 Sept. 1693. John and his wife Jane acknowledged the deed the same day; witnesses, William Pabodie, Benjamin Bartlett. (ibid., 1: 180.)

"I John Sherman of Marshfield in the County of Plymouth . . . for Thirty pounds . . . to me in hand payd by John Rogers of Duxbery . . . Do . . . sell . . . unto the s^{d} John Rogers . . . Certain Tracts . . . of land . . . Scittuate . . . at Little Compton," 8 Aug. 1705; Jane, his wife releases her dower; witnesses, Caleb Thomas, Edward Hayford. (ibid., 4: 477.)

Peter Blackmer of Rochester, attorney for John Sherman of Marshfield, conveys to Moses Barlow of Rochester, land in Rochester, 19 May 1702. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 29: 164.)

Nathaniel Thomas, Isaac Winslow, and Ephraim Little, representing the town of Marshfield, deed to John Sherman of Marshfield, flatland and an island in Marshfield; 9 Sept. 1708. (ibid., 7: 278.)

John Sherman, Senr., of Marshfield, yeoman, in consideration of the love, good will and affection which he has for "beloved son John Sherman," gives to his said son one-half of all my whole share of land in Rochester, 19 May 1712. (ibid., 9: 185.)

* Sarah is an error, perhaps of the register, his wife was Jane. There was no John Sherman in Marshfield as early as 1683 with a wife Sarah.

After John Sherman's death, his daughters or their heirs sold some of his property, as the following abstract shows:

John Walker, Israel Thomas and Bethia Thomas his wife, all of Marshfield, Josiah Holmes and Hannah, his wife, of Rochester, James Thomas and Deborah Thomas, his wife, of Duxborough, James Dexter and Lois Dexter, his wife, of Rochester, Eunice Sherman and Joseph Lapham of Marshfield, for £20, convey to Jeremiah Cooke of Marshfield, a piece of land there, 22 Mar. 1725–26. (ibid., 26: 141.)

"The last will and testament of John Sherman, made July 1712."

6. HANNAH[3] SHERMAN (William[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 21 Feb. 1668, died in Plymouth, 8 July 1745, in her seventy-seventh year. She married in Plymouth, 13 July 1693, WILLIAM RING, born (according to his age at death) in 1653, died in Plymouth, between 16 June 1730 and the 21 May 1731, son of Andrew and Deborah (Hopkins) Ring.†

William and Hannah (Sherman) Ring had only two sons, one, William, Jr., died before his father, and the other, Eleazer, who thus inherited all his father's real estate, died a few years later. Hannah had only her two married daughters left and since her son, Eleazer, had given to her a large portion of the property, she arranged with her son-in-law, Caleb Sherman, who was also her first cousin, for life-care, although her daughter, Deborah, who had married Caleb Sherman about a year before, had died. Later she gave the rest of her share of the property to the children of her daughter, Elizabeth Pearce, and still later Caleb Sherman sold to Joseph Pearce, their father, his share of the estate of William Ring.

William Ring was the eldest son of his father and served as his executor.

"William Ring of Plymouth . . . Husbandman" made his will 16 June 1730. He gave to "Hannah my . . . wife a Comfortable maintanance out of my Estate Dureing Life or widdohood as She & my Son Eleazer may agree. and In Case she marry agane . . . she shall have my best bed and all the furnature thereto belonging."

To "my Loveing Daughter Elezebeth Pearce" £80 "with whatt she hath had already."

To "my Loving Daughter Debarah Ring" £80.

To "my Loving son Eleazar Ring . . . (after my Just Debts are paid and the aboves[d] Legacies) all my Estate real & personel."

"my Loveing son Eleazar Ring" was appointed executor. The witnesses were Robert Cooke, Gershom Bradford, and Francis Adams.

* 26 Oct. 1719, Hannah Sherman, dau. to John Sherman admitted to Marshfield Church.

† If the age at death is correct he was born in 1653, but as George Ernest Bowman indicates in The Mayflower Descendant, Vol. V, p. 52, his date of death is wrongly given on his tombstone and his age may be erroneous as well. Other records make him seem a younger man when he was married.

On 22 May 1731, administration was granted to Eleazar Ring. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 6: 34, 35.)

Eleazar Ring of Plymouth made his will, 3 Feb. 1734–35. He gave to "my sister Elizabeth Peirce's Children . . . one Quarter part of my Estate and the other three Quarters I give to my Mother and Sister Deborah." Deacon Haviland Torrey was made executor. The witnesses were Nathaniel Leonard, Thomas Spooner and Sarah Spooner. The will was proved 7 Apr. 1735. (ibid., 7: 112.)

The total inventory, amounting to £1142, 1s., 7d., was sworn to by Haviland Torrey, 24 May 1735.

It seems evident from the way that both Eleazer and his mother tied up the property to the children of Elizabeth Pearce, that her husband, Joseph Pearce, was not liked or trusted by them. He resented the will of Eleazar and petitioned the Court as follows:

14 Mar. 1734, Joseph Pearce "Humbly Sheweth That on y^e^ 3^d^ of Feb^y^ A. D. 1734/5 my Bro^r^ in Law Eleazar Ring made his will & Disposed of all his Estate one quarter to my Children & the rest to his mother, & Sister Deborah & appointed Dean Haviland Torrey Exc^r^ & Dyed—and y^e^ s^d^ Exc^r^ as yo^r^ memo^st^ Is Inform^d^ offers y^e^ Same to be proved—which is Conceived to be ags^t^ Law & reason

1 Because its uncertain what Estate is Devised; there being no mention made of Either real or psonal

2 The will is not Equitable & Just y^e^ Distribution being very unequal so y^t^ Great doubt may be made wheather he was Compos mentis

3 The Substance of y^e^ Estate which s^d^ Exc^r^ Supposes to be devised is but an Estate in Contingency as is plain by y^e^ will of s^d^ Testators Father wherein a Comfortable maintainance is Given to his s^d^ Mother out of the Fathers Estate or y^e^ use & c—So y^t^ If she Is in want for her maintainance The whole may be Sold by her & Consequently no Certain Estate is in y^e^ Last Testator & therefore his Devise void by y^e^ rules of Law & besides he was not in the actual possession thereof in his own Right when the will was made or had taken y^e^ profitts thereof one year nexte before & So By Law Could not Devise & Bequeath ye Same."

This paper is not recorded and it is evident that Pearce did not succeed in breaking the will.

Hannah receipted for her share of the personal estate, it being £230, 6s. 9d., to Haviland Torrey, 1 Feb. 1741. Amongst the property that he owned was "an Intrest in Certain lands at a place Called Muscongus in y^e^ Eastern parts of New England . . . the value whereof is unknown."

"This Agreement . . . Concluded . . . between Hannah Ring of Plymouth . . . Widow of William Ring late of s^d^ Plym^o^ Yeoman deceased, On the One Part & Caleb Sherman of s^d^ Plymouth Cooper on y^e^ other Part Witnesseth that the s^d^ Caleb Sherman is to . . . Improve all y^e^ real estate of y^e^ s^d^ William Ring during the Natural Life of y^e^ s^d^ Hannah Ring, Only reserving one half of the Dwelling house of y^e^ s^d^ W^m^ Ring where she now lives during her natural Life for her own use & Improvement but not to lease out. In Consideration whereof y^e^ s^d^ Caleb Sherman is to Find and Provide for the s^d^ Hannah Ring a Suitable Sufficient comfortable maintenance . . . during her natural Life under the Penalty of '£500' in Case of his Non Performance." Signed by Hannah Ring [by mark] and Caleb Sherman, 7 Nov. 1738. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 32: 111.)

"Hannah Ring of Plymouth . . . Widow of William Ring . . . for . . . Love & affection . . . as also In Consideration of his affording me a comfortable & sufficient maintainance during my Natural Life . . . convey . . . to my Son in Law Caleb Sherman of Plymouth afores^d^ Cooper . . . The full one Moiety or Half of that real Estate both Housing & Lands late the Estate of the s^d^ William Ring lying . . . in Plymouth . . . or elsewhere . . . That is one half of y^e^ s^d^ Estate Including the Title or Right that he may Claim to any Part thereof by vertue of his Intermarriage with my daughter Deborah Deceasd or Otherwise . . . To Have & to Hold the s^d^ one Half of y^e^ s^d^ Estate . . . after my decease . . . He to Have y^e^ Improvem^t^ of the Whole of s^d^ Estate, Except Half the House during my Life," 7 Nov. 1738.

"Wh^r^eas I Hannah Ring of Plym^th^ . . . Widow of William Ring late of s^d^ Plym^th^ Yeoman Deceased have the Disposal of one quarter Part of y^e^ real Estate of y^e^ s^d^ William Ring by Virtue of the last Will . . . of my Son Eleazer Ring late of Plymouth afores^d^ deceast I having already Disposed of one half of s^d^ Estate to my Son in Law Caleb Sherman since the Death of his Wife Deborah my daughter . . . now . . . for . . . the Love & natural affection I have & do bear to the Children of my daughter Elizabeth Pearce the Wife of Joseph Pearce of Sandwich . . . give . . . one quarter Part of the . . . Estate of y^e^ late s^d^ Will^m^ or Eleazer Ring . . . unto Elizabeth Pearce Daughter of my s^d^ Daughter Elizabeth & to all & every other Child or Children that may be born of my s^d^ Daughter Elizabeth . . . in Case there be no other Children born hereafter of my s^d^ Daughter then the s^d^ quarter part of y^e^ s^d^ Estate given to the s^d^ Elizabeth my Granddaughter to be among all the Present Children of my s^d^ Daughter Elizabeth, So as to make them all equal with what the two Eldest have had . . . by y^e^ Last Will of their s^d^ Uncle Eleazer Ring deceased." 12 Apr. 1739. (ibid., 32: 185.)

In 1761 Caleb Sherman sold the estate of Eleazer Ring to Joseph Pearce of Plymouth, mariner, Hannah, of course, had deceased over fifteen years before.

8. PATIENCE[3] SHERMAN (William[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 3 Aug. 1674, died, probably in Duxbury, Mass., before Dec. 1723. She married in Duxbury, 15 Jan. 1695, JOSIAH WORMELL, born about 1672, died in Duxbury in 1738, son of Josiah and Remember (Brown) Wormell. He married secondly in Middleborough, Mass., 25 Dec. 1723, Grace (Wadsworth) Sprague, born 1679, died in Duxbury, 25 Nov. 1757, aged seventy-eight, daughter of John and Abigail (Andrews) Wadsworth and widow of William Sprague.

Josiah Wormell, Jr., was a carpenter. He lived for a while in Duxbury and then he went to Bridgewater where he remained only a short time returning to Duxbury.

Josiah Wormell and John Wormell of Duxbury, carpenters, sell to Josiah Wormell of Duxbury, land there, 16 Oct. 1698. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 3: 64.)

John Wormell of Duxbury sells to brother, Josiah Wormell of Bridgewater, all right title and interest, which, by virtue of the will of his honored grandfather, John Browne, late of Duxbury, deceased, may accrue to him the said John Wormell after the decease of his father and mother, Josiah and Remember Wormell, in the estate of housing and land where his father and mother then dwelt, 10 Mar. 1704–05. (ibid., 6: 188.)

10. EBENEZER [3] SHERMAN (William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 21 Apr. 1680, died there, 1 Feb. 1759, in his seventy-second year. He married first, in Marshfield, 18 Sept. 1702, MARGARET DECROW, born in Marshfield, 10 Jan. 1680, died there, 17 Mar. 1726, aged forty-six years, daughter of Valentine and Martha (Bourne) Decrow. He married secondly, in Duxbury, 4 May 1730, BATHSHEBA FORD, born in Marshfield, 3 Feb. 1680, died after 1768, daughter of William and Sarah (Dingley) Ford.

Ebenezer Sherman was only a few months old when his father died. He had two stepfathers, the first of whom was drowned when Ebenezer was about five years old and the second of whom died when the young man was twenty-two. Whether as a result of this he was not wisely guided or not cannot be told but at the age of twenty he was the father of a child by Margaret Decrow. The church records show that "Ebenezer Sherman & Margaret Decrow being guilty of the sin of . . . together made their peace with the church 28 Sept. 1701".* In April following their second child was born and their marriage followed the next September. In spite of this inauspicious start, Ebenezer appears in no other court case and was probably an honest and respectable citizen the rest of his life. He acquired a homestead and other property in Marshfield, raising a large family, all but one of whom were by his first wife.

Ebenezer Sherman of Marshfield sells to Samuel Doggett, Jr., of same place, land there, 6 Feb. 1710–11. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 10: 362.)

Ebenezer Sherman of Marshfield sells to William Cooke of Plymouth land in Marshfield, 11 Nov. 1712. (ibid., 10: 209.)

Thomas Bourn of Marshfield sells, for £140, to Ebenezer Sherman and Kenelm Baker, both of Marshfield, land, meadow, and marsh in Marshfield, 7 Jan. 1723. (ibid., 35: 56.)

Joseph Phillips of Marshfield, for £120, sells to Ebenezer Sherman of the same place, yeoman, land in Marshfield, 28 July 1746; Mercy Phillips releases her dower. Phillips had purchased the land of John Foord and so Mercy Foord, the wife of John, also released her dower, 28 July 1746. Witnessed by Elisha Sherman. (ibid., 47: 170.)

13. SAMUEL [3] SHERMAN (Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 16 Nov. 1689, died there, between 10 June 1760 and 2 June 1764. He married in Marshfield, 17 Nov. 1723–24, MARY WILLIAMSON, born in Marshfield, 1 Oct. 1695, died after 1760, daughter of Nathan and Mary (Sprague) Williamson.

Samuel Sherman was a farmer and tailor in Marshfield. At the time of his marriage, he was about thirty-five years old, and possibly was married before, but all the older sons of Samuel [2] Sherman married later in life than usual.

Samuel Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, conveys to Joseph Phillips of Marshfield, land there, 1 Dec. 1722; witnesses, John Phillips, Isaac Winslow. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 18: 65.)

Samuel Sherman and Mary Sherman, his wife, both of Marshfield, for £40, convey to Samuel and Timothy Williamson of same place, all right and interest in the estate of their honored father, Nathan Williamson, late of said Marshfield, deceased, 15 Oct. 1724; witnesses, Arthur Howland, Jr., Sarah Williamson. (ibid., 21: 26.)

John Eels and Abiah his wife, both of Scituate, convey to Samuel Sherman of Marshfield, twenty acres of land in Marshfield, 22 Dec. 1735. (ibid., 30: 69.)

Ebenezer Doggett, mariner, and Bathsheba Doggett, widow, of Marshfield, convey to Samuel Shearman of same place, Taylor, for £75, land in Marshfield near that they sold Gershom Shearman, 16 June 1742; witnesses, Jno White, Sarah Hall. (ibid., 35: 58.)

Samuel Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, conveys to Nathaniel Sherman of same place, land there, 14 June 1760, witnesses, Mercy Sherman, Abijah White, Joanna Phillips. (ibid., 50: 33.) The Mercy Sherman, who signs this deed as witness, was probably Samuel's sister, Mercy, last mentioned in 1711–12. She evidently never married.

Samuel Sherman died testate:

Samuel Sherman of Marshfield, made his Will, 10 June 1760, proved 2 June 1764. He gave to his wife, Mary; sons, Samuel Sherman, Ignatius Sherman, and Manoah Sherman, but since the latter was "under indisposition of mind," he made Samuel and Ignatius his guardians; to daughter, Mary Washburn. Son, Ignatius, executor. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18184.)

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

37. i. SAMUEL [4], b. abt. 1724–25; m. EXPERIENCE BRANCH, BETTY SEARS, and widow JERUSHA MORTON.
38. ii. IGNATIUS, b. 20 Feb. 1726–27; m. ABIGAIL CHAPMAN.
iii. MANOAH, b. abt. 1730, non compos mentis, died before 1778.
iv. JOSEPH, b. abt. 1732, died young.
39. v. MARY, b. 29 Mar. 1734–35; m. JABEZ WASHBURN.

14. JOSHUA [3] SHERMAN (Samuel [2] William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., in Jan. 1693–94, died after 1756 and before 1760. He married in Kingston, Mass., 2 Oct. 1735, DEBORAH CROADE, born about 1704, died in Halifax, Mass., 5 Mar. 1773, in her sixty-ninth year, daughter of John and Deborah (Thomas) Croade.

Joshua Sherman is called at various times, blacksmith, mariner, fisherman, and laborer. He was living in Marshfield when he married but moved to Plymouth soon after. His sons all died young and his only daughter, Deborah, was unmarried in 1772. Since the last mention of Joshua Sherman is as a soldier in 1757, he probably died in service.

Joshua Sherman appears on a muster roll, dated Boston 9 Jan. 1748–49, on board boat commanded by Moses Bennet; a sailor, entered service 10 May and served until 17 May, also from 18 May to 26 Aug. (Massachusetts Archives, 92: 109, 137–a.)

Joshua Sherman appears in Major Moses Deshon's company, Col. Joseph Thacher's regiment, raised for intended expedition against Crown Point, under John Winslow, Commander-in-chief; aged 59; birthplace, Marshfield; residence, Plymouth; occupation, labourer; company return, Boston, 5 May 1756. (ibid., 94: 175.)

He also appears on a muster roll of the same company, company return, 11 Oct. 1756. (ibid., 94: 514.)

Joshua Sherman appears on a muster roll, dated Boston, 1757, of a company in His Majesty's Service under command of Lieut. Nathaniel Cooke, probably resided Kingston, entered service, 27 Mar., ended 5 Dec. [1756]; 36 weeks 2 days, on the Expedition to Crown Point. (ibid., 96: 52.)

He appears in the following deeds:

Edward Stephens of Plymouth, for £70, sells to Joshua Sherman of Marshfield, blacksmith, his house and land in Plymouth, 23 Oct. 1718. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 14: 100.)

Joshua Sherman of Marshfield, for £50, sells to Edward Stephens of Plymouth, land and house in Plymouth, 23 Dec. 1718. (ibid., 14: 101.)

Joshua Sherman of Plymouth, fisherman, for £200, conveys to Nathaniel Morton, of same, joyner, all "my house and land" where James Howard dwelt, which he purchased of Edward Stevens; Deborah, wife of Joshua, releases her dower, 25 Nov. 1743; witnesses, John Faunce, Nathaniel Croade. (ibid., 36: 80.)

Joshua Sherman of Plymouth, mariner, and Deborah his wife, for £25, convey to David Gardiner of Pembroke, labourer, land in Marshfield, which descended to said Deborah Sherman from "our honored mother, Deborah Croade deceased" by virtue of the will of honored grandfather, Nathaniel Thomas, dec'd, 13 Mar. 1746; witnesses, Thomas Burton, Samuel Jacob, Samuel Bartlett, J. P., and Samuel Churchill. (ibid., 38: 180.)

Deborah Sherman, formerly of Plymouth, now residing in Halifax, widow, for £13, conveys to Abiel Stetson, Pembroke, cordwainer, land of "my hon^{d} mother Deborah Croade deceased", in Majors Purchase, Middleborough, 1 Dec. 1760; witnesses, Thos. Croade, J. P., Tabitha Leach. (ibid., 47: 205.)

Deborah Sherman, now resident in Halifax, widow, "for love, goodwill and affection which I have and do bear toward my daughter Deborah Sherman, now resident in Pembroke", gives to her all right in fifty acres of cedar swamp in the Majors Purchase which "did formerly belong to my grandfather Nathaniel Thomas, Esq.", late of Marshfield, dec'd, and from him descended "to my mother Deborah Croade", late of Plymouth, dec'd, and was divided among her children, it being the 6th share in said division and containing about 15 acres, 28 Nov. 1771; witnesses, Tho. Croade, Nathl. Croade. (ibid., 55: 260.)

Deborah Sherman, Jr., now resident in Halifax, conveys to Thomas Croade of Halifax, Esq., cedar swamp in Majors Purchase, the share of Nathaniel Thomas, Esq., late of Marshfield, dec'd, set of to "my Mother Deborah Sherman" the 6th share, conveyed to me, 28 Nov. 1771, by my mother as a deed of gift, 6 July 1772; witnesses, Nathl. Croade, John Hooper. (ibid., 57: 95.)

No will or administration of Joshua Sherman has been found.

Children, born in Plymouth, Mass.:

i. Joshua [4], bapt. 3 Oct. 1736, died young.
ii. Ephraim, bapt. 9 Sept. 1737, died young.
iii. Nathaniel, bapt. 20 Aug. 1738, died young.*
iv. Deborah, born probably about 1740, living Halifax, unmarried, in 1772.

* One authority states that Nathaniel married Maria Clark. No proof of this has been found 15. DESIRE [3] SHERMAN (Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., in Oct. 1695, died there in May 1750, in her fifty-fourth year, "ye Latter wife of Mr Benjamin Phillips." She married, in Marshfield, 18 Jan. 1728, BENJAMIN PHILLIPS, born in Marshfield, 20 May 1687, died there in May 1750, in his sixty-third year, son of Benjamin and Sarah (Thomas) Phillips. He married first, in Marshfield, 17 Jan. 1716–7, Eleanor Baker,* born in 1690, died 6 May 1727, aged thirty-seven years, "in her armes doth Lye a Babe two days old."

Benjamin Phillips left no will and his son, Benjamin Phillips of Boston, wharfinger, was appointed his administrator, 4 June 1750. His bondsmen were Isaac Phillips and Kenelm Baker.

"We the Subscribers Heirs of the Estate of Mr Benjamin Phillips late of Marshfield Deceasd Do acknowledge that We Have Receivd of Benja Phillips admr our Full Share of all the Personal Estate Witness our Hands

John Caruar
Jacob Dingley, jun.
John Phillips
Jeremiah Phillips."

9 Feb. 1750

The real estate was settled at their request on Jeremiah Phillips and they acknowledge that they have received their share of it. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 12: 228.)

The interest of John Carver in the estate was due to his being guardian of the daughter, Penelope.

Benjamin Phillips of Marshfield conveys to Samuel Shurtleff of same place, woodland there, bounded on Ebenezer Sherman, 20 Dec. 1749; witnessed by Joshua Sherman. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 41: 258.)

Children of Benjamin Phillips born in Marshfield, Mass.:

By first wife, Eleanor Baker:

vi. PENELOPE PHILLIPS, b. 2 Apr. 1735. Penelope Phillips, minor daughter of Benjamin Phillips, late of Marshfield, decd, chose John Carver of Marshfield for her guardian, 3 Dec. 1750. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 11: 415.)

* Eleanor, daughter of Kenelm and Sarah Baker was born in Marshfield, 31 Mar. 1692. It is possible that she was the first wife of Benjamin Phillips.

16. WILLIAM [3] SHERMAN (Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., in June 1699, died in Rochester, Mass., between 1780 and 1787. He married in Rochester, 4 Feb. 1734, Mary Dexter, born in Rochester, 3 Aug. 1719, died after 1787, daughter of John and Sarah (———) Dexter.*

It is possible that Mary Dexter was a second wife. Nicholas Wade of Scituate in his will in 16 Mar. 1723, pr. 6 Apr. 1724 mentions his daughter Margeritt Sherman, daughter Mary Cudworth, daughter Ruth Merritt, son Nathaniel Wade, cousin Abraham Ripley's daughters. Whose wife this Margaret (Wade) Sherman was does not appear elsewhere.

William Sherman, like his brothers, married late in life, and was about twenty years older than his wife. There is no mention of him in Marshfield after the deed of settlement made by his father in Feb. 1711–12. Whether or not he moved to Rochester before his marriage is not shown by any record and after his removal there he is identified with his wife's people rather than with his own. This is not surprising since he was the only one of Samuel's children who went to that town.

Mary Dexter inherited property from her uncle, Thomas Dexter, as well as from her father, John Dexter.

On 25 May 1739, forty-four acres of land were laid out to William Sherman, adjoining Anthony Savery's land, it being a part of William Dexter's share; 10 Apr. 1755, 17 acres adjoining William Sherman's homestead was laid out to him on the right of Moses Barlow, while on the 15 Mar. 1780 more land was laid out to William Sherman and Mary, his wife, on the ninety-six acre grant to William Dexter. (Rochester Proprietors Records.) This is the last mention of William Sherman.

William Sherman and Mary, his wife, both of Rochester, for £26, convey to Peter Oliver of Rochester and to his heirs or for want of such to Joseph Oliver and Susanna Oliver, his brother and sister, "our Dwelling House & Homestead . . . being the Dwelling House & Homestead which Joseph Oliver Father of said Peter liveth in now . . . being Land laid out to said William Sherman adjoyning to Anthoney' Savorey's Land laid out by Benjamin Hammond, Surveyor, Josiah Dexter & Silas Briggs, 25 May 1739." Signed by William and Mary Sherman, 3 July 1759; witnesses, William Parlow, Timothy Ruggles. (Plymouth Co. Deeds, 46: 175.)

William Sherman and Mary, his wife, both of Rochester, convey to John

* John Dexter of Rochester made his will, 29 June 1744. He gave to wife Sarah, to sons Gershom and John Dexter, both of Rochester, to daughter Mary, fifteen acres of land, to daughters, Hannah, Dinah, Mary and Rest, Rest to have liberty to live in his dwelling-house. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 9: 357.)

Thomas Dexter of Rochester, yeoman, made will, 19 Dec. 1746, pr. 17 July 1752. He made "cozen" Constant Dexter, whom he brought up, his exec., and gave to "cozen" Ephraim Dexter, son of late brother Benjamin Dexter, deceased; to Mary Beals, wife of Jonathan Beals, who lived with him in her youth; to Mary Sherman, wife of William Sherman, who was a daughter of his brother John Dexter; to Rest Dexter, another daughter of brother John; to six nieces, four the daughters of brother John and two the daughters of brother Benjamin Dexter; to cousin Jabesh Dexter, son of Seth Dexter. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 12: 539.)

Marshall of Rochester, one-half a piece of salt meadow there, which Joseph Lisbee, late of said Rochester, deceased, gave by deed to Peter and John Oliver, then minors, and of which the said Peter Oliver sold his share to William and Mary Sherman; signed 19 May 1761; witnesses, John Dexter, John Sherman. (ibid., 50: 236.)

William Sherman and Mary Sherman, his wife, both of Rochester, convey to Anthony Savory of Rochester a piece of salt marsh in Rochester at Charles Neck which Thomas Dexter, late of Rochester, deceased, gave to said Mary Sherman in his last Will; signed by both William and Mary Sherman, 31 Mar. 1763; witnesses, Joseph Haskell, Seth Dexter, Samuel Look, Mehetabel Dexter. (ibid., 54: 74.)

Peter Oliver of Rochester, labourer, conveys to William Sherman and Mary, his wife, a piece of salt marsh in Rochester, sold to him and his brother by Joseph Lisbee, because Joseph Oliver and Anne, his wife, with the said Peter Oliver, gave a bond to the said William Sherman to see that the said Peter gave to the said Sherman and his wife, a deed as above expressed, the bond being dated 17 May 1758, and the said Joseph and Anne give their approbation to this sale, 20 Feb. 1759. Recorded, 26 Oct. 1765. (ibid., 50: 235.)

Gershom Dexter, James Stuart & Hannah, his wife, William Irish and Dinah, his wife, William Sherman and Mary, his wife, and John Dexter, all of Rochester, sell to Anthony Savory a piece of land in Rochester that was given to our sister, Rest Dexter, by our honored uncle, Thomas Dexter of Rochester, deceased, 20 Oct. 1769; witnesses, Seth Dexter, Seth Dexter y^{e} 3^{d}, Simeon Sherman, William Sherman y^{e} 3^{d}.* (ibid., 58: 33.)

Sylvanus Hammond of Rochester conveys to William Sherman of same, husbandman, land in Rochester, twenty-four acres, bounded on Moses Hiller, Benjamin Clifton, 9 Jan. 1771; witnesses, Noah and Peleg Sprague. (ibid., 56: 29.)

William Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, conveys, to John Courby of Rochester, husbandman, land in Rochester, bounded on Moses Hiller, Benjamin Clifton, 13 Mar. 1771; witnesses, David Bolles, Lydia Bolles. (ibid., 56: 29.)

Mary Sherman of Rochester, widow and relict of William Sherman, late of Rochester, deceased, quits to Susanna Oliver, all right she has in a legacy given her in her father's will and deeded by her husband to Peter Oliver on 3 July 1759, signed 11 Apr. 1787, in presence of Richard Sherman, David Wing. (ibid., 75: 26.)

No will or administration of William is recorded in Plymouth, but as he was granted land in 1780 and as Mary was a widow in 1787, it is evident that he died between those two dates.

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

i. JOHN, b. 21 Jan. 1735–36, probably m. 27 June 1767, Rochester, ANNE NICKERSON.† Nothing further is known of him. John Sherman, the fourth of Rochester, coaster, sold Levi Hiller of Rochester,

* There were living in Rochester at this time, besides the William[3] above, who married Mary Dexter, William, the son of John[3], born 1726, and William "y^{e} 3^{d}," son of the above William[3] Sherman.

† There are so many John Shermans in Rochester that it is well nigh impossible to distinguish them. Not only were the descendants of William Sherman there but also descendants of Philip Sherman who came into Rochester from Bristol County.

mariner, land and house in Rochester held by deed from Ichabod Nye; witnesses, Ichabod Nye, Nathaniel Ruggles. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 50: 11.) This deed may belong to this John Sherman, but it is also possible that he died young.

vii. BETTY, b. 11 Sept. 1748; no further record found.
viii. THOMAS, b. 16 Sept. 1750; no further record found.
ix. SARAH, b. 11 June 1753; no further record found.
x. ZEPHANIAH, b. 21 June 1755. He may have gone to Maine. "Zephaniah Sherman of Littlesborough do acquit claim to . . . land . . . that I now dwell on together with the dwelling house that I now live in to Ephraim Andrews . . . said Lot containing one hundred acres . . .", 7 Mar. 1795. Signed by Zephaniah Sherman, and Sarah Sherman, the latter by mark. Wit.: Abraham Andrews, Elias Lane. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 34: 97.) Andrews was also a Rochester family and intermarriages between Andrews and Sherman had already occurred there.
43. xi. RICHARD, b. 15 May 1761; m. HANNAH ELDRIDGE.

17. CALEB [3] SHERMAN (Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., in April 1703, died after 1760. He married first in Plymouth, Mass., 12 May 1737, DEBORAH RING, born in Plymouth, 5 Feb. 1708, died there, 29 Aug. 1738, daughter of William and Hannah (Sherman) Ring. He married secondly in Plymouth, 15 Aug. 1745, REBECCA RIDER, probably born in Plymouth about 1720–26, baptised there with brothers and sister, 2 Apr. 1727, daughter of John and Mary (Southworth?) Rider.*

Caleb Sherman was a cooper. In his marriage record, in 1737, he is called "of Marshfield" but he evidently settled in Plymouth with his wife's mother, Hannah Ring. After her daughter's death, Hannah deeded to him a portion of her property in return for life maintenance, apparently living with him until her death in 1745. Soon after his mother-in-law's decease he made his second marriage, and soon sold to the husband of his first wife's sister, Joseph Pearce, his large part of the Ring estate. His second wife did not release her dower until ten years after the deed was drawn. This release occurred in 1761 and is the last mention found of Caleb and his family. He does not appear in the census of 1790 in any New England state nor do his sons,

* Division of the estate of John Rider was effected 27 July 1736 and contains this clause: "To Rebecca Rider of Plymouth one of the Daughters of y^{e} s^{d} Deceased the Sum of Sixty Pounds Six Shillings & eight Pence which upon a just Valuation of the s^{d} real estate is her proportion thearof which she hath received of her Brother John Rider," and 20 June 1744 she receipts for her property being "now of the age of eighteen years," to her guardian Thomas Spooner. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 7: 288.) The marriage of John to Mary Southworth is not recorded, but Joseph Rider and Mary Southworth were married 10 Mar. 1706–07. In the record of Mary's birth it is stated that she married "Jo: Rider." (Mayflower Descendant, 1: 142; 14: 36.)

Ring and Young Sherman. The sons do not appear in the Revolutionary rolls in New England. There was at the time a large emigration to Nova Scotia from New England as the British, having dispersed the Acadians, looked to New England for settlers to take up the already cultivated lands they had acquired. Many from Plymouth went there, and it is possible that Caleb Sherman was among them. It may also have been that he did not go there before 1775, but that his sons did and that he joined them later on, as apparently his daughters married in Plymouth.

The Plymouth records give the following items:

"Debro Shareman Deceased on the 29th of August 1738, the wife of Caleb Shareman the child of Caleb Shareman deceased the 5th day of September being three weeks & one day of old 1738"

Caleb Sherman was constable of Plymouth in 1744 and hogreeve in 1749. He appears in the following deeds:

Caleb Sherman of Marshfield, cooper, for £20, sells to Elnathan Fish of Kingston, land in Pembroke, 3 Mar. 1732–33. Wit: Edward Winslow, John Douglas. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 29: 80.)

In 1738 he received the land from Hannah (Sherman) Ring, his mother-in-law and also his cousin. (See account of Hannah (Sherman) Ring.)

Ichabod Lamson of Duxbury, cordwainer, conveys to Caleb Sherman of Plymouth, cooper, meadow land in Duxbury, Elizabeth Lamson releasing her dower, 14 July 1739. Wit: Samuel Weston, Ezra Arnold. (ibid., 33: 22.)

Caleb Sherman of Plymouth, for £450, conveys to James Smith of Middleborough, land in Middleborough, 21 Mar. 1743–44. Wit: John Smith, Seth Tinkham. (ibid., 37: 95.)

Caleb Sherman of Plymouth, for £25, sells to Blany Phillips of Duxbury, land there, 19 Aug. 1746. Wit: James Gardner, John Torrey. (ibid., 38: 100.)

"I Caleb Sherman of Plymouth . . . Husbandman . . . For . . . fifty pounds . . . paid by Joseph Pearce of Plymouth . . . mariner . . . do . . . sell . . . unto him . . . A certain Tract of Land lying in Plymouth aforesaid whereon the House of which Mr Eleazer Ring late of Plymouth aforesaid deceased now stands . . . In witness whereof I the said Caleb have hereunto set my Hand and Seal the eighth day of July . . . seventeen hundred & forty eight . . . And Rebekah the wife of Said Caleb doth hereby also resign her right of dower . . . in the Premises, 22 June 1761."

"The said Caleb Sherman personally acknowledged the deed this same day." Recorded in 1765. (ibid., 49: 215.) *

Caleb Sherman of Plymouth, husbandman, for £55, deeds to Silvanus Torrey, trader, John Torrey, currier, and Nathaniel Torrey, tanner, all of Plymouth, land there, Rebecca Sherman releasing her dower, 21 Feb. 1752. (ibid., 41: 168.)

* Eleazar Ring was the brother of Deborah Ring. He died in 1734, leaving one-fourth of his property to his sister Elizabeth Pearce's children and three-fourths to his sister Deborah Sherman and his mother. So Caleb Sherman owned this three-fourths after the death of widow Hannah and in selling it to Joseph Pearce it went back to the only surviving heirs of William and Hannah (Sherman) Ring.

Caleb Sherman of Plymouth, for £60, sells to Benjamin Barnes of Plymouth, land there, Rebecca releasing her dower, 25 Feb. 1752. Wit: Samuel Sherman. (ibid., 41: 186.)

Caleb Sherman of Plymouth, yeoman, sells to James Hovey of Plymouth, "all my Homestead where I now dwell" in Plymouth, 26 Apr. 1760, Rebecca releasing her dower. Wit: Thomas Foster, John King. (ibid., 46: 66.)

18. GERSHOM [3] SHERMAN (Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., about 1707, died before Dec. 1744. He married, probably about 1738, SARAH STEPHENS, born in Marshfield, 25 May 1715, died there after 1790, daughter of Edward and Mary (Churchill) Stephens,† and his first cousin, once removed.

Gershom Sherman was a carpenter. He lived in Plymouth and in Marshfield.

John Clark of Plymouth, house-carpenter, for £32, conveys to Gershom Sherman of Plymouth, house-carpenter, land in Plymouth, 20 Jan. 1727–28. Witnesses, Isaac Baker, Quinton Crymble. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 27: 11.)

Ebenezer Doggett, mariner, and Bathsheba Dogget, widow, both of Marshfield, for £190, sell to Gershom Sherman of same place, housewright, ten acres in Marshfield, 3 Oct. 1738. Witnesses, John Little, Thomas Doggett. (ibid., 33: 1.)

Gershom Sherman of Marshfield conveys, for £32, to Joseph Foord of Pembroke, land in Pembroke, 26 Jan. 1738–39. Witnesses, Elisha Kent, Arthur Howland. Elisha Kent swore, 4 Mar. 1752, that he saw the said Gershom, since deceased, sign the deed. (ibid., 41: 181.)

He died intestate.

Administration on the estate of Gershom Sherman was granted to his widow, Sarah Sherman, who gave bond with Samuel Sherman and Elisha Sherman, as sureties, 4 Sept. 1754. His inventory, amounting to £122, 3s., 6d., sworn

* No proof was found to establish these marriages, but they were the only Sherman daughters in Plymouth eligible for the marriages. An exhaustive search of the Plymouth probate and deeds for Sampson, Drew, and Wooten names might prove the hypotheses. It has not been done.

x. Jane Thomas, b. 31 Dec. 1718,* d. 18 Nov. 1805 in 87th yr.; m. 2 Jan. 1739–40, Thomas Ford, b. 7 Aug. 1712, d. 8 July 1788,

* The dates of birth of Deborah and Jane are so given in Mayflower Descendant, Vol. VII, pp. 133, 134. While it is possible for them to be correct it is very improbable. According to the order in father's will, Deborah would be the older and she was probably born in 1716.

21. JOHN [3] SHERMAN (John [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 17 Oct. 1682, died in Rochester, Mass., probably about 1765. He married in Marshfield, 26 Mar. 1712, SARAH BAKER, born in Marshfield, 28 Oct. 1688, died in Rochester, before 1765, daughter of Kenelm and Sarah (Bradford) Baker. *

John Sherman settled in Rochester after his marriage, his father having been granted land there in 1697. On 24 May 1715, he and his brother, Samuel, received the twenty-ninth lot on the East branch of the Sippecan River, being on the northwest side of said branch, containing eighty acres. On 19 June 1741, more land was granted to John and the heirs of Samuel Sherman, deceased.

John Sherman was a farmer and a weaver. He dealt largely in land as did so many of the early settlers.

John Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, for £12, sells to Edward Winslow of Rochester eighty acres of land there, 31 Jan. 1716; witnesses, James Winslow, Timothy Ruggles. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 17: 154.)

* Kenelm Baker in his will made 29 Sept. 1712, proved 5 Apr. 1713, gave to his daughter Sarah, the wife of John Sherman, the sum of thirty pounds with what she had already received. He gave to his other children and made his "Brother Major John Bradford of Plimouth" and his "Kinsman Mr Isaac Winslow of Marshfield", his Executors. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 3: 236.)

John and Samuel Sherman, both of Rochester, convey to Job Ashley of same place, all "our lot of land we have on gore lot", 25 Oct. 1716; witnesses Stephen Andrew, Ebenezer Perry. (ibid., 33: 127.)

John Sherman (Seal)
Sarah Sherman, by mark, (Seal)
(ibid., 50: 235.)

It is probable that this deed was given in return for life care for himself and wife, although it is not so stated, and the bond or deed from the sons is not recorded. He had doubtless portioned off his daughters at marriage or had some verbal understanding with his sons in regard to their receiving personal property, for he left no will.

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

i. SARAH[4], b. 15 Aug. 1714, d. before Aug. 1750; m. as second wife, pub. 3 Nov. 1746, Rochester, BARZILLAI HAMMOND, b. 9 Mar. 1706, d. abt. 1779, son of Benjamin and Elizabeth Hammond. She apparently had no children.

51. ix. SAMUEL, b. 2 Jan. 1730–31; m. RACHEL HATCH.

22. SAMUEL[3] SHERMAN (John[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 22 Feb. 1686, died in Rochester, Mass., 7 Sept. 1725, aged forty years. He married in Rochester before 1723, CHARITY CLAPP, born in Rochester, 18 Sept. 1701, died in Ware, Mass., 3 Apr. 1763, daughter of John and Dorcas (Earl) Clapp.† She married secondly, in Rochester, 25 Sept. 1728, Stephen Andrews, born in Rochester, 5 July 1701, died before 1743, son of Stephen and Bethia (———) Andrews. She married thirdly, in Rochester, 1 Jan. 1743–44, Joseph Thorp, who died before 1749.

Samuel Sherman was associated with his brother John in the ownership of lands in Rochester, his interests being inherited by his only son Samuel Sherman. Since his wife, Charity, was fifteen years his junior, he probably had been married for only a few years at the time of his death.

* The Winslow Genealogy calls Keziah "Lois," but although there may have been a daughter Lois, the Rochester Vital Records give Keziah, as born 28 Oct. 1728, and do not give any Lois.

† John Clapp of Rochester in his will, made 31 Mar. 1752, proved 1 Apr. 1754, gave his estate to his son Ebenezer Clapp, with a small legacy to son Benjamin. Ebenezer was to pay legacies to "his sister Charity my daughter" and others. The heirs receipted for their shares and Charity's reads:—"I, Charity Thorpe of Ware River, a place so-called in the county of Hampshire who am one of the heirs of the late John Clap of Rochester, Plymouth County decd," the witnesses being, Samuel Sherman and Thomas Andrews.

Samuel Sherman of Rochester conveys, to Edward Winslow of the same place, land there, 31 Jan. 1716; witnesses, James Winslow, Timothy Ruggles. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 17: 154.)

Charity Sherman of Rochester, widow and relict of Samuel Sherman of Rochester, sells, to Timothy Ruggles of Rochester, Clerk, land there, 20 Apr. 1726; witnesses, Samuel Sprague, John Clarke, jr. (ibid., 23: 229.)

Timothy Ruggles of Plymouth sells, to Charity, relict of Samuel Sherman of Rochester, meadow-land in Rochester, 20 Apr. 1726; witnesses, Samuel Sprague, John Clarke, Junr. (ibid., 28: 192.)

Elisha and Ezekiel Hatch both of Rochester, yeoman, sell to Charity, relict of Samuel Sherman of Rochester, land there, 10 Mar. 1725–26. (ibid., 28: 192.)

Elisha Hatch of Rochester conveys, to Charity, relict of Samuel Sherman of Rochester, land there, 30 Apr. 1726; witnesses, Samuel Sprague, John Clarke, jr. (ibid., 28: 192.)

Charity Thorp, widow of Joseph Thorpe, late of Rochester, dec'd, conveys to son Samuel Sherman of Rochester, certain land in Rochester which she bought of Mr. Timothy Ruggles, Clerk, and also land she bought of Elisha Hatch, 19 Oct. 1749. (ibid., 41: 195.)

Samuel Sherman died intestate.

Charity Sherman of Rochester, widow, was appointed administratrix on the estate of her husband, Samuel Sherman, late of Rochester, deceased, 6 Oct. 1725. His Inventory taken, 29 Sept. 1725, by Timothy Ruggles, Samuel Sprague and John Briggs amounted to £799, 7s., 8d. (Plymouth Co., Probate.)

Child, born in Rochester, Mass.:

52. i. SAMUEL [4], b. 3 Jan. 1723–24; m. MARY SNOW and JERUSHA DAVIS.

Children of Charity (Clapp) Sherman by her second husband, Stephen Andrews; born in Rochester, Mass.:

23. DEBORAH [3] SHERMAN (John [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 4 Sept. 1689, died there, 5 Feb. 1774, in her eighty-fifth year. She married in Marshfield, 12 Feb. 1718–19, CAPTAIN JAMES THOMAS, born in Marshfield, 10 Feb. 1696, died in Duxbury, Mass.,

16 Jan. 1750–51, in his fifty-fifth year, son of James and Mary (Tilden) Thomas.

Deborah Sherman was received into Marshfield Church, 17 Aug. 1718.

Administration on the estate of James Thomas, late of Duxbury, deceased, granted to his son James Thomas of Duxbury, 4 Feb. 1750–51. He was bonded with Isaac Partridge and Nehemiah Cushing. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 20354.)

The estate was given to the eldest son James Thomas, he to pay to brother Jesse Thomas and to sister Abiah Thomas. They receipted for their shares of the estate of "Honrd Father James Thomas Late of Duxborough Dec^{d}." (ibid., 12: 464, 481.)

Capt. James and Deborah, his wife, sleep side by side in the Old Burial Ground, Marshfield.

Children, born in Duxbury, Mass.:

i. Abiah Thomas, b. 25 Mar. 1720, d. 29 Apr. 1799, in 80th yr.; m. 11 Mar. 1754, William Thomas, b. 31 Jan. 1727, d. 31 July 1798.

ii. Deborah Thomas, b. 7 May 1722, died young.

iii. James Thomas, b. 1 Feb. 1725–26, d. at Annapolis Royal, in 1761; m. 8 Sept. 1754, Marshfield, Priscilla Winslow, born 1737, d. 11 Dec. 1807, aged 70 yrs., dau. of Anthony and Deborah (Barker) Winslow. In 1770, her father removed to Bridgewater, taking with him his widowed daughter and her children. Children (Thomas), (1) Deborah, b. prob. 1755, d. 1834; m. Samuel Faxon.

iv. Jesse Thomas (Dr.), b. 10 Sept. 1728, "supposed to be murdered in the Town of Winthrop in the County of Lincoln April 2^{d} 1784."

24. LOIS^{3} SHERMAN (John^{2}, William^{1}), born in Marshfield, Mass., 27 Jan. 1691–92, died in Rochester, Mass., 12 May 1780, in her eightieth year. She married in Marshfield, 29 May 1723, James Dexter, born in Rochester, 27 July 1698, died there, 11 Dec. 1775, in his seventy-eighth year, son of Benjamin and Sarah (Arnold) Dexter.

In his will, made 31 Jan. 1774, proved, 1 Jan. 1776, James Dexter gave to his wife Lois Dexter, the profits of one-third of his estate both real and personal for life, and then to the heirs of his daughter Sarah Perry; to grandson Charles Church, son of daughter Lois Church, land and £100 in place of what would come to him by heirship in the estate of his uncle James Dexter [Jr.], on condition that the said Church quits his claim to the aforesaid estate to "my grandson Thomas Perry son of my daughter Sarah"; to son-in-law Stephen Perry; to grandson James Perry; residue of property to daughter Sarah Perry wife of Stephen; Stephen Perry to be executor. (Plymouth Co., Probate.)

i. JANE DEXTER, b. 9 Mar. 1723–24, d. before 1774, probably unmarried.

25. WILLIAM [3] SHERMAN (John [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 23 Jan. 1693–94 died there 26 May 1724, aged twenty-nine years. He married in Marshfield, 8 Oct. 1719, MARY * EAMES, born in Marshfield, 17 July 1698, baptised there, 21 Aug. 1698, died in Bridgewater, Mass., probably before 1756, daughter of Anthony and Mercy (Sawyer) Eames. She married secondly, in Marshfield, 23 Feb. 1724–25, Thomas Phillips, born in Marshfield, 17 Jan. 1791, died in Bridgewater, after 1756.

The life history of William Sherman is necessarily short. He lived only five years after marriage, but the two sons he left became men of unusual worth and left many descendants. His widow and her second husband moved to East Bridgewater about 1735.

William Sherman of Marshfield sells, to Anthony Eames of Marshfield, land there, 22 May 1721; witnesses, Jonathan Alden, Thomas Foster. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 31: 174.)

He died intestate.

Administration on the estate of William Sherman, late of Marshfield, deceased, was granted to his widow Mary Sherman who gave bonds in Court with Arthur Howland, Jr., and Joseph Phillips, 11 July 1724. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18200.)

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

53. i. JOHN [4], b. 19 July 1720; m. ELIZABETH DINGLEY.

54. ii. ANTHONY, b. 21 Dec. 1722; m. SILENCE FORD.

* Her name may have been Mercy. "Mercy," w. of William Sherman, admitted to Marshfield Church, 14 May 1721. Mercy and Marey are often confused. In most of the records pertaining to her she is "Mary".

By her second husband, Thomas Phillips, Mary (Eames) Sherman had, iii. Thomas Phillips, b. about 1727; m. 19 June 1755, Mary Hatch.

iv. Abiah Phillips, b. March 1729, d. 24 Jan. 1800; m. Benjamin Taylor, who d. 7 Aug. 1776, aged abt. 80.
v. Lydia Phillips, b. abt. 1731; m. 28 Nov. 1749, Zebulon Cary as a second wife.
vi. Mary Phillips, b. abt. 1733; m. 13 Jan. 1752, Ezra Warren.

viii. Deborah Phillips, bapt. 29 Oct. 1739; m. 20 Feb. 1766, Levi Wade of Pembroke.
ix. John Phillips, bapt. 13 Dec. 1741.

26. THANKFUL [4] SHERMAN (William [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 10 Apr. 1699, died there, 28 Sept. 1739. She married first in Marshfield, 3 Jan. 1722, Robert Atkins, birth and parents unknown,* died in Marshfield, 19 May 1724, in his thirty-fifth year. She married secondly in Marshfield, 26 May 1726, John Poland (Polden, Paulding), born in Plymouth, Mass., 20 Jan. 1702, death unknown, son of John and Lydia (Tilson) Polden.

Thankful (Sherman) (Atkins) Polden is buried in the old burial ground in Marshfield, probably by the side of her first husband, although no stone is erected to mark his grave. Neither is there any record of death for John Polden or any will or administration in Plymouth. It is probable that Robert died without children, but John and Thankful had at least the two recorded here.

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

i. Mary Polden, b. 2 June 1731.
ii. John Polden, b. 9 Mar. 1736–37.

27. SARAH [4] SHERMAN (William [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 8 May 1701, died there, 7 Aug. 1768, in her sixty-eighth year. She married in Marshfield, 6 Jan. 1725, Adam Hall, birth and death unknown.

Adam Hall is said to have been an emigrant from Scotland. He left no will and no administration was taken on his estate. He evidently died after Sarah, for she is called the "wife" of Adam Hall in the Church record of her death, while her gravestone, in the Old Burial Ground in Marshfield, calls her "Sarah, wife of Lieut Adam Hall."

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

i. William Hall, b. 11 Jan. 1726.
ii. Thomas Hall, b. 17 July 1728.
iii. Adam Hall, b. 21 Oct. 1729, d. 11 Oct. 1806, in 77th yr.; m. 7 Apr. 1752, Marshfield, Keziah Ford.

* According to Mr. Stanley W. Smith, who has made a very careful study of the Eastham and Sandwich Atkins families, he does not belong to either.

iv. Sarah Hall, b. 1732, d. 3 Apr. 1735, aged 3 yrs.
v. Joseph Hall, b. 6 Nov. 1733.
vi. Sarah Hall, b. 18 Sept. 1735.
vii. Jesse Hall, b. 27 Sept. 1737.
viii. Mercy Hall, b. 12 Sept. 1739.
ix. Levi Hall, b. 25 Oct. 1744.

28. RACHEL[4] SHERMAN (Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 29 Apr. 1702, died after 1754. She married in Marshfield, 9 Nov. 1726, Seth Joyce, born there, 26 July 1691, died there, 18 Sept. 1750, aged sixty years, son of Walter and Elizabeth (———) Joyce.

Administration on the estate of Seth Joyce of Marshfield, deceased, was granted to Rachel Joyce of Marshfield, widow, 5 Nov. 1750. His personal estate amounted to £1662, 10s., old tenour. The estate would not admit of division without injury so it was given to Seth Joyce, the eldest son, he to pay to his brothers and sisters (saving to his mother her right of dower), namely Jonathan, Isaac, and Elizabeth their shares and at his mother's death to make further payment to them, 5 Dec. 1754. (Plymouth Probate, 11: 465.)

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

i. David Joyce, b. 26 Nov. 1727, d. before 1750.
ii. Margaret Joyce, b. 14 Nov. 1729, d. 17 May 1750 in 21st yr.
iii. Seth Joyce, b. 19 Oct. 1731, drowned, 4 July 1788; m. Abigail ———, b. 1737, d. 10 Apr. 1790, in 53d yr.
iv. Jonathan Joyce, b. 11 Oct. 1733, m. 7 July 1761, Abigail Holmes.
v. Elizabeth Joyce, b. 22 Nov. 1735.
vi. Mark Joyce, b. 5 Oct. 1743 [sic], d. 13 Mar. 1745.
vii. Isaac Joyce, b. 22 Apr. 1744. [sic]

29. WILLIAM[4] SHERMAN (Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 27 Feb. 1704–05, died there between 9 Mar., and 10 Apr. 1786. He married in Marshfield, 21 Oct. 1731, Elizabeth Lapham, born in Marshfield, 13 Apr. 1708, died before 1786, daughter of Samuel and Hannah (Rogers) Lapham.

William Sherman was a farmer in Marshfield.

William Sherman of Marshfield, for £40, sold to Asa Thomas of Marshfield, land there, "which came unto me by my honoured uncle Mr John Decrow", 23 June 1761; witnesses, Abijah White, Eleanor Jones. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 47: 138.)

In July 1763, Kenelm Winslow obtained a judgement against William Sherman of Marshfield. (ibid., 48: 182.)

William Sherman died testate.

(Plymouth County Probate, 18198.)

Children, born in Marshfield, probably, not recorded:

55. i. JOSEPH [5], b. 1733; m. ALICE SHURTLEFF.
ii. BETSEY, b. about 1736, unmarried 1786.
iii. LYDIA, b. about 1739, unmarried 1786.
56. iv. ELEAZER, b. about 1742; m. LYDIA KELLEY, SUSANNA WYLIE, MARTHA REED.

v. HANNAH, b. about 1746; m. 3 Nov. 1769, Pembroke, Mass., DANIEL GARDNER, bapt, with Lydia, Calvin and Coe Gardner *, 1 Oct. 1758, Hanover, son of Daniel and Alice (Gardner) Gardner. Child (GARDNER), (1) Joseph, bapt. 9 Oct. 1774, Pembroke. No further record of Daniel and Hannah (Sherman) Gardner has been found, not even in the deed of sale of his father's property. They probably moved away.

vi. DESIRE, b. about 1750; m. 2 May 1774, Marshfield, THOMAS McDANIEL or McDONALD of Scituate, Mass. She married (2), 11 Mar. 1784, CALVIN GARDNER, brother of her sister Hannah's husband, Daniel Gardner. No children are recorded to them. Calvin does not appear in the Mass. Census of 1790, but it is probable that he was living in Pembroke, from this deed: Elsie † Garnet, widow, Calvin Garnet, Laban Garnet, Thomas Cook and his wife Mary, and Grace Garnet, all of Pembroke, laborers, sell to Nathan Dwelly, one acre of land with a dwelling house, which Daniel Garnet, late of said Pembroke, deceased, held by deed from Ichabod Bonney, 7 Apr. 1795. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 81: 22.)

vii. ABIGAIL, b. about 1753. An Abigail Sherman died in Marshfield, 9 Mar. 1841, aged 97, who is not otherwise accounted for.

30. ELIZABETH [4] SHERMAN (Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 27 Jan. 1706–07, died probably in Pembroke after 1779. She married in Marshfield, 18 July 1731, JOSEPH WITHERELL, born in Scituate, 5 June 1709, died about 1779, son of Samuel and Eunice (Rogers) Witherell.

Joseph Witherell settled in Pembroke. In 1761, he bought land there from John Fish. On 15 Feb. 1770, Joseph Witherell of Pembroke, yeoman, sold to Joshua Witherell, several tracts of land there. The witnesses, Amos Wetherell and Samuel Goold, swore in court, 2 July 1783, that they saw Joseph Wetherel, since deceased, sign the deed. On the same date, 15 Feb. 1770, Joseph also sold to Amos Witherell, land in "Marshfield Upper Lands", which deed was sworn to in 1783, by Joshua Witherell and Samuel Goold. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 51: 172, 62: 62.)

Administration on estate of Joseph Witherell late of Pembroke, deceased, was granted to Joseph Witherell, 28 July 1779.

The children of Joseph and Elizabeth (Sherman) Witherell are not recorded in Pembroke or Scituate but the deed following shows some of them;—

Whereas Mary Witherell, formerly of Pembroke but late of Kingston, singlewoman, deceased, died possessed of a certain wood-lot of land lying in the south easterly part of Pembroke, the same that she possessed from her Mother Elizabeth Witherell of said Pembroke, deceased, we, Eunice Holmes, wife of Tilden Holmes of Kingston, Desire Keen, widow, Joshua Witherell,

* This name is spelt Garnett, Garner, Gardner, etc.
† Elsie and Alice are used interchangeably in the early days.

Amos Witherell, and Joseph Witherell, yeomen, all of Pembroke, being the only and joint and equal heirs to the estate of the said Mary Witherell, deceased, divide the property, Aug. 1810. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 116: 137.)

Children, so far as known:

i. JOSEPH WITHERELL, b. probably about 1732. The death of a Joseph Witherell in Pembroke, 7 May 1818 aged "89", is given. The age is probably an exaggeration and the record of death is that of Joseph, son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Sherman) Wetherell.

ii. DESIRE WITHERELL, b. ———; m. 11 Jan. 1775, ASHUR KEENE, as his second wife; living a widow in 1810.

iii. EUNICE WITHERELL, b. prob. abt. 1739, d. 1767; m. 29 Jan. 1767, ICHABOD BEARSE, b. 23 Oct. 1744, d. 25 Feb. 1815, son of Thomas and Abigail (Tubbs) Bearse. He married (2), 10 Nov. 1768, Esther Holmes. Child (BEARSE), (1) Eunice, b. 6 July 1767; m. 4 Dec. 1791, Tilden Holmes, b. 28 Oct. 1766, son of Ephraim and Zeruiah (Bryant) Holmes.

iv. JOSHUA WITHERELL, b. abt. 1741, d. 28 Nov. 1812; m. 25 Dec. 1769, MARY STANDISH. Children (WITHERELL), (1) Joshua, b. 2 Apr. 1771; (2) Thomas, b. 2 Apr. 1774; (3) Mary, b. 16 Sept. 1776; (4) Joseph, b. 15 Jan. 1780.

v. MARY WITHERELL, b. 1742, d. 4 May 1810, aged 68 yrs.

vi. AMOS WITHERELL, b. abt. 1745, d. 8 Aug. 1823; m. 24 Dec. 1767, RUTH STETSON, b. 1747, d. 8 Jan. 1811, aged 64. Children (WITHERELL), (1) Rebecca, bapt. 2 Jan. 1769; (2) Ruth, bapt. 13 Apr. 1771; (3) Jabez, bapt. 26 Oct. 1771; (4) Amos, bapt. 9 Oct. 1774; (5) Ruth, bapt. 21 Feb. 1779; (6) Ebenezer, bapt. 28 Oct. 1781.

31. ABIGAIL[4] SHERMAN (Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 26 Dec. 1710, died after 1786. She married about 1733, CALEB CARVER, born in Marshfield, 5 Apr. 1715, died there in 1786, son of John and Mary (Rogers) Carver.

Administration on the estate of Caleb Carver, late of Marshfield, deceased, was granted to Abigail Carver, widow, and Thomas Joyce, yeoman, 1 Mar. 1786. The dower of Abigail was set off to her, 14 Mar. 1787. Joyce filed a second account 15 Mar. 1787 and a third, 6 Aug. 1794. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 27: 215, 30: 53, 103.)

i. CALEB CARVER, b. 26 Apr. 1734; m. 25 Mar. 1756, ABIGAIL DAMON. Children (CARVER), (1) Melzar, b. 15 Nov. 1756; (2) Ruth, b. 10 Oct. 1758; (3) Abigail, b. 5 Jan. 1764. Went to Vinal Haven, Maine.

ii. RUTH CARVER, b. 11 Oct. 1736, d. 11 Dec. 1738.

iii. JOHN CARVER, b. 19 Oct. 1738, d. July 1782; m. 8 Apr. 1762, LUCINDA THOMAS. Children (CARVER), (1) Persis, b. 5 June 1763; (2) John, b. 1 Mar. 1766; (3) Benjamin, bapt. 6 Aug. 1769; (4) Lucinda-T., bapt. 16 Aug. 1772.

iv. ISRAEL CARVER, b. 2 Nov. 1740; m. MARGARET SHERMAN.
v. STEPHEN CARVER, b. 2 Apr. 1743; m. 10 Dec. 1772, Marshfield, DEBORAH KENT; m. (2), (pub. 7 Mar. 1801) SARAH SAMPSON. Went to Vinal Haven, Maine.
vi. JOSEPH CARVER, b. 28 Apr. 1745, was drowned.
vii. CHARLES CARVER, b. 24 June 1746, died at sea.
viii. AMOS CARVER, b. 12 Nov. 1748; removed South when he married and died young.
ix. ABIGAIL CARVER, b. 26 Dec. 1751; m. 28 Aug. 1770, AMOS JONES of Scituate.

32. EBENEZER [4] SHERMAN (Ebenezer [3], William [2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., in 1713, died there, 14 Jan. 1786, in his seventy-fourth year. He married in Marshfield, 1 Jan. 1749, ELIZABETH WORMELL, born in Duxbury, Mass., 1 Nov. 1720, died in Marshfield, 20 May 1790, daughter of Ebenezer and Elizabeth (Briggs) Wormell, and granddaughter of Josiah and Patience [3] (Sherman) Wormell.

Ebenezer Sherman was a farmer in Marshfield. He appears in the deeds only three times. He made no will but it is evident from a deed from his daughter Huldah (Sherman) Jones and her husband, that he gave to his sons, Ebenezer and Ichabod, his real estate and that they gave to him a life lease which was never recorded. His son Ebenezer, Jr., lived for a few months only after the decease of his father. It is probable that Ebenezer, Jr., was intending to marry the widow Mercy (Joyce) Curtis, although she was some years older than he, and it may be that there was merely a close friendship between the Joyce and Sherman families. Ebenezer Sherman, Jr.'s estate was administered by Thomas Joyce, father of Mercy, and the account shows that he had given her some property. Later she bought rights in his estate and so was a party to the division of the estate in 1787.

The following deeds show proof of these statements:—

Ebenezer Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, sells, to Barnabas Fountain, a piece of land in Marshfield; Elizabeth Sherman releases her dower, 6 Mar. 1764. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 50: 156.)

Ebenezer Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, sells, to Robert Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, land there; Elizabeth Sherman releases her dower, 6 Mar. 1764; witnesses, Hulda Sherman, John Tilden. (ibid.)

Ebenezer Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, conveys to "son Ichabod Sherman" of Marshfield, one half his homestead farm and real estate, bounded on Elisha Sherman and others, 1 Feb. 1785; witnesses, Thomas Joyce, Elisha Eames. (ibid., 66: 224.)

"Ezekiel Jones of Scituate . . . yeoman and Huldah Jones his wife, In consideration of the Sum of fourteen Pounds to us in hand Paid by the Widow Mercy Curtis of Marshfield . . . have . . . Conveyed . . . unto her . . . all that our right title & Interest in and to one Quarter Part of all the real Estate which Eben^{r} Sharman Jun^{r} late of Said Marshfield yeoman Dec^{d} Died Seized off, lying in Marshfield aforesaid one quarter being what fell to us as heirs to Said Real Estate, Excepting and Reserving the Improvement of one half to our Hon^{d} Mother Elizabeth Sharman, agreeable to what was given her by our hon^{d} Father Eben^{r} Sharman in a Lease that his two Sons, namely, Ichabod Sharman & Eben^{r} Sharman Jun^{r} Gave to their Hon^{d} Father . . .", 26 May 1787; witnesses, Samuel Oakman, Deborah Oakman. (ibid., 67: 100.)

Ichabod Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, Deborah Sherman, Keziah Sherman, and Mercy Curtis, all of Marshfield, "Seemsters" being seized in fee of the real estate of Ebenezer Sherman Late of Marshfield, dec'd, namely the "homestead farm" and other pieces, divide the same, 31 Dec. 1787. (ibid., 75: 106.)

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

i. HULDA[5], b. 5 Nov. 1750, d. 24 Dec. 1793 in her 44th yr., Marshfield; m. EZEKIEL JONES, who appears in the Census of 1790 as living in Marshfield with one male above 16, two below 16 and four females in his family.

ii. DEBORAH, b. 11 Feb. 1752; m. 21 Feb. 1788, JOHN HYLAND, JR., of Scituate, who "for many years past Resided in the Town of Marshfield".

iii. KEZIAH, b. 9 Sept. 1755, d. unm. 30 Dec. 1845, aged 90 years. On 21 Dec. 1815, she deeded her share of her father, Ebenezer Sherman's estate to her nephew, Mark-J. Sherman, son of Ichabod, in return for life-care, the deed being witnessed by Joseph Clift, Jr., and Josiah-H. Sherman. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 100: 138.)

57. iv. ICHABOD, b. 21 Mar. 1758; m. SARAH JOYCE.

v. EBENEZER, b. 31 Dec. 1760, died 28 Aug. 1786. Administration on his estate was granted to Thomas Joyce, who gave bond with Jonathan Joyce * and Ichabod Sherman. The estate was appraised by Elisha Sherman, Timothy Williamson and Jonathan Joyce. In the inventory was listed "Sundry things of wearing apparel that he gave to the Widow marcy Curtis,† 4: 15: 4." (Plymouth Probate, 18104.)

33. ROBERT[4] SHERMAN (Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., about 1715, died in Islesboro, Maine, after 1783. He married in Marshfield, 23 Sept. 1740, MARY (OAKMAN)

* Jonathan Joyce was the father of Sarah, who married Ichabod Sherman.

† MERCY JOYCE, born about 1750, died 1828, Marshfield, daughter of Thomas Joyce, married 26 Nov. 1778, SAMUEL CURTIS, by whom she had, (1) Samuel, b. 30 July 1779, d. 21 Aug. 1879, aged one hundred years and twenty-two days; (2) Marcia Joyce, b. 7 May 178–[1], d. before 1804; m. 20 Nov. 1800, Elisha Sherman, son of Ebenezer and Mary (Simmons) Sherman; she left a son, Thomas-Joyce Sherman. Mercy (Joyce) Curtis never remarried after Samuel Curtis died, which was about 1782, and in Oct. 1809, her son, Samuel, deeded to her and to Thomas Joyce (probably her father) the use and improvement of the homestead farm where the said Samuel then lived, to be to Mercy for life after the death of the said Thomas Joyce. (125; 235.) The preceding August, Thomas Joyce had deeded to Samuel his homestead farm; witnesses, Joel and Hulda Hatch. (113:40). Mercy left a will in which she gave to her "beloved grandson, Thomas Joyce Sherman, one acre of Saltmarsh lying in said Marshfield and my best featherbed," residue to son, Samuel Curtis and he to be executor. There is a Curtis monument in the Plainville Cemetery in Marshfield, and among the items are "Mercy, mother of Samuel Curtis, 1750–1828", "Deacon Thomas Joyce, died 9 Oct. 1822 in 85th yr." If correct, this Thomas was probably not her father, as he would have been but 18 in 1750. (Inscriptions as copied in "The Mayflower Descendant," Vol. 14, pp. 49, 50.)

EAMES, born in Marshfield, 3 May 17—(probably 1710), died after 11 Apr. 1746, daughter of Tobias * and Elizabeth (Doty) Oakman. She married first about 1725, Jedediah Eames, born in Marshfield, 19 Apr. 1701, died between 1734 and 1740, son of Jonathan and Hannah (Trouant) Eames.

Caleb Carver of Marshfield, yeoman, conveyed to Robert Sherman of the same place, yeoman, land there, 12 Jan. 1759. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 45: 163.)

Robert Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, sells to Peter Thatcher Wales of Newport, R. I., Doctor, land in Marshfield, 9 May 1763, witnesses, John Tilden, Valentine Sherman. (ibid., 62: 82.)

Robert Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, conveys to Valentine Sherman of Marshfield, land there, 9 May 1783, witnesses, John Turner, J. P., Job Turner. (ibid., 62: 82.)

Apparently Robert Sherman had only three children. His only son Valentine settled in Islesboro, Maine, between 1784 and 1790.

In the settlement of Jedediah Eames' estate, which occurred 1 May 1744, after Mary had remarried, her dower rights were set off to his widow Mary Sherman. (Plymouth Probate, 9: 291.)

Robert Sherman died when on a visit to his son Valentine in Islesboro, Maine. He left no will and no administration was taken on his estate.

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

58. i. SARAH [5], b. 3 Apr. 1741; m. DANIEL LAPHAM.
59. ii. VALENTINE, b. 4 Oct. 1743; m. SUSAN HARNEY.
60. iii. BETTY-DOTY, b. 11 Apr. 1746; m. ERASTUS RICHARDS.

By her first husband, Jedediah Eames, Mary Oakman had—

i. MARY EAMES, b. 17 Nov. 1726.
ii. JEDEDIAH EAMES, b. 23 Apr. 1729.
iii. PENELOPE EAMES, b. 17 Apr. 1731.
iv. JANE EAMES, b. 20 Oct. 1734.

34. JOHN [4] SHERMAN (Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., in 1719, died there, 6 Nov. 1780, in his sixty-second year. He married first, in Marshfield, 3 Dec. 1745, MERCY LUCAS,† who died before 1763. He married secondly in Marshfield, 2 Apr. 1763, LUSEHANNAH ROGERS, born there, in 1729, died there, 4 Nov. 1780 in her fifty-second year, daughter of Joseph and Judith (———) Rogers.

John Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, sells to Elisha Sherman, of Marshfield, a piece of salt marsh in Marshfield which fell to him in the division of meadow between him and his brothers by deed of division dated 26 May 1760, excepting the use which mother Bathsheba Sherman has for life, 1 Apr. 1768. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 54: 135.)

* Tobias Oakman in his will, made 21 Mar. 1745, proved 21 Mar. 1750, gave to his daughter "Mary Shairman" and to his "Grand Son Jeddediah Eames." (Plymouth Probate.)

† Nothing has been found to show the parentage of Mercy Lucas.

John Sherman, yeoman, and Lusanna Sherman, spinster, both of Marshfield, sell, to Elisha Sherman of same, ten acres of meadow, lying in Marshfield, part of the farm that belonged to Joseph Rogers, deceased, 24 June 1776. (ibid., 58: 29.)

John Lapham of Pembroke, yeoman, Joseph Lapham of Marshfield, laborer, sell to John Sherman of Marshfield, laborer, land there; 21 Dec. 1778; witnesses, King Lapham, Samuel Oakman, Mercy Oakman. (ibid., 63: 148.)

Lusehannah Rogers is called Lusannah and Lucy and in some copied records even appears as Susanna. The records of the second Church in Marshfield contain this item: Lusanna, daughter of Joseph Rogers and her son Lemuel were baptised 18 Sept. 1757.

John Sherman left the following will:

"In the name of God Amen I John Shearman of Marshfield . . . yeoman Being of a sound mind Praised be God thair for But under In firmity of Bodey . . . make . . . this my last will and Testimoney ——— Jabez Washburn, Jr., was a farmer. The death of both himself and his wife at an early age left their children all minors.

Administration on the estate of Jabez Washburn Jun[r], Late of Kingston, dec'd, yeoman, was granted to Ebenezer Washburn, 4 Dec. 1775. (Plymouth Probate, 23: 74.)

His inventory, taken at Kingston, 27 Dec. 1775, amounted to, personal, £118:17:4, real, £209:18:10. (ibid., 26: 103.)

Elisha Washburn was appointed guardian of "Jabez Washburn, a minor under the age of fourteen years, son of Jabez Washburn Jun[r] Late of s[d] Kingston, yeoman, Deceas[d]", 4 Dec. 1780. (ibid., 26: 103.) He was appointed guardian also to Lucy, under fourteen, and Abiel, under fourteen.

John Washburn of Kingston, minor above 14, son of Jabez Washburn, jun[r], chose John Faunce as his guardian, 4 Dec. 1780. Bildad Washburn, his brother, also chose John Faunce for guardian the same day. (ibid., 26: 380.)

On Nov. 13, 1780, at Bridgewater, Judith Washburn, no parents given, chose Mr. John Faunce as her guardian. (ibid., 26: 405.)

It was shown that the estate of Jabez Washburn, Jr., was not capable of division without prejudice so it was settled upon Elisha the eldest son, he paying to his brothers and sisters, Bildad, John, Judith, Lucy, Jabez, and Abiel, 6 Jan. 1783. (ibid., 28: 526.)

40. SIMEON [4] SHERMAN (William [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 28 July 1737, death unknown. He married 6

Aug. 1761, DELIVERANCE GRIFFITH, born in Rochester, 19 June 1740, death unknown, daughter of Aaron * and Elizabeth (Hiller) Griffith.

No further record of Simeon, excepting the birth of his first child, has been found. It is probable that he continued to live in Rochester until after the Revolution when he may have gone out of the state. He, or his son Abishai, do not appear in the census of 1790, in any of the New England states nor in New York.†

Child, born in Rochester, Mass.:

i. ABISHAI, b. 29 Dec. 1761. An Abishai served in the Revolution from Rochester. "Sherman, Abishai, Private, Capt. Charles Church's company, 4th Plymouth Co., regiment, commanded by Lt. Col. White, entered service July 30, 1780, discharged 8 Aug. 1780, service 9 days at Rhode Island on an alarm. Roll certified at Rochester." There was an Abishai of Dartmouth who also served in the war and who was bapt. in Rochester church, 18 June 1780, aged about 48, hence b. about 1732. He had several children baptised in Rochester 9 July 1780, and others later. He went to New Bedford and was living there in 1790. The service quoted may have been his, if so Simeon may have left Rochester soon after 1761.

41. WILLIAM [4] SHERMAN (William [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 17 Mar. 1738–39, died there, 28 June 1822, aged eighty-four years, three months, and eleven days. He married in Rochester, 11 Sept. 1766, HANNAH STEWART, born in Hardwick, Mass., 20 June 1747, died in Rochester, after 1820, daughter of Daniel and Prudence (———) Stewart.

William Sherman was a mariner in his youth. About 1771, he left Rochester apparently not returning until 1777. He is called "Jr." in his marriage record, "3d" in early deeds and after the death of William, his father, he is called "2nd." In 1771 there were at least four Williams in Rochester, William [3] (1699–after 1780), father of this William; William [4] (1726–1800), son of John [3]; this William [4] (1739–1822); and William [5] (1748–1814) son of John [4]. At this time William [3] is called simply William Sherman or William, Senior; William [4], son of John, was William Jr., or 2nd; this above William [4] was William, 3rd, and William [5] was William, 4th, the last being married under that appellation in 1776. When William [3] died they all changed their distinguishing number, this William becoming William, 2nd., or Jr., and in 1800, when William [4], John's son, died, he became William, Sr., or just William without any distinguishing suffix. In the meantime his son William [5] (1785–1870), became known as William, 3rd. Fortunately the deeds help to straighten them out.

* Aaron Griffith's death is not recorded in Rochester or Carver, he left no will and there was no administration taken on his estate. He possibly also left Rochester.

† A Simon Sherman is listed in the census of 1790 for Northumberland Co., Pa., with one male above 16, three below, and five females as his family.

Just where William was in 1771–77 has not been found. He may have gone on a long voyage or been shipwrecked but the probability is that he was in some other town. If he had children during that time nothing has been found to indicate them and unfortunately he left no will. He returned to Rochester about 1777, becoming a farmer and spending the rest of his life there. Although there were two William Shermans who served in the Revolution being on the Lexington Alarm Roll of 19 April 1775 in different companies, the service cannot be claimed for this man as he apparently was absent from Rochester at the time. The two who served were probably William [4] (1726–1800) and William [5] (1748–1814).

Christopher Hussey and Joseph Hussey of Sherburn, Nantucket, and Sylvanus Hussey of Lynn, merchant, obtained a judgement against William Sherman, 3rd, of Rochester, mariner, 15 Oct. 1770; 210 acres of orcharding, timber land, etc., set off to them with exception of one acre belonging to the heirs of Benjamin Hiller, bounded on said Sherman and Benjamin Dexter. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 56: 116.)

James Blankinship of Rochester, yeoman, obtained judgement against William Sherman junr., (sic) late of Rochester, aforesaid, mariner, in 1771. On 28 Sept. 1771, his dwelling house and land were levied on to satisfy the judgement. (ibid., 56: 126.)

James Blankinship of Rochester sells to William Sherman 2nd of Rochester, yeoman, house and about five acres of land in Rochester being the same set off to Blankinship to satisfy a judgement obtained by him against said Sherman. (ibid., 93: 199.) (This is after his father's death.)

John Randall and David Randall of Rochester, yeomen, sell to William Sherman, 3rd, land in Rochester, 8 March 1780. (Recorded with other deed. (ibid., 93: 199.) This was before his father's death.)

Nathaniel Haskell of Rochester deeds, to William Sherman, 2d of Rochester, land there, 1 June 1792. (ibid., 93: 200.)

Nathaniel Ruggles, for Zephaniah Briggs, late of Northborough deceased, deeds, to William Sherman, 2d, of Rochester, land in Rochester, 1 Dec. 1792. (ibid., 111: 157.)

Nathaniel Haskell, of Rochester deeds, to William Sherman of Rochester, land there, 8 Feb. 1797. (ibid., 98: 136.)

William Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, sells, to William Sherman, the 3rd, of Rochester, labourer, land situated in Rochester, part of his homestead farm, bounded on Elijah Dexter and his own land, 10 Mar. 1809, witnesses, Noah-F. Willis, Nathan Willis. (ibid., 131: 59.)

William Sherman and William Sherman, 3d, both of Rochester, mortgage to Nathan Willis of Pittsfield, Esq., land in Rochester, being the farm where we now reside, bounded on Elijah Dexter, Noah Dexter, Elisha Ruggles and Lot Haskell, sixty acres, 24 Dec. 1813; witnesses, Susan Sherman, Elkanah Sherman. (ibid., 125: 5.)

Nathan Willis of Pittsfield conveys to William Sherman and William Sherman, Jr., both of Rochester, his right to land and buildings in Rochester which they had mortgaged to him; 26 June 1815; witness, Thomas Sherman. (ibid., 128: 239.)

William Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, sells, to George-B. Nye of Rochester, gentleman, land in Rochester, bounded by road leading to Deacon Elijah Dexter to Parlow, Charles Hammond, land sold by Noah Dexter to William Rotch, and land formerly owned by Silvanus Hammond, with all privileges except dwelling house thereon, situated and in which I now live, 27 Mar. 1818; witnesses, Thomas Parlow, Charles-I. Holmes. (ibid., 133: 138.)

William Sherman of Rochester sells, to Micah-H. Ruggles of Rochester, Esq., land there, that he holds by deed from Nathaniel Ruggles, Esq., bounded on dwelling house, except part sold to son William Sherman and land north of Charles Hammond, about 400 acres, 10 Sept. 1819. (Plymouth Co., Deeds.)

William Sherman appears in the Census of 1790 with two males above sixteen (himself and Zephaniah *), four below (Thomas, Daniel, William, and Elkanah), and three females (wife Hannah, Eleanor and Sarah). Prudence evidently was married. In 1800, his family consisted of himself and wife over forty-five, a son (Daniel) and a daughter (Sarah) between sixteen and twenty-six, and two sons (William and Elkanah) between ten and sixteen. In 1810, he and his wife were living with a son between twenty-six and forty-five (Thomas, whose wife and children were deceased), in 1820, he and his wife were living alone in Rochester, while neither of them appear in the next census.

William left no will and no administration was taken on his estate in Plymouth County.

He appears in the census of 1810 in Rochester as a male between 16 and 26 yrs., with a female, also between 16 and 26, that is his wife. With his wife Susan, he witnesses a deed of William Sherman's in 1813, but does not appear in the census of 1820. It is probable that they had removed elsewhere.

42. BETHIA [4] SHERMAN (William [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., May 1741, died in Rochester, 8 Oct. 1814, in her seventy-third year. She married (published in Rochester, 21 June

* Zephaniah Sherman bought up the rights of the other Shermans and sold them in 1802. In 1804, he sold a piece of property in Rochester and then disappears from all the records. He probably left Massachusetts. (See Plymouth Co., Deeds, 78: 156, 93: 201, 101: 170.)

1772), ASAHEL COWING, born there, 17 Mar. 1741–42, died there, 9 Jan. 1814, aged seventy-two years, son of Joshua and Sarah (Petty) Cowing.

Asahel Cowing was a farmer in Rochester. He appears in the deeds with his brother Zadock.

Zadock Cowing and Asahel Cowing, both of Rochester, sell to Nathan Winslow of Rochester, gentleman, land in Rochester which they hold by deed from "our Honoured father Joshua Cowing, Late of said Rochester, decd," 10 Dec. 1791, signed Zadock Cowing, Deborah Cowing, Asahel Cowing, Bethia Cowing.

There are other deeds of like tenor but none that adds any genealogical information.

Asahel Cowing left no will nor was any administration taken on his estate in Plymouth County.

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

Y., makes Isaac Vincent of New Bedford his attorney to handle all his land in Rochester formerly belonging to father Benjamin Bowles except house which I conveyed to my said father and which he still occupies. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 111: 88.) In 1817, Hannah Bowles of Rochester, widow Woman, sold to Joshua Vincent of Fairhaven, land and buildings in Rochester, referring to the deed her husband, "Rheuben Bowles deceased," gave the said Joshua Vincent on 2 December 1809. (ibid., 133: 112.) No children of Reuben and Hannah (Cowing) Bowles or Bolles are recorded in Rochester.

43. RICHARD [4] SHERMAN (William [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 15 May 1761, died there, 10 Nov. 1845, aged eighty-four years, six months, and five days. He married in Rochester, 8 Dec. 1785, HANNAH ELDRIDGE, born in "Fairhaven" * between 1760 and 1765, died in Rochester, between 1830–1840, parents not found.

Richard Sherman was a farmer in Rochester all his long life. He served in the Revolution.

Richard Sherman, Private, Capt. Nathaniel Hammond's company, Col. John Dagget's regiment; entered service 25 Aug. 1778, discharged 1 Sept. 1778; service eight days; company detached from militia for service on expedition to Rhode Island. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, xiv: 149.)

Richard Sherman, Private, Capt. Samuel Briggs's company, Fourth Plymouth County regiment, commanded by Lieut. Col. White; entered service, 30 July, 1780, discharged, 8 Aug. 1780, service, 9 days, at Rhode Island on an alarm. Roll dated Rochester. (ibid., xiv: 144.)

He appears in the following land records:

Zacheus Mead and Enoch Hammond, both of Rochester, sell, to Richard Sherman of Rochester, land in Perry's Plain, 25 Dec. 1782. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 97: 136.)

Zacheus Mead and Enoch Hammond, both of Rochester, sell, to David Hiller and Richard Sherman, both of same, land there, 24 Jan. 1794. (ibid., 93: 20.)

Richard Sherman and David Hiller exchange land in Rochester, 9 May 1797, and on the same date, Richard deeds land to Isaac Hiller. (ibid., 93: 83, 97: 137, 99: 72.)

Richard Sherman of Rochester sells, to Moses Hiller of same place, land in Rochester; Hannah, wife of Richard, releases her dower, 21 Dec. 1813. Humphrey Sherman witnesses. (ibid., 122: 211.)

Richard Sherman of Rochester sells, to Isaac Hathaway of same, land there, Hannah releases her dower and Humphrey Sherman witnesses, 22 Dec. 1813. (ibid., 143: 211.)

Richard Sherman of Rochester sells to David Hiller of same, land there; Hannah releases her dower, 7 Mar. 1814. (ibid., 124: 145.)

Richard Sherman of Rochester sells to John A. LeBaron of same, land there; Hannah releases her dower, 4 Oct. 1820. (ibid., 151: 81.)

The children of Richard Sherman are not recorded, but an old account of the family gives the names of his children as being those following. The Census reports of 1800, 1810, 1830, and 1840 have been used to estimate the possible order. In 1830, Richard had a family consisting of himself and wife, aged between 60–70, a son and a daugher born between 1820–1830, and two daughters born between 1810 and 1815. In 1840, he, aged between 70–80, was living with a male, presumably a son, aged between 30–40.

* According to death record of her son, Humphrey. Fairhaven at time of her birth was a part of Dartmouth.

44. GERSHOM [4] SHERMAN (Gershom [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 8 Oct. 1744, died after 1790 and before 1808. He married in Marshfield, 27 July 1779, ELIZABETH HOWLAND, born in Marshfield, 5 Oct. 1755, died after 1808, daughter of Arthur and Jerusha (Ford) Howland.

Gershom Sherman was an infant when his father died. When he became of age, his sister Sarah, who had married Thomas Osborn of Marshfield, conveyed to him her share of their father's property. Gershom appears in the Census of 1790, living next to his mother Sarah Sherman, and having a family of one male above sixteen, four males below sixteen and three females.

Gershom Sherman served in the Revolutionary War. He was a private in Capt. Joseph Clift's company, Col. Josiah Whitney's regi-

* The Plympton records give the birth of Jeremiah-T. Cushing on the above date; the Rochester records give it as 6 Aug. 1811; the census of 1850 gives his age as 37 yrs., making him born in 1813. The deaths of Mary-Ann and Jeremiah were not found in the State vital records. The family as given in the census of 1850 is most peculiar as in the middle of the enrolment, the enumerator turned over the page and began the list on that page with George Cushman, etc., instead of Cushing. Also the head of the family is given as Sylvena Winslow aged 76, then Jeremiah-T. Cushing, a laborer, and his wife and children. He was probably farming the land for Mrs. Winslow, she being the widow of Capt. Lemuel Winslow, son of John and Bethia (Sherman) Winslow, her maiden name being Sylvina Nye.

ment; marched 29 July 1778, discharged, 13 Sept. 1778, service, one month and nineteen days; company raised in Plymouth county and marched to Rhode Island. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, xiv: 147.)

No administration was taken on the estate of Gershom Sherman and he left no will. Samuel Holmes, and his wife Elizabeth Holmes of Marshfield, conveyed to Gershom Sherman of Marshfield, all their right to real estate that Gershom Sherman, (father of Elizabeth Holmes), Late of Marshfield, died seized of, excepting the right of dower of Elizabeth Sherman, widow of said deceased, 7 Nov. 1808. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 110: 111.)

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

46. ALICE [4] SHERMAN (John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 29 July 1719, died in Barre, Mass., in 1801. She married in Rochester, 25 June 1738, SAMUEL RUGGLES, born there, 5 July 1715, died in Barre, June 1802, aged nearly eighty-seven years, son of Rev. Timothy and Mary Ruggles.

Samuel Ruggles lived in Rochester for about fifteen years after his marriage, when he removed to Barre, Mass., leaving his son Timothy with his father in Rochester. Timothy, father of Samuel Ruggles, left in his will in 1768, a legacy to his "grandson Timothy who now lives with me."

Samuel Ruggles of Rochester, nailer, sells to Timothy Ruggles, clerk, salt meadow in Rochester, 16 July 1744. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 39: 167.)

Samuel Ruggles of Rochester, shopkeeper, sells to George Nye and Ichabod Nye, both of Rochester, yeoman, eighty acres of upland and salt marsh which he bought of William Davenport and Sarah, his wife, of Perquage, Dutchess Co., N. Y., on 18 Nov. 1752. Samuel and Alice, his wife, sign the deed, 15 Aug. 1753, and Alice acknowledges it in release of dower, 21 Jan. 1754. (ibid., 42: 190.)

i. SARAH RUGGLES, b. 27 Apr. 1739.

47. JOHN[4] SHERMAN (John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 27 July 1721, died there, 5 Nov. 1802. He married first in Rochester, 15 Mar. 1743–44, DEBORAH WINSLOW, born in Rochester, 8 Feb. 1724, died there in April 1755, daughter of Deacon John and Bethia (Andrews) Winslow. He married secondly in Sandwich, Mass., 31 Oct. 1755, MERCY BUMPAS,* who died after 1790.

John Sherman with his brothers, William and Samuel, received the homestead from their father. When he first appears in the land records he is called John Sherman, Jr., and later, 3rd, because of the presence in Rochester of a John Sherman of the Dartmouth family who moved into Rochester about 1742, and is called John 2nd. Still later about 1773, he became John "2nd". There are many records of the different Johns in Rochester and it is almost impossible to place all of them. This John Sherman was a farmer.

Joshua Whitcomb of Rochester, for £133: 6: 8 conveys to John Sherman, Jr., William Sherman, Jr., and Samuel Sherman, brethren, all of Rochester, in equal parts, dwelling house and homestead in Rochester which honoured father, Robert Whitcomb, bought, 12 Apr. 1724, of Nicholas Davis, late of Rochester, Deceased, Meriah Whitcomb signs with Joshua, 28 May 1759 and "Joanna Whitcomb who has a Right of Dower in the Lands &c abovesold also gives up the same to said Shermans &c as said meriah does the same day. witness her hand and seal Joanna Whitcomb". (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 50: 234.)

* Mercy Bumpas is called "of Sandwich" in her marriage record in Rochester but her birth is not recorded in Sandwich. She may have been born there or in Wareham or Rochester. Work in Plymouth or Barnstable County records might show her parentage.

Charles Sturtevant of Rochester and Elizabeth, his wife, and Loruhannah Bourn of Rochester, singlewoman, for seventeen dollars, (? Spanish Milled) paid by John Sherman (son of John Sherman) of Rochester, yeoman, convey to the said John Sherman a parcel of fresh meadow, lying between the west side of Mattapoiset River and the said John's homestead and being part of the fresh meadow that was assigned to our honoured Father and Mother, John and Elizabeth Bourn, in their lifetime as part of their inheritance in the division of the estate of John Arnold, 4 Dec. 1759. (ibid., 50: 234.) These two deeds recorded together, 26 Oct. 1765, as also several others, see later.

John Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, conveys, to John Winslow of Rochester, gentleman, land there, a salt meadow, 3 Mar. 1764. (ibid., 52: 83.)

James Dexter of Rochester, yeoman, conveys, to John Sherman (son of John Sherman) of Rochester, yeoman, a fresh meadow in Rochester between the homestead of the said John Sherman and the Mattapoisett River, 13 Mar. 1764. Recorded, 26 Oct. 1765. (ibid., 50: 235.)

John Winslow of Rochester, gentleman, conveys, to John Sherman, the 3rd and William Sherman, the 2nd, both of Rochester, yeomen, land in Rochester, 21 Oct. 1765. Recorded, 26 Oct. 1765. (ibid., 50: 234.)

John Winslow of Rochester, gentleman, conveys, to John Sherman, the 3rd of that name in Rochester, land there "that I have and do own westward of the now dwelling house of M^{r} Timothy Stevens," 29 Feb. 1764. Recorded, 26 Oct. 1765. (ibid., 50: 233.)

John Sherman the third of that name in Rochester, yeoman, conveys, to John Winslow of Rochester, land there, 16 Jan. 1767. (ibid., 53: 218.)

John Sherman, Jr., of Rochester, deeds, to William Sherman, Jr., of Rochester, his share of the land that John, William, and Samuel Sherman bought of Joshua Whitcomb, 7 Apr. 1777. (ibid., 59: 17.)

John Winslow of Rochester, gentleman, mortgages, to John Sherman the second, of Rochester, yeoman, the corn mill called Winslow's Mill, standing near the now dwelling house of the said Winslow, and which he holds by deed from John Rider, 4 Mar. 1773. (ibid., 57: 256.)

John Winslow of Rochester, gentleman, mortgages, to John Sherman, the 2nd, part of the homestead estate, 25 Feb. 1774. (ibid., 57: 256.)

Nathan Holloway of Rochester deeds to John Sherman, the 2nd, of Rochester, yeoman, land conveyed to said Holloway by John Winslow and Bethia his wife, 12 June 1775. (ibid., 59: 17.)

John Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, conveys to Stephen Cushing of Rochester, land there, 25 Sept. 1777. (ibid., 85: 102.)

Seth Dexter of Rochester, administrator of John Winslow of Rochester, who has offered for sale two-thirds the homestead of the said John, and since Edward Winslow, gentleman, appearing for Gamaliel Bryant of Dartmouth, house-joiner, has offered £300 for part of said farm, conveys to Gamaliel Bryant, a part of the estate of the said John Winslow deceased, excepting what was set off to widow Bethia Winslow as her dower and excluding nine acres sold to Nathan Holloway and now owned by John Sherman, 29 May 1777. (ibid., 59: 144.) This John Winslow was brother-in-law of John Sherman through his marriage to Bethia Sherman.

John Sherman of Rochester sells to Gideon Barstow of Rochester, land there, 25 Sept. 1777. (ibid., 60: 160.)

cian, Edward Morse, yeoman, Salathiel Bumpas, innholder, all of Rochester, a committee to sell land in Rochester and Wareham, known as the Ministry share, sell to John Sherman the 2nd of Rochester, yeoman, a salt marsh etc., 22 July 1771. (ibid., 59: 132.)

John Sherman the 2nd of Rochester, yeoman, conveys to Earl Clapp of Rochester, gentleman, salt marsh etc., there, 6 Oct. 1777. (ibid., 59: 132.)

Lot 26, one-half owned by Lemuel Church of Rochester, deceased, and one-half owned by John Sherman the 2nd, William Sherman the 2nd, and Samuel Sherman, all of Rochester, yeomen, was divided 14 June 1774, Bethiah Church * of Rochester, widow of said Lemuel acting in behalf of herself and her minor children, Lemuel Church and Jonathan Church, sons of aforesaid Lemuel. (ibid., 124: 79.)

Charles Stetson, shipbuilder, of Rochester, conveys to John Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, land there, bounded on land that was Mary Dexter's; Barshaba, wife of Charles, releases her dower, 30 Jan. 1767. (ibid., 52: 266.) This deed may belong to this John, but the land was in the vicinity of Mary Dexter's property which suggests that it might belong to John, son of William and Mary (Dexter) Sherman.

John Sherman appears in the census of 1790 as of Rochester, Mass., with one male above sixteen [himself] and two females [his wife and daughter Deborah] in his family.

John Sherman died before 1806 for in that year his son, Joshua Sherman, sold land that belonged to John Sherman, deceased. A descendant furnished the date of death given which is not in the vital records. He left no will and apparently no administration was taken on his estate.

By first wife, Deborah Winslow,

i. JOHN [5], b. 26 Apr. 1746. A mss. genealogy of some of this family gives his date of death as 23 Dec. 1819. He may have married ANNE NICKERSON but there are so many John Shermans at the time and nothing distinguishes one from the other. It is more probable that Anne Nickerson married John, son of William and Mary (Dexter) Sherman.

86. ii. WILLIAM, b. 4 July 1748; m. HANNAH STETSON.

iii. SAMUEL, b. 18 Aug. 1750, prob. m. ALICE ———. A Samuel Sherman over 45, with his wife and family was in Easton, N. Y., in 1810, where cousins of this Samuel Sherman had settled.

87. iv. BETHIA, b. 1 Jan. 1753; m. CORNELIUS CLARK, JR.

88. v. NATHANIEL, b. 24 Apr. 1755; m. ABIGAIL HASKELL.

By second wife, Mercy Bumpas,

89. vi. THOMAS, b. 26 Sept. 1756; m. SARAH WINSLOW and DEBORAH WINSLOW.

90. vii. MICAH, b. 3 Mar. 1758; m. LYDIA HIGGINS.

91. viii. JOSHUA, b. 2 Apr. 1760; m. SARAH POPE.

* Bethiah, widow of Lemuel Church, was Bethiah Clapp, sister of Earl Clapp and daughter of Ebenezer and Mary (Winslow) Clapp. Lemuel Church died, 22 Feb. 1772.

ix. DEBORAH, b. 10 Feb. 1763; m. (pub. 1 Feb. 1807), EBENEZER KEENE, apparently a second wife.

x. MERCY, b. 19 Feb. 1765, d. 11 Mar. 1793, in 29th yr., Tisbury, Mass.; m. 23 Mar. 1786, ELISHA BASSETT, b. 11 Feb. 1760, Tisbury, d. prob. in Indiana. He m. Child (BASSETT), Peggy, b. prob. abt. 1787; m. 14 Nov. 1802, Zachariah Haskell.*

48. BETHIA [4] SHERMAN (John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 26 Jan. 1724, died after 1788 and probably before 1805. She married in Rochester, 28 Nov. 1745, LIEUT. JOHN WINSLOW, born in Rochester, 31 Oct. 1722, died there in 1775† in his fifty-third year, son of Deacon John and Bethia (Andrews) Winslow.

John Winslow evidently owned a grist-mill with his brother-in-law, John Sherman, and others. He was a gentleman farmer and lieutenant of the military company of Rochester. He died intestate.

Seth Dexter of Rochester, yeoman, was appointed administrator of the estate of John Winslow, late of Rochester, gentleman, deceased, giving bonds in Court with Gershom Morse of Wareham and James LeBaron of Middleborough, yeomen, 18 May 1775.

Dower in the estate of John Winslow, gentleman, late of Rochester, deceased, was set off to the widow Bethia Winslow, 27 May 1776. Although some of the children were minors, no guardians were appointed. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 23197.)

Seth Dexter, gentleman, of Rochester, administrator of estate of John Winslow, late of said Rochester, deceased, conveys to his sons Lemuel and Micah Winslow, part of the real estate of their father. "I Bethiah Winslow of Rochester in the County of Plymouth widow & Relict of the Abovesaid John Winslow Deceased In consideration of the Natural Love & affection that I have & bare unto My Sons Lemuel Winslow & Micah Winslow & other Good Causes & Considerations me thereunto moving do . . . convey unto them . . . all my Right of Dower . . . as written & Discribed in the above Deed . . ." 6 Feb. 1788. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 79: 88.)

Lemuel and Micah Winslow divide the property 25 Jan. 1805, mentioning in the bounds, Joshua Sherman. The clause following is crossed out before signing, "and the fresh meadow formerly their mother's thirds." (ibid., 171: 177.)

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

i. STEPHEN WINSLOW, b. 21 Aug. 1747; m. (pub., 2 June 1772) ELIZABETH WEST.

ii. BETHIA WINSLOW, b. 23 Feb. 1748–49, d. 15 Mar. 1825, Tolland, Conn.; m. 15 Apr. 1770, Rochester, INCREASE CLAPP, b. 27 Feb. 1740, Rochester, d. 24 May 1801, Tolland, Conn. Children

* From private records; this has not been substantiated by compiler.

† The published Vital Records of Rochester, give the death of Lieut. John in 1763 in 53d yr. This would make him born in 1710 and no John Winslow is of record as born in that year. The administration of Lieut. John shows that he died about May 1775 when he would be in his fifty-third year. The published record is labelled "worn" so it is evidently a misreading of an almost illegible record.

49. WILLIAM [4] SHERMAN (John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 11 Jan. 1725–26, died there, 3 Mar. 1800, "in his seventy-fourth year." He married in Rochester, or Sandwich, Mass. 4 June 1752, Abigail Handy, born in Sandwich, 13 Feb. 1732–33, died between March 1809 and March 1810, daughter of Cornelius and Abigail (Saunders) Handy.

William Sherman and his brothers, John and Samuel, inherited their father's homestead and he joins with them (see under John [4]) in dividing the land. He became a farmer, settling on the land thus acquired by him. He is called, William Sherman, "jr.", or "2nd", because of the presence in Rochester of that elder William Sherman, who married Mary Dexter.

William Sherman responded to the Lexington Alarm in 1775.

William Sherman, Rochester, Private, Capt. Nathaniel Hammond's (2nd Rochester) company of militia, which marched April 20, 1775, in response to the alarm of April 19, 1775, to Marshfield, service four days. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, xiv: 146.)

The Census of 1790, gives a William Sherman with a family consisting of three males above sixteen, one below, five females, and one "other person", evidently this William Sherman.

John Sherman, Jr., and William Sherman, Jr., both of Rochester, convey to Samuel Sherman, one-third part of the land deeded to them by John Winslow, gentlemen, of Rochester, 25 Oct. 1765. Signed by John Sherman, 3rd, and William Sherman, 2nd. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 54: 182.)

John Sherman, Jr., and William Sherman, Jr., both of Rochester, yeomen, owning together a tract of unimproved land, undivided, being part of a tract of land that John, William, and Samuel Sherman, bought of Joshua Whitcomb, bounded on the homestead of honoured father, John Sherman; on Dartmouth line; on land of said William Sherman, divide the said land, 24 Dec. 1766. Signed by John Sherman, 3rd, William Sherman, 2nd. (ibid., 54: 182.)

William Sherman of Rochester, husbandman, sells to Jonathan Delano of Rochester, land there, the same lot that Ichabod Smith * gave by will to William Sherman and Jabez Sherman; Abigail, wife of William, releases her dower, 25 July 1795; witnesses, Cornelius and Lemuel Sherman. (ibid., 78: 22.)

William Sherman left no will and no administration on his estate is to be found in Plymouth County. After his death the following deeds were passed by his heirs:

Jabez Sherman, Jonathan Sherman, and William Sherman, all of Easton, Washington Co., N. Y., Abraham Tabor of Chester and Sally his wife, William Daily of Chester and Alice his wife, all of York State, Edmund Snow of New York City and Abigail his wife, Cornelius Sherman, yeoman, Zebulon Haskell, yeoman and Sukey his wife, Keziah Sherman and Jenney Sherman, single-women, all of Rochester, sell to Lemuel Sherman of Rochester, all right in the estate of honored father, William Sherman, late of Pembroke,† deceased, 16 May 1800; witnesses, Joshua Sherman, Benjamin Winslow, Resolved Sherman, Ezekiel Ellis, Heman Sherman. (ibid., 102: 221.)

Lemuel Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, sells to Isaac Vincent of New Bedford, yeoman, all land and buildings in Rochester, of which my honored father, William Sherman, late of Rochester, died possessed, 10 Apr. 1807. (ibid., 102: 221.)

ix. KEZIAH, bapt. 11 Aug. 1771, unmarried in 1813.
x. JANE, bapt. 13 Mar. 1774, unmarried in 1813.
98. xi. LEMUEL, bapt. 25 Aug. 1778; m. LURANA MACOMBER.

* Ichabod Smith of Rochester, made Will, 22 Jan. 1785, proved, 2 May 1785; he gave to Mehetabel his wife, all personal estate, except his wearing apparel; to sister, Desire Lawrence or her daughter, Sarah Edey; homestead to be divided and one-third given to "my Sister Mary daughter Martha daughter Sarah", two-thirds to "Sister Mary Daughter Mary daughter Elizabeth", a piece of woodland to William Sherman and Jabez Sherman, both of Rochester; to "sister Mary Daughter Mary daughter Elizabeth", all wearing apparel; Nathaniel Morton to be executor; witnesses, Lemuel Winslow, Sherman Lincoln, Micah Winslow. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 29: 283.) The widow, Mehitabel, sister of ——— Morton, died 8 July 1800, in her 98th yr.

Since this Ichabod seems to be identical with Ichabod, son of John and Mehitabel Smith of Sandwich, born 16 Feb, 1707, it is doubtful if he were kin to William Sherman, but he possibly was related to William's wife, Abigail Handy.

† Although he is called of Pembroke in this deed, since his death is recorded in Rochester and he apparently always lived there, it is probable that he never resided in Pembroke and that it is an error of writing.

50. KEZIAH [4] SHERMAN (John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, 28 Oct. 1728, died probably after 1790. She married in Rochester, 3 Apr. 1755, GEORGE LINCOLN, born probably in Taunton, died after 1790.

George Lincoln was living in Rochester in 1790 with two males above sixteen, one below sixteen and three females in his family, apparently himself and son Sherman, his wife Keziah, his daughter Keziah and her son William, and another female, possibly another daughter.

George Lincoln of Rochester, yeoman, conveyed to Sherman Lincoln of same, land on the Easterly side of Mattapoisett river, 18 Feb. 1785. Wit: William Sherman, Hannah Winslow. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 63: 175.)

There is no other deed from George Lincoln nor has any will or administration of his been found. There are several deeds to and from his son, Sherman.

51. SAMUEL [4] SHERMAN (John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 2 Jan. 1730–31, died after 1779 and before 1790, probably in Wells, Maine. He married first, in Rochester, 6 Nov. 1755, RACHEL HATCH, born in Rochester, 27 Mar. 1725, died about 1757, probably without children, daughter of Elisha and Patience (———) Hatch. He married secondly, 23 Feb. 1758, LYDIA POPE, born in Dartmouth, 3 Mar. 1736–37, daughter of Isaac and Lydia (Mitchell) Pope.

Samuel Sherman was a farmer in Rochester, inheriting with his brothers, John and William, his father's homestead property. With them he sells certain pieces of the property (see accounts of John [4] and William [4]) and about 1780, he moved to Wells, dying before 1790. His widow, called "Widow Sherman", was there in the Census of 1790, with a family consisting of two males above sixteen, and three females in her family.

Samuel Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, conveys to John Sherman, Jr., and William Sherman, Jr., both of Rochester, one third part of a tract of land there, and one third part of the appurtenances thereto belonging held in partnership by the said Samuel, John, and William Sherman, by virtue of a deed, made 28 Apr. 1759, from Joshua Whitcomb, Mariah Whitcomb, and Joanna Whitcomb, 26 Mar. 1766. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 54: 181.)

Samuel Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, deeds to Samuel Samson of Rochester, cooper, land in Rochester, 1 Jan. 1771. (ibid., 55: 226.)

Samuel Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, for £260, conveys to Earl Clap "my homestead farm on which I now dwell with my house", etc., in Rochester, mentioning his brother William's land; Lydia, wife of Samuel Sherman, releases her dower, 8 Dec. 1778; witnesses, William Sherman, Lydia Pope. (ibid., 61: 14.)

Isaac Sherman, Seth Sherman, and Samuel Sherman, all of Wells, York Co., Mass., (now Maine) convey to Lemuel Sherman of Rochester, all real estate in Rochester, descended to them from their honored father, Samuel Sherman of said Rochester, deceased, 5 Mar. 1808; Susan Sherman signs also. (ibid., 106: 275.)

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

99. i. ISAAC[5], b. 7 Aug. 1758, bapt. with Rachel, 1762; m. SARAH LITTLEFIELD.
ii. RACHEL, b. 25 Nov. 1760; m. 16 Sept. 1779, Wells, ABRAHAM STORER, JR.
iii. EDWARD, b. 4 Jan. 1763, probably died unmarried.
100. iv. SETH, b. 16 Apr. 1765; m. SUSANNA ———.
v. LYDIA, b. 8 Apr. 1768; probably m. (published, Wells, 2 May 1795) ASA HUTCHINGS.
vi. SAMUEL, bapt. 12 Aug. 1770, was living in Wells in 1808, but not there in 1810.
vii. SUSANNA-POPE, b. 13 Dec. 1772.
viii. SARAH-BAKER, b. 21 Feb. 1779; probably m. 1 Dec. 1806, EBENEZER STORER.

52. SERGEANT SAMUEL [4] SHERMAN (Samuel [3] John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 3 Jan. 1723–24, died in Ware, Mass., 29 Jan. 1811,* aged eighty-eight years. He married first in Rochester, 20 Apr. 1749, MARY SNOW,† born in Rochester, 30 Oct. 1729, died,

* The Ware records state "Samuel Sherman Departed this life Feb. 5, 1811, aged 88 years." The date on his gravestone is 25 Jan. 1811, the latter being probably correct.

† Mary Snow daughter of Prence and Mary (Sturtevant) Snow, was granddaughter of Nicholas and Lydia (Shaw) Snow; great granddaughter of Mark and Jane (Prence) Snow; great, great granddaughter of Nicholas and Constanta (Hopkins) Snow and of Governor Thomas and Mary (Collier) Prence, and great, great, great granddaughter of Stephen Hopkins who came on the Mayflower in 1620. Her descendants through her sons, Thomas and Prence, are entitled to belong to the Society of Mayflower Descendants in the right of Stephen Hopkins, and to the Society of Colonial Governors in the right of Thomas Prence.

probably in Ware, between 1752 and 1755, daughter of Prence and Mary (Sturtevant) Snow. He married secondly, in Brookfield, Mass., 8 June 1758, JERUSHA DAVIS, born in Brookfield, 15 Feb. 1734–35, died in Ware, 6 Oct. 1798, in her sixty-third year, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (———) Davis.

Samuel Sherman's father, Samuel [3] Sherman, owned much property with his brother John. Dying when Samuel was an infant, the latter inherited his rights and later appeared with his uncle John in settling the property. In 1752, he moved to Ware (Ware River Parish), Mass., where he became a substantial citizen, his name appearing constantly in the town meeting records until after the War. One of the first records of the old book is:

"March the 4, 1755 The meeting, being opened chouse Sargen Samuell Sharman and Leftent Joseph Scott and William Brackenridge and cap Jacob Cumings, Comite, and assesers and sworn, and Jonathan Rogers."

"29 day of Janarary, in the year of our Lord—ad—1756

Jacob Cummings
Samuel Sharmon
Willam Brackenridge } Committee for Ware River"

"18 day of february . . . 1756

"voted and chouse . . . Samuel Sharmon (one of) Committee and assesers for y[e] year ensuing."

He served again on this "committee", which seemed to handle the affairs of the town, in 1757, and that same year was chosen moderator of the town meetings serving in the same office in 1758, 1759, 1761, 1762, 1764, 1765, 1766, 1767, 1768, 1770, 1771, 1772. During this time, he also served as fence viewer, and Selectman.

On 2 Oct. 1761, the town voted to allow "Samuel Shermon's Acompt", which was two pound ten shillings.

The records for the war years are not very full but in them is found:

"Ware November 14, 1780, Voted Chuse a Committee of three men to Buy the continantal Beef. Chose M[r]. Moses Brown, M[r] Simon Cummings, M[r] Samuel Sherman for s'd Comittee." * (Ware Records, p. 119.)

Samuel Sherman does not appear much on the records after the War. He was getting on in years and apparently not as active in town affairs. In 1783, his poll tax was abated, in 1784, both his and his son Thomas's taxes were to be continued unsettled, and in 1786, his tax was again abated. In 1788, an allowance was made on his and his son Thomas's taxes. This is the last mention in the records.

After his removal to Ware, his wife Mary died, and he entered the French War.

* This service of Samuel Sherman on a town committee to buy beef for the Army makes his descendants eligible to any of the Revolutionary Societies according to the rules in 1923.

Samuel Sherman appears in a muster roll, sworn to in Worcester Co., 5 Jan. 1758. He served in Capt. Jacob Cummings's company, Col. Israel Williams's regiment at Fort William Henry in Aug. 1757. Sergeant, marched from Ware River to Kinderhook, 200 miles, time 15½ days, allowed 8d. Dated at Ware River Parish. (Massachusetts Archives.)

He also appears in the following deeds:

Samuel Sherman of Ware, yeoman, conveys to Maverick Smith of Ware, land there "part of a tract I bought of Isaac Magoon", 5 Mar. 1771. (ibid., 9: 284.)

This is the last mention of Samuel Sherman in the deeds. He left no will and there was no administration on his estate. He recorded all his children on the Ware books. All are called the children of Samuel and Jerusha Sherman and then the Jerusha is very carefully crossed out for the first two. He does not appear in Ware in the Census of 1790, as a householder.

Samuel and his wife are buried in the West Ware Graveyard, the stone marking both their graves bearing this inscription:

"M[r] Samuel & M[rs]
Jerusha Sherman died as follows viz. M[r] Sherman died Jan. 29, 1811 in his 88[th] year
Mrs. Sherman died
6 Oct. 1798 in her 63[d] year
Farewell our friends & children dear Devote your lives unto God's fear
That you with him may always live
This is the last advice we give."

Children, the first born in Rochester, Mass., the rest in Ware, Mass.: By first wife, Mary Snow,

i. THOMAS[5], b. 16 May 1751, possibly died unmarried. He served in Capt. Joseph Foster's co., Col. 53. JOHN[4] SHERMAN (William[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 19 July 1720, died in Carver, Mass., 17 Dec. 1800, in his eighty-first year. He married in Marshfield, 21 Aug. 1746, ELIZABETH DINGLEY, born in Marshfield, 14 June 1723, died in Carver, 24 May 1796, aged seventy-two years and eleven months, daughter of John and Sarah (Porter) Dingley.

John Sherman was a farmer in Marshfield, residing on the General Warren farm there. Sometime between 1762 and 1773, he moved to

* This name was undoubtedly "Prence", but, the derivation from the governor having been lost to memory during the past generation, it was always spelled Prince.

Plymouth but only stayed there a few years removing in 1774 to Plympton. He settled in that part of the latter town which was established as Carver 9 June 1790. He appears in the census of 1790 as a resident of Carver with one male above sixteen, [himself] and three females in his family [his wife and two others].

Shortly after his removal to Plympton the Revolutionary war began and although he was fifty-five years old he was evidently one of the local band of Minute-men for the following service is found for him:

John Shearman, of Plympton, served in Capt. Nathaniel Shaw's company, Col. James Warren's regiment, which marched in response to the alarm of April 19, 1775 to Marshfield, service 2 days. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, xiv: 85.)

He apparently had no other service but all of his sons were in the war.

He first appears in the land records after he went to Plymouth.

Daniel Hosea of Plymouth, mariner, sells to John Sherman of Plymouth, husbandman, land in Plymton which he, the said Hosea, bought, 11 Nov. 1772, of Nathan Cobb., Jr., 30 Sept. 1773. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 57: 85.)

Caleb Doty of Plymouth conveys to Ensign John Sherman of Plimpton, land in Plimpton, it being two-thirds of a lot owned by widow Hannah Doty left me by my father Ebenezer Doty, his "wife" releasing her dower, 27 Nov. 1789. (ibid., 70: 104.)

We, Edward Stevens of Plympton and William Stevens of Plymouth, administrators of the Estate of Edward Stevens, late of Plymouth, deceased, Intestate, sell to Mr. John Sherman of Plimpton, woodland in Middleboro, 25 Mar. 1790. (ibid., 79: 39.)

We, Thomas Withrell, William Hall Jackson, and Andrew Croswell, a committee of Plymouth to sell the town's commons in Kingston, Plimpton and Plymouth, deed to John Sherman of Plimpton, yeoman, a piece of woodland lying partly in Plympton, partly in Plymouth or Kingston or both, 29 July 1790. Wit: John Sherman [Jr.], Asa Sherman, Thomas Lothrop, Ephraim Spooner. (ibid., 79: 36.)

David Ransom of Carver, husbandman, deeds to John Sherman of Carver, a meadow and swamp in Dotens Meadow so-called, bounded on a lot set off to Jonathan Tillson's wife* in settlement of her father's estate and on a lot set off to John Sherman, Jr.'s wife in settlement of her father's estate, 20 Jan. 1792. (ibid., 79: 39.)

Nathaniel Sherman and John Sherman of Carver, gentlemen, were appointed administrators on the estate of John Sherman, late of Carver, yeoman, deceased, being bonded with Ephraim Spooner of Plymouth, Esq., and Samuel Shaw of Middleborough, yeoman, 7 June 1801. They filed an account of their administration, 26 Oct. 1802, having paid the following heirs of their deceased father, John Sherman: Nathaniel Sherman, Rufus Sherman, Jonah Bisbee, Asa Sherman, John Sherman, Elizabeth Finney. (Plymouth Co., Probate.) After John Sherman's death his children settled his real estate by deeds.

We Nathaniel Sherman, John Sherman and Jonah Bisbee of Carver and Asa Sherman of Plympton, and Elizabeth Finney of Plymouth, all heirs to the estate of John Sherman, late of Carver, dec'd, convey to Rufus Sherman of Carver, meadow at Doten's meadows, being the lot that "our Hon^{d} father John Sherman" purchased, Ruth Bisbee signs with the rest, 30 Mar. 1801. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 168: 212.)

Joseph Lovell of Rochester, yeoman, conveys to Anthony Sherman and Richard Church, Jr., both of Rochester, land and buildings in Rochester, 26 Jan. 1765; Mary Lovell releases her dower; witnesses, Aaron Griffith, Nathaniel Ruggles. (ibid., 49: 240.)

Richard Church, Jr., joyner, and Anthony Sherman, yeoman, both of Rochester, sell to Isaiah Hatch of Rochester, yeoman, part of the land they lately bought of Joseph Lovell, 9 Mar. 1765. (ibid., 49: 240.)

Richard Church, Jr., House joyner and Anthony Sherman, yeoman, both of Rochester, divide a tract of land they own in Rochester, 9 Mar. 1765. (ibid., 49: 241.)

Thomas Phillips of Bridgewater conveys for £233. 6s. 8d. to Anthony Sherman of Rochester, fifty-one acres of land with buildings in Bridgewater, excepting land reserved by "my Father" for a highway, being "the farm I now dwell upon"; Mary Phillips, wife of Thomas releases her dower, 18 Mar. 1766. (ibid., 52: 198.)

Anthony Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, conveys, to John Marshall of Rochester, certain tracts of lands and fresh and salt-meadows in Rochester, which he obtained from John and David Randall, 1 Apr. 1766. (ibid., 60: 88.)

Isaiah Hatch and Anthony Sherman, both of Rochester, convey, to Joseph Snow of Rochester, land there, 1 Apr. 1766. (ibid., 56: 250.)

Anthony Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, conveys, to Isaiah Hatch, land in Rochester, bounded on land which said Hatch bought of Anthony Sherman and Richard Church, 2 Apr. 1766. (ibid., 54: 108.) He also sells another piece of land to Seth Blackwell, the same day. Recorded, 1814. (ibid., 123: 112.)

Joseph Allen of Bridgewater conveys, to Anthony Sherman of Bridgewater, land there, 11 June 1766; witnesses, Joseph Gannett Junr., Mark Phillips. (ibid., 52: 226.)

Anthony Sherman of Bridgewater, yeoman, sells to Isaac Vincent of Dartmouth, land in Rochester, part of former homestead, 8 Mar. 1768. (ibid.)

On 12 June 1787, Abner Foord of Balltown, county Lincoln, Joseph Perry and Abigail Perry, his wife, of Owls Head, county Lincoln, Nathan Foord of Milton, county Suffolk, Elijah Foord & Levi Foord of Marshfield, Anthony Sherman and Silence his wife, yeomen and spinster, divide a salt meadow that fell to them as "the only Legal heirs to our Honored Parants M^{r} William Foord & Hannah Foord his wife Late of Marshfield" which said meadow lyeth in Marshfield, witnesses, Asenath Foord, Asa Waterman. (ibid., 80: 136.)

Elishia Foord of Marshfield, attorney to Abner Foord of Balltown, yeoman, Nathan Foord of Milton, Levi Foord of Marshfield, yeoman, and Anthony Sherman and Silence his wife of Bridgewater, convey, to Elisha Foord "the Homestead farm which William Foord late of said Marshfield" died seized of, 3 Apr. 1788. (ibid., 67: 158.)

Anthony Sherman and his wife, Silence Sherman, of Bridgewater, sell, to Samuel Trouant of Marshfield, land in Marshfield, 13 Feb. 1794. (ibid., 81: 55.)

Anthony Sherman of Bridgewater, yeoman, for £350, sells, to Jonathan Reed of Abington, joiner, land in Bridgewater, Silence Sherman releases her dower, 26 Sept. 1794. On the same date his son Thomas sold his property there.

This last deed suggests that Anthony and his wife left Bridgewater, with Thomas, and perhaps why their deaths are not recorded in Bridgewater. They probably went to Tamworth, N. H.

55. JOSEPH [5] SHERMAN (William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., about 1733, died there, 20 June 1811, aged seventy-eight years. He married in Marshfield, 23 Oct. 1760, ALICE SHURTLEFF, born in Marshfield, 28 July 1740, died there, 8 Mar. 1831, aged ninety years, daughter of Samuel and Abigail (Adams) Shurtleff.

Joseph Sherman was a farmer in Marshfield.

John Tompson, 1st., of Halifax, yeoman and Joanna his wife, John Allen of Pembroke, yeoman, and Alice his wife, Elnathan Fish of Pembroke, Housewright, and Lydia his wife, convey to Joseph Sherman of Marshfield, all right to a small farm in Marshfield, where honored father, Joseph Adams, of Marshfield, Tailor, formerly dwelt, 10 June 1773. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 58: 29.)

Joseph Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, and Abigail Shurtleff of same, widow, convey to Joseph Lapham "the whole of our farm being in Marshfield"; Alice, wife of Joseph Sherman releases her dower, 10 Mar. 1787. (ibid., 67: 33.)

Joseph Sherman of Marshfield conveys to Ebenezer Cox and Joseph Clark, 2nd, of Middleboro, land in Marshfield; Alice Sherman releases her dower, 7 Nov. 1804. (ibid., 100: 70.)

Elias Magoon of Pembroke, Thomas Howard of Pembroke, Joseph Sherman and wife, Joseph Lapham and wife, both of Marshfield, Isaac Perkins and wife of Middleboro, Elizabeth Cole & Barnabas Shurtleff of Carver, Samuel Nute & wife, Polly, Samuel Sherman, Jr., and Branch Churchill for himself and as guardian to Bethiah Churchill, non compos mentis, all of Plymouth, Rufus Bartlett of Norway, Cumberland Co., [Maine] and Mercy his wife, Isaiah Cushman of Brookfield, by attorney Oliver Cushman, & Huldah Magoun of Pembroke, convey to Lewis Goodwin of Plymouth, land in Plymouth, the estate of Lydia Shurtleff, late of Plymouth, deceased, which descended from her father Nathaniel Shurtleff, deceased, to her and from her mother, a daughter of Thomas Branch, deceased, 27 Jan. 1810. Signed by Alice Sherman, Lydia Sherman, Lucy Lapham, Molly Perkins, Sarah Churchill, Bailey Hall, Herman Churchill, Ebenezer Young, Huldah Magoun, widow, and Mary Nute as well as by the men who are mentioned in the deed. (ibid., 113: 252.)

These same grantors sell also to William Drew of Plymouth, one-half a pew in Plymouth. (ibid., 121: 17.)

Allis Sherman and her husband Joseph Sherman of Marshfield, Huldah Magoun, widow, of Pembroke, Lucy Lapham and her husband, Joseph Lapham of Marshfield, heirs to Lydia Shurtleff,* deceased, of Plymouth, appoint Elias Magoun their attorney to call on James Spooner, administrator to her estate, 27 Feb. 1810. (ibid., 111: 262.)

Joseph Sherman of Marshfield, made his Will, 29 Mar. 1808, proved, 2 Sept. 1811. He gave to "beloved wife Alls Sherman" an acre of salt marsh at Green

* The list of heirs of Lydia Shurtleff were: Elias Magoun, Joseph Sherman and wife Alice, Joseph Lapham and wife Lucy, Isaac Perkins and wife Molly (Shurtleff) Perkins, Elizabeth (Shurtleff) Cole, Barnabas Shurtleff, Samuel and wife Polly Nute, Samuel Sherman, Jr., Branch Churchill for himself and as gdn. to Bethia Churchill, Rufus Bartlett, Isaiah Cushman and Huldah Magoon. Lydia's father, Nathaniel Shurtleff, married Lydia Branch. No one of their eleven children left any heirs, hence her estate was inherited by her Shurtleff and Branch cousins or their heirs. Joseph Sherman inherited through his wife, Alice Shurtleff, while Samuel Sherman, Jr., was an heir through his mother, Experience Branch.

Harbour that he had of Joseph Lapham over and above her thirds; to son Amos Sherman, residue of real estate; to son Joseph Sherman, one dollar; to son William Sherman, one dollar; to daughter Huldah Burnham, eleven dollars; to grandson James Walker, one dollar; personal estate to son Amos and he to be executor. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18144.)

56. ELEAZER [5] SHERMAN (William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., about 1742, died in Boothbay, Maine, 24 Mar. 1826. He married first in Boothbay, 18 Aug. 1767, LYDIA KELLEY, who died between 1785 and 1790. He married secondly (published in Boothbay, 8 Oct. 1790), SUSANNA WYLIE, born probably in Boothbay about 1765, died before 1808, daughter of William Wylie. He married thirdly in Boothbay, 3 Nov. 1808, MARTHA (REED) REED, born there, 27 Oct. 1758, died after 1822, daughter of Capt. David and Martha (Wylie) Reed and widow of William Reed, who died in 1794.*

Eleazer Sherman was a soldier in the French War.

Eleazer Sherman appears on a return dated Scituate, 12 Apr. 1759, of men enlisted or impressed for His Majesty's service in Col. Thomas Clapp's regiment, to be put under the Command of His Excellency Jeffry Amherst, Esq., General and Commander-in-Chief of His Majesty's forces in North America, for the invasion of Canada, aged 19; residence, Marshfield; enlisted, 6 Apr.; reported served on a former expedition in 1758; Father or Master, William Sherman; reported mustered by Lieut. Col. Elijah Cushing and delivered to Capt. Abel Keen, 13 Apr. 1759. (Massachusetts Archives, 97: 132.)

He also appears on a return for 1760, as enlisted by Daniel Reed, Jr., 3 Mar. 1760, aged 20 years; born Marshfield; lived there, son of William Sherman. (ibid., 98: 99.)

He also appears on a Muster roll, dated Boston, 5 Mar. 1761, as serving under Capt. Daniel Reed, a private; residence, Marshfield; son of William

* "Fryday, June 27 1794, went to Boothbay to Wm Reeds funeral who was Drown'd." (Diary of Moses Davis.)

Sherman; enlisted 3 Mar. discharged 9 Dec. 1761; 225 miles of travel allowed, company commanded by Capt. Jonathan Shaw. (ibid.)

He is not listed as a soldier of the Revolution but he may possibly have served as many of the rolls have perished. About the end of the French War he went to Maine and settled in Boothbay. He appears in the census of that place taken in 1790, with a family consisting of two males above sixteen, six below sixteen and six females.

Considerable research has failed to show the parentage of Lydia Kelley, the first wife of Eleazer Sherman. There was a Benjamin Kelley in Boothbay, but apparently of a later generation than Lydia, being called "nephew" by William Kennedy of Boothbay, in 1796. She named a son Roger, a name not appearing before in the family, and although there is the possibility, as he was born in 1776, that she named him for the Signer of the Declaration of Independence, who was of no kin to these Shermans, the name suggests that she might have been a descendant of the New Hampshire Kelley family whose immigrant ancestor was a Roger Kelley of the Isles of Shoals and who married Mary Holdridge, 29 Sept. 1681, in Exeter.

Eleazer Sherman appears in a number of deeds:

John Ally, Jr., of Boothbay sells to Eleazer Sherman of the same place, land there, bounded partly by Eleazer Sherman's own land; 14 Dec. 1784. Wit: Ephraim Ally, John Ally. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 45: 207.)

John Crommett of Boothbay, yeoman, sells to Eleazer Sherman of the same place, yeoman, land there, 10 June 1786. (ibid., 45: 208.)

Joshua Alley of Edgecomb, yeoman, sells to Eleazer Sherman of Boothbay, a piece of land bounding on said Sherman's own land, 25 Feb. 1789. Wit: Calvin Garnet, John Alley. (ibid., 84: 107.)

Eleazer Sherman of Boothbay conveys to William Sherman of Boothbay, land there bounded on said William, said Eleazer, and Roger Sherman, 18 Oct. 1808. Wit: John Ally, Edmund Wilson, Roger Sherman. (Hancock Co., Deeds, 70: 132.) On the same day, he conveyed land to Roger Sherman of Boothbay, on Sherman's Creek, bounded on Eleazer Sherman, Jr., Eleazer Sherman, and John Ally. Wit: William Sherman, Edmund Wilson. (ibid., 70: 132.)

Eleazer Sherman of Boothbay conveys to Eleazer Sherman, Jr., of the same place, land bounded on Joseph Sherman, Roger Sherman, and Elisha Sherman, 22 Oct. 1808. Wit: Benjamin Kelley, Jr., Elisha Sherman. (ibid., 70: 137.)

Eleazer Sherman of Boothbay sells to Joseph Sherman of Edgecomb, land in Edgecomb bounded on Eleazer Sherman, Jr., etc., 22 Oct. 1808. Wit: Benjamin Kelley, Jr., Eleazer Sherman, Jr. (ibid., 70: 136.) On this same day he conveys land in the same locality to Elisha Sherman and Eleazer Sherman, Jr., in two separate deeds. (ibid., 70: 136, 137.)

Eleazer Sherman of Boothbay, yeoman, and Martha his wife, and Robert Sherman of the same place, yeoman, and Esther his wife, and Henry Reed of the same place, yeoman, sell to Joseph Carlisle of the same place, land there, 19 Nov. 1814. Wit: Edmund Wilson, Catherine Sherman. (ibid., 88: 97.)

Eleazer Sherman of Boothbay, yeoman, sells to Robert Sherman of Edgecomb, yeoman, land in Edgecomb, 2 Dec. 1816, Martha Sherman releasing her dower. Wit: Thomas Cunningham, John Sherman, Abiel Sherman. (ibid., 125: 47.) On 7 Dec. he sold him more land in Edgecomb. (ibid., 125: 46.)

Eleazer Sherman of Boothbay, yeoman, conveys to Abiel Sherman of Boothbay, yeoman, land partly in Boothbay and partly in Edgecomb, bounded partly on Robert Sherman, Martha releasing her dower, 25 Jan. 1822. In the acknowledgment she writes herself "Patty" Sherman. (ibid., 116: 198.)

He apparently left no will nor was any administration recorded.

‡ A chart sent in by a descendant says that John was born in Watertown, Mass., but while this is possible it does not appear probable.

57. ICHABOD [5] SHERMAN (Ebenezer [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 21 Mar. 1758, died there, 22 May 1813, in his fifty-sixth year. He married in Marshfield, 10 Dec. 1783, SARAH JOYCE, born there, 12 Mar. 1764, died there, 23 June 1842, aged seventy-eight years, daughter of Jonathan and Abigail (Holmes) Joyce.

Ichabod Sherman served in the Revolutionary War. He is called "of Pembroke," in his service, so was probably working there at the time.

Ichabod Shearman, Pembroke, Private, Capt. John Turner's company, Col. Theophilus Cotton's regiment; marched 28 Sept. 1777; service, 1 month and 3 days; company marched to Rhode Island. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, xiv: 84.)

After the war he married and settled in Marshfield on his father's homestead farm, of which as the only surviving son, he had inherited the major part. In 1801 and 1804, as the deeds following show, he bought land in Marshfield, bordering on what he already owned.

Jedediah Ewell of Marshfield sells, to Ichabod Sherman of Marshfield, land there, 31 Mar. 1801, Elizabeth Ewell releases her dower. He sold him a second piece there on 29 Mar. 1804. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 94: 20, 99: 99.)

Ichabod Sherman appears in the Census of 1790 in Marshfield with a family consisting of one male above sixteen (himself), two below sixteen (Ebenezer and Mark-Joyce), and two females (his wife and daughter Ruth-H.). In 1800 and 1810 he is still in the Census with an increasing family, while in 1820, Sarah Sherman had a family of one male between 18 and 26, two females between 16 and 26, and one male under ten. In 1840, Sarah had in her family a male between 80 and 90, and a female between 70 and 80 (herself).

Sarah Sherman refused to administer her husband's estate and requested that the eldest son, Ebenezer Sherman, be appointed, 2 July 1814. The heirs were Ebenezer, Ichabod, Benjamin, Mercy, Mark-Joyce, Elizabeth, Josiah-Holmes, Rachel, and Ruth-H. After Sarah's dower was set off, division was made, 16 Apr. 1817, to Ebenezer Sherman 3d., Ichabod Sherman, Benjamin Sherman, Mercy Sherman, Mark-J., Elizabeth, Josiah-H., Rachel, and Ruth Sherman.

On the 15 Apr. 1817, Rachel Sherman aged above 14 daughter of Ichabod Sherman, deceased, chose Sally Sherman, widow, of said Ichabod, for her guardian, and so did Josiah-Holmes Sherman, above 14. Sally Shearman, widow, with Ebenezer Sherman 3d., housewright, and Mark-Joyce Sherman, cordwainer, on bond, made guardian of Rachel Sherman and Josiah-H. Sherman, above 14, and Mercy Sherman and Benjamin Sherman below 14, and all children of Ichabod Sherman, late of Marshfield, deceased, 15 Apr. 1817.

Division of the widow's dower, to the heirs at law of Ichabod Sherman, was made following a petition, filed 6 Nov. 1843, made by Samuel Peterson and Ruth his wife of Duxbury, Mark-J. Sherman, Charles Bailey and Rachel his wife, Josiah-H. Sherman, William Estes and Mercy his wife, all of Marshfield, Wadsworth Bisbee of Pembroke and Elizabeth his wife, Benjamin Sherman of Medford who were interested with Sally Sherman of Marshfield, and Silas Sherman of Boston, children of Ebenezer Sherman, late of said Boston, deceased, and Stephen-C. Sherman, Spencer-W. Sherman, and Rachel-O. Sherman, children of Ichabod Sherman, late of Marshfield, deceased, in the reversion of dower of their late mother Sarah Sherman, deceased, the widow of Ichabod Sherman (Sr.) etc. On the 28 Nov. 1843, the heirs namely, Ruth-H. Peterson, Mark-J. Sherman, Elizabeth Bisbee, Rachel Bailey, Josiah-H. Sherman, Mercy Estes, and Benjamin Sherman, each received one-ninth while Sally Sherman and Silas Sherman had each one-eighteenth, and Stephen-C., Spencer-W., and Rachel-O. Sherman had each one-twenty-seventh. (Plymouth Probate, 18176.)

We, Josiah H-Sherman, William Estes and Mercy his wife, Stephen-H. Sherman, Spencer-W. Sherman, all of Marshfield, Samuel Peterson and Ruth his wife, of Duxbury, Wadsworth Bisbee and Elizabeth his wife of Pembroke, Samuel Hall and Sally his wife of Bridgewater, and Benjamin Sherman of Medford, Middlesex Co., quit, to Nathaniel Church of Marshfield, Gentleman, all right to a piece of salt-meadow in Marshfield, being a part of the dower of our honored mother, Sarah Sherman, deceased; Hulda Sherman wife of Benjamin Sherman releases her dower, 12 June 1846. "N. B. Hulda Sherman is dead she died before the execution of this Deed but after it was written." Acknowledged, 8 July 1846. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 252: 99.)

Wadsworth Bisbee of Pembroke and Eliza his wife convey, to Charles Bailey of Marshfield, land there, bounded on Josiah-H. Sherman, by road leading to John Hiland's, to land of Mark-J. Sherman, to Samuel Joyce, to Japhet Mitchell, reserving timber and three years to take it off, 19 Apr. 1827. (ibid., 133: 86.)

Samuel Peterson, Jr., and Ruth his wife convey, to Charles Bailey, all of the right of the said Ruth Peterson assigned to her from the estate of Ichabod Sherman deceased of Marshfield, and held in common with her sister Rachel Bailey, wife to the said Charles, 1 Apr. 1830; witnesses, Wadsworth Bisbee, Eliza Bisbee. (ibid., 133: 87.)

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

i. Ruth-Holmes [6], b. 21 Aug. 1784, d. 7 Feb. 1871, aged 86 yrs., 5 mos., and 19 days, Pembroke; m. 23 Jan. 1821, Samuel Peterson, b. (pub. 7 June 1792, Boston) JOHN KUHN, b. 1770, d. 12 Mar. 1820, aged 50 yrs., buried Central Burying Ground, probably son of John-George and Ann (Cole) Kuhn. They had a son, Daniel who d. 23 Oct. 1810 aged 7 yrs., and probably other children.

v. DEBORAH LAPHAM, b. 12 Apr. 1777: m. 4 Sept. 1794, JAMES WHITE.

vi. LUTHER LAPHAM, b. 17 Feb. 1781; m. 10 Mar. 1805, Boston, SOPHIA DUNBAR.

* There is no other Sarah Sherman in the Marshfield family of the right age to marry Daniel Lapham. Her father leaving no will and there being apparently no division of his estate, it is impossible to prove up Sarah Sherman, wife of Daniel Lapham, except by elimination.

59. VALENTINE [5] SHERMAN (Robert [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 4 Oct. 1743, died in Islesboro, Maine, in 1808. He married in Marshfield, 25 June 1766, SUSAN HARNEY, born about 1745, died, probably in Islesboro, between 1790 and 1800, daughter of Michael and Gail (Rogers) Harney. Little can be learned of the life of Valentine Sherman.

On the 13 Apr. 1784, Valentine Sherman of Marshfield, sold to Thomas Rogers, Jr., of the same place, land there, Susanna Sherman releasing her dower. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 121: 157.)

A month later, on 4 May 1784, Valentine Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, sold to Joshua Tilden of the same place, land that his honored father bought on 12 Jan. 1759, from Caleb Carver; Susanna Sherman released her dower. (ibid., 64: 87.)

Before 1790, Valentine and his son Robert moved to Islesboro, Maine and settled at Gilkey's Harbor. He appears there in the census of 1790, with a family of three males above sixteen [himself, Robert and Stephen]; one male below sixteen [Calvin]; and three females [probably his wife, and his daughters Betsey and Ruth but possibly one was a daughter-in-law.]

In 1800 he was living with his son Robert, having transferred his property to him.

Valentine Shearmon of Islesboro sells to Robert Shearmon of Islesboro, 100 acres of land there, 1 July 1796. Wit: Samuel Boyd, William Pendleton. (Hancock Co., Deeds, 1: 196.)

Children, born probably in Marshfield, Mass.:

137. i. ROBERT [6], b. 1767; m. EUNICE TURNER.

ii. STEPHEN, b. probably about 1770. He bought land in Islesboro of Prince Holbrook, 11 May 1793; of Thomas Pendleton, Jr., 17 May 1793, sold this land he bought of Pendleton to Elisha Nash, 10 June 1793, and sold another piece to Jonathan Clark, 1 June 1793. (Hancock Co., Deeds, 2: 191, 178, 189, 190.) He then went to St. Stephens, N. B.

iii. BETSEY, b. prob. about 1773, possibly died unmarried.

iv. CALVIN, b. about 1775, went to St. Stephens, N. B.

v. RUTH, b. about 1778, d. 30 Aug. 1835, Islesboro; m. about 1798, SAMUEL WARREN, JR., b. 1777, d. 3 May 1859 aged 82 yrs., son of Samuel Warren. Children (WARREN), (1) David, b. 6 Oct. 1799; (2) Lydia, b. 7 Dec. 1801; (3) Samuel, b. 18 Feb. 1804; (4) Michael, b. 16 Feb. 1806; (5) James, b. 4 July 1808; (6) George, b. about 1810, died infant; (7) George, b. 12 June 1812.

vi. HENRY,* born prob. about 1780; said to m. ELIZABETH PENDLETON, daughter of Henry and Rebecca (Alden) Pendleton.

* Henry [6] Sherman, son of Joseph [5] of Camden married about 1813, Elizabeth Pendleton. They lived in Brooks, Maine in 1814. He was b. 1788 and the two Henrys are sometimes confused in the records. It is to be doubted if Valentine had a son Henry.

60. BETSEY-DOTY[5] SHERMAN (Robert[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 11 Apr. 1746, died, probably in Waldoboro or Bristol, Maine, after 1790. She married in Marshfield, 16 May 1765, ERASTUS RICHARDS, born in Pembroke, Mass., 28 July 1744, died in Bristol, in 1831, aged eighty-seven years, son of William and Hannah (Simmons) Richards.

Erastus Richards went to Maine soon after his marriage. In 1790, when the census was taken he was living in Waldoboro, but removed before 1798 to Bristol. In 1790, his family consisted of one male above sixteen (himself); three males below sixteen (his sons, Erastus, Doty, and Robert); and six females (his wife, and daughters, Jane, Betsey, Deborah, Sally, and Hulda).

Children, probably all born in Maine:

i. JANE RICHARDS, b. 1766; m. about 1790, GEORGE ERSKINE. Child (ERSKINE), b. Bristol, (1) George, b. 30 Nov. 1791; probably others.

ii. POLLY RICHARDS, b. 1768, d. 16 Sept. 1829, Hope or Warren, Maine; m. 21 July 1789, DEA. ROBERT THOMPSON, who d. 1 Mar. 1849, Warren.

iii. BETSEY RICHARDS, b. Aug. 1770, d. 20 Oct. 1858, aged 88 yrs., 2 mos., Bristol; m. JOHN CARTER, b. 1768, d. 21 Feb. 1836, aged 67 yrs., 9 mos. Bristol. Children (CARTER), (1) Enoch, b. May 1800; (2) Erastus, b. Nov. 1804; probably others.

iv. DEBORAH RICHARDS, b. 1772, d. 1837, aged 65 yrs., Union, Maine; m. about 1791, STORY THOMPSON, b. Bristol, removed to Union about 1797. Children (THOMPSON), (1) John, b. 8 Oct. 1792, Bristol; (2) Ambrose, b. 11 Oct. 1794; (3) Robert, b. 3 Nov. 1799, Union; (4) James, b. 6 Nov. 1802; (5) Lucy, b. 28 Feb. 1805; (6) William, b. 7 Dec. 1807; (7) Polly, b. 17 Oct. 1810.

v. ERASTUS RICHARDS, b. 1 May 1775, d. 10 Feb. 1807, aged 32 yrs.; m. about 1796, ISABELLA [? THOMPSON], b. 26 Aug. 1775, d. 10 July 1807, aged 32 yrs. Children (RICHARDS), (1) John, b. 24 Jan. 1798, d. 28 July 1817, aged 19; (2) Betsey, b. 28 Nov. 1799; (3) Nathan, b. 15 May 1801; (4) Lois, b. 10 Jan. 1804; (5) Ambrose, b. 1 May 1805; (6) Nancy, b. 4 Jan. 1807.

vi. SALLY RICHARDS, b. about 1777, d. after 1812; m. 5 Oct. 1799, ROBERT JONES. Children (JONES), b. Bristol, (1) Ebenezer, b. 22 Feb. 1800; (2) Sarah, b. 18 Nov. 1801; (3) Erastus, b. 2 Oct. 1803; (4) Hannah, b. 26 Feb. 1806; (5) Robert, b. 22 May 1807; (6) Rachel, b. 20 May 1809; (7) Jonathan-Train, b. 21 Feb. 1812.

vii. DOTY RICHARDS, b. about 1781; m. 5 Dec. 1805, Bristol, ESTHER STUART. Resided Liberty or S. China, Maine.

viii. HULDA RICHARDS, b. about 1783, d. after 1820, Hallowell, Maine; m. (1), about 1802, JONATHAN TRAIN who d. before 1807; m. (2), about 1807, JOSIAH ROLLINS, b. Aug. 1769, Newcastle, Maine, d. 3 Mar. 1851, Hallowell. Children (TRAIN), (1) Nancy, b. 25 Aug. 1804, Newcastle; (ROLLINS), (2) William, b. 1 Feb. 1808, Jefferson, Maine; (3) Mary, b. 4 Apr. 1810; (4) Betsey, b. 11 Aug.

1812; (5) Sally, b. 21 Feb. 1815, Malta, Maine; (6) Hannah, b. 7 July 1817; (7) Lucinda, b. 24 June 1820, Hallowell. By a first wife, Josiah Rollins had a daughter Eleanor, b. 22 Feb. 1802, Jefferson.

ix. ROBERT RICHARDS, b. 1 Oct. 1786, d. 1842, Hope, Maine; m. (1), JOANNA WEBB; m. (2), after 1811, MARGARET NEWBERT. Children (RICHARDS), by first wife, Joanna Webb, (1) Rev. Robert-Robinson, b. 1 Sept. 1806; (2) Josiah-Stanford, b. 24 July 1808; (3) Joanna-Webb, b. 4 Jan. 1811; by second wife, Margaret Newbert, (4) Huldah-Jane, b. ———; (5) Freelove-Daniels, b. ——— ; Mansfield, b. ———.

61. PRISCILLA [5] SHERMAN (John [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born probably in Marshfield, about 1750, died probably after 1790. She married (published in Kingston, Mass., 27 April 1769) JUDAH HALL, possibly born in Plympton, about 1748, son of James and Sarah (Wright) Hall, died after 1790.

Much research has been done to place this Judah Hall without success. The only deed found that might pertain to him in the Plymouth registry is:

Judah Hall of Plympton, Laborer, Lydia Hall of Halifax, and Mehitable Hall of Plympton, convey to Samuel Wright of Plympton, land there, 14 July 1777. A Hannah Hall signs also but the deed does not show her interest. She may have been the wife of Judah Hall. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 92: 12.)

This Judah was the son of James and Sarah (Wright) Hall who were married in Plympton, 25 Sept. 1746, and Lydia and Mehetable were his sisters. His mother died 12 May 1777, Plympton, and the children were evidently settling the estate. Judah of Kingston named his children, Mehetable, Mercy and Sarah, Mercy being for his wife's mother. He was in Kingston in 1775, and apparently the Judah Hall who appears in the Census of 1790 there, with one male above sixteen, one below and two females. There was, however, a Judah Hall, who died in Kingston, 11 September 1800, aged eighty-seven years, and who may have been that Judah Hall, born in Yarmouth, 1 Jan. 1714, son of Judah Hall.

There was an Elisha Hall, baptised 8 July 1759, son of Lydia, and an Elisha, husband of Asenath, who was born 31 Jan. 1753, these may have been the same. He had a son Judah Hall, born 18 Sept. 1794. It is possible but not probable that Priscilla was the young wife of the Judah, born 1713, Yarmouth but he would be about thirty-four years the older. He may have had a son Judah born in Yarmouth.

Children, born in Kingston, Mass.:

i. MEHETABLE HALL, b. 14 May 1770.
ii. MERCY HALL, b. 16 Jan. 1773.
iii. SARAH HALL, b. 18 Nov. 1775.

62. MERCY [5] SHERMAN (John [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 13 Feb. 1752, died in Hanson, Mass., 7 Feb. 1824, aged seventy years. She married in Pembroke, Mass., 28 Dec. 1769, JOSHUA PRATT, JR., born in Pembroke, 22 Apr. 1744, died in Hanson, 21 Nov. 1824, in his eightieth year, son of Joshua and grandson of Joshua and Johanna (———) Pratt of Pembroke.

Joshua Pratt apparently lived all his life in Pembroke, his farm being in that part of the town that became Hanson in 1820. He owned the homestead farm.

Joshua Pratt of Pembroke, yeoman, for £100, to "Joshua Pratt Junr and grandson to the abovesaid Joshua Pratt . . . Labourer . . . confirm unto him", land in Pembroke, "and is the Farm whereon I now dwell", with all buildings thereon, 22 Nov. 1769. Wit: Jno Turner, Edwd Thomas. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 55: 67.)

On the 21 Sept. 1773, Joshua Pratt of Pembroke, his wife Mercy releasing her dower, sold to Hannah Hill of Pembroke, land there, the deed being witnessed by David Stockbridge and John Pratt. (ibid., 57: 181.) Also in this year he sells to Thomas Josselyn, Jr., land near his own dwelling place, Mercy releasing her dower. (ibid., 57: 215.) Joshua Pratt of Pembroke sold land there in 1773 to John Pratt of Abington, no wife releasing, but the land was bounded on Benjamin Stockbridge. (ibid., 57: 253.)

Other deeds show this Joshua living in Pembroke as late as 1799.

Administration on the estate of Joshua Pratt, of Hanson, housewright, granted to Calvin Tilden, Physician, 7 Dec. 1824, the bondsmen being, Samuel Barker, physician, and Thomas Hill, yeoman.

Division of the estate was made to his children, 18 Sept. 1826, they being John Pratt; Matilda Allen; Mercy Orcutt, wife of Alpheus Orcott; Judith Willis, wife of Daniel-E. Willis; and Joshua Pratt. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 16145.)

Children, born in Pembroke, Mass., the first seven baptised together, 27 May 1785:

i. SAMUEL PRATT, born 21 Aug. 1771, living 1785; not mentioned in Division, 1826.

ii. MATILDA PRATT, born 11 March 1773, d. after 1824; m. 30 Mar. 1796, Bridgewater, ISAAC ALLEN, b. 29 June 1750, d. 15 Feb. 1822, son of Isaac and Joanna (Packard) Allen, who m. (1), 21 May 1776, Sylvia Brett, who d. 1 July 1777, Bridgewater. Child (ALLEN), by Matilda Pratt, (1), Sophronia, prob. born about 1797; m. 1812, Joseph Dunbar.

iii. ALPHEUS PRATT, b. 2 Mar. 1775, living 1785; not mentioned in Division, 1826.

Children (PRATT), born in Pembroke, (1) Betsey, b. 21 June 1800; (2) Lydia, b. 7 Mar. 1803; (3) Ciline (?Silena), b. 5 Feb. 1806; (4) John-S., b. 11 Mar. 1811; (5) Joshua-H., b. 24 Oct. 1813; (6) Chloe, b. 20 May 1816.

v. Levi Pratt, b. 1 Oct. 1778, living 1785, not mentioned in Division, 1826.
vi. Mercy Pratt, b. 17 Apr. 1781, death unknown; m. 10 Feb. 1802, Bridgewater, Alpheus Orcutt, b. 12 Jan. 1783, Bridgewater, d. 19 Oct. 1834, aged 52, E. Bridgewater, "leaving a family", son of Nathan and Jane (Inglee) Orcutt. Children not recorded in Pembroke or Bridgewater.
vii. Joshua Pratt, b. 15 Oct. 1783, living 1826.
viii. Benjamin Pratt, bapt. 30 July 1786, died infant.
ix. Benjamin Pratt, b. 2 Nov. 1788, not mentioned in Division, 1826.
x. Judith Pratt, bapt. 15 Nov. 1789, died young.
xi. Philemon Pratt, b. 19 Dec. 1790, died same day.
xii. Judith-B. Pratt, b. 16 June 1791; m. 1 Aug. 1815, Daniel-E. Willis, b. Dec. 1794, son of Daniel, Jr., and Zilpha (Edson) Willis.
xiii. Jotham Pratt, b. 8 Feb. 1792, d. 26 Oct. 1824, aged 32 yrs., Hanson.

63. URANA [5] SHERMAN (John [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, in Mar. 1765, died after 1813. She married first in Pembroke, 20 June 1784, James Lindsey, born in Pembroke, 30 Oct. 1762, died there, 27 Sept. 1809, son of Ephraim and Ann (Howland) Lindsey. She married secondly, (published in Pembroke, 23 July 1813) James Crooker, being called "Mrs. Laurania Lindsey".
Children, born in Pembroke, Mass.:

i. Melzar Lindsey, b. 30 May 1785, d. 7 Feb. 1813; m. 30 Sept. 1804, Rebecca Turner.
ii. James Lindsey, b. 15 Jan. 1787; m. (pub. 26 Mar. 1808, Hanover) Lois Hill.
iii. Alfred Lindsey, b. 25 Nov. 1787.
iv. Ruth Lindsey, b. 3 Apr. 1791.
v. Ephraim Lindsey, b. 5 May 1794.
vi. Lucy Lindsey, b. 26 Aug. 1796.
vii. Betsey Lindsey, b. 18 Apr. 1799.
viii. Lurana-Sherman Lindsey, b. 10 Feb. 1802.
ix. Pamela-Howland Lindsey, b. 29 Mar. 1804; m. 3 May 1824, Patrick Boyles.
x. Archelaus-Sherman Lindsey, b. 30 Sept. 1808.

64. ELISHA [5] SHERMAN (John [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 28 Feb. 1768, died in Hanson, Mass., 21 Oct. 1832, aged sixty-eight years. He married (published in Abington, 8 May 1791) Ruth Hayward, born in Bridgewater, Mass., 30 Oct. 1764, died in Hanson, 4 Oct. 1836, aged seventy-four years, daughter of Seth and Tabitha (Pratt) Hayward.

Elisha Sherman went to Pembroke to live before his marriage. He was a blacksmith. In the deeds where he buys land in Pembroke, he is called "Elijah", instead of Elisha, an error of the scribe who prepared the deeds. There was no Elijah in Marshfield, but an uncle of this man, also named Elisha, was living there at the time. He evidently lived in that part of Pembroke which became Hanson in 1820.

Israel Vinal Esq., Seth Merritt, yeoman, and Marcy Otis, all of Scituate, convey, to Elijah Sherman, Jun., of Marshfield, land in Pembroke, 10 June 1790; Mercy Vinal and Mercy Merritt, release their dowers. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 71: 113.)

Abigail Otis of Boston, administratrix of the estate of Joseph Otis, late of said Boston, gentleman, deceased, conveys, to Elijah Sherman, Jun., of Marshfield, land in Pembroke, 11 Mar. 1791. (ibid., 71: 115.)

Thomas Rogers and Submit, his wife, Joseph Hatch, Jane Hall, and Naomi Hatch, all of Marshfield, Matthew Tower and Jerusha his wife, of Scituate, yeomen and spinsters, sell, to Elisha Sherman of Pembroke, blacksmith, three acres of cedar swamp being part of the estate of honored mother Jerusha Hatch, late deceased, which fell to her in the division of her father's estate, known as the Dean lot, 18 June 1791. (ibid., 175: 117.)

Thomas Osborn of Bridgewater, yeoman, conveys, to Elisha Sherman of Pembroke, one-half the 69th lot in the Major's Purchase, in Pembroke, Hannah Osborn releases her dower, 13 Mar. 1792, wit. Benjamin Parris, Jr., Beza Hayward. (ibid., 80: 146.)

Elisha Sherman of Pembroke, Blacksmith, conveys, to William Clift of Marshfield, land in Marshfield, near Jonathan Silvester, Ruth Sherman releases her dower, 17 Apr. 1792. (ibid., 72: 209.)

Elisha Sherman of Pembroke, blacksmith, conveys, to Samuel Trouant of Marshfield, land in Marshfield; Ruth, wife of Elisha, releases her dower, 17 Apr. 1792. (ibid., 77: 135.)

Elisha Sherman left no will and no administration was taken on his estate. Apparently he had only one child.

Child, born in Pembroke, Mass.:

i. RUTH-HAYWARD [6], b. 15 Nov. 1794; m. 6 Apr. 1820, Hanson, JOSEPH HOBART of Bridgewater. He was probably that Joseph b. 24 Oct. 1781, Abington, son of Col. Aaron and Thankful Hobart.

65. MARGARET [5] SHERMAN (Elisha [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 11 Nov. 1745, died, probably in Vinal Haven, before 1797*. She married (published in Marshfield, 4 April 1764) her cousin, ISRAEL CARVER, born there, 2 Nov. 1740, died, probably in Vinal Haven, between 1820 and 1830, son of Caleb and Abigail (Sherman) Carver. He married secondly, probably in Vinal Haven, Sarah ———, who died after 1830.

Israel and Margaret Carver went to Vinal Haven in 1766. They settled on a farm there owned in 1889 by James-C. Calderwood. Israel

* Elisha [4] Sherman, father of Margaret, does not mention her in his will but gives to her eldest son with instructions to pay to the other children of Margaret their shares. It is evident that she had deceased.

appears in the census of 1790, with three males above sixteen, two below sixteen, and three females, probably himself and his sons, Live (Levi ?) and Israel, Elisha and another son, Lydia and another daughter, and his second wife, Sarah. They must have married about 1786. He appears in the Census of 1800 with one male and one female, over 45, one male between 10 and 16 and one under 10, it being stated that he came from Marshfield. In 1810, he had one male and one female over 45, two males between 16 and 26; in 1820, he had one male and one female over 45, one male between 26 and 45; in 1830, he is gone but a Sarah Carver appears aged between 70 and 80, presumably his widow. His brother Caleb with his wife, Abigail (Damon) Carver, also went to Vinal Haven, accompanied by his children, Melzar, Ruth, and Abigail. It is therefore impossible by the census alone to decide on all the children and the grandchildren of Israel Carver.

Children, born in Marshfield and Vinal Haven:

i. Alanson Carver, b. about 1764, d. 6 Feb. 1820, aged 58 yrs. 66. ABIEL [5] SHERMAN (Elisha [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 23 June 1747, died there about 1822. He married first in Pembroke, Mass., 25 June 1778, Lydia Walker, died before 1781. He married secondly in Marshfield, 4 Feb. 1781, Lucy Sylvester, born in Marshfield, 27 Aug. 1756, died in Marshfield, 16 June 1847, aged ninety-one years, daughter of Joseph and Bradbury (Hatch) Sylvester.

Abiel Sherman was a farmer in Marshfield. In 1790, his family contained one male above sixteen and five females, himself, his wife, and his four daughters. In 1800, he, a male over 45 years, had, in his household, his wife, between 26 and 45, two daughters between 10 and 16, and three males and two females under 10.

* Alanson probably made himself out older than he was so that he would not be so much younger than his wife, for if he had been 58 in 1820, he would have been born two years before his parents married.

68. SAMUEL [5] SHERMAN (Samuel [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Plymouth, Mass., 1 Dec. 1751, died there, 9 Nov. 1818. He married in Plymouth, 16 Apr. 1789, LYDIA DOTEN, born there, 2 July 1758, died there after 1818 and probably before 1820, daughter of Paul and Ruth (Faunce) Doten.

Samuel Sherman followed the trade of his father, becoming a hatter. In 1801, following the receipt from his father of the homestead, he seems to have been employed as a farmer rather than in his trade.

His wife was living in 1818 as her children conveyed their rights in Samuel's estate to her, but an administration was taken on Samuel's estate in 1820, in which she does not appear and, presumably, it was her death that caused the action to be taken.

Samuel Sherman was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. His service was as follows:

Samuel Sharman, Plymouth, Private, Capt. Jesse Harlow's company, which marched 20 Apr. 1775, in response to the alarm of 19 Apr. 1775, to Marshfield; service, 11 days. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, xiv: 15.)

Samuel Sherman, Plymouth, Private, Capt. Thomas Mayhew's company, Col. Cotton's regiment; muster roll dated 1 Aug. 1775; enlisted 1 May 1775; service, 3 mos., 8 days. (ibid., xiv: 144.)

Samuel Shermon, Plymouth, Private, Capt. Thomas Mayhew's company, Col. Theophilus Cotton's regiment; company return, dated 7 Oct. 1775; also, order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money, dated Roxbury, 8 Nov. 1775. (ibid., xiv: 149.)

Samuel Sherman applied for a pension in Plymouth County, 11 Apr. 1818, stating that he served eight months in Capt. Thomas Mayhew's company, Col. Cotton's regiment and immediately after in Capt. Stephen Badlam's Co., Col. Knox's regiment of Artillery for one year. Josiah Cotton, jr., of Plymouth testified as did also Benjamin Warren who was ensign for eight months, both serving under Capt. Mayhew. They also testified that a "Samuel Drew also served." There is no record of his obtaining the pension, and probably his death stopped proceedings. (Pension Records.)

Susannah Price of Plymouth, William Coomer of Duxbury, laborer, and Priscilla, his wife, in her right, sell, to Samuel Sherman, Jr., of Plymouth, hatter, part of a dwelling house in Plymouth that Jane Tinkham, late of said Plymouth, deceased, died seized of, it being the lower part of the house with the chamber over the little room, 6 Apr. 1799. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 86: 119.)

Samuel Sherman, Jr., of Plymouth sells to Lemuel Drew of Plymouth, one-half of a pew in the first precinct Church, Mr. James Kendall, pastor, which he had lately purchased of his father, Samuel Sherman, 11 Mar. 1802. Lydia Sherman, wife of Samuel, releases her dower. (ibid., 93: 245.)

Samuel Sherman, Jr., of Plymouth sells to Phebe Churchill, widow of Benjamin Churchill, part of a dwelling house in Plymouth; Lydia releases her dower; Lydia Sherman, Jr., witnesses, 19 Oct. 1803. (ibid., 96: 141.)

Thomas-B. Sherman, cabinet-maker, Silvanus Bramhall, goldsmith, and Samuel Sherman, cabinet-maker, were bonded for the administration on the estate of Samuel Sherman, late of Plymouth, deceased, in March 1820. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18185.)

Samuel Sherman, Thomas-B. Sherman, Joseph Bramhall and Lydia his wife, all of Plymouth, for one dollar, convey to Lydia Sherman, widow, of Plymouth, all their rights in the house, land, etc., of which Samuel Sherman, deceased, died possessed, 5 Dec. 1818. (Deeds, 138: 232.)

Joseph Bramhall and Lydia his wife, of Plymouth, convey to Thomas-B.

Sherman, of Plymouth, cabinet-maker, one-half of a house on Summer St., of which Samuel Sherman of Plymouth, died seized; also, right in a house on Spring hill which was assigned to Remember Bramhall, dec'd, as her dower in the estate of Joseph Bramhall, dec'd, of Plymouth, 22 Jan. 1821. Witnesses, John-B. Thomas, Samuel Sherman; Lydia Bramhall, released her dower in the latter. (ibid., 142: 150.)

A stone was erected to Samuel Sherman on Burial Hill but none to his wife.

"This stone is erected
Mr Samuel Sherman who died Novem. 8, 1818
In the 67 year of his age."

Children, born in Plymouth, Mass.:

i. LYDIA [6], b. 19 Feb. 1790; m. 4 Sept. 1808, JOSEPH BRAMHALL, son of Joseph and Remember Bramhall.

144. ii. SAMUEL, b. 20 Sept., 1791; m. ELEANOR COVINGTON.

145. iii. THOMAS-BRANCH, b. 22 Jan. 1794; m. SUSAN DURFEY.

69. ELIJAH [5] SHERMAN (Samuel [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Plymouth, Mass., 29 Oct. 1753, died there, suddenly, 20 Oct. 1796. He married (published in Plymouth, 5 Mar. 1785) HANNAH (MORTON) THOMAS, born about 1753, died after 1806, daughter of Isaac and Maria (Lewis) Morton. She married first in Plymouth, 21 Apr. 1771, Ichabod Thomas, baptised there, 24 July 1748, died before 1785, son of John and Abigail (Dunham) Thomas.

Elijah Sherman served in the Revolution.

Elijah Sharman, Plymouth, Private, Capt. Jesse Harlow's company, which marched 20 April 1775, in response to the alarm of 19 Apr. 1775, to Marshfield; service 11 days; also, Capt. Thomas Mayhew's company, Col. Cotton's regiment, order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money, dated Roxbury, 8 Nov. 1775. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, xiv: 14.)

Elijah Sherman, Plymouth, Private, Capt. Thomas Mayhew's company, Col. Cotton's regiment; muster roll dated 1 Aug. 1775, enlisted 1 May 1775, service 3 mos., 8 days. (ibid., xiv: 137.)

Elijah Shermon, Plymouth, Private, Capt. Thomas Mayhew's company, Col. Theophilus Cotton's regiment; company return dated 7 Oct. 1775; also, Capt. Jesse Sturtevant's company, Col. Titcomb's regiment; service 2 mos., 5 days; company marched to Rhode Island, 28 Apr. 1777, roll dated Halifax. (ibid., xiv: 147.)

Elijah Sherman appears in the census of 1790 as a resident of Plymouth, having one male above sixteen, two males below sixteen, and three females in his family, that is himself and his wife, their two sons and daughter, Lydia, and probably his step-daughter, Mary.

He left no will and no administration was taken on his estate. On 31 Mar. 1806, Joseph Holmes of Plymouth was appointed guardian of Isaac Sherman, under 14, son of Elijah Sherman late of Plymouth deceased. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18128.)

Children, born in Plymouth, Mass.:

70. THOMAS [5] SHERMAN (Samuel [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Plymouth, Mass., 18 Apr. 1762, died probably after 1824. He married in Plymouth, 30 Sept. 1790, PRISCILLA CALDERWOOD, born probably about 1765, died after 1798, probably daughter of Samuel * and Priscilla (Bartlett) Calderwood.

Thomas Sherman was a hatmaker in Plymouth. On 12 Apr. 1790, he, with his brother William, sold rights in the estate of their grandfather, Thomas Sears. He does not again appear in the land records.

Children, born in Plymouth, Mass.:

148. i. THOMAS [6], b. 15 Aug. 1791; m. BETSEY SEARS.

71. WILLIAM [5] SHERMAN (Samuel [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Plymouth, Mass., 23 Nov. 1764, died at sea, 9 Jan. 1796. He married in Plymouth, 23 Nov. 1794, ELIZABETH DREW,

* Samuel Calderwood married Priscilla Bartlett and had a son Samuel born in 1761, according to Davis's Landmarks of Plymouth. There is no Samuel Calderwood mentioned in the Plymouth Probate records or deeds. There was a family of the name in Maine. Samuel Calderwood may have been a mariner, and never a resident of Plymouth. The only mention in probate or deeds of the name Calderwood is the administration of a Thomas Calderwood, mariner, granted to his wife Patience, 23 Oct. 1795.

born in Plymouth, 2 Dec. 1765, died there, 9 Oct. 1849, aged eighty-three years and ten months, daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Doggett) Drew.

At the time, 1790, that William Sherman sold, with his brother Thomas, his rights in their grandfather, Thomas Sears's, estate, he is called a "feltmaker" like his brother and father, but he must shortly have abandoned the calling and become a mariner, for six years later when he died the Plymouth Church records stated, "Capt W^{m} Sherma^{n} rtg fr West Ind^{s} bury^{d} at y^{e} Vineyard" 12 Jan. 1796.

Benjamin Drew of Plymouth conveys to Elizabeth Sherman, widow, and Margaret Richards, widow, my daughters, one half a pew in the first precinct meeting house, 12 Nov. 1811. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 117: 104.)

Benjamin Drew of Plymouth conveys, to Elizabeth Sherman, widow, his daughter, one third of a pew in the first precinct meeting house, 10 Aug. 1815. (ibid., 126: 83.)

Benjamin Drew of Plymouth conveys to sister Elizabeth Sherman of Plymouth, widow, house there, being the same of which my honored father died possessed, 7 Dec. 1820; witnessed by Elizabeth Sherman, 3d. (ibid., 142: 90.)

He died intestate.

Elizabeth Sherman, widow of William Sherman, late of Plymouth, mariner, deceased, asks to have her brother, Benjamin Drew, Jr., appointed his administrator, 18 Feb. 1796. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 1796.)

Elizabeth Sherman, widow, with Benjamin Drew and Benjamin Drew, Jr., on her bond, appointed guardian of Elizabeth Sherman, a minor under fourteen, and daughter and heir of William Sherman, late of Plymouth, deceased, 25 Feb. 1796. (ibid., 18115.)

Among the stones in the old Burial Ground in Plymouth is found the following:

"Capt William Sherman who died at sea Jan^{ry} 9th 1799 * and was interred at Martha's Vineyard in the 32^{d} year of his age.

"Capt William Sherman died at sea
Jan. 9 1796
Aged 32 years
Elizabeth Sherman his wife died Oct 9 1849
Aged 83 years
10 months.

* It is probable that this year is given erroneously, either an error of copyist or printer of the Epitaphs on Burial Hill.

God calls our loved ones but we lose not wholly
What he hath given
They live on earth, in thought and deed, as truly
As in His Heaven."

It is probable that the first inscription was placed on the stone by the widow, Elizabeth, and that when she died her daughter had the other engraved there.

72. BETTY [5] SHERMAN (Samuel [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), baptised in Plymouth, Mass., 19 Mar. 1769, died there, 27 July 1798, aged twenty-seven years. She married 1 Oct. 1790, Plymouth, CAPT. LEWIS HOLMES, born about 1766, died in Demarara, West Indies, 31 Dec. 1798 *, aged thirty-two years, son of Joseph and Phebe (Bartlett) Holmes.

Lewis Holmes did not have his children's births entered nor were they baptised before his death. The two surviving ones were brought to baptism after the decease of both their parents.

"Betsey Lewis & Mary Sherman Holmes, children of Lewis and Betsey Holmes both deceased baptized on their Grandmother Phebe Holmes' Right, 21 Apr. 1799." (Plymouth Church Records, 604.)

Children, probably all born in Plymouth:

i. BETSEY-LEWIS HOLMES, b. probably about 1791; m. HENRY CASSIDY.
ii. MARY-SHERMAN HOLMES, b. probably 1793; m. JOSEPH ALLEN.

* The Plymouth church records give the date of death as 11 July 1799, but he is called "deceased" in April 1799 so must have died before that date. The church date is probably the date the death was entered on the church records.

iii. REBECCA-DIMON HOLMES, b. 1795, d. 1796 aged 1 yr. and 1 mo.
iv. ESTHER HOLMES, b. 1798, d. 1798, aged 5 mos.

73. JOSEPH [5] SHERMAN (Ignatius [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Hanover, Mass., 23 Feb. 1754, died in Camden, Maine, 5 Apr. 1847, aged ninety-three years and eleven days. He married, first, 26 July 1780, Pembroke, SYLVESTA JOSSELYN, born in Pembroke, 11 Sept. 1757, died, probably in Camden, before 1835, daughter of Henry and Ann (———) Josselyn. He married secondly before 1835, ANNA (———) SARTELLE, who survived him.

Joseph Sherman was a Revolutionary soldier.

Joseph Shearman of Pembroke, private, Capt. Josiah Turner's company, Col. John Cushing's regiment; marched 9 Dec. 1776, service 17 days; company marched to Providence on an alarm. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, xiv: 85.)

Joseph Sherman appears in a list of men belonging to the several transports employed on the Penobscot expedition as per a roll made up agreeable to resolve of 23 Mar. 1784 and attested by Joshua Davis, Agent; said Sherman reported as belonging to the sloop, "Dolphin." (ibid.)

Joseph Sherman, a resident of Camden, Lincoln Co., Maine, aged 75 years, applied for a pension, 8 Aug. 1832. He stated he was born in Hanover, Mass., 23 Feb. 1754, and resided in Marshfield at the time of his enlistment. After the war he removed to Camden where he still resides. He entered on board the transport at Boston in 1778, Peleg Kent, Commander, to drive the enemy from Bagaduce, now Castine, and sailed in April; served four months being in the siege of Bagaduce under Capt. [illegible]. They were defeated and the fleet lost; later enlisted at Pembroke for three months under Capt. Joseph Clift and Col. Wall in 1779; went to Rhode Island and served three months under Gen. Sullivan.

Job Washburn of Thomaston and Hez. Pierce, also of Thomaston, can testify to character veracity, etc. The only person known who can testify to his service is his brother Nathan Sherman.

Nathan Sherman, aged seventy years, testified to the service of Joseph, "I was a soldier with him during Alarm."

He had supplementary service on the transport Dolphin, Commander Peleg Kent.

A certificate from the Secretary's Office states that his name appears on the pay-roll of Capt. Joseph Clifts' Co., Col. Josiah Whitney's Regiment, from July 29 to Sept. 13 1779; service and travel, 1 mo., 19 d.

Other records claimed are not found; No roll of Sloop Dolphin found; List of transports show that the Sloop Dolphin, Peleg Kent, Master, 1779, was employed on the expedition to the Penobscot, July 1779.

He was granted a pension. (Pension Record, S. 31956, Washington, D. C.)

The family still possess the following certificate:

* The church records give: "a child of Lewis Holmes, d. 5 Aug. 1795; twin children of Lewis Holmes, d. 27 Nov. 1797." This does not fit the records on the gravestone.

"War Department, Revolutionary Claim.

I certify that, in conformity with the laws of the United States of the 7th of June 1832, Joseph Sherman of the State of Maine who was a private in the Revolutionary War is entitled to receive Twenty-three dollars and thirty-three cents per annum, during his natural life, commencing on the 4th day of March, 1831, and payable semi annually on the 4th day of March and the 4th day of September in every year.

Given at the war office of the United States, this 20th day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three,

Lewis Cass
Secretary of War.

Examined and Countersigned J. L. Edward Commissioner of Pensions."

It was probably due to Joseph Sherman's service at the Penobscot that he became interested in Maine. He stated that after the war he went there to live, and he evidently was there between 1782 and 1786. He appears in the census of 1790 for Camden, Maine, with a family of one male above 16 (himself); two below 16 (Joseph, Jr., and Henry); and two females (his wife and daughter Nancy).

He settled on the Belfast road. He owned much property in Camden and built a large two story hip-roofed house which was unfortunately taken down. He was a farmer, acquiring his first land from Gen. Knox.

Cushing Thomas, Jr., and Alexander Thomas of Vinalhaven, yeomen, convey land in Camden to Joseph Sherman, Jr., 16 Nov. 1835, Lucy-G. Thomas releasing her dower. Wit: Robert Chase, J. P., Ignatius Sherman. (ibid., 21: 407.)

On this same date they mortgaged more property to Joseph Sherman. (Ibid., 22: 95.)

Also on this same date, 16 Nov. 1835, Joseph Sherman of Camden, sells to Cushing Thomas and Alexander Thomas, both of Vinalhaven, 200 acres of land in Camden, Anna Sherman releasing her dower.* Wit: Robert Chase, J. P., Ignatius Sherman. (ibid., 19: 450.)

* Joseph Sherman in his will (vide post) speaks so peculiarly of Anna that it might be thought she was not married to him. She undoubtedly was his legal wife, for she not only releases her dower in this deed but she is given her share of his estate, and the family speak of his marriage to the "Widow Sartelle."

Joseph Sherman left a will of which an abstract follows:

Joseph Sherman of Camden, Waldo Co., yeoman, will dated 29 Jan. 1846, proved June 1847. He bequeathed to Anna Sherman, "who has lived with me as my wife for a long time past and still lives with me at the date above written under the name of Anna Sherman aforesaid, One Thousand and fifty dollars and all my household furniture except certain articles herinafter bequeathed to my daughter Nancy Jones wife of Samuel Jones and to my son Almaraine Sherman;" to son Ignatius Sherman, bank stock; to son Joseph Sherman, Jr., $10.00; to son Henry Sherman, $10.00; to son Almeraine Sherman, real estate; to daughter Nancy Jones, certain personal property; residue to son Almeraine for his support and at his death any balance to be divided between son Ignatius and daughter Nancy Jones; son Ignatius to be executor.

It was ordered by the Court that $4.00 per month be paid to Almeraine in consequence of the sickness of said Almeraine. (Waldo Co., Probate, 18: 550.)

Children, born in Pembroke and Camden:

i. WELTHEA [6], b. 7 Aug. 1780, bapt. 2 June 1781, d. unm. before 1790.

150. ii. JOSEPH, b. 2 Oct. 1782; m. SARAH KIDDER.

iii. NANCY, b. 17 Mar. 1786, d. after 1846; m. about 1803, SAMUEL JONES, b. probably about 1783, d. after 1846. Children (JONES), b. Brooks, Maine, (1) Nancy, b. 7 Sept. 1805; (2) Abigail, b. 4 Oct. 1807; (3) Daniel, b. 23 July 1809; (4) Oliver, b. 23 Dec. 1815; (5) Cordelia, b. 8 Nov. 1817; (6) Horace-Wilder, b. 12 Feb. 1820; (7) Sylvesta-Joslin, b. 22 Apr. 1822; (8) Mary-Ann, b. 1 Dec. 1825; (9) Samuel, b. 7 May 1828.

151. iv. HENRY I., b. 23 Oct. 1788; m. ELIZABETH PENDLETON.

v. ALMERAINE, b. 6 Jan. 1792, living with his brother Joseph in Camden in 1850. He served as a private in Capt. C. Curtis's company, Lt.-Col. E. Foote's regiment, from 22 to 25 June, 1814; company raised in Camden, service there. (Massachusetts Militia in the War of 1812, 198.) He also served in the same company and regiment from 3 to 10 Sept. 1814; also in Lt. E. Hanford's Guards, same regiment, from 21 to 23 Sept. 1814, all the service being in Camden. (ibid., p. 199.)

vi. CYRUS, b. 24 Dec. 1796, d. between 1823 and 1846, without issue; m. HANNAH FREEMAN. He settled in Brooks, Maine where he became a Justice of the Peace and where he bought and sold land, calling himself "trader" as late as 1823, when he vanished from the records.

152. vii. IGNATIUS, b. 11 Oct. 1798; m. ELITHEA GRAFFAM.

74. NATHAN [5] SHERMAN (Ignatius [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 18 Mar. 1760, died in South Thomaston, Maine, 21 May 1851. He married in Marshfield, 16 Aug. 1785, BETHIA THOMAS, born in Marshfield, 12 July 1766, died in South Thomaston, 19 Oct. 1826, aged sixty-one years, daughter of Abijah and Deborah (———) Thomas.

Nathan Sherman was a soldier of the Revolution.

Nathan Sherman, Sergeant, capt. Joseph Soper's company, Col. Theophilus Cotton's (Plymouth County) regiment; engaged 5 Mar. 1781, discharged, 20 May 1781, serving fifteen days of a forty days expedition to Rhode Island. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, xiv: 148.)

Soon after his marriage, Nathan Sherman went to Thomaston, Maine, where he bought land of Gen. Knox, 18 Sept. 1801. (Hancock Co., Deeds, 56: 63.) He was living there in 1790, with one male above sixteen, one below sixteen, and three females in his family. He made his home in his latter years with his son Abijah, and in 1850 is listed as a member of his family with his age given as "85". He was really about ninety in 1850.

Children, probably all born in South Thomaston, Maine:

153. i. NATHAN [6], b. about 1786 (aged 62 in 1850, should be 64); m. HANNAH-B. COBB.

ii. ABIGAIL, b. about 1788 (aged 62 in 1850), died after 1850; m. 18 Mar. 1804, Thomaston, JEREMIAH SLEEPER, b. about 1781, Maine, (aged 69 in 1850), died after 1850. Lived in Rockland. 157. x. THOMAS, b. 1810; m. MARGARET HENDERSON and PHEBE HOLBROOK.

75. CAPTAIN ASA [5] SHERMAN (Ignatius [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 12 Apr. 1773, died there, 26 Apr. 1870, aged ninety-seven years and fourteen days. He married about 1798, POLLY KENT, probably born in Plymouth*, Mass., 28 Dec. 1775, died in Marshfield, 10 Jan. 1878, aged one hundred and two years, and thirteen days, daughter of William and Mary (Sampson) Kent.

Captain Asa Sherman was a master mariner, sailing out of Marshfield and Plymouth. After he retired from the sea, he cultivated his farm, but never became much interested in real estate. He was a prominent member of the first church, being for many years a parish assessor. At the time of his death, he had been married more than seventy years and his widow survived him for eight years more. In an account of Marshfield, written in 1869, he is spoken of as being "still hale at 96 years."

In 1850, his family contained besides himself, aged 77; Polly (his wife), aged 75; Polly (his daughter), aged 50; Welthea (a daughter), aged 47; Alice-W. (a daughter), aged 39; Sarah-D. (a granddaughter), aged 6; and Pelham-W. Dingley, aged 13. In 1870, Mary, aged 95, with Polly, aged 70, Alice, aged 57 (sic), and Winslow Loring, aged 49, formed one household while ten years later, in 1880, Polly, aged 80, and Alice-W., aged 71, were all that were left in the home. Alice's ages are interesting, showing the middle-aged desire to be younger than reality and the old-age desire to appear still older than the truth.

Edward White, agent for Joseph White and for himself, and agent for Elizabeth White in her release of dower, and all of North Carolina, conveys, to Asa Sherman of Marshfield, a parcel of land in Marshfield, 9 Aug. 1802. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 95: 268.)

Sylvanus White of Marshfield sells, to Asa Sherman of Marshfield, land there, 25 May 1810. (ibid., 113: 189.)

Asa Sherman of Marshfield conveys, to Abner Eames of Marshfield, land there; Polly Sherman releases her dower; witnesses, Ignatius and Lydia Sherman, 19 Feb. 1811. (ibid., 115: 145.)

Samuel Thomas of Vinal Haven, Hancock Co., (Maine) sells, to Asa Sherman of Marshfield, woodland in Marshfield, one-half of which was owned by his father Samuel Thomas, deceased, of Vinal Haven, the other half by Ignatius Sherman, father of said Asa Sherman, 1 Oct. 1811. (ibid., 124: 23.)

Administration on the estate of Asa Sherman of Marshfield, who died there, 26 Apr. 1870, was granted to Asa Sherman of Marshfield, who gave bonds in Court with Luther-P. Hatch and George-W. Ventress, 10 June 1878. In his petition for the appointment, Asa stated that the deceased left a widow, Polly Sherman; a son, Asa Sherman of Marshfield; daughters, Polly Sherman of Marshfield; Abigail

* The record of her death gives her birthplace as Duxbury, and another record states that she was born in Marshfield.

Southworth of Stoughton; Alice-W. Sherman of Marshfield; and son, William Sherman of Marshfield, and that the widow died before June, 1778. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 138: 332.)

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

i. Polly [6], b. 15 Sept. 1799, d. 11 Mar. 1892, aged 92 yrs., unmarried. In her will made, 7 Nov. 1882, proved 1892, she gave to her brother Asa Sherman; to niece Ann-Maria Ventress; to niece Hannah-D. Sherman; to sister Abigail C. Southworth and her four children, viz., Massena, William, Edgar, and Malvina; residue to brother William Sherman and niece Sarah-D. Ford.

158. ii. Asa, b. 28 Feb. 1801; m. Anne-Phillips Loring.

iii. Welthean, b. 22 Feb. 1803, d. 10 Dec. 1851, aged 48 yrs., 9 mos. 18 days.

iv. Abigail-C., b. 15 Aug. 1806, living 1899; m. 4 Mar. 1825, Amasa Southworth, b. 4 Mar. 1807, Stoughton, Mass., d. 12 Mar. 1872, son of Consider and Mary (Hixon) Southworth. Children (Southworth), b. Stoughton, (1) Abigail-Malvina, b. 10 Dec. 1830; (2) Marsena-Ballou, b. 9 June 1834; (3) William-Sherman, b. 9 June 1839; (4) Amasa-Edwin, b. 8 May 1844. Mr. Southworth was a thread manufacturer.

v. Alice-W., b. 24 Feb. 1810, d. 25 May 1882, unmarried. Her eldest brother, Asa, was appointed her administrator, her heirs being, Polly Sherman, sister; Asa Sherman, brother; Abigail Southworth of Stoughton, widow, sister; William Sherman of Marshfield, brother, while her nephews, Massena-B. Southworth of Stoughton, and Amasa E. Southworth of East Somerville, were Asa's bondsmen.

159. vi. William, b. 25 May 1813; m. Ruth S. W. Thomas and Abigail-Phillips Hatch.

76. ELEANOR [5] SHERMAN (William [4], William [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 27 Sept. 1767, died after 1809. She married in Rochester, 4 Dec. 1793, Samuel Swift, called of Wareham, birth and death unknown.

They apparently lived in that part of Rochester that later became the town of Mattapoisett.

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

i. Samuel Swift, b. 1798, d. 1800 aged 2 yrs.

ii. Susanna Swift, bapt. 1804, Mattapoisett Church.

iii. Waite Swift, b. July 1806, bapt. 1807, Mattapoisett Church, d. 9 Oct. 1807, aged 1 yr., 3 mos.

iv. Eleanor-Spooner Swift, b. Jan. 1809, bapt. 1812, d. 19 Apr. 1816, aged 7 yrs., 4 mos.

77. PRUDENCE [5] SHERMAN (William [4], William [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 10 May 1769, died there 27 Jan. 1841, aged seventy-two years. She married in Rochester, 4 Jan. 1790, EBENEZER HAMMOND, born in Rochester, 16 Mar. 1762, died there 19 June 1841,* aged seventy-nine years, son of Sylvanus and Hannah (Randall) Hammond.

There is no estate of this Ebenezer Hammond in Plymouth County, but it is possible that one may exist in Bristol County.

Children, recorded in Rochester, Mass.:

i. POLLY HAMMOND, b. 8 Sept. 1790, d. 6 Apr. 1796.
ii. CHARLES HAMMOND, b. 20 Jan. 1792; m. 20 June 1819, LUCINDA PARLOW.
iii. MERCY HAMMOND, b. 1 Oct. 1794, d. 6 Apr. 1796.
iv. DAVID HAMMOND, twin, b. 26 Mar. 1797.
v. JONATHAN HAMMOND, twin, b. 26 Mar. 1797, d. 6 May 1798.
vi. BETSEY HAMMOND, b. 1800, d. 27 Nov. 1868.

78. THOMAS[5] SHERMAN (William[4], William[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 11 Nov. 1777, died there, 20 Jan. 1848, aged seventy-one years, five months, and eight days. He married in Rochester, 30 May 1799, LYDIA DEXTER, born about 1779, died in Rochester, 5 Aug. 1804, daughter of Seth * and Mary (Corby) Dexter.

Thomas Sherman was a school-teacher. In his death record he is called "single" and it is quite possible that whoever entered it on the records did not know of his early marriage and loss of his young wife.

Thomas Sherman of Rochester, schoolmaster, and Lydia his wife, with Elnathan Eldridge Jun[r] and Rebecca his wife, of New Bedford, sells to Elias Dexter of Rochester, land owned in common with Nancy Dexter, being part of the farm of Seth Dexter of Rochester, deceased, 20 Jan. 1800. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 135: 41.)

Elizabeth Dexter of Rochester, singlewoman, quits to Reuben Tinkham and Mary his wife, Thomas Sherman, Schoolmaster, all of Rochester, Peter Washburn and Nancy his wife and Charles Chandler and Rebecca his wife, all of New Bedford, all her right to certain land in Rochester, 31 Oct. 1805. (ibid., 133: 152.)

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

i. LYDIA, b. 18 Sept. 1800, d. 14 Nov. 1801.
ii. NANCY, b. 15 Feb. 1801 (sic) should be 1802, d. 25 Nov. 1803.

79. DANIEL[5] SHERMAN (William[4], William[3], Samuel[2], William[1], born in Rochester, Mass., 28 May 1779, died after 1810. He

* The Hammond Genealogy, p. 573, states that he died in New Bedford, Mass., and it may be that the record of death appearing in Rochester does not indicate that he died in that town.

* There were four contemporaneous Seth Dexters living in Rochester at the time Seth and Mary (Corby) had their children. The only death of record is that of Deacon Seth Dexter, son of Benjamin, b. 3 Oct. 1718, d. 6 Apr. 1793, in his 75th yr., testate. He was not father of Lydia. SETH DEXTER, b. 17 Feb. 1723, son of Jabez, m. 21 May 1753, MARY CORBY or KERBY, and had baptised in Rochester, Isaiah, 14 Apr. 1754; Sarah, 2 Sept. 1755; Jabez, 10 Aug. 1758; Mary, 27 June 1762; Elisha, 28 Apr. 1765; Elizabeth, 2 Oct. 1768; and Elias, 7 June 1772. Rebecca, Nancy, and Lydia, his other children, have no baptisms recorded and they apparently were the youngest children. It is probable that Seth Dexter moved to some other town about 1773, or the minister may just have failed to record the baptisms. He probably died about 1799.

married in Rochester, 5 April 1804, RUTH REED, who died after 1810.

Their children are not recorded in Rochester but they had three daughters before 1810, as the census of that year lists Daniel as having in his family, a male and female between 26 and 45 years of age (himself and Ruth) and three females under 10. He appears in no later census and evidently left Rochester.

Children:

i. A daughter, b. between 1800–1810.
ii. A daughter, b. between 1800–1810.
iii. A daughter, b. between 1800–1810.

80. SARAH[5] SHERMAN (William[4], William[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 18 Aug. 1779, died there, 2 Nov. 1842. She married, as his second wife, (published in Rochester, 8 Aug. 1810) JESSE PARLOW, born in Rochester, 3 Mar. 1763, died there, 22 Apr. 1847, aged eighty-three years, one month, and thirteen days, son of Nathaniel and Sarah (Wing) Parlow. He married first in Rochester, 29 Nov. 1787, Elizabeth Randall, born 1770, died in Rochester, 1 Apr. 1810 in her forty-first year.

Jesse Parlow was a mariner. He left no will and no administration was taken on his estate in Plymouth County.

By first wife, Elizabeth Randall,

i. PHEBE PARLOW, b. 12 Dec. 1791.
ii. JESSE PARLOW, b. 2 Jan. 1793; m. ANNE ———, possibly daughter of Richard[4] Sherman.
iii. NATHANIEL PARLOW, b. 6 Jan. 1795.

81. WILLIAM[5] SHERMAN (William[4], William[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 17 Jan. 1785, died * between 1860 and 1880. He married (published in Rochester, in October 1814, certificate issued there 26 Dec. 1814) EXPERIENCE HILLER, born in Rochester, 4 Nov. 1788, died there 27 May 1869, daughter of John and Lucy (Burge) Hiller.

William Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, sells to Seth C. Hiller of Rochester, a dwelling house in Rochester which the said William built and in which he now dwells, Experience, his wife, releasing her dower, 30 Mar. 1833. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 176: 170.)

William Sherman the second of Rochester, yeoman, sells to Charles Hammond of Rochester, yeoman, land there formerly a part of honored Father's homestead farm, bounded on Deacon Elijah Dexter, Experience Sherman releasing her dower, 22 Nov. 1816. (ibid., 129: 90.)

William Sherman appears in the census of 1820 with one male between 26 and 43; one female between 16 and 26, and two males under 10. He does not appear in the census of 1830, probably being omitted by the man taking it. In 1840, he has one male between 50 and 60; one female between 40 and 50; one male and one female between 20 and 30; one female between 15 and 20. In 1850, the census calls him William Sherman, aged 67, laborer, born Rochester, Mass., with Experience his wife, aged 62, Stephen, aged 33 and Nathan, aged 31. In 1860, he is aged 77 and Experience is aged 72. All these records make him born in 1783 instead of 1785.

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

i. STEPHEN[6], b. 24 Dec. 1816, unm. in 1850.
ii. NATHAN, b. 22 Apr. 1819, unm. in 1850.

82. HUMPHREY[5] SHERMAN (Richard[4], William[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 31 Aug. 1794, died in Marion, Mass., 27 Jan. 1879, aged eighty-four years, four months, and twenty-six days. He married first in Rochester, 11 Oct. 1820, LOIS BLACKWELL, born about 1795–1800, baptised with brothers†, in Rochester, July 1808, died there, 22 Aug. 1829, daughter of Seth and Susanna

* The Mass. State vital records give the death of a William Sherman in Dartmouth, 18 Nov. 1870, aged eighty-seven years, nine months, and twenty-two days, born in Rochester, his parents not given. This would make him born on 26 Jan. 1783. It is perhaps the record of death of the above William with the age exaggerated as is so frequently the case with old people. The record of death of Experience gives her as born in Rochester the daughter of John "Miller" and dying there, 27 May 1869 aged eighty-one years.

† These children are baptised as those of Seth and Lois Blackwell, an evident error of the clerk, There was no Seth Blackwell married to a Lois but Seth Blackwell, son of Seth and Ruth (Sturtevant) Blackwell, b. 28 Nov. 1768, Rochester, m. there, 9 Oct. 1791, Susanna Bennett. A deed in Plymouth Co., Registry (86: 118) is signed by Seth Blackwell Jr. and his wife Susanna Blackwell in 1798. They did not register the births of their children but in July 1808, they had baptised, John, Loice, and Seth, and the clerk entered them on the records as children of Seth and Lois. Seth, Lois's brother d. 28 Oct. 1817, aged 17 yrs., 4 mos., and hence was b. June 1800.

There is on the Rochester Records the publishment of Lois Blackwell and Constant Gibbs of Wareham, 5 July 1817, but they were not married. Constant Gibbs died before 8 Oct. 1817 when administration on his estate was granted to Prince Burgess of Wareham at the request of his father, John Gibbs. Constant was a mariner and possibly was drowned.

(Bennett) Blackwell. He married secondly, in Rochester, 4 June 1830, PRUDENCE * BRYANT, born in Plympton, Mass., 23 Jan. 1793, died before 1850, daughter of Joshua and Dorcas (Hayward) Bryant.

Humphrey Sherman was a shoemaker in Rochester. He appears but little on the records.

"I Humphrey Sherman of Rochester . . . Cordwainer . . . in consideration of [$113.60] . . . paid by Noah C. Perkins, convey unto the said Noah C. Perkins . . . lot of land in said Rochester . . . with all the buildings thereon," etc. (a mortgage), 13 Mar. 1846. On 7 Mar. 1848, he gave peaceable possession of the premises following foreclosure proceedings. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 221: 178, 227: 253.)

Humphrey Sherman appears in the census of 1830, as living in Rochester, with a family consisting of one male between 30 and 40 (himself), one female between 20 and 30 (his newly married wife? †), one female between 10 and 15 (Catherine-Elizabeth); one male between 5 and 10 (Edward-Augustus); one female under 5 (Lois-Blackwell). He appears in the census of 1850, as aged "50", born Rochester and living there with Lucius Waterman, aged 30, a carpenter, born Middleboro; Bradford Waterman, aged 4; and Blanch Waterman, aged 1. Evidently his wife had deceased and so had Waterman's wife, Lydia-C. (Morse) Waterman.

Humphrey Sherman died intestate and no administration was taken on his estate.

By first wife, Lois Blackwell,

i. CATHERINE-ELIZABETH, b. 1 Aug. 1821, probably d. unm. before 1850.

160. ii. EDWARD-AUGUSTUS, b. 17 Oct. 1823; m. LOIS-CHURCH BENNETT.

iii. LOIS-BLACKWELL, b. 14 Aug. 1829, d. 21 June 1895, Mattapoisett; m. 14 Mar. 1847, Rochester, GEORGE-W. LEWIS, b. 8 Nov. 1824, Rochester, d. before 1895, son of George and Betsey (———) Lewis. Children (LEWIS), (1) A son, b. 30 Mar. 1848; (2) A son, b. 25 Apr. 1849.

By second wife, Prudence Bryant, iv. SARAH-MARIA, b. 26 Feb. 1831, d. 7 Jan. 1895, aged 64 yrs., 10 mos., 16 days, Mattapoisett; m. 27 Oct. 1853, Rochester, CHARLES-WARREN SMITH, b. 1827, Martha's Vineyard, d. 28 Nov. 1875, aged 49 yrs., 2 mos., 25 days, Mattapoisett, son of Francis and Lucy-Hammond (Snow) Smith.

* In the death record of her daughter, Sarah-Maria (Sherman) Smith, Prudence is given as "Lucy" Bryant. Prudence had a younger sister Lucy and possibly after her death, this aunt brought up the children, and therefore her name was more familiar to the grandchildren than their own grandmother's.

† If the census was taken after 4 June 1830, this was his second wife who had not told the truth about her age, as she was aged 37 in 1830 and older than he, but if the census was taken before that date, this woman may have been some one who was looking after the children, possibly a sister of his.

v. HUMPHREY-LEONARD, b. 4 Mar. 1832, d. 2 Jan. 1872, aged "38" years, Mattapoisett; m. 27 Oct. 1853, Rochester, ABBY J. LUCE, b. 29 June 1834, Rochester, d. 14 July 1908, aged 76 years, Fall River, daughter of George-Anson and Abigail (Delano) Luce.

83. KELLEY [5] SHERMAN (Richard [4], William [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born probably in Rochester in May 1796, died there, 26 Oct. 1868, aged seventy-two years and five months. He married * (published in Rochester 3 June 1823) SALLY-S. BLACKMER, born there 26 Jan. 1803, died there, 15 Dec. 1873, daughter of Capt. James and Nancy (Whitney) Blackmer.

Kelley Sherman was a mariner.

On 8 Aug. 1826, with Thomas Blackmer he mortgaged to Richard Cowing of Rochester, a housewright, land and buildings which they had just purchased of him, being his late homestead. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 162: 27.)

In 1830, he appears in the census as living in Rochester with a family consisting of one male between 30–40 (himself); one female between 50–60 (his mother-in-law, Nancy (Whitney) Blackmer); and one female between 20–30 (his wife). In 1840, the family was one male between 40–50; one female between 60–70; one between 15–20 (sic) evident error of copyist; two males between 5–10; two males under 5. In 1850, Kelley Sherman aged 53, laborer; Sarah, his wife, aged 47; Nehemiah, aged 15; James, aged 13; Susan-L., aged 9; Mary-F. aged 7; and Nancy Blackmere, aged 71, made up the family. In 1860, Kelly, aged 63, had in his household, Sarah, his wife, aged 56; Nehemiah, aged 25, a shoemaker; James, aged 23; Susan, aged 19; Mary, aged 16; and Nancy Blackmore, aged 81. Naturally he does not appear in 1870, with any family.

No will or administration of his has been found.

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

i. WILLIAM K.[6], b. 1828, Dartmouth, d. 20 Oct. 1864, aged 36, New Bedford.

ii. THOMAS-BLACKMER [6], b. 9 Mar. 1832, death unknown; m. 24 June 1852, East Bridgewater, JANE S. HALE, b. 1833, Maine, death unknown, daughter of Zaccheus and Clarissa (———) Hale.

iii. NEHEMIAH, b. 20 Apr. 1835. He apparently never married; in 1860, being with his father, and in 1880, he aged 43, shoemaker, was head of a household with his sister Susie Pierce, aged 39, keeping house for him.

iv. JAMES-B. [? BLACKMER], b. 27 Aug. 1837; m. 13 Feb. 1874, Acushnet, CLARA-LUCY WHITNEY, b. 1852, Fairhaven, dau. of George-D., and Sarah (Jenney) Whitney.

* It seems possible that the marriage did not follow the publishment very promptly, the first child found being born in 1828, five years later. A Kelly Sherman was published in Dartmouth to Sally Lapham, 17 Jan. 1827 and it is rather unlikely that there were two Kelly Shermans. He may not have married Sally Blackmer until after this publishment but she was undoubtedly the mother of his children as her death record shows. It is possible that she married a Lapham between 1823 & 1827 who died soon.

v. SUSAN-L.*, b. 6 Aug. 1840, d. after 1880; m. 21 July 1861, WILLIAM-N. PIERCE, b. 17 Apr. 1831, Rochester, d. probably before 1880 without issue, son of Eliphalet and Johanna Pierce.

vi. MARY-F., b. Apr. 1843, d. 16 Mar. 1875, aged 31 yrs., 11 mos., Rochester, without issue; m. 25 Oct. 1874, EMANUEL-E. RODERICK (Roderigue in marr. rec.), b. 1851, son of Frank-E., and Hannah (———) Roderick.

84. GERSHOM [5] SHERMAN (Gershom [4], Gershom [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 13 Mar. 1781, died there, 12 July 1827. He married in Marshfield, 29 May 1810, HULDA CARVER, born there, 2 May 1792, died after 1828, daughter of Alanson and Hulda (Barstow) Carver and granddaughter of Israel and Margaret [5] (Sherman) Carver. She married secondly in Marshfield as his second wife, Calvin Lewis, Jr., son of Calvin and Hulda (———) Lewis, whose first wife Abigail, died in Marshfield, 8 June 1827, aged thirty-four years and twenty-five days.

Gershom Sherman was probably a farmer in Marshfield where he lived his entire life.

Gershom Sherman and Huldah his wife conveyed to Israel Carver also of Marshfield, land there which belonged to Alanson Carver, deceased, of Marshfield and which descended to Huldah from her honored father, the said Alanson Carver, 28 Sept. 1820. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 142: 206.)

No will or administration of Gershom Sherman is of record.

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

i. HULDAH-BARSTOW [6], b. 15 Nov. 1810, d. 12 Oct. 1879, aged 68 yrs. 11 mos., Marshfield; m. 14 Mar. 1830, Marshfield, SAMUEL HALL, b. 24 Apr. 1800, d. 13 Nov. 1870, aged 70 yrs., 6 mos., and 20 days son of Luke and Anna (———) Hall. He married first, CHRISTIANA ——— who d. 28 July 1829, Duxbury. Children (HALL) born in Duxbury, by first wife Christiana, (1) A daughter, b. and d. 22 May 1828; (2) A daughter, b. 21 July 1829, d. 1829; by Huldah-Barstow Sherman, (3) Huldah, b. 25 June 1831, d. 6 Oct. 1832; (4) Samuel, b. 3 Aug. 1832; (5) Walter-S., b. 6 Aug. 1833; (6) Marcia-S., b. 31 Oct. 1834.

161. ii. LUTHER, b. 13 Mar. 1813; m. AUGUSTA-C. BAKER.

iii. SOPHIA, b. 17 Dec. 1814, d. 25 Jan. 1895, Boston, Mass.; m. abt. 1840, EDWARD-T. LORING, b. 27 Nov. 1814, Duxbury, d. 9 May 1896, East Boston, son of Wadsworth and Lucy (Sampson) Loring. He was a caulker and boat builder in East Boston. Children (LORING), born East Boston, (1) A daughter, b. 1841, d. 1842; (2) Mary-R., b. 1842; (3) Lucy-A., b. 1844; (4) Edward-T., b. 1846; (5) Ella-Thaxter, b. 28 July 1855.

iv. SUSAN, b. 29 Mar. 1817, nothing further found.

* Her name is given in the Rochester vital records as "Lucy-L." but in both census records and her marriage record she is called "Susan", and Nehemiah's sister "Susie Pierce" was his housekeeper in 1880.

v. ELIZA-HOWLAND, b. 4 Nov. 1819, d. 30 Aug. 1875, aged 55 yrs., 9 mos., and 26 days; m. 6 Feb. 1842, WILLIAM LAPHAM. A William Lapham died 15 Dec. 1842, aged 36 yrs., Marshfield.

vi. WELTHEAN-A., b. 21 Dec. 1821, d. 11 Mar. 1898, Boston, a widow; m. 17 June 1843, Marshfield, her cousin SIMEON-W. KEENE, b. 1819, Marshfield, d. 25 May 1875, aged 56 yrs., East Boston, son of Simeon and Nancy (Carver) Keene*. He was a shipwright.

162. vii. JACOB-BARSTOW, b. 17 Feb. 1824; m. SABRA-C. LEWIS and CHRISTIANA OSTMAN.

163. viii. GERSHOM, b. 21 Apr. 1826; m. ELLEN-M. ROGERS.

ix. JOSEPH-PHILLIPS, b. 2 Jan. 1828, d. 20 May 1875, aged 47 yrs., 4 mos., and 16 days, Boston; m. 30 Nov. 1854, Marshfield, SARAH-M. GARDNER, b. 1835, Scituate, d. 30 Mar. 1881, a widow, Marshfield, daughter of Stephen and Maria (Ford) Gardner. Children (SHERMAN), born in Boston, (1) A daughter, b. 26 Apr. 1860; (2) Harry Phillips, b. 16 Oct. 1869. Probably other children.

85. ARTHUR [5] SHERMAN (Gershom [4], Gershom [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 26 Dec. 1785, died in Scituate, Mass., 29 Jan. 1817, aged thirty-two years. He married in Scituate, 25 Mar. 1810, HENRIETTA CHURCH, born in Scituate, 16 Dec. 1789, died after 1829, daughter of Capt. Thomas and Hannah (Woodworth) Church. She married secondly in Kingston, Mass., 1 Jan. 1829, Joseph Ewell of Marshfield.

Children, born in Marshfield or Scituate:

i. MARIETTA [6], b. 6 Dec. 1813; m. 28 Nov. 1833, Marshfield, WILLIAM [7] SHERMAN. See his account.

ii. HANNAH-E., b. 1816; perhaps m. 10 Jan. 1834, LUTHER DECROW of Marshfield.

86. DEACON WILLIAM [5] SHERMAN (John [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 4 July 1748, died there, 23 Jan. 1814, aged sixty-five years. He married (published in Rochester, 26 May 1776) HANNAH STETSON, born in Rochester, 4 July 1757, died there, 23 Feb. 1816, aged fifty-eight years, daughter of Charles and Bathsheba (Nye) Stetson.†

William Sherman was a housewright and was deacon of the first Congregational church of Rochester for many years.

William Sherman of Rochester, served as a private in Capt. Earl Clap's company of Minute-men, Col. Theophilus Cotton's regiment which marched

* Nancy Carver was a daughter of Alanson and Hulda (Barstow) Carver and a granddaughter of Israel and Margaret (Sherman) Carver.

† According to the printed vital statistics of Rochester, she was daughter of Clark and Susanna Stetson. The children of Clark and Susanna Stetson are all baptised as the children of Charles and Bathsheba Stetson. Clark and Susanna's marriage is not given in Rochester and they had a son Charles. "Charles Stutson" of Hanover married (published in Rochester, 9 Aug. 1752) Bathsheba Nye. The dates of birth of the children of Charles and Bathsheba are not given in the printed records. No Clark Stetson appears in the deeds before 1850, so evidently "Clark and Susanna" is an error.

on the Alarm of 19 April 1775; service 7 days; reported returned home. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, xiv: 149.) *

Samuel Sampson of Rochester deeds to William Sherman of Rochester, housewright, land there, Rebecca Sampson, his wife, releasing her dower, 26 Feb. 1776. Wit: Thomas Whiteridge, Jonath Moore. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 77: 227.)

John and David Randall convey to William Sherman 3rd, all of Rochester, land there, 8 Mar. 1780. (ibid., 93: 199.)

John Clap of Rochester, gentleman, deeds to William Sherman of Rochester, housewright, land there, Ruth Clap releasing her dower, 4 Apr. 1789; Wit: Joshua Sherman, Ansel Bassett. (ibid., 69: 77.)

Earl Clap of Rochester, Gentleman, deeds to William Sherman of same, carpenter, woodland near Dartmouth line in Rochester, Sarah Clap releasing her dower, 13 Mar. 1790. Wit: John Clap, Kenelm Clap. (ibid., 77: 228.)

William Sherman 3rd also bought a house and land in Rochester from Jonathan Haskell, 20 Aug. 1791. (ibid., 94: 174.)

William Sherman, 3rd, of Rochester, housewright, sells to Stephen Luce of Rochester, land there, his wife Hannah Sherman releasing her dower, 16 Apr. 1793. Wit: Justice White,† Keziah Luce. (ibid., 73: 258.)

Joshua Sherman, yeoman, of Rochester, conveys to William Sherman, Jr., of Rochester, land there, 29 June 1801. (ibid., 94: 172.)

William Sherman of Rochester, housewright, sells to Allen Marshall of Rochester, woodland there, 29 June 1801; Signed William Sherman, Hannah Sherman; Wit. Joshua Sherman, Uriel Sherman. (ibid., 102: 36.)

William Sherman died testate. He is called William Sherman 2nd in all the papers in the probate file.

William Sherman of Rochester "being somewhat advanced in years," made his will, 4 Oct. 1813. He gave to wife Hannah; to two daughters, Rebecca and Nancy Sherman, now single women; after wife's death the property given her to go to two grandchildren, Joseph Sherman and Hannah Sherman, now living at Falmouth; legacies to his other three grandchildren, Betsey Sherman, Sarah Sherman and Mary Sherman; residue to be divided between Hannah Peirce, Rebecca Sherman and Nancy Sherman. Harry Peirce to be Executor of part of the estate, wife Hannah to be executrix of other part. (Plymouth Co., Probate, File 18201.)

Hannah Sherman refused to serve and requested that Henry Peirce serve by himself. He was appointed as executor, 22 Feb. 1814.

Nancy Sherman, a minor above fourteen years, daughter of Deacon William Sherman, late of Rochester, deceased, chose James Taber of Fairhaven to be her guardian, 30 Apr. 1816. On the 25 Mar. 1825, the account of James Taber was filed giving account of his guardianship and in it is an item of money advanced to said Nancy since she came of age. (ibid., 18163.)

* With a number of William Shermans in Rochester, it is impossible to say to whom the individual services belonged, but a study of the Rolls shows that the services were not all of one man.

† Justus White married William's aunt, Jane Sherman. They had a son Justus about three years younger than William and it was probably he who witnessed this deed.

She married in Rochester, 31 Jan. 1776, CORNELIUS CLARK, JR., born there in 1752, baptised there, 22 May 1763, died there, 28 Feb. 1825, in his seventy-fourth year, son of John, Jr., and Elizabeth (Hammond) Clark.

There is no will or administration of Cornelius Clark in Plymouth County. He appears in the census of 1790 as a resident of Rochester

* Her name may have been Mary White. Three sons of Samuel and Mary have their deaths recorded in Rochester. She is called Mercy in her death record. No Mary White's birth is recorded anywhere in the vicinity about 1757 but Mercy, dau. of Joseph and Mary White, was b. 31 Oct. 1758, which exactly fits the age at death of the widow of Samuel Lumbard.

† All four of these sons, Elisha, Nathaniel, Uriel, and William, are called sons of Deacon William Sherman in the town records. One record says that Elisha was 23 years of age, another that he was 33 when he died in 1806. If he was 23 he was born in 1783 and not the same as the Elisha bapt. in 1781, if he was aged 33, he was born in 1773 which would be three years before William Sherman married Hannah Stetson. Elisha was probably 29 at the time of his death, the figures 3, 8, 5, and 6 often being misread.

with a family consisting of one male above 16, two males below 16, and five females, that is himself, his sons, Alden and William, his wife, his daughters, Mercy, Bethia, and Olive, and one other female.

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

i. ALDEN CLARK, bapt. 26 Nov. 1780, with Bethia. He may have married (pub. 11 Aug. 1817, Rochester) ELIZABETH MACOMBER of Middleboro.
ii. BETHIA CLARK, bapt. with Alden, 26 Nov. 1780, died young.
iii. WILLIAM CLARK, b. 16 Sept. 1781, possibly m. (pub. 25 Mar. 1818, Rochester) SOPHIA DEXTER.
iv. MERCY CLARK, bapt. 25 Apr. 1784; possibly m. (pub. 10 Feb. 1806, Rochester) JAMES TRIPP of New Bedford.
v. BETHIA CLARK, bapt. 28 Oct. 1787.
vi. OLIVE CLARK, bapt. 4 July 1790.

88. NATHANIEL [5] SHERMAN (John [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 24 Apr. 1755, baptised there, 27 Apr. 1755, died, probably in New York, after 1790. He married in Rochester, 28 Dec. 1777, ABIGAIL HASKELL, born in Rochester, 18 Mar. 1759, died after 1789, daughter of John, Esq., and Abigail (Reed) Haskell.*

Nathaniel Sherman was a tailor and farmer, but later became interested in buying and selling lands and is called in the deeds "trader" which may have meant he was a merchant, but much more probably signified he was a dealer in lands. He had the following service in the Revolutionary War:

Nathaniel Sherman of Rochester served as a private in Capt. Earl Clap's company, Col. Theophilus Cotton's regiment, muster roll dated 1 Aug. 1775, enlisted 2 May 1775, service 3 mos., 6 days; also he appears in a company return, dated 7 Oct. 1775. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, xiv: 15.)

Nathaniel Shereman served as a private in Capt. Joseph Clift's company, Col. Josiah Whitney's regiment, marched 29 July 1778, discharged 13 Sept. 1778, service 1 month, 19 days, including travel (3 days) home; company raised in Plymouth Co., and marched to R. I. (ibid., xiv: 132.) †

Nathaniel Sherman left Rochester before 1790 as he does not appear in the Census of that year there and tradition states that he went to New York City. The only Nathaniel Sherman in the State of New York in that year is one of Ballston who had in his family two males above sixteen years, five below sixteen, and seven females. Nathaniel Sherman appears quite frequently in the deeds before 1790.

* Abigail Haskell, daughter of John and Abigail (Reed) Haskell, is the only Abigail Haskell born in Rochester at this time. She is called in her marriage record, "Mrs." the abbreviation for "Mistress" and not necessarily indicating a married woman.

Nathaniel Sherman of Rochester, sells to Nathan Nye, 2nd, of Rochester, land and buildings there, Abigail his wife releasing her dower, 13 Apr. 1789. (ibid., 102: 28.)

* It is apparent that Nathaniel Sherman changed his occupation frequently. He may have been a store-keeper, but a trader at this time generally meant a man who traded in land and, judging from the many deeds which appear, it is probable that this was the commodity in which he dealt. There is no other Nathaniel with wife Abigail. He later appears as an innkeeper and again as a tailor.

89. THOMAS [5] SHERMAN (John [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]) born in Rochester, Mass., 26 Sept. 1756, bapt. there, 21 Nov. 1756, died there, 31 July 1833, aged seventy-six. He married first, published in Rochester, 14 May 1785, SARAH WINSLOW, born in Rochester, 14 May 1762, died probably in Rochester between 1790 and 1792, daughter of Enoch and Sarah (Hammond) Winslow. He married secondly in Rochester, 8 Jan. 1792, DEBORAH WINSLOW, born in Rochester, 22 March 1763*, died there, 24 Jan. 1832, aged sixty-eight years, ten months, and two days, daughter of John and Bethia (Sherman) Winslow.

Thomas Sherman of Rochester was a farmer. He appears in the Census of 1790 as a resident of Rochester, with one male above sixteen (himself); one below (John); and two females (his wife Sarah and daughter Azubah). The Census of 1800 shows him with one male and one female between twenty-six and forty-five (himself and Sarah); and two males and two females under ten (Zephaniah and Otis, Azubah and Sarah-Keene). The twins born in 1797 are evidently omitted either from the census or by the copyist. The Census of 1820 was not copied; that of 1830 gives the family of Thomas Sherman, Jr., as one male between seventy and eighty (himself, aged 74); one female between sixty and seventy (Deborah, aged 67); one male and one female between twenty and thirty (Deborah, aged 28 and Thomas, aged 26).

Thomas Sherman appears in only a few deeds:

Thomas Sherman of Rochester and his wife, Sarah, and Hannah Winslow of Rochester, single woman, convey to David Edwards of Rochester, land given in the last will of Capt. Edward Winslow † of Rochester, deceased, to the said Sarah and Hannah, 8 Aug. 1786. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 75: 246.)

Thomas Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, conveys to Lemuel Winslow of Rochester, gentleman, land there, 8 Aug. 1790. Wit: Benjamin Winslow, William Reed. (ibid., 76: 195.)

Thomas Sherman of Rochester conveyed to Maltiah Clark land there 19 Sept. 1797, Deborah releasing her dower. Wit: Lemuel Sherman (ibid., 96: 81); to Ezekiel Cushman of Rochester, land there, 17 Nov. 1806 (ibid.,

* Calculated from age at death. † He was their grandfather.

110: 217); and 30 Mar. 1809, he and his wife Deborah conveyed to Lemuel Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, land there. (ibid., 124: 40.)

Thomas Sherman of Rochester conveys to Zephaniah Sherman of Rochester, land there on the east side of the Mattapoisett River bounded on Lemuel Winslow, Ezekiel Cushman, Maltiah Clark, and John Sherman, 3rd. Deborah releasing her dower, 24 June 1818. (ibid., 129: 47.)

No will or administration of Thomas Sherman has been found.

90. MICAH [5] SHERMAN (John [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 3 Mar. 1758, baptised there, 16 Apr. 1758, died in Orleans, Mass., in 1816. He married in Eastham, Mass., 4 Mar. 1788, LYDIA HIGGINS, born there, 24 Feb. 1764, died after 1804, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Bassett) Higgins.

Micah Sherman, whose name is sometimes given as "Micajah" in the records, was a soldier of the Revolution.

Micah Sherman, Private, Capt. Charles Church's company, 4th Plymouth County Regt., commanded by Lieut. Col. White, entered service 30 July 1780, discharged 8 Aug. 1780, service 9 days at Rhode Island on an alarm. Roll certified at Rochester. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, 14: 141.)

Micah Sherman moved to Eastham, probably before his marriage, and, after that event, settled in the part of the town that later became the town of Orleans. On 7 Aug. 1802, Lydia became a member of the church and on the following 3 Oct., she had her children, Samuel, Richard, Mercy, Jonathan, and Debby, baptised together.

Children, born in Eastham, Mass.:

170. i. SAMUEL [6], b. 12 Mar. 1789; m. PRISCILLA YOUNG and RUTH (SNOW) SNOW.

171. ii. RICHARD, b. 24 June 1791; m. ZEBIAH HOLBROOK.

iii. MERCY, b. 24 Feb. 1795, d. 13 Jan. 1872, aged 77 yrs., Eastham, unmarried.

172. iv. JONATHAN, b. 29 Mar. 1798 Orleans *; m. MEHETABLE KNOWLES.

v. DEBORAH, b. 29 Aug. 1802, d. 26 Dec. 1884, Eastham; m. Feb. 1824, Eastham, JOSHUA PAINE, b. 1799, Eastham, d. 7 June 1878, aged 79 yrs., 6 mos., Eastham, son of Ebenezer and Sarah (Smith) Paine. 173. vi. MICAH, b. 29 Dec. 1804; m. PAULINA KNOWLES and ELIZA-B. (SNOW) HOPKINS.

91. JOSHUA [5] SHERMAN (John [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 7 Apr. 1760, died there 4 Mar. 1816, aged fifty-six years. He married in Rochester, 27 Nov. 1788, SARAH POPE, born, probably in Dartmouth, 24 Oct. 1765†, died in Rochester, 24 Apr. 1845, aged eighty years, one month, and twenty days, daughter of Seth and Sarah (Winslow) Pope.

Joshua Sherman, a farmer, like nearly all his townsmen of the period, apparently lived quietly in his native town all his life with the exception of the years of the War for Independence. In that he had several terms of service.

* Orleans was established from Eastham in 1797. † Calculated from age at death.

Joshua Sharman served in Capt. Samuel Brigg's company, Col. Theophilus Cotten's regiment, Gen. Palmer's brigade; service 32 days on a secret expedition to Tiverton, R. I., 29 Sept. 1777. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, 14: 15.) Also, Order dated Rochester, 2 May 1778, signed by said Sharmon and others, for bounty service at Rhode Island in Capt. Samuel Brigg's company, Col. Cotten's regiment, payable to Lieut. Solomon Young. (ibid., 14: 16.)

Joshua Shermon of Rochester, private, served in Capt. Isaac Wood's company, Col. Thomas Carpenter's regiment, service between 20 July 1777 and 27 Aug. 1777, one month and six days at Rhode Island; company raised in Plymouth County. (ibid., 14: 148.) Also, Joshua Shereman was a private in Capt. Joseph Clift's company, Col. Josiah Whitney's regiment, marched 29 July 1778, discharged 13 Sept. 1778; service, one month, 19 days, including travel (3 days) home; company raised in Plymouth Co., and marched to Rhode Island. (ibid., 14: 132.) Also, he served as a private in Capt. Charles Church's company, 4th Plymouth County regiment commanded by Lieut. Col. White; entered service 30 July 1780, discharged 8 Aug. 1780; service 9 days, at Rhode Island on an alarm. Roll certified at Rochester. (ibid., 14: 141.) Also, Joshua Shearman, was a private in Capt. Joseph Parker's company, Col. Ebenezer Sproat's (Sprout's) regiment; entered service 9 Jan. 1778, stationed at Rhode Island for three months from 1 Jan. 1778. (ibid., 14: 85).

At the time of his marriage in 1788 this Joshua is called "3d" and there is also on the Plymouth Co., books one deed issued by Joshua Sherman "3d". This shows that in 1788 there were three of the name in Rochester. Two of these must have belonged to the Philip Sherman family because there is only one of the name in the William Sherman family alive in 1788. There were several Joshuas in Philip's family mainly born in Dartmouth but these Dartmouth Shermans crossed William's descendants in Rochester. The first deed found is of a purchase of a Joshua Sherman of Rochester.

28 Jan. 1783, from Hathaway Randall of Rochester, yeoman, for £270, of land in Rochester, Lurany Randall releasing her dower. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 67: 19.) Randall married in Rochester, Lurany Hammond of Dartmouth in 1774.

On 2 Apr. 1787, a Joshua Sherman of Rochester quit land there to John Burges and on 17 Apr. 1787, he sold one-third of a gristmill there to Chillingsworth Foster of New Bedford. (ibid., 67: 19, 69: 202.)

On 4th Sept. 1787, a Joshua Sherman of Plymouth sold land in Rochester to Jireh Swift of New Bedford, (ibid., 67: 66) while, 14 Feb. 1788, Joshua Sherman of Rochester conveyed to John Burges of Rochester, Gentleman, land there, Hannah Sherman his wife releasing her dower. (ibid., 66: 204.)

It is apparent that it was not John's son Joshua who bought the land from Hathaway Randall in 1783. His father was still living at the time and he was unmarried. Even with the depreciated money of 1783, John's son Joshua would not have been in the possession of £270. The man who bought the land was evidently older and was possibly the father of a Joshua, who was older than John's son and called "2nd" thus making the latter "3d".*

Joshua Sherman, 3d, of Rochester sold land there to Seth Blackwell, Jr., of Rochester, 19 Mar. 1790. (ibid., 70: 73.)

This is the first deed that certainly belonged to the Joshua who married Sarah Pope. The next deed in which a Joshua appears is in 1804 and there is no separating title to any of the rest of the deeds up to death of John's son Joshua. It is therefore probable that the rest of the deeds listed belonged to him.

Keilah Hall of Rochester sold land there, bounding on Allen Marshall, to Joshua Sherman, 7 July 1804, Lucy Hall releasing her dower. (ibid., 100: 237.) The next year on 24 July 1805, Joshua bought land in Rochester of Noah Dexter, Gentleman and Sheriff. (ibid., 100: 238.)

Caleb Mendall of Rochester, yeoman, for $100.00 sold to Joshua Sherman, son of John Sherman, late of Rochester, deceased, 14 acres, part of the farm which Mendall bought of Spooner, executor of Nathaniel Sprague, Esq., called Pigwacket, 15 Mar. 1806. His wife Hannah released her dower. (ibid., 154: 62.) On this same day, Joshua Sherman, son of John Sherman, late of Rochester, deceased, agreed with Caleb Mendall to build a fence. (ibid., 154: 62.)

Nathan Willis, Esq., and Joshua Sherman, both of Rochester, sold land there to Enoch Cundall of Rochester, 4 Aug. 1806. (ibid., 104: 228.)

Joshua Vincent of New Bedford sold land in Rochester, bounded on William Sherman and Allen Marshall to Joshua Sherman of Rochester, 15 Dec. 1806, his wife Hannah Vincent releasing her dower. (ibid., 154: 63.) Filed with deed from Caleb Mendall.

Seth Pope of Rochester sold to Joshua Sherman of the same place, land there which he bought of Nehemiah Sherman, 30 Mar. 1807; Stephen Nye of Rochester sold him land there which bounded on Allen Marshall, Joshua Vincent and Dea. William Sherman, Arethusa Nye releasing her dower, 20 Mar. 1807. (ibid., 105: 268, 72.)

Joshua Sherman of Rochester sold to Seth Pope of same land there, 24 Oct. 1807, Sarah Sherman, releasing her dower. (ibid., 109: 137.)

On 24 Jan. 1810, he with William Sherman and other men in Rochester bought of Joseph Cundall and Abraham Holmes, adms. to Enoch Cundall late of Rochester, deceased, land in Rochester, 24 Jan. 1810. (ibid., 124: 56.)

William Porter and Rebecca his wife of Middleborough convey land in Rochester to Joshua Sherman of Rochester, 22 Feb. 1812. (ibid., 128: 158.)

Elisha Ruggles of Rochester, Benjamin Ruggles of Newport, and Thomas Ruggles of Columbia, Washington Co., (N. Y.) convey to Joshua Sherman of Rochester, land there, 17 Nov. 1804. Elizabeth [wife of Elisha] and Azuba [wife of Benjamin] release their dowers. (ibid., 128: 120.)

This is the last deed of a Joshua of Rochester before the death, two years later of Joshua, son of John. He was a man just past middle age when he died.

The census of 1790 shows three Joshua Sherman's in Rochester, one with one male above sixteen and one below, who lived between Thomas

* Evidently the Joshua, Jr., of the Census of 1790 (see later).

Allen and Ebenezer King; one Joshua Sherman, Jun., who had one male above sixteen, four below, and five females in his family and who lived between Jonathan King and Mary Randall and the third one who had one male and one female and one other free person in his family, and whose abuttors were Wm. Sherman 3d, William Sherman, Jabez Sherman, Cornelius Sherman, John Sherman, on one side and Lemuel Winslow on the other. It is evident that this last Joshua is John's son and that in 1790 he was living next to his father.

Joshua Sherman of Rochester made his will, 2 Mar. 1816, giving to wife Sarah; to sons Willis, Dennis, Bradford, Charles-Pinckney, and Uriah (or Urial); to daughters Sarah-Pope Sherman and Mercy Sherman. Sons William and Bradford Sherman, executors; witnesses, Samuel Cobb, Martin Sherman, Nathaniel Sears, Jr., and Charles-J. Holmes. Proved 10 Apr. 1816. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18146.)

Sarah Sherman, widow, with Willis Sherman, yeoman and Nicholas Davis, all of Rochester, as sureties, bonded for Sarah as guardian of Dennis Sherman, Charles-Pinckney Sherman, Sarah-Pope Sherman, minors above fourteen years of age and Mercy Sherman and "Unis" [sic but error for Uriah] Sherman, minor under fourteen, and all children of Joshua Sherman of Rochester, 7 Nov. 1816. (ibid., 18101.)

The births of none of the children are recorded in Rochester,* Charles-Pinckney, Sarah-Pope, Mercy, and Urial being however baptised together there 15 July 1810. The two youngest are called infants.

Children, probably all born in Rochester, Mass.:

174. i. WILLIS [6], b. 15 Nov. 1792; m. ANNE-G. CLARK.

ii. BRADFORD, b. 7 Aug. 1794, d. 10 Apr. 1863, aged 68 yrs., Rochester, without issue; m. 31 Oct. 1844,† Rochester, MARGARET (BONNEY) SHERMAN, b. 8 Sept. 1801, Rochester, d. 21 June 1880, aged 79 yrs., Rochester, dau.‡ of Nathaniel and Lydia (McLaughlin) Bonny and widow of his cousin Zephaniah Sherman. Adm. on his estate was granted to Margaret Sherman, his widow, 18 May 1863. The heirs were, Margaret Sherman of Rochester, the widow; Willis Sherman of Rochester, brother; Dennis Sherman of Rochester, brother; Sarah-P. Sherman of Rochester, sister; and Urial Sherman of New Bedford, brother. (Plymouth Probate, 18090.) §

* The dates given are obtained from a small genealogy of this family and were doubtless from a family record.

† Margaret Sherman, widow, aged 43, daughter of Nathaniel and Lydia Bonney and Bradford Sherman, farmer, aged 50, son of Joshua and Sally Sherman, m. 31 Oct. 1844, Rochester.

‡ Her death record states that she was the daughter of Samuel and Nancy. Either the copy used is at fault or her record is erroneously entered in the State Vital Statistics.

§ In 1840, according to the Census, Bradford Sherman was head of a family in Rochester which consisted of two males between 40 and 50 years of age, one female from 30 to 40, one from 70 to 80, that is, himself and his brother Dennis; his sister, Sarah-Pope Sherman; and his mother, Sarah (Pope) Sherman. In 1850, he, aged 56, b. Rochester; his wife, Margaret, aged 48, b. Plympton; his brother, Dennis, aged 53, b. Plympton; and his sister, Sarah-Pope Sherman, aged 48, b. Rochester; were living together. In 1860, he, aged 65; Margaret, aged 60; Dennis, aged 63; Zephaniah, aged 5; with Henry Kaye, aged 23, b. England; and Lydia Elliot, aged 16, b. Mass., made one family. In 1870, Margaret Sherman, aged 68 was living with Zephaniah, aged 15, who was attending school. He was her grandson.

iii. DENNIS, b. 9 Aug. 1797, d. 24 Feb. 1872, aged 74 yrs., unmarried. In his will, made 15 Feb. 1872, he gave to brother Uriah Sherman; to sister Sarah-P. Sherman; to niece Lucy-Ann Mason; to Reuben Mason, Jr., son of abovesaid Lucy; to Dennis-Sherman Mason, son of same Lucy; to nephew Joshua Sherman; to Charles-M. Sherman son of said Joshua and to Jennie-F. Sherman daughter of Joshua; to nephew Isaac-C. Sherman; to Edward D. Sherman, son of said Isaac-C.; to Sarah Sherman, Sophronia-G. Sherman, Henry-W. Sherman, Mercy-M. Wildes, and Elizabeth-P. Irish; to Anna-M. Wildes; to Charles-P. Irish son of Edward A. Irish; to George-L. Smith and his wife Betsey-Ann Smith; to William-P. Reed "that now lives with me"; to Isaac-C. Sherman as trustee for Huldah Savory and Margarett Davis and makes them all his residuary legatees. Probated 9 Mar. 1872, by Isaac C. Sherman of New Bedford. The heirs listed in the probate petition were:

Uriah Sherman of New Bedford, brother.
Sarah P. Sherman, of Rochester, sister.
Lucy-A. Mason of Acushnet, wife of Reuben, niece.
Joshua Sherman of Middleboro', nephew.
Isaac-C. Sherman of New Bedford, nephew.
Sarah Sherman of Rochester, niece.
Sophronia-G. Sherman of Middleboro', niece.
Henry-W. Sherman of Rochester, nephew, non compos mentis.
Isaac-C. Sherman, guardian.
Mercy-M. Wildes of Acushnet, niece, wife of Charles-M. Wildes.
Elizabeth-P. Irish of Fall River, niece, wife of Edward A. Irish.

(Plymouth Co., Probate.)

iv. CHARLES-PINCKNEY, b. 18 Sept. 1799, d. 22 July 1861, aged 62 yrs., New Bedford. His heirs were his brother, Urial, who was made administrator, and his nephews and nieces.

v. SARAH-POPE, b. 12 Sept. 1802, d. 12 Nov. 1872, New Bedford, aged 70 yrs. She probably made her home with her brother Urial, after Dennis died.

vi. MERCY, b. 16 Dec. 1805, d. 20 July 1825, aged 19 yrs., 7 mos., and 4 days.

vii. URIAL, b. 2 Jan. 1810, d. 23 Nov. 1879, aged 69 yrs., 11 mos., 2 days, New Bedford; m. 1 Jan. 1852, New Bedford, ELIZABETH THOMAS, b. 30 June 1818, d. 6 July 1881, New Bedford, daughter of S. and Mary (———) Thomas. He left no children and his nephew Isaac C. Sherman was appointed his administrator. His heirs were his nephews and nieces:

Joshua Sherman.
Sophronia Sherman.
Mercy-M. Wilde (wife of Charles-M. Wilde) of Middleboro.
Lucy-A. Mason (wife of Reuben Mason) of Acushnet.
Sarah Sherman.
Henry-W. Sherman (simple-minded) of Rochester.

Elizabeth-P. Irish (wife of Edward-A. Irish) of Fall River.
Isaac-C. Sherman of New Bedford. (Bristol Co., Probate.)
The widow, Elizabeth-T. Sherman, survived less than two years.

92. JABEZ [5] SHERMAN (William [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 21 May 1754, died probably in Warren Co., N. Y., after, 1832. He married in Rochester, 23 June 1776, THANKFUL WINSLOW, born in Rochester, 14 Aug. 1755, possibly died in New York after 1840, possibly in Rochester, before 1780, daughter of Capt. Edward and Rachel (Winslow) Winslow. He probably married secondly, CLARISSA ———.

Jabez Sherman was married shortly after the Revolutionary War started in which he had the following service and for which he applied for a pension when living in Chester, Warren Co., N. Y.

Jabez Shermon, of Rochester, served as a Corporal in Capt. Earl Clap's company of Minute-men, Col. Theophilus Cotton's regiment which marched in response to the alarm of April 19, 1775; also, Capt. Clap's company, Col. Cotton's regiment; muster-roll dated Aug. 1, 1775, enlisted May 2, 1775, service 3 mos., 6 days. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, 14: 147.)

Jabez Sharmon, of Rochester, Corporal, appears on a company return dated Aug. 7, 1775, Capt. Earl Clap's company, Col. Cotton's regiment. (ibid., 14: 16.)

Jabez Shearman, Corporal, of Capt. Joseph Parker's company, Col. Ebenezer Sproat's (Sprout's) regiment, entered service Jan. 9, 1778; company stationed at Rhode Island for 3 months from Jan. 1, 1778; also, 2d company, commanded by Lieut. John Doty, Col. Ebenezer Sprout's regiment, entered service May 6, 1778, discharged May 7, 1778, service two days on an alarm at Dartmouth, roll sworn to in Plymouth Co.; also, same company and regiment, entered service Sept. 5, 1778, discharged Sept. 11, 1778, service six days on an alarm at Dartmouth; roll sworn to in Plymouth Co. (ibid., 14: 85.)

His pension papers show that he was born in Rochester, Mass., in 1754, and enlisted in Capt. "Aell" Clapp's company, Lieut. Isaac Pope and Col. Theophilus Cotton's Regiment, 30 Apr. 1775, and was discharged 1 Jan. 1776. In the winter of 1778, he volunteered in the militia for 3 months, under Lieut. John Doty, and was occupied in guarding the Narragansett shore, etc. He was known to Seba Higley, Charles Higley, Joseph Dunn, Samuel H. Landon, "and as many others as you may wish." He stated that he removed from Rochester to Easton, Washington Co., N. Y., and now (1832) resided in Chester, Warren Co., N. Y.

Rev. James W. Farlan of Caldwell, Warren Co., N. Y., and Ezra B. Smith of Chester testified as to his veracity. (Pension Papers at Washington, D. C.)

Jabez Sherman appears as a resident of Rochester in 1790, with one male above sixteen, three below, and two females. Evidently, himself, his sons, Jabez, Heman, and Resolved; his wife Thankful and his daughter Thankful. He removed before 1800 to Easton, N. Y., and thence to Chester. He apparently died between 1832, when he applied for a pension and 1840 as he does not appear in this Census. It is probable that his widow was living in 1840 as there is listed in the family of Resolved Sherman in the latter year, a female between eighty and ninety years of age that is born between 1750 and 1760, but this may have been his wife's mother. She does not appear in 1850, so hence had probably deceased.*

It is possible that Jabez Sherman was living in New York in 1781 as his son Resolved is stated in the census of 1850 to be born there. If so he returned to Rochester. Possibly that is why the children's births do not appear and they are all baptised together.

After the father's death in 1800, Jabez Sherman and his brothers and sisters sold their share of the property to Lemuel Sherman. (See under account of William [4], John [3], etc.)

Children, born probably in Rochester, Mass., all baptised there:

175. i. JABEZ [6], b. prob. about 1777, baptized 10 Aug. 1788,† with brothers and sister; married MARY ———.

176. ii. HEMAN, b. prob. about 1779; m. MARTHA ———.

177. iii. RESOLVED, b. 1781; m. MARY ———.

iv. THANKFUL, b. prob. about 1783; she was living in 1840, aged between 50 and 60, in Chester, Warren Co., N. Y., and had in her family another female between 30 and 40 years of age, possibly a younger sister.

?v. CLARISSA, possibly b. betw. 1800 and 1810.

93. CORNELIUS [5] SHERMAN (William [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 15 May 1756, baptised there in the First Church, 13 June 1756, died there about Dec. 1807. He married, published in Rochester, 1 Nov. 1783, DILLA HANDY, born in Sandwich, Mass., in July 1765, died in Rochester, 31 Oct. 1844, aged seventy-nine years and seven months, daughter of John Handy. She married secondly in Rochester, 30 Dec. 1813, Jonathan Westgate of Middleborough, born 1761, died in Rochester, 31 May 1822, aged sixty-one years.

Cornelius Sherman spent his whole life in Rochester. He served in the Revolution.

Cornelius Shermon, Rochester, Private, Capt. Earl Clap's company of Minute-men, Col. Theophilus Cotton's regiment, which marched on the Alarm

* The Winslow Genealogy states (p. 539) that Thankful died of consumption soon after birth of her second son. If correct then Jabez married again. In 1841, a life-lease is executed between Resolved Sherman and a Clarissa Sherman both of Chester, N. Y. It is probable that this was a second wife of Jabez Sherman's as if she had been a daughter she would have been fairly young to have had issued to her a life-lease. If this is the case then it might be she who was living with Resolved in 1840.

† The record in the first church is:

"Jabez
Heman Thankful } Jabez & Thankful, 10 Aug. 1788."
Resolved

This seems to contradict the statement in the Winslow Genealogy that Thankful died after the birth of her second son. Possibly she did live and was the only wife Jabez had. Clarissa may have been the youngest sister, living with Thankful and the latter may have died between 1840 and 1850.

of April 19, 1775; service 12 days, reported enlisted into the army; also, Capt. Nathaniel Hammond's company, Col. John Dagget's regiment, entered service 25 Aug. 1778, discharged 1 Sept. 1778, service 8 days; company detached from Militia for service on expedition to Rhode Island. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, 14: 147.)

Cornelius Shoreman, Rochester, Private, Capt. Earl Clap's Co., Col. Cotton's regiment; muster-roll, dated 1 Aug. 1775, enlisted 2 May 1775, service 3 mos., 6 days. (ibid., 14: 13.)

Cornelius Shermion, Private, Capt. Benjamin Dillingham's company, enlisted 17 Apr. 1776, service 7 mos., 11 days, company stationed at Dartmouth for defence of the sea-coast. (ibid., 14: 147.)

Cornelius Sharmon, Rochester, Private, Capt. Joseph Parker's company, Col. Ebenezer Sprout's regiment; service 15 days, company marched from Rochester to "foglom ferry", R. I.; under command of 2nd Lieut. John Doty on the alarm of 8 Dec. 1775. (ibid., 14: 15.)

Cornelius Shearman, of 2nd company commanded by Lieut. John Doty, Sprout's regiment, entered service 6 May 1778, discharged 7 May 1778, service 2 days on an alarm at Dartmouth; roll sworn to in Plymouth county; also, same company and regiment, entered service 5 Sept. 1778, discharged 11 Sept. 1778, service 6 days on an alarm at Dartmouth, roll sworn to in Plymouth county. (ibid., 14: 83.)

Cornelius Sheaman, Private, Capt. Barnabas Doty's company, Sprout's regiment, entered service 13 Sept. 1778, discharged 17 Sept. 1778, service 5 days on an alarm at Falmouth, Barnstable county. (ibid., 14: 81.)

Cornelius Sherman, Corporal, Capt. Charles Church's company, Fourth Plymouth Co., regiment, commanded by Lieut. Col. White, entered service 30 July 1780, discharged 8 Aug. 1780, service 8 days at Rhode Island on an alarm. Roll certified at Rochester. (ibid., 14: 136.)

Cornelius Sherman appears in the Census of 1790 as a resident of Rochester with one male above sixteen, one below sixteen, and three females in his family; that is, himself, his son Martin, his daughters, Dilly and Temperance, and his wife. In 1800 he had in his family one male between 26 and 45; (and evidently though omitted) one female between 26 and 45; one female between 16 and 26; two females between 10 and 16; and one male under 10. Also he had in his family a female over forty-five, probably his mother.

Administration on the estate of Cornelius Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, deceased, was granted his widow Dilla Sherman, who gave bonds in court with Ezekiel Cushman, gentleman, and Reuben Swift, cabinet-maker, 11 Jan. 1808. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18095.)

Jonathan Westgate and Dilla Westgate, his wife, she being guardian of Love Sherman, Bartlett Sherman, and Roxana Sherman, minor children of Cornelius Sherman, late of Rochester, deceased, filed an account 6 Nov. 1817. In it is an item, "to boarding Said minors four years." (ibid., 18152.)

Dilla Sherman of Rochester, administrator of estate of late husband Cornelius Sherman, sells land in Rochester to Ezekiel Cushman, March 1809. The deed is signed also by Abigail Sherman, evidently widow of William [4], and her mother-in-law. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 110: 217.)

On 10 Mar. 1810, she also sold some land to Jabez Gorham, the deed being witnessed by John and William Sherman. As Abigail doesn't sign, she probably had died during the preceding year. (ibid., 114: 210.)

Tempe Sherman [signed Temperance Sherman], singlewoman of Rochester, quits all her right in the real estate of her father Cornelius Sherman, deceased, 19 Aug. 1812, to Martin Sherman of Rochester. Wit: William Sherman, Dilla Sherman. (ibid., 127: 43.)

Jonathan Westgate and Delia Westgate of Rochester, guardians to Love, Bartlett, and Roxana Sherman, under twenty-one years of age, sell land of the said minors, the property of their late father Cornelius Sherman of Rochester, deceased, to Martin Sherman of Rochester, 10 Sept. 1817. (ibid., 137: 168.)

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

i. TEMPERANCE [6], b. 16 Oct. 1785, d. 31 Dec. 1828, Rochester, unmarried. She left a will in which she stated that she was weak in body and gave all her property to her daughter Eliza-Ann Sherman, making her brother Martin Sherman, executor, dated 31 Dec. 1828, proved 6 May 1829. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18194.)

ii. DILLY, bapt. 27 Sept. 1788, d. before. 1794.

178. iii. MARTIN, b. 5 Aug. 1789; m. CYNTHIA (MENDALL) DAVIS.

94. ABIGAIL [5] SHERMAN (William [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 20 Aug. 1758, died, probably in New York City, after 1800. She married in Rochester, 31 Oct. 1776, EDMOND SNOW, born in Rochester, 25 Dec. 1756, baptised there 16 May 1756, died, probably in New York City, after 1801, son of Mark and Hannah (Sears) Snow.

Edmond Snow was a mariner. He evidently went to New York with his brothers-in-law and joined in the deed in 1800 when they quit their rights to the property of William [4]. At this time he was living in New York City and no further record has been found of him. In 1790, Edmond Snow was living in Rochester with a family consisting of one male above sixteen (himself), three below sixteen, and three females. So by that date he evidently had a family of five children.

His father died 2 Sept. 1799 and Edmond joined in two deeds by attorney, his brother-in-law Zebulon Haskell.

We, Edmond Snow of the City of New York, mariner, by Zebulon Haskell, his attorney, Jonathan Snow of Montpelier, Vt., yeoman, Loammi Snow of Rochester, Mass., deed to Nathan Cannon of Rochester, land there being the homestead farm of which Mark Snow late of Rochester died seized subject to the life interest of the widow, also an island in Snow's Pond, 10 Feb. 1801. Wit: Abinoam Kings, Abraham Holmes. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 94: 204.)

On the same day they convey to Jonathan Snow of Rochester, gentleman, and Abraham Burgess of the same place, land that had belonged to Mark Snow, deceased, Wit: Nathan Cannon, Abraham Holmes. (ibid., 96: 42.)

Children, born before 1790, in Rochester, perhaps:

i. A son.
ii. A son.
iii. A son.
iv. A daughter.
v. A daughter.
vi. A daughter.

95. ALICE [5] SHERMAN (William [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 9 May 1761, died, probably in Chester, N. Y., after 1801. She married probably between 1780 and 1790, William Daily.

There is only one William Daily in Massachusetts in 1790, a resident of Boston, who evidently was not Alice's husband. There were two of the name in New York one a resident of Frederickstown, Dutchess Co., with one male above sixteen, one below sixteen and four females, the other a resident of Argyle, Washington Co., with just himself and his wife in his family. Either of these might have been the one who married Alice Sherman but as the deed shows they were living in Chester in 1800 the latter one is the more probable. In 1830 in Easton, N. Y., is a George Daily who may have been their son.

96. SARAH [5] SHERMAN (William [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., baptised there, 12 Aug. 1764, died, probably in Chester, N. Y., before 1830. She married in Rochester, Mass., 5 Sept. 1786, Abraham Tabor of Dartmouth, born in Dartmouth, Mass., 2 July 1762, died in New York after 1820, son of Thomas and Ruth (Tabor) Tabor.

Abraham Tabor appears in New Bedford, Mass., in 1790, with one male above sixteen, one below, and two females in his family, that is himself, wife, son, and daughter. In 1800, he was living in Chester, N. Y., when he sells, with the rest of the family, the homestead of William Sherman in Rochester.

The name of Tabor appears in the Census of 1840 in Chester and also in 1850. In the first no Abraham is listed, but in 1850 an Abraham Tabor, born in 1807 is present with a family, also Benjamin, born 1810, and John, born 1797. There is also living in Chester in both 1840 and 1850, a Gideon Tabor, born 1766 in Rhode Island so any of these may have been his children.

Abraham Tabor was living in Easton in 1794 but moved to Chester before 1797.

Children, possibly others:

i. WILLIAM-SHERMAN TABOR, b. 13 Sept. 1794, Easton, N. Y., d. 29 June 1871, Greenwich, N. Y.; m. MARY BRALEY, b. 2 Aug. 1806, Chestertown, N. Y., d. 6 Nov. 1864, dau. Roger and Olive (Baker) Braley. Children (TABOR), (1) Alfred, b. 24 Aug. 1826; (2) Almira, b. 7 Nov. 1827; (3) Sarah, b. 3 Apr. 1830; (4) Mary-Jane, b. 1 Sept. 1833; (5) Emily-Malinda, b. 6 Sept. 1839; (7) William-Alfred, b. 12 May 1845.

ii. JOHN TABOR, b. 19 July 1797; d. 5 Nov. 1863, Chestertown, N. Y.; m. KEZIAH ———, b. 19 Mar. 1805. Children (TABOR), (1) Charles, b. 15 Feb. 1833; (2) Alexander, b. 16 Dec. 1834; (3) John-H., b. 27 Apr. 1837; (4) Vincent, b. 15 Aug. 1839; (5) Harley, b. 25 Nov. 1842; (6) George, b. 18 Dec. 1845.*

97. SUSANNA [5] SHERMAN (William [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), baptised in the First Church, Rochester, Mass., 6 Nov. 1768, died after 1850. She married in Rochester, 20 Dec. 1792, ZEBULON HASKELL, born there, 17 Feb. 1753, died in Steuben, Maine, 3 Sept. 1831, aged seventy-eight years, six months, and eighteen days, son of Seth and Abiah (Nelson) Haskell. He married first in Rochester, 3 Feb. 1782, Thankful Dexter, born in Rochester, 19 Aug. 1759, died there, 14 Jan. 1787, in her twenty-eighth year, daughter of Deacon Seth and Elizabeth (———) Dexter.

Zebulon Haskell lived in Rochester until after 1801. Before 1820, he was living in Steuben, Maine.

By first wife, Thankful Dexter,

98. LEMUEL [5] SHERMAN (William [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, baptised there, 25 Oct. 1778, died, probably in New York, after 1820. He married (published in Rochester, 20 Sept. 1804) LURANA MACOMBER of Middleboro.*

Lemuel Sherman was published in Rochester to Sally Trip of New Bedford, 29 Aug. 1803, and possibly this is the same Lemuel who later married Lurana Macomber.

There are a number of deeds of Lemuel Sherman's. The first one, a sale of land by Lemuel Sherman of Rochester to Jonathan Church of the same place, is dated 30 Oct. 1803, and his mother Abigail released her dower. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 124: 97.)

* There is no mention of Lurana Macomber in the Macomber Genealogy and much research has failed to show whom she was.

Lemuel Sherman of Rochester conveys to Cornelius Sherman of same, land there, 14 Mar. 1806; Lurana Sherman, wife of Lemuel releasing, her dower. (ibid., 110: 216.)

"I Lemuel Sherman of Rochester . . . yeoman in consideration of one hundred and thirty Dollars paid by Isaac Vincent of New Bedford . . . yeoman . . . do . . . convey unto the said Isaac Vincent . . . all the Land and Buildings and Interest which my late father William Sherman of Rochester . . . Died Seized of meaning to include the whole and all . . . the Lands and buildings and Effects of Every nature which did in any way . . . belong to the said William at the time he deceased . . . ," 10 Apr. 1807. (ibid., 105: 221.)

It is not easily seen how Lemuel had the right to convey all of this property and possibly he had already begun to show signs of mental trouble, for a few months later a guardian was appointed for him.

Lemuel Winslow, gentleman, Caleb Briggs, gentleman and Joshua Sherman, yeoman, all of Rochester were bound for Lemuel Winslow as guardian for Lemuel Sherman, a person of unsound mind, 17 July 1808.

Lemuel Winslow filed accounts to 1812. On 10 April 1812, William Sherman, Joshua Sherman, Henry Pearce, James Corthell, et al., petition to have the guardianship removed, the selectmen approved and Lemuel Winslow assented, so the guardianship was dissolved. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18147.)

During the interim the real estate transactions of Lemuel were handled by his guardian.

Lemuel Winslow of Rochester, guardian to Lemuel Sherman of same, non compos mentis, sells to Solomon Hall of Rochester, land which William Sherman, dec'd., father of Lemuel, had by deed from his father, John Sherman, dec'd., 16 Oct. 1807. The deed mentions Abigail, widow of William Sherman, and Lurana Sherman, wife of Lemuel released her dower; Jeney Sherman witness. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 125: 7.)

On 5 Mar. 1808, his cousins, Isaac, Seth, and Samuel Sherman of Wells, Me., convey property that formerly belonged to their father, Samuel [4] Sherman, to Lemuel Sherman. (ibid., 106: 275.) See Account of Samuel [4] (John [3], John [2], William [1]).

Sarah Causall (? Caswell) of Rochester, widow, sold to Lemuel Sherman, Keziah Sherman, and Jane Sherman, single women, land and buildings in Rochester, 21 Mar. 1810. Wit: Joshua Sherman. (ibid., 121: 55.)

Lemuel Sherman, of Rochester, sells to widow Sarah Lyon of Fairhaven, land and buildings in Rochester, 10 Mar. 1813. Lurana Sherman, Keziah Sherman and Jane Sherman also sign the deed. (ibid., 121: 56.)

Lemuel is not mentioned again in the Plymouth County records. He probably went to New York and joined his brothers and sisters. The census of 1820 shows a Lemuel in Chester, N. Y., with one male over 45, and one female over 45; two males between 10–16; three males under 10; one female between 26 and 45 (possibly Keziah or Jane); one female between 10–16; and one female under 10. This is probably Lemuel of Rochester although he would be barely forty-five in 1820. He evidently had a family.

99. ISAAC [5] SHERMAN (Samuel [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass.,* 7 Aug. 1758, died, probably in Maine, after 1832. He married in Wells, Me., 13 May 1780, SARAH LITTLEFIELD, birth, death, and parentage not proven.

Isaac Sherman served in the Revolution, first from Rochester, Mass., and after 1778, from Wells, Me.

Isaac Sherman, Rochester, Private, Capt. Earl Clap's company, Col. Theophilus Cotton's regiment; appears on a company return dated 7 Oct. 1775. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, 14: 137.)

Isaac Shareman, Rochester, Private, Capt. Earl Clap's company, Col. Theophilus Cotton's regiment; appears on a muster roll, dated 1 Aug. 1775, enlisted 2 May 1775; service 3 months, 6 days. (ibid., 14: 13.)

Isaac Sherman, Private, Capt. Benjamin Dillingham's company, enlisted 17 Apr. 1776; service, 7 months, 11 days; company stationed at Dartmouth for defence of seacoast. (ibid., 14: 147.)

Isaac Sharmon, Rochester, Private, Capt. Joseph Parker's company, Col. Ebenezer Sprout's regiment; service 15 days, company marched from Rochester to "foglon ferry", R. I., under command of 2d Lieut. John Doty on the alarm of 8 Dec. 1776. (ibid., 14: 16.)

Isaac Shermon, Rochester (probably), Private, Capt. Earl Clap's company of Minute-men, Col. Theophilus Cotton's regt., which marched in response to the alarm of April 19, 1776; service 12 days; reported enlisted into the army; also, Capt. Nathaniel Hammond's company, Col. John Dogget's regiment; entered service 25 Aug. 1778; discharged 1 Sept. 1778, service 8 days; company detached from militia for service on an expedition to Rhode Island. (ibid., 14: 147.)

Isaac Sherman, Wells, Return of men mustered by Nathaniel Wells, Muster Master for York Co., certified in York Co., 6 June 1780, said Sherman appears among men mustered to serve for eight months in defence of eastern Massachusetts, agreable to resolve of 25 March, 1780; residence, Wells. (ibid., 14: 137.)

Isaac Shearman, Wells, Private, Capt. Daniel Clark's company, Col. Joseph Prime's regiment; joined 9 May 1780, discharged 12 Nov. 1780, service 6 mos., 4 days; enlistment, 8 months; regiment raised in York Co., for defence of eastern Massachusetts; also, Lieut. Joseph McLellan's company, detached 6 Dec. 1780, discharged 11 Jan. 1781, service, 1 month, 5 days at the Eastward; company detached from Col. Joseph Prime's regiment by order of Gen. Wadsworth to serve out the balance of the 8 months' term of enlistment. (ibid., 14: 84.)

A report from the Secretary of State's office, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, states that Isaac Sherman was a Corporal in Capt. Samuel Sawyer's company, in the Penobscot expedition in the service of the State (sic) of Massachusetts in the year 1779; that he entered the service on the 7 July 1779, and was discharged 6 Sept. 1779 giving a service of two months.

* One copy of his pension record says he was born in New Bedford but his birth is given on Rochester records. His parents may have been temporarily in New Bedford, or it may have been a mistake in copying.

Isaac Sherman a resident of Wells, aged 78 years, applied for a pension at Kennebunk, 7 Aug. 1832. He enlisted, 1 Apr. 1780, under Capt. Daniel Clark of Wells for eight months being stationed at Falmouth (now Portland) until December and then discharged. Col. Joseph Paine commanded the regiment. They were principally engaged in building the Fort at Portland. In the summer of 1779 he was in Capt. Samuel Sawyer's company in the Penobscot Expedition, serving in a detachment under Major Daniel Littlefield for two months and "being somewhat of a sailor", he was helmsman of one of the Barges that crossed the river landing the Americans on the opposite side under fire from the Bagaduce Fort then in the possession of the British.

Samuel Shackford of Sanford, Me., testified that they entered service and were discharged together. Stephen Annis of Wells, aged 77 years, testified that he served with Isaac Sherman on the Penobscot Expedition. Sherman was Coxswain or Steersman of one of the boats that conveyed the troops over the river under the guns and fire of the British in Bogaduce Fort; had always known Sherman and always resided in same town with him.

Abstracted from the original depositions in Washington. He received a pension of $34.00 per year. (File S. 29446, Pension Bureau, Washington.)

It is evident from the service of Isaac Sherman that he moved to Wells, Me., between Sept. 1778 and July 1779. He may have gone with his father or possibly the father joined his sons in Wells later. However as the father sold his homestead in Rochester in Dec. 1778, it is very probable that the whole family went to Maine in the spring of 1779.

After the war, Isaac continued to live in Wells.

On 13 June 1807, Isaac Sherman of Wells and his wife Sarah Sherman sell property bounded on their homestead to Joseph Gilman of Wells, Physician, the witnesses being, John Stover, Nicholas Gilman. (York Co., Deeds, 90: 101.)

In 1790, the Sherman family appears in Wells, with a widow as the householder, who has in her family, two males above sixteen, none below sixteen, and three females. It is probable that these are the widow, Lydia (Pope) Sherman, her sons Seth and Samuel, and her daughters, Lydia and Sarah-Baker. Isaac and his family are apparently omitted from the Census.

In 1810, Isaac Sherman is in Wells, with the following family, one male and one female over 45 (himself and his wife); one male and one female between 16 and 26 (Lydia and Frederick); one male between 10 and 16 (Ivory); and two males under 10 (Joseph and Isaac).

No will of Isaac Sherman has been found and no administration was taken on his estate.

Children, born in Wells, Maine:

i. Elizabeth [6], b. 30 Nov. 1783; probably m. 19 Mar. 1801, Andrew Emmons.

ii. Sally, b. 1785, d. 1786.

iii. Lydia, b. 8 May 1787; had two illegitimate children, (1) Bradford, b. 7 Jan. 1810; (2) Jane, b. 3 Dec. 1819.

iv. SALLY, b. 8 May 1789, d. 25 Sept. 1807.
v. HANNAH, b. 6 Apr. 1791; m. (published 14 Mar. 1807, Wells), JOTHAM YOUNG of York.
vi. LUCY, b. 6 Apr. 1793, probably died unm.
180. vii. FREDERICK, b. 8 May 1795; m. ELIZABETH GARDNER.
181. viii. IVORY, b. 30 Sept. 1797; m. SALLY YOUNG.
ix. DAVID, b. Oct. 1799.
x. JOSEPH, b. 4 July 1801.*
182. xi. ISAAC, b. 25 Sept. 1803; m. SARAH CROSS and MARY-JANE DEARBORN.

100. SETH [5] SHERMAN (Samuel [4], John [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 16 Apr. 1765, died after 1831. He married probably in Maine, about 1795, SUSANNAH ——— who was living in 1810.

Seth Sherman was a farmer in Wells. In 1803, he obtained a judgment against Isaac Pope of Wells, and was given some of Pope's real estate to satisfy his claim. (York Co., Deeds, 70: 131.)

"I Seth Sherman of Wells . . . In consideration of the sum of ninety-five Dollars and forty eight cents paid by Isaac Pope of Wells . . . have sold to the said Isaac Pope . . . all my right . . . in . . . a certain tract . . . of land . . . in Wells . . . being part of Pope's home Lot . . . it being that Part of the Said Pope's Estate that I . . . took in full satisfaction of an Execution against said Pope July 2[d] 1803", signed 3 July 1804, Seth Shearman. Wit: Samuel Curtis 2d, Nath[l] Wells. (ibid., 71: 219.)

In December 1806, Seth obtained another Judgment against Isaac Pope and had more land set off to him, 10 Mar. 1806. (ibid., 74: 152.)

Seth Sherman of Wells sold to John-S. Pope, land in Wells, it being the same land that was appraised from Isaac Pope, Esq., 11 Jan. 1813. (Ibid., 89: 227.)

Seth Shearman of Wells, yeoman, sold to Ephraim Getchell of Wells, laborer, a tract of land in that part of Wells called Maryland, meaning to convey to him all the land that was Richard Leary's, late of Wells, deceased, and also a tract of land in Sanford, 14 Sept. 1831. (ibid., 175: 211.)

Seth Sherman of Wells appears in the census of 1800 with one male and one female between 26 and 45; one male and one female between 16 and 26; and one female under 10. In 1820, his family consisted of one male and one female over 45; one male and one female between 26 and 45; one female between 10 and 16; one female under 10. It is evident that either his younger brother and wife was living with Seth or a younger brother and wife of his wife's was living with them. Unless Seth's first child was born before he was nineteen, these could not be his children. He had two daughters apparently.

Children (probably), born in Wells, Maine:

i. MARY [6], b. about 1799 (between 1790 and 1800); m. 21 Apr. 1819, Wells, DAVID MARTIN of Limington, Maine.

* A Joseph Sherman, born in Wells, Maine, died in Boston, Mass., 4 Sept. 1849, aged 51, married. Parents not given. It is probable that this was the son of Isaac [5] Sherman, although the age is wrong by two years.

ii. SUSANNA, b. about 1801, (between 1800 and 1810); m. 24 Sept. 1819, Wells, EDWARD TIBBETTS of Sanford, Maine.

101. PRINCE [5] SHERMAN (Samuel [4], Samuel [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Ware, Mass., 26 Feb., 1753, died, probably in Kitley, Ontario, Can., soon after 1798. He married (published in Ware, Mass., 27 Jan. 1776) SUBMIT ROGERS, born probably in Westborough or Ware, Mass., died probably in Kitley after 1798, daughter of Jonathan * and Joanna (Lull) Rogers.

Prince Sherman was born soon after his father went to Ware. He grew up in the town and when the war began in 1775 he was one of the men who were on the Alarm Roll. These men had been secretly drilling and were ready for a sudden call, so were called Minute Men. He served various enlistments lasting until after 1780. During the first year of the War, he was married. Owing to the various spellings of his name, the official record of his services have some duplication.

Prince Sherman, Private, Capt. Joseph Foster's company, Col. Ruggles Woodbridge's regiment, which marched in reponse to the Alarm of April 19, 1775, said Sherman marched Apr. 20, 1775, left place of rendezvous Apr. 28, 1775, roll sworn to at Ware; also, list of men raised to serve in the Continental Army for the term of 9 months, agreeable to resolve of 9 June 1779, returned as received of Noah Goodman, Superintendent for Hampshire Co., by Justin Ely, Commissioner, dated Springfield, engaged for town of Ware; also, Private, Capt. John Holden's company, Col. Thomas Nixon's regiment, pay rolls for Aug. and Sept. 1779; enlisted Aug. 1, 1779; also, (late) Capt. Holden's company, Col. Nixon's (6th) regiment; pay roll for Jan.–June 1780; reported discharged 2 May 1780. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, 14: 143.)

Prince Shearman, Ware (also given Belchertown), Private, Capt. Jonathan Bardwell's company, Col. David Brewer's (9th) regiment, muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775, enlisted Apr. 26, 1775; service, 3 mos., 1 week, 5 days; also, company return [probably Oct., 1775]; also, Private, Capt. John Holden's company, Col. Nixon's regt., pay rolls for Nov. and Dec. 1779. (ibid., 14: 87.)

Prince Sharman, Sergeant, Lieut. Jonah Wilson's company, Col. Porter's Hampshire Co., regiment, marched Sept. 23, 1777, discharged Oct. 17, 1777; service 1 mo., 2 days at the Northward, including 7 days (140 miles) travel home, company marched to reinforce army under Major General Gates on an alarm. (ibid., 14: 16.)

Prince Sheamon, Capt. Jonathan Bardwell's company, 9th regiment, formerly commanded by Col. David Brewer, order for a bounty coat or its equivalent in money, dated Camp Roxbury, 6 Nov. 1775. (ibid., 14: 81.)

* Jonathan Rogers of Ware, Mass., in his will made 6 Feb., and proved 6 Apr. 1784, mentions his children, Jonathan, Thomas, Submit Sherman, Abigail, and Joanna. His daughters, Abigail and Joanna were also married although he failed to give their married names. He was evidently that Jonathan Rogers who married in Westborough, 25 Oct. 1744, Joanna Lull, and had recorded there, (1) Jonathan, b. 21 Dec. 1745; (2) Abigail, b. 27 Nov. 1748. He had no other children recorded but it is probable that his other children were also born in Westborough and that their order was, (3) Thomas, b. about 1750; (4) Joanna, b. about 1753; (5) Submit, b. about 1755. Abigail m. 3 Mar. 1766, Ware, Nathan Davis; Joanna m. about 1773, Elkanah Billings. Jonathan probably went to Ware about 1760.

Prence Sheerman. Descriptive list of men raised in Hampshire Co., to serve in the Continental Army for the term of 9 months, agreeable to resolve of 9 June 1779, as returned by Noah Goodman, Superintendent, Capt. Brakenridge's company, Col. Porter's regiment, aged 26 yrs., stature 5 ft. 7 in., complexion light, hair light engaged for the town of Ware, reported delivered to Ensign E. White. (ibid., 14: 95.)

During the last of the War Prince Sherman served as a buyer of horses for the Continental Army. His brother-in-law, Nathan Davis, was in some way associated with him, and they invested a large amount of money in horses. They were unsuccessful in their venture, the money was lost, and Prince Sherman was ruined. He blamed Davis for their failure* but possibly both were to blame. The result of this unfortunate circumstance was that Prince Sherman left Ware. He went first to Hinesburg, Vt., where he is listed in the census of 1790 with the following family: one male above sixteen, four males below sixteen, and two females, evidently himself, his sons Prince, Ira, Philo, and Thomas, his wife Submit, and daughter Joanna. Whether his brother-in-law Elkanah Billings was there before him or joined him later is not shown but in 1792 the Billings and Sherman families went to Leeds County, Ontario. Prince Sherman settled in Kitley and on 14 Feb. 1798 was granted lot 24 in the Sixth Concession. He is reported as "living on the lot with his family" at the time of the grant. He died soon after this, Submit probably surviving him.

Children, all but the last two probably born in Ware, Mass.:

183. i. PRINCE [6], b. about 1777; m. MARGARET LACEY.

ii. IRA, b. about 1779; m. PHEBE PREVOST. He is said to have had eight daughters, but much research has failed to find anything more of Ira Sherman.

iii. JOANNA, b. 26 July 1781, Ware, d. 25 Aug. 1847, aged 66 yrs., 30 days, buried in Selby graveyard; m. 1797, JACOB BELFRY (possibly le Balafre), b. 28 May 1777, at sea, near the banks of Newfoundland; d. 10 Mar. 1835, East Guillimbury, Ont., son of Pierre and Catherine la Jeunesse (? Young) Belfry. His father was French, but his mother was English; both died before he was seven. His guardians placed him in the Seminary at Quebec city to be educated for the priesthood, but after remaining there ten years he left and went to the westward. His guardians forced his return and to punish him apprenticed him to a carpenter. At the age of twenty, he met a former Seminary mate who tried to get him into the British Army but he refused in the end. There was some difficulty over the matter so he again left Quebec and went to Brockville. Here he met Joanna and they fell in love. They were married in 1797, he being aged twenty and she sixteen. At first he worked at his trade and later kept

* This account is traditional but was given the compiler by Joseph-Pembroke Sherman, great-grandson of Prince Sherman, as told to him by his father.

a shop, but removed from Brockville to Elizabethtown, and from there to a farm near Plumhollow. He then went to the Bay of Quinte and from there about 1811–1812, he crossed the line to New York, establishing himself at a place near Lewiston but fearing the danger from the war between England and America he went further inland to Rochester. About 1818 he returned to Canada, first to St. Catherine, near Niagara, then to Markham, York Co., finally settling in East Guillimbury. Children (BELFRY), (1) Oran, b. 5 Feb. 1799, Brockville; (2) Thirza, b. 25 Jan. 1801, Brockville; (3) James, b. 25 Jan. 1803, probably Brockville; (4 & 5) Prince & Submit, b. 16 July 1805, Elizabethtown; (6) Ira, b. 18 Oct. 1807; (7) Peter, b. 16 Oct. 1809; (8 & 9) Philo & Philana, b. 22 Oct. 1811, near Lewiston, N. Y.; (10) Joanna, b. 29 July 1813, Genesee Co., N. Y.; (11) Thomas, b. 8 Sept. 1815, New York State; (12) Christopher-Columbus, b. 18 Sept. 1817; (13) William-Warren, b. 20 June 1820, Markham, Ont.; (14) Jacob, b. 10 Sept. 1822, East Guillimbury; (15) Clarissa, b. 13 Oct. 1824; (16) Catharine, b. 6 May 1826.*

184. iv. PHILO, b. 14 May 1787; m. BEULAH KNAPP.

185. v. HORACE, b. 1789, Hinesburg; m. CATHERINE PARISH and JANE (McMullin) (CALLAHAN) RILEY.

186. vi. THOMAS, b. about 1792, probably Kitley, Can.; m. JANE MCCLURE.

102. REUBEN [5] SHERMAN (Samuel [4], Samuel [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Ware, Mass., 1 Dec. 1759, died in Ware, 14 Aug. 1814. He married in Ware in October 1783, ELIZABETH WHITCOMB, born in Hardwick, Mass., 28 Sept. 1763, died in Ware, 16 Jan. 1815, daughter of Lot and Lydia (Nye) Whitcomb.

Reuben Sherman lived all his life in Ware, serving in the Revolution from that town, the official record showing that he was with the Continental army for three years, and apparently in a militia regiment before that.

Reuben Sherman, Ware. List of Men raised to serve in the Continental Army from Capt. William Brakridge's (Breckinridge's) company, 4th Hampshire Co., regiment as returned by Lieut. Col. Ruggles Woodbridge; residence Ware; enlistment, 3 years; also, Private, Capt. John Spurr's company, Col. Thomas Nixon's 6th (also given 5th) regiment, Continental Army pay accounts for service from 1 Mar. 1777 to 9 Mar. 1780; reported discharged 19 Mar. 1780; also, same company and regiment, return of men who were in camp on or before 15 Aug. 1777, and who had not been absent subsequently except on furlough, etc., certified at Camp near Peekskill, 16 Feb. 1779; also, same company and regiment, muster roll for May, dated Highlands, enlisted 1 Mar. 1777, reported on command with Surveyor General; also, Capt. Spurr's (1st) company, 6th Massachusetts regiment, return for clothing delivered for the year 1780; receipt for said clothing, dated Peekskill, Dec. 1779. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, 14: 143.)

* Joanna (Sherman) Belfry was but forty-five when her sixteenth child was born, and she had changed her home every few years during her period of child bearing.

The following deeds of Reuben Sherman are found:

"I Lot Whitcomb of Ware . . . Gentleman for . . . the sum of Eighty pounds to me . . . paid . . . by Reuben Sherman of Ware . . . Yeoman . . . Have . . . conveyed . . . unto him . . . One certain tract . . . of land lying in Ware being part of a tract Originally . . . the Sherman farm & all I now hold by deed from Ishmael Bucar formerly of Ware except 85 acres & three quarters I sold to John Andrews of Ware . . . " 28 Feb. 1786. Wit: William Scott, Jr., J. P., Caty Bliss. (Old Hampshire Co., Deeds, at Springfield, 27: 184.)

Reuben Sherman of Ware, Yeoman, sells to James Gilmore of same place, gentleman, land there, Betty Sherman releasing her dower, 10 June 1788. (ibid., 35: 466.)

Thomas Legate of Leominster, Esq., sells to Reuben Sherman of Ware, yeoman, land in Ware, 10 Oct. 1793. (ibid., 24: 411.)

John Shaw 2nd of Ware conveys to Reuben Sherman of the same place, land there, Lancy releasing her dower, 24 Apr. 1802. (ibid., 32: 455.)

Reuben Sherman of Ware, yeoman, conveys to Thomas Sherman of Ware, laborer, two tracts of land, in Ware, 16 Feb. 1814. (ibid., 45: 453.)

From the close of the Revolution in 1783 to December 1796, Reuben Sherman appears in the town records, the items showing that he was a fairly important citizen.

"Chose Mr. Reuben Sherman . . . for highway surveyors, said surveyors to be collectors to collect said sums if the work is not done when ordered." Ware, 3 Mar. 1783. (Town Records, p. 129.)

"Chose Mr. Reuben Shirman . . . Hogreve." 1 Mar. 1784. (135.)

"Chose Mrss. Joseph Cummings, Steve Pond, Ruben Sherman . . . for surveyors of ways. Voted that the surveyors be collectors." 2 Mar. 1789. (178.)

"Made Choice of Lt. Marsh . . . Reuben Sherman . . . School Committee men to draw the several sums of money belonging to each inhabitant and to see that it is converted to the use of Schooling." 7 Mar. 1791. (196.)

"Voted to accept Mr. Moses Brown and Mr. Reuben Sherman for Bondsmen for Mr. William Snell's well performance of the duty of Constable the Insuing year." 21 Mar. 1791. (197.)

"Made choice of Seth Lamberton . . . and Reuben Sherman for Surveyors of highways." 19 Mar. 1792. (205.)

"Made choice of Dan. Leonard . . . Reuben Sherman . . . for a Committee to draw the money that shall be granted for the use of schooling, and see that it is appropriated for the above purpose." 19 Mar. 1792. (205.)

"Voted to release Reuben Sherman from being Warden." 19 Mar. 1792. (205.)

"Made choice of . . . Reuben Sherman . . . a committee to look into the state of the schools, said committee to have nine persons." 7 Mar. 1795. (228.)

"Made choice of . . . Reuben Shermon . . . surveyors of highways," 7 Mar. 1796. (234.)

"Voted to chuse a committee to make a new arrangement in regard to schoolhouses. Made choice of . . . Reuben Shermon for said committee." 5 Dec. 1796.

Doubtless there are later mentions of Reuben Sherman but the records were searched no farther.

Children, born in Ware, Mass.:

i. Benson [6], b. 15 Oct. 1784, d. 15 Dec. 1810, unm., Ware.

ii. Dorcas, b. 29 Dec. 1786, d. 1868, Ware, unm. On 18 Aug. 1865, Reuben A. Lazell of Enfield, his wife Ellen releasing her dower, transferred to Dorcas Sherman of Ware, land there and agreed to pay her a life interest. (Hampshire Co., Deeds, 230: 54.) She left the following will: "I Dorcas Sherman of Ware . . . singlewoman . . . in feeble health . . . do make this my last will . . . I authorize my executor to erect . . . a suitable headstone at my grave . . . Item I give . . . to my great nephew Joshua E. Lazell of Somerville in the State of Connecticut all my estate. Item I remember with love and affection all my Newphews & Nieces but it is not my will to give them anything out of my estate . . . I do . . . appoint Elisha Moody . . . executor of this my last will . . . 20 Jan. 1868." Wit: Franklin Dickinson, Phineas Bridgman, Abbie M. Moody. Proved 28 Feb. 1868.

The following heirs are listed as next of kin to Dorcas Sherman of Ware, who died 1 Feb. 1868:

Ephraim Scott removed from Ware to Belchertown after the birth of his first two children where he had two more. He then went to Fredonia, N. Y., and from there to Lowell, Mass. About 1836, the family emigrated to Ohio where the last child was born. Ephraim Scott died a little over a year later and was soon followed by the eldest son then aged fourteen, leaving Lydia in the wilderness with a family of small children. Lydia after untold hardships returned to Belchertown, where her husband's unmarried brothers were living. They looked after the education of the children.

Later the family went to Illinois joining the Lazell cousins. Children (SCOTT), (1) William, b. and d. 1 Oct. 1818, Ware; (2) Mary-S., b. 20 Sept. 1820, Ware; m. ——— Hopkins; (3) William-Coney, b. 12 Jan. 1825, Belchertown, d. 28 Nov. 1839, Sidney, Ohio; (4) Benson-Sherman, b. 17 Dec. 1828, Belchertown; m. ix. LOUISIANA, b. 28 Oct. 1804, d. 15 Oct. 1819, unm. A list of children gives her as "Lucina."

103. EBENEZER [5] SHERMAN (Samuel [4], Samuel [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Ware, Mass., 22 Jan. 1768, died, probably in Ohio, after 1834. He married in Ware (published there, 19 Apr. 1789) SYBIL PATERSON, born probably in Ware, about 1770, died after 1834, probably daughter of Joseph and Abigail (Russell) Paterson.*

Ebenezer Sherman evidently grew up in Ware and became at first a farm laborer and later a farmer.

Ebenezer Sherman made his first purchase of land at the age of eighteen and from then on for nearly fifty years he appears in the records.

John Andrews of Ware, yeoman, sells to Ebenezer Sherman of Ware, laborer, land there, 9 Mar. 1785. (Hampshire Co., Deeds, 2: 442.)

Samuel Cleland of Ware, yeoman, sells, to Ebenezer Sherman of Ware, land bounding on Ebenezer's property, 26 Jan. 1792. (ibid., 6: 147.)

Ebenezer Sherman also bought land in Ware from James Forbush, of Ware, 11 Dec. 1797; and from Ezekiel Merritt of Ware, 19 Sept. 1801. (ibid., 12: 476; 20: 782.)

Ebenezer Sherman of Ware, yeoman, sells to Thomas Mitchell of Greenwich, certain tract of land in Ware, Sybil Sherman, his wife, signing also, 25 Sept. 1801. (ibid., 26: 289.)

Ebenezer Sherman of Ware, yeoman, conveys to Lamuel Swift of Ware yeoman, land in Ware, being "part of the farm I now live on," 6 Dec. 1804. Wit: Isaac Pepper, Reuben Sherman. (ibid., 29: 404.)

ii. LOWELL-ALEXANDER, b. 9 Mar. 1862, Princeville, d. 29 Mar. 1863.

iii. CARRIE-MAY, b. 6 Oct. 1863, Wyoming, Ill., living 1935; m. 26 Feb. 1889, FRANK-ABNER MERRILL, b. 7 Oct. 1865, Exeter, N. H., living 1935, son of Benjamin-Long and Achsah-Maria (Blood) Merrill. Children (Merrill), (1) Francis-Abner, b. and d. 26 July 1896; (2) Abner-Scott, b. 15 May 1898, Boston, Mass., d. 18 May 1934, Brookline, Mass.

iv. CECILIA-BRADNER, b. 19 May 1866, Wyoming, Ill., d. 12 Sept. 1868.

v. HARRIETT-GRACE, b. 31 Dec. 1868, Wyoming, Ill., living 1935, Brookline, Mass. She has been interested for many years in Patriotic Societies and genealogy and it is due to her that the Scott and Coney genealogies have been compiled and that this Sherman one is now being published.

* Joseph Paterson was of Palmer but purchased land in Ware in 1769. He later removed to Ware where he was an innkeeper in 1774–75 and in 1778. He was the only one of his name in Ware in 1790.

Ebenezer Sherman of Ware deeds, to Snow Sherman of Ware, one half a tract of land being "the Home Lot on which I now live" bounded on Jonathan Russell and others, 24 Feb. 1812. (ibid., 52: 395.)

Ebenezer Sherman of Ware sells, to Joseph Woodward of Belchertown, yeoman, land in Ware; Sybil, wife of Ebenezer, releasing her dower, 24 Jan. 1815; Wit: Alden Lothrop, Snow Sherman. (ibid., 42: 262.)

Ebenezer Sherman of Ware, and Snow Sherman of Ware, yeoman, deed, to Daniel Alden, land in Ware being the west end of a lot we had from Jeremiah Mellen, 17 Apr. 1817. (ibid., 46: 466.)

Ebenezer and Snow Sherman of Ware mortgage land there to Joseph Pope of Ware, 16 Oct. 1820. The mortgage was satisfied, 3 Feb. 1827, receipt being given by Simeon Waters, Administrator de bonis non of Joseph Pope. (ibid., 47: 171.)

Ebenezer Sherman and Snow Sherman of Ware, yeoman, sell to John Bowdoin, and David Lewis, land in Ware; Sybil and Betsey, wives of Ebenezer and Snow, releasing their dower rights, 6 Apr. 1827. (ibid., 63: 393.)

Ebenezer Sherman, Snow Sherman, and John Sherman of Ware mortgage land in Ware to Ephraim Richards of Enfield, 20 June 1827. (ibid., 57: 524.)

Ebenezer Sherman deeds to John Sherman of Ware, yeomen, one-half a tract of land in Ware held in common with Snow Sherman; Sybil, wife of Ebenezer, releasing her dower, 20 June 1827. (ibid., 57: 617.)

Ebenezer Sherman of Ware, yeoman, mortgages, to Ephraim Richards of Enfield, land in Ware, being the farm said Sherman now lives upon, 1 Jan. 1831. (ibid., 63: 339.)

Ebenezer Sherman of Ware sells, to Barnabas Blair of Enfield, land in Ware; Sybil Sherman releasing her dower, 18 Sept. 1834. Wit: Epaphras Clark, Snow Sherman. (ibid., 74: 454.)

Ebenezer Sherman of Ware, yeoman, sells to Ambrose Blair of Warren, land in Ware, being the farm said Ebenezer now lives on (for bounds, refer to deeds from John Andrews, 9 Mar. 1789; Samuel Cleaveland, 26 Jan. 1792; Ezekiel-S. Merritt, 19 Sept. 1801; and Mary Overing, 7 Oct. 1797); Sybil, wife of Ebenezer releasing her dower, 4 Sept. 1834. (ibid., 74: 437.)

Apparently some of these deeds were not recorded. After the passing of this last deed, Ebenezer vanishes from Ware. Tradition states that he went west possibly accompanied by his youngest son John Sherman. Why he named his eldest son "Snow", the name of his father's first wife, is inexplicable. Possibly it was a request of his father's.

Children, born in Ware, Mass.:

He was living in Ware in 1830, for 20 Aug. in that year he quit all his rights in property in Ware, bounded on Jonathan Russell, Edward Pope, et al., to Ebenezer Sherman, of Ware. (Hampshire Co., Deeds, 73: 524.)

104. CAPT. NATHANIEL [5] SHERMAN (John [4], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 9 Feb. 1748, died in Carver, Mass., 11 July 1829, aged eighty years. He married in Plymouth, Mass., 19 Oct. 1769, MARIAH CLARK, born 1748, died in Carver, 10 Oct. 1822, aged seventy-four years, daughter of James, Esq., and Hannah (Swift) Clark.

Nathaniel Sherman served in the Revolutionary War:

Nathaniel Sherman served as a corporal in Capt. James Harlow's company, commanded by Lieut. Elijah Bisbee, Jr., in Col. Thomas Lothrop's regiment; Gen. Joseph Cushing's brigade; service 16 days; company marched to Bristol, R. I., on an alarm. Roll dated Plympton, 29 Mar. 1777. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, 14: 142.)

Nathaniel Shermon, corporal in Capt. Thomas Samson's company, Col. Theophilus Cotton's regiment, Gen. Palmer's brigade, service between 25 Sept. and 30 Oct. 1777, being 32 days on a secret expedition to Newport, R. I., Roll sworn to in Plymouth Co. (ibid., 14: 148.)

Nathaniel Shearman served in company commanded by Lieut. John Doty, Col. Ebenezer Sprout's regiment; entered service 6 May 1778; service two days on an alarm at Dartmouth; roll sworn to in Plymouth Co.; also, same company and regiment, entered service 5 Sept. 1778, discharged 11 Sept. 1778; service six days on an alarm at Dartmouth; roll sworn to in Plymouth Co.; also, private, Capt. Barnabas Doty's company, Col. Ebenezer Sprout's regiment; entered service, 13 Sept. 1778, discharged 17 Sept. 1778, service five days on an alarm at Falmouth, Barnstable Co.† (ibid., 14: 86.)

* Earl Sherman lived for a time in Vernon, Conn., and the following marriage is recorded there; John Sherman of New York and Lovina Williams of Vernon, 30 Sept. 1829. This may be the above John who was a cousin of Earl Sherman.

† It is hard to distinguish between the service of Nathaniel [5] Sherman of Rochester and Nathaniel [5] Sherman of Plympton but the items quoted here are apparently those of the latter. As the services given to "Nathaniel" Sherman conflict, undoubtedly both served.

Nathaniel Sherman appears in the Census of 1790 as a resident of Carver with two males above sixteen, two males below sixteen, and three females in his family.

Nathaniel Sherman is called "Capt" on his gravestone; he undoubtedly bore that title. He may have gained it by service in the militia in later years or he may have been a sea captain. He is however called "yeoman" in early deeds and "mariner" in later ones. He left Plymouth about 1773 and went to Plympton making his home in that part of the town that was established as the town of Carver in 1790.

Joseph Wright of Plympton, Yeoman, sells to Nathaniel Sherman of Plympton, yeoman, land there, 12 June 1777. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 59: 40.)

Judah Hall of Plympton, Laborer, and Lydia Hall of Halifax and Mehetabel Hall of Plympton sell to Nathaniel Sherman of Plympton land in Middleboro' that their honored Grandfather Mr. Samuel Wright bought of Barnabas Raymond, 14 July 1777. (ibid., 59: 64.)

Nathaniel Sherman of Plympton, mariner, deeds to Asa Sherman of Plympton, yeoman, land in Plymouth, 12 Apr. 1790. (ibid., 70: 105.)

On 2 Feb. 1792, Elijah Rickard of Carver transferred to Nathaniel Sherman of Carver, mariner, land in Carver and Kingston, Betty Rickard releasing her dower. Wit: Levi Chase, Rufus Sherman. In all there are three deeds. (ibid., 72: 206, 220.)

Consider Chase, Nath[1] Sherman, gentleman, Rufus Sherman & Levi Chase, yeoman, all of Carver, convey to Nathaniel Harlow, Jr., gentleman and Levi Harlow, yeoman, both of Plympton, a woodland in Kingston which they bought of the town of Plymouth, 5 Apr. 1792. Wit: Meriah Sherman, James Churchill. (ibid., 160: 61.)

Consider Chase also sold to Nathaniel Sherman of Carver, a meadow which he bought of Eleazer Rickard, near Sherman's other meadow, 25 June 1793. Wit: Levi Chase, Rufus Sherman, Jr. (ibid., 82: 285.)

Nathaniel Sherman of Carver, mariner, conveys to Asa Sherman of Plympton, land in Middleboro' purchased of "Judah Hall and Sister", Meriah releasing her dower, 28 June 1793. (ibid., 73: 281.)

Barnabus Cobb and Jerusha Cobb of Carver sell to Nathaniel Sherman of Carver, a piece of meadow in Doten's meadow in Carver which Barnabus bought of William Sturtevant, 9 Apr. 1794. (ibid., 82: 286.)

Consider Chase, Levi Chase, Nathaniel Sherman and Rufus Sherman all of Carver divide lands which they purchased in 1790 of the town of Plymouth, 3 Feb. 1796. Wit: John Bisbee, Jr., Meriah Sherman. (ibid., 165: 179.)

Nathaniel Sherman, gentleman, of Carver, made his will, 2 Apr. 1824, proved 21 Sept. 1829. He mentions his eldest son Jabez Sherman, his three daughters, Betsey Prince, Polly Barrows, and Sarah Burgess, youngest son Levi to have the homestead farm and to be executor. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18166.)

Children, born probably in Plympton, recorded in Carver, Mass.:

105. RUTH [4] SHERMAN (John [4], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 22 Jan. 1750, died in Hanson, Mass., 5 Sept. 1826, in her seventy-seventh year. She married in Plymouth, 28 Dec. 1769, JONAH † BISBEE, JR., born in Pembroke, Mass., 22 May 1744, died there 6 Dec. 1838, aged ninety-four years, son of Jonah and Ruth (Bryant) Bisbee.

Jonah and Ruth lived in Pembroke until after 1775, and were again in the town in 1783 and in 1790, appearing in the census of that year there, with one male above sixteen, one below, and four females. In 1801, they were in Carver. The death of Jonah is given in the Pem-

* The Burgess Genealogy states that this child was born 11 Mar. 1822, obviously impossible if the father died in April 1821.

† Jonah Bisbee is called "Josiah" in the printed vital records of Pembroke, and in some other records but in his publication in Plymouth he is called Jonah and from other data it is shown that the vital records are wrong in calling Ruth's husband "Josiah". It must be remembered that in script the names are easily confused as Jonah looks the same as Josiah with the dot over the "i" omitted.

broke vital records but may merely mean that he was buried there. Hanson gives the death of Ruth but not of Jonah.

Children, recorded in Pembroke, Mass.:

i. HANNAH BISBEE, b. 30 Dec. 1772.
ii. BETTY BISBEE, b. 20 Apr. 1775.
iii. JOHN BISBEE, b. 4 June 1783.

106. RUFUS [5] SHERMAN (John [4], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 29 June 1754, died in Carver, Mass., 24 Aug. 1832, aged seventy-eight years. He married in Plymouth, Mass., 20 July 1775, PHEBE RIDER, born in Plymouth, 7 Mar. 1757, died in Carver, 27 Oct. 1823, in her sixty-eighth year, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (———) Rider.

Rufus Sherman moved to Plympton shortly before his marriage and is called of that town in the publication of intention of marriage in Plymouth, 25 Mar. 1775. He like his elder brother Nathaniel lived in that part of the town which became Carver in 1790. He appears in the census of that year as a resident of Carver with one male above sixteen, three below, and three females in his family.

He served in the Revolutionary War.

Rufus Sherman was a member of Capt. Edward Hammond's company, Col. Cotton's regiment as shown by an order for a bounty coat or its equivalent in money, dated Roxbury, 11 Nov. 1775.

[He was evidently at one time a prisoner.]

Rufus Sherman appears on a list of prisoners to be returned in exchange for British prisoners sent to New York in the cartel "Favorite" as returned by Robert Pierpont, Commissary of Prisoners [year not given]; said Sherman, a seaman, to be returned for James Neigess, seaman. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, 14: 144.)

Rufus Sherman of Massachusetts a resident of Carver, applied for a pension, 13 Apr. 1818, in Plymouth County. He had served in 1776 in Capt. Bridgham's company, Col. John Bailey's regiment being discharged 1 Jan. 1777 at Peekskill, N. Y.

On 8 July 1818, Ephraim Pratt and Elijah Caswell, the latter a drummer in Col. Ward's regiment, testify to having served in Revolution.

Rev. Plummer Chase and Rufus Shearman Junr. both of Carver testify credence, etc.

Dr. William Barrows testified that Sherman could not appear in Court as he was confined to bed with fever. (Pension Papers, Washington, D. C., S. 30095.)

Rufus Sherman was a mariner and later in life a farmer.

Joseph Crocker of Plimpton, yeoman, sells to Rufus Sherman and John Sherman, Jr., husbandman, both of Plympton, land there, Deborah Crocker releasing her dower, 26 Mar. 1783. Wit: John Whiting, Consider Chase. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 62: 25.)

Thomas Wetherell, William Hall Jackson, and Andrew Croswell, a commission appointed to sell sheep-pasture, etc., in Plympton and Kingston, sell to Consider Chase and his son Levi, Rufus Sherman, and Elijah Rickard of Plympton, land there and in Kingston, 26 Mar. 1790. (ibid., 70: 11.)

Joseph Whiting of Plymouth sells to Rufus Sherman of Carver, "seafaring man", the real estate which "my honored father Elisha Whiting" conveyed to me by deed with buildings, etc., widow Mary Whiting releasing her dower, 13 Apr. 1792. Sarah Whiting, evidently wife of Joseph, also releases her dower. (ibid., 83: 168.)

Benjamin Hanson of Carver, yeoman, sells to Rufus Sherman of the same place, yeoman, land in Carver set off to me by a division made by father-in-law, Elisha Whiting, 14 Nov. 1792. Wit: John Sherman, Jr. (ibid., 83: 169.)

Nathaniel Goodwin, Esq., of Plymouth conveys to Consider Chase and Rufus Sherman both of Carver, yeomen, land in Carver, 30 Dec. 1798. (ibid., 86: 35.)

Rufus Sherman made his will, 29 Dec. 1828, proved 15 Oct. 1832. Rufus Sherman of Carver, yeoman, advanced in years, bequeaths to son Isaac Sherman his homestead farm; to son Rufus Sherman; to son Micah Sherman; to daughter Hannah Waterman; with what she hath already had; to daughter Phebe Cobb; my five children, Rufus, Isaac, Hannah, "Micha," and Phebe; son Isaac to be executor. Wit: Nehemiah Cobb, Nathan Cobb, Deborah Cobb. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18178.)

107. ASA [5] SHERMAN (John [4], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 12 Oct. 1756, died in Plympton, Mass., 13 Oct. 1836, aged eighty years, and one day. He married in Plympton, 28 Dec. 1784, POLLY STEPHENS, born, probably in Plymouth, 16 Feb. 1762, died in Plympton, 9 Mar. 1847, aged eighty-five years and twenty-three days, daughter of Edward and Phebe (Harlow) Stephens.

Asa Sherman went to Plympton about 1774 with the rest of the family but he lived in a part of Plympton which remained Plympton after the establishing of Carver.

He had the following service in the Revolution:

Asa Sherman served as a private in Capt. Jesse Harlow's company; service from 29 Jan. 1776 to 29 Feb. 1776, one month and three days; company stationed at Plymouth for defense of the seacoast; also, same company, service from 31 May 1776 to 31 Aug. 1776, being three months; company stationed at Plymouth for defense of the seacoast. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, 14: 14.)

Asa Sherman was a member of Capt. John Bridgham's company, Col. Cotton's regiment as is shown by an order for a bounty coat or its equivalent in money dated Camp at Roxbury, 11 Nov. 1775; also, he served as a private in Capt. Jesse Harlow's company from 29 Feb. 1776 to 31 May 1776, three months; company stationed at Plymouth for defense of the seacoast; also, in Capt. Thomas Samson's Co., Col. Theophilus Cotton's regiment, Gen. Palmer's brigade; service from 25 Sept. and 30 Oct. 1777, being thirty-two days, on a secret expedition to Newport, R. I., roll sworn to in Plymouth County. (ibid., 14: 135.)

Asa's widow, Polly (Stephens) Sherman, aged 75, applied for a pension 17 Aug. 1838, two years after his death and the following facts were cited to prove the claim.

Asa was born 1756 (aged 76 in 1832) and died 13 Oct. 1836, Plympton; married 28 Dec. 1784 by Rev. Mr. Howland, as the Plympton records will show. He enlisted at Roxbury in the Fall of 1775 under Capt. Bridgham, Col. Cotton, serving one month; he next enlisted under Capt. Jesse Harlow, serving four months, the company being stationed at Plymouth where he helped build a fort; his third enlistment was in July 1776, in Capt. "James" (sic) Harlow's company, and was in the battles of White Plains and Harlem; his fourth term was when he was called on a "private expedition as it was called" in Capt. Sampson's Co., Col. Cotton's regiment; being stationed at Howland Ferry River, Rhode Island, one month.

Rev. Elijah Denton and Lewis Bradford (Town Clerk) testify to their belief in the facts set forth.

Zenas Bryant, aged eighty years, stated that he was a drummer in Capt. Jesse Harlow's company for nine months and knew of Asa Sherman's service. Perez Bradford, aged seventy-nine years, served under Capt. John Bradford in Cotton's regiment and knew of Sherman being in Capt. Bridgham's company. John Bisbee, aged seventy-six, was with Capt. Harlow's company in New York. (Pension Records, Washington, D. C., W. 19359.)

Asa Sherman was a farmer in Plympton and appears in only a few deeds. The census of 1790 shows him living in Plympton, with one male above sixteen, two below, and three females in his family.

Caleb Doty of Plymouth conveys to Asa Sherman of Plimton land there bounded on Ensign John Sherman, 27 Nov. 1789; his "wife" releasing her dower. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 70: 104.)

Edward Stevens, Sylvanus Stevens, and Asa Sherman with Mary his wife, all of Plympton, deed to brother William Stevens of Plymouth, the Real Estate of "our mother Phebe Stevens", late of Carver, deceased, which descended to her from her father William Harlow, late of Plymouth, deceased, the said land being all in Plymouth, 1796. (ibid., 102: 130.)

Isaac Wright of Plimpton, gentleman, sells to Asa Sherman of same place, yeoman, swamp land there, formerly Peter Thayer's, also land near his (Isaac's) dwelling house in Plimpton; Faith Wright, widow to Isaac Wright, deceased, releasing her dower and Sarah, wife of the above Isaac also releasing her rights, 1 Apr. 1799. (ibid., 86: 247.)

Joseph Wright of Plimpton, gentleman, sells to Asa Sherman of same place, land there bordering on Asa Sherman, Jacob Wright and Asaph Soule; Priscilla Wright, wife of Joseph, releasing her dower, 26 May 1801. Wit: Elijah Bisbee, Beza Bisbee. (ibid., 90: 76.)

"In the Name of God Amen I Asa Sherman of Plympton . . . yeoman being blessed with a Comfortable degree of Health . . . do make . . . this my last Will . . . Imprimis I give to my well Beloved wife Polly Sherman the Improvement of one third Part of all my Real estate so long as she shall remain my Widow—I also give her one Cow, together with all my Household furniture—

I give and bequeath to my son George Sherman all my homestead farm with all the Buildings . . . horse, Horned cattle and sheep . . . farming Tools . . . I hereby absolutely order my Son George Sherman to Pay to my three sons herein named (viz.) to Pay Joseph Sherman fifty dollars, to my Son Asa Sherman fifty Dollars and to my Son Zaccheus Sherman fifty dollars . . .

I do . . . make . . . my Son George Sherman my Sole Executor . . . In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this Sixteenth day of March—In the Year of our Lord one thousand Eight hundred and Twenty six. Wit: Elijah Bisbee, Nathan Bisbee, John P. Ellis. Proved Nov. 1836. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18084.)

Polly, Asa's widow, survived over ten years, dying at her son Capt. Zaccheus Sherman's, in Plympton, on Tuesday, 9 Mar. 1847, of paralysis.

108. ELIZABETH [5] SHERMAN (John [4], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 14 Nov. 1758, died, probably in Plymouth, Mass., after 1801. She married in Plymouth, 21 Oct. 1773, WILLIAM FINNEY, born there 16 Nov. 1750, died probably before 1790, probably son of John and Susanna (Doty) (Pratt) Finney.

As William Finney did not sign the deed whereby the children of John Sherman conveyed a meadow of their father's to their brother, Rufus Sherman, but Elizabeth acts alone, the presumption is that William Finney was deceased. (See account of John [4], William [3], etc.)

Widow Elizabeth Finney appears in the census of 1790 as of Plymouth with two males below sixteen and four females in the family. This is apparently the widow Elizabeth (Sherman) Finney.

Children, born in Plymouth, Mass.: *

i. Elizabeth Finney, b. abt. 1775; m. (1), 6 Nov. 1793, Abraham Howland; m. (2), Nathaniel Whiting.

ii. Sally Finney, b. about 1777; m. (1), 2 Mar. 1804, Ephraim Churchill; m. (2), Barzillai Holmes.

109. CAPT. JOHN [5] SHERMAN (John [4], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 9 June 1762, died in Carver, Mass., 25 Apr. 1840, in his seventy-eighth year. He married first in Plympton, 25 Feb. 1787, Lydia Doten, born in Plympton, Mass., in 1769, died in Carver, Mass., 11 June 1818, in her fiftieth year, daughter of Ebenezer and Mary (Everson) (Rickard) Doten. He married secondly in Carver, 18 Oct. 1818, Lucy (Nelson) Crocker, born 1788, died in Carver, 9 Sept. 1853, aged 65 years, daughter of Thomas and Lucy (———) Nelson and stepdaughter of Edward Stephens. She married first, in Carver, 17 Aug. 1808, Eleazer Crocker, born 7 July 1788 (recorded in Carver), died ———, son of Heman and Lydia (Churchill) Crocker.

John Sherman served in the Revolution and was granted a pension.

John Sharman served as a private in Capt. Jesse Sturtevant's company, Col. John Jacob's regt.; enlisted 31 July 1780, discharged 1 Nov. 1780, service, 3 months 1 day, regiment detached from militia to reinforce the Continental Army at Rhode Island for three months. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, 14: 16.)

John Sherman applied for a pension in 1832, being a resident of Carver, Mass., aged seventy years. He stated that he was born in Plymouth † and that his birth was probably recorded there. He was drafted in the fall of 1778 for three months in the company of Capt. Ichabod Bonney, Col. Gray's regiment and served at Castle William in Boston Harbor. In 1780, he enlisted under Capt. Jesse Sturtevant and Col. Jacobs for R. I. service, the enlistment being for three months under Lieut. Nehemiah Cobb. He was known generally in Plympton and Carver and especially to Nehemiah Cobb, Esq., a "venerable magistrate in Carver" and to Benjamin Ellis, Esq., of Carver, member of the Massachusetts legislature. Peleg Sampson of Plymouth also testified in his favor. (Pension Records, Washington, D. C., S. 29453.)

* The vital records of Plymouth tell very little of the family of William Finney. The census of 1850 helps a little but it is very difficult to find any details about the children.

† When John Sherman, father of this John, moved from Marshfield to Plymouth, this John was only a little boy, and probably he supposed he was born in Plymouth.

After the war he became a captain in the militia and is so called on his gravestone in Carver. He appears as John Shirman, Jur., in the census of 1790, in Carver with one male above sixteen, two below, and one female in his family.

There are many deeds of John Sherman and his heirs. He owned with Heman Crocker certain woodland in Plymouth which they divided but, as no date is given, this division can only be stated to have been after 1790, as Crocker is called of Carver. His first deed was passed when he was just twenty-one.

John Sherman, Jun., of Plimpton, husbandman, sells to Rufus Sherman of Plimpton, land there 9 Dec. 1783. Wit: John Sherman [his father], Reuben Totman. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 83: 68.)

Ephraim Lucas of Plymouth deeds to John Sherman Jr., land in Plymouth, 1 Dec. 1785. (ibid., 65: 4.)

Hezekiah Cole of Plimpton, yeoman, conveys to John Sherman, Jr., of Plimpton, land there, Elizabeth Cole releasing her dower, 20 Feb. 1786. (ibid., 67: 245.)

Barnabas Lucas and Isaac Lucas, both of Plympton, deed to John Sherman, Jr., of same place, land and orchard "which fell to us by our honoured Father Barnebas Lucas"; Betty Lucas releasing her dower, 4 Jan. 1788. (ibid., 66: 281.)

On 4 March 1789, John, Jr., bought more land in Plympton of Nathaniel Goodwin of Plymouth and on 20 September 1790, he obtained the property that Joshua Cole and Caleb Cole, housewrights of Carver, were given by their father in his will. (ibid., 68: 233; 79: 37.)

William Sturtevant and Jemima Sturtevant of Carver sell, to Barnabus Cobb and John Sherman, Jr., of Carver, a parcel of meadow there, part of Doten's meadow, 24 July 1792. (ibid., 79: 37.)

Jonathan and Sarah Tilson of Carver, he a blacksmith, sell to John Sherman, Jr. of same, yeoman, meadow and swamp in Doten's meadow in Carver, which fell to us in the division of our honoured father Ebenezer Doten's estate, 20 Sept. 1793. (ibid., 79: 38.) This is the last deed in which this John figures as John, Jr., the next one was passed after his father's decease in 1800.

Lemuel Cole of Carver, gentleman, deeds to John Sherman of Carver, land there, Susanna Cole releasing her dower, 24 Mar. 1801. (ibid., 90: 59.)

On 19 Mar. 1805, John Sherman sold land to Lemuel Cole in Carver; on 9 Sept. 1808, he bought land there of Benjamin Ward whose wife Molly released her dower; on 15 Mar. 1815, he bought of Willard Sears and his wife Sarah, of Plymouth, land there which had been the property of Eleazer Robbins, late of Carver, deceased. (ibid., 102: 85; 112: 28; 122: 275.)

Freeman Waterman of Halifax, yeoman, mortgaged land in Halifax to John Sherman of Carver, his wife Joanna releasing her dower, 20 July 1816. (ibid., 129: 21.)

John Shaw of Middleboro' sells to John Sherman and Isaac Sherman both of Carver land there that belonged to his grandfather, Samuel Lucas, late of Carver, Abigail Shaw releasing her dower, 18 Mar. 1819. (ibid., 122: 100.)

David Dimon, Jr., and wife Abigail B. Dimon in her right of Plymouth convey to John Sherman of Carver, yeoman, a salt meadow in Plymouth, descended to me from my grandmother Ruth Nelson, Deceased, wife of Ebenezer Nelson, 4 Oct. 1819. (ibid., 139: 73.)

John Sherman of Carver, for love, goodwill and affection deeds to sons Henry and Anthony Sherman, land in Carver, Lucy Sherman releasing her dower, 7 Apr. 1820. Wit: Rufus Sherman. (ibid., 148: 132.)

John Sherman of Carver, gentleman, and Lucy his wife in her right, Thomas Nelson, William Cobb and Cynthia his wife as guardian to ——— Nelson, her son, non compos mentis, David Dimon, Jr., and Abigail-B. his wife in her right, John-K. Cobb and Polly his wife in her right, William Nelson, Jesse Harlow and Mary-L., his wife, in her right all of Plymouth and all heirs of Ruth Nelson of same, spinster,* deceased, convey to Ebenezer Nelson land, etc., in Plymouth, 27 Feb. 1824. An Abigail Nelson also signs, probably wife of Thomas or William Nelson. (ibid., 150: 183.)

John Sherman of Carver, gentleman, deeds to Reuben Thomson Jr., of Halifax, land in Halifax previously mortgaged to him, the said Sherman, by Freeman Waterman, which said Waterman bought of Daniel Weston of Middleboro' and which formerly was a part of estate of John Sherman, late of Halifax, dec'd, 30 Jan. 1833. Wit: Henry Sherman. (ibid., 176: 268.)

William Nelson, Merchant, Mary-S. Harlow, widow, Elisha Nelson, yeoman, Charles Nelson, yeoman, Lemuel Bradford, yeoman, and Bathsheba, his wife, in her right, all of Plymouth, David Dimon, Jr., husbandman, and Abigail, his wife, also of Plymouth, and Lucy Sherman of Carver, widow, convey to Ephraim Finney of Plymouth, house and land on Court St. Plymouth, they all being heirs to Thomas Nelson, 20 Jan. 1841. Wit: Anthony Sherman. Signed by Elisha Nelson, Abigail Nelson, Lemuel Bradford, Bathsheba Bradford, Charles Nelson, Lucy Nelson, Lucy Sherman, David Dimon, Jr., Abigail B. Dimon, William Nelson, Sarah Nelson, and Mary-L. Harlow. (ibid., 210: 137.)

In 1845 the widow Lucy Sherman of Carver conveyed to Charles Nelson of Plymouth, six acres of woodland there owned in common with the heirs of Ebenezer Nelson and heirs of William Nelson, both late of Plymouth, deceased. (ibid., 218: 264.)

John Sherman, gentleman, of Carver made his will, 17 Jan. 1825, proved May 1840. He gave to his beloved wife, Lucy Sherman; to sons Henry and Anthony all estate not otherwise disposed of; to sons Ebenezer Sherman, John Sherman, Jr., and Reuben Sherman; and made his sons, John Sherman, Jr., and Henry Sherman, executors. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18140.)

Lucy Sherman, widow of Capt. John Sherman, deceased, of Carver, made her will 23 Sept. 1843, proved 1 Nov. 1853. She made Lewis Pratt executor and gave to Hannah-Crocker Sherman daughter of Henry Sherman, Esq., of Carver the wearing apparel of daughter Hannah Sherman, wife of abovesaid Henry Sherman; to Betsey Sherman daughter of John Sherman of Plympton; to Edward Stephens "my half-brother"; residue to Nelson Sherman and Hannah-Crocker Sherman, children of abovesaid Henry Sherman. (ibid., 18154.)

* This does not mean that she was unmarried, but that she spun as an occupation.

Children, born in Plympton and Carver, Mass.:

200. i. EBENEZER [6], b. 20 Apr. 1788, Plympton; m. ABIGAIL MORTON.
201. ii. JOHN, b. 14 Apr. 1791, Carver; m. ELEANOR BARNES and SALLY (RANSOM) MORTON.

204. vii. ANTHONY, b. 2 Feb. 1809; m. HANNAH (TILSON) COLE.

By her first husband, Eleazer Crocker, Lucy (Nelson) (Crocker) Sherman had, i. HANNAH-NELSON CROCKER, b. 30 Apr. 1809; m. as his first wife, her stepbrother, HENRY SHERMAN. They had no children.

110. MARY [5] SHERMAN (Anthony [4], William [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 1 Apr. 1747*, died in Brookfield, Mass., 28 Feb. 1816, aged sixty-nine years. She married first in Rochester, Mass., 23 Jan. 1766, ELEAZER ALLEN, born probably about 1745, died at sea, 29 Aug. 1782, parentage unknown. She married secondly, as his third wife, published in Oakham, Mass., 17 Oct. 1791, CAPT. AARON GILBERT, born 14 Oct. 1750, Brookfield, d. 18 Apr. 1808, there, son of Samuel and Ann (———) Gilbert. Capt. Aaron Gilbert married first in Brookfield, 12 Nov. 1778, Ruth Chadwick [Chaddock], who died there, 30 March 1790, aged forty-one years. He married secondly in Brookfield, 13 Apr. 1791, Persis Axdell, who died soon.

Eleazer Allen † was a resident of Rochester at the time of his marriage as his intention to marry Mary Sherman, published in Rochester, gives him no other place of residence. After his marriage, he bought in 1777, land in the town for a homestead. As he was a seafaring man no other deeds of purchase by him would be expected and there are none. He was drowned when the "Royal George", a British Man-of-War, sank off Spithead, England, evidently either a prisoner or an impressed sailor. Seven years after his death, administration was granted on his estate to his brother-in-law, Thomas Sherman. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 256.)

Unfortunately the children are not mentioned in the settlement of the estate which was insolvent,‡ and the real estate of Eleazer was sold to cover the indebtedness.

* Her birth is also entered on the Rochester records.

† A great deal of research was done by Winifred Lovering Holman in 1931 to determine if possible who was this Eleazer Allen, for a client of hers, but without success. Land and probate records of Plymouth, Dukes, and Worcester counties were examined, town and church records that seemed even possible chances, court records in Plymouth and Supreme Court records in Boston, Revolutionary records in Washington, etc., but nothing could be found to show where he came from to Rochester or if he were born in that town.

‡ An estate was then considered insolvent if the personal property was insufficient to pay the debts the real estate being ordered sold.

Just when or why Mary (Sherman) Allen went to Oakham is not known. She was accompanied by her son, Elisha and daughter Lois, her other children apparently remaining with her relatives in Bridgewater. The births of these Allen children were not found recorded anywhere but in Sept. 1778, Eleazer Allen had Betty, Jesse, Elisha, and Loice, baptised in the Mattapoisett Church. It is extremely probable that the older children were baptised somewhere as if not they would have been included with the rest as they were still young. Mary had Elisha apprenticed to a farmer named Pepper in New Braintree. She was living in Oakham when she was married to Capt. Gilbert, and went to Brookfield to live, taking Lois with her. There were a number of Allens in Oakham, but no relationship between them, and Eleazer Allen has been found, although they came from Bridgewater.

Mary (Sherman) (Allen) Gilbert joined the Brookfield Church being dismissed there from Rochester, 31 Aug. 1794. She survived her second husband about eight years. He died intestate, and administration of his estate was granted to Levi Ross, with Mary's consent, 3 May 1808. The probate papers mention the widow Mary and "Aaron Gilbert only Heir." Mary was made guardian of this son, her only child by Aaron Gilbert, Sr.

Children:

By first husband, Eleazer Allen,

i. Zephaniah Allen, b. 1766–67, d. 28 Mar. 1842, aged 75, Titicut section of Bridgewater, presumably unm. He testified in his uncle Thomas Sherman's, pension application stating that he grew up in the family of this uncle. In 1832, he had a guardian appointed to conserve his property, Zephaniah Keith being the one chosen. On 31 May 1842, Zephaniah Keith, stating that his ward had deceased asked to have an administrator appointed which request was granted but no accounting was returned to the court.

ii. Betty Allen, born 1769, baptized with brothers and sisters in Sept. 1778, d. 31 Mar. 1837, aged 68; m. (1), (published 26 July 1789, Abington) Nathan Bates, who died 31 Mar. 1790, aged 21; m. (2), (published 2 Oct. 1793, Abington) Brackley Shaw, b. 16 Mar. 1761, Abington, d. 19 Apr. 1839, there, son of Ebenezer and Anna Shaw. Children (Shaw), born in Abington: (1) Charles, b. 7 Mar. 1794; (2) Hannah, b. 9 July 1796; (3) Betty, b. 21 Aug. 1798; (4) Polly, b. 23 Oct. 1799; (5) Josiah, b. 5 Feb. 1803; (6) Mary-Allen, b. 26 Feb. 1811.*

iii. Mary Allen, b. about 1771, living 1814; m. ——— Crocker, probably resided near Bridgewater.

* These children are entered on the Abington records as those of Brackley and Betty, but a Brackley, evidently son of Abraham and Priscilla (Beal) Shaw, appears as father of a child by wife Betsey, in 1803, and there are others entered as children of Brackley and Betsey. One of these, Anna-Colson Shaw, b. 15 Feb. 1808, is probably another child of Brackley and Betty (Sherman) Shaw. She was baptised in 1812, as was Josiah Shaw.

iv. JESSE ALLEN, b. about 1773, a master mariner at 21, lost at sea, unm.

v. ELISHA ALLEN, b. 7 Nov. 1775, baptized 1778, Mattapoisett Church with brothers and sisters, d. 8 Aug. 1831, Sanford, Maine; m. March 1804, Sanford, HARRIET NASON, b. 31 Oct. 1782, Sanford, d. 13 May 1872, there, dau. of Samuel and Joanna (Tilden) Nason. Children (ALLEN), born in Sanford, (1) Harriet-Matilda, b. 19 Oct. 1804; (2) Julia-Ann, b. 23 Sept. 1806; (3) Francis-Augustus, b. 27 Jan. 1808; (4) Horace-Octavius, b. 16 Mar. 1810; (5) Emilius, b. 19 June 1811.

vi. LOIS ALLEN, b. about 1777, bapt. 1778, d. after 1816, probably unmarried. She wrote a letter to her brother Elisha, dated 12 June 1814, at Brookfield, Mass., he being then in Sanford, Maine. In it she mentions her mother's and her own ill health; thanks Elisha for his help; mentions her brother Aaron Gilbert who is in New Braintree for this summer and who has been very kind to her; says that she has heard from sister Crocker that she and her family are in good health, but has not heard from sister Shaw for more than a year, etc. Her death record is not in Brookfield and after her mother's death, she may have gone to live with Elisha or some other brother or sister.

vii. LYDIA ALLEN, b. about 1779, living 1807 in Abington; m. 20 May 1797, Abington, JOSIAH BATES, b. 20 Apr. 1773, there, living 1807, there, son of Eleazer and Dorothy (Browne) Bates. Children (BATES), born in Abington: (1) Dorothy, b. 4 Feb. 1799; (2) Joea, b. 20 Aug. 1801; (3) Josiah-Scott, b. 10 Feb. 1804. Said to have removed to Tamworth, N. H., and from there to Canada.

By second husband, Capt. Aaron Gilbert, viii. AARON GILBERT, JR., bapt. 14 May 1797, Brookfield, d. 29 May 1870, aged 74 yrs., unmarried, North Brookfield.

111. HANNAH [5] SHERMAN (Anthony [4], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 25 Oct. 1749, died in East Bridgewater Mass., 16 Oct. 1839, in her ninetieth year. She married first in Bridgewater, 13 June 1776, JOSIAH NEWTON, JR., born in Westborough, Mass., 4 May 1748, died in Brookfield, Mass., 6 Mar. 1777, of smallpox, son of Josiah and Ruhamah (Maynard) Newton. She married secondly in Bridgewater, as his second wife, 15 Mar. 1780, ENSIGN CUSHING MITCHELL, born there, 21 Dec. 1740, died in East Bridgewater, 4 June 1820, in his eightieth year, son of Col. Edward and Elizabeth (Cushing) Mitchell. Cushing Mitchell married first in Bridgewater, 26 Sept. 1765, Janet Orr, born in Bridgewater, 14 Apr. 1748, died there, 25 Feb. 1774, in her twenty-sixth year, daughter of Hugh and Mary (Bass) Orr.

Josiah Newton was a soldier in the Revolution and probably contracted in service the disease of which he died.

Children, born in Bridgewater, Mass.:
By Josiah Newton,

i. RUHAMAH NEWTON, b. 13 Oct. 1777, Brookfield, d. after 1813; m. 22 Oct. 1798, Bridgewater, MAJOR THEODORE MITCHELL, b. 27 May 1775, son of Edward and Jane (Latham) Mitchell. Children (MITCHELL), born Bridgewater, (1) Hannah, b. 12 Nov. 1799; (2) Winslow, b. 23 Nov. 1800; (3) Miriam, b. 17 May 1804; (4) Caroline, b. 5 June 1808; (5) Louisa, b. 5 Oct. 1813.

By Cushing Mitchell,

ii. HANNAH MITCHELL, b. 2 Feb. 1781; m. HON. EZEKIEL WHITMAN.
iii. CELIA MITCHELL, b. 25 May 1783; m. 11 Aug. 1802, CHARLES KEENE.
iv. CUSHING MITCHELL, JR., b. 31 Dec. 1784; m. 1 Apr. 1822, LUSANNA-TUCKER PRATT, dau. of Capt. Asa Pratt.
v. CHARLES MITCHELL, b. 2 Mar. 1788; m. 1813, BETHIA (ORR) CLIFT, widow of Adna-Winslow Clift.
vi. NEWTON MITCHELL, b. 20 Aug. 1789, d. 1810, aged 21, Franconia.
vii. GEORGE MITCHELL, bapt. 20 Jan. 1793; m. 29 Nov. 1820, BETHIA KEITH.

By his first wife, Janet Orr, Cushing Mitchell had,

i. ALICE MITCHELL, b. 18 Apr. 1767; m. DEACON WILLIAM HARRIS.
ii. NAHUM MITCHELL, b. 12 Feb. 1769; m. NABBY LAZELL.
iii. JENNET MITCHELL, b. 17 May 1771; m. DANIEL BRYANT.

112. JEAN [5] SHERMAN (Anthony [4], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 15 Aug. 1751, died probably in New Salem, Mass., after 1803. She married in Bridgewater, Mass., 27 Feb. 1773, ELEAZER BARROWS, probably born in Plympton*, Mass., 12 Feb. 1744–45, died 15 Apr. 1803, aged fifty-eight years, son of James and Tabitha (Rickard) Barrows.

Eleazer Barrows moved to New Salem before 1774 and then went to Hardwick, where he was living in 1790. He returned to New Salem and was living there at the time of his death. The records of New Salem are burned but his death is recorded in the Hardwick records. In the census of 1790, he appears as a resident of Hardwick, with two males above sixteen, two below sixteen and three females in his family.

Benjamin Goodhue of Salem sold to Eleazer Barrows of Rochester, a piece of land in New Salem, 7 May 1773. (Old Hampshire Co., Deeds, Abstracted for Franklin Co., 2: 474.)

Eleazer Barrows and his wife Jane, of New Salem, conveyed to Nathaniel Barrows of Middleboro, this land, 12 Mar. 1777. (ibid., 4: 5.)

* An Eleazer Barrows was born in Plympton, 12 Feb. 1734–35, according to the printed Vital Records. This date conflicts with that of his brother, James Jr., born 17 Dec. 1734 so it is possible that Eleazer was born ten years later. Apparently he is the only Eleazer Barrows in Massachusetts born about this time.

Eleazer Barrows of New Salem mortgages land there to Sampson Phelps, 30 Mar. 1803, wit: Ezekiel Kellogg, Jane Barrows. (Franklin Co., Deeds, 17: 443.)

Administration on the estate of Eleazer Barrows of New Salem was granted 5 July 1803, to his widow Jane. She was given her dower and the estate declared insolvent. No heirs or next of kin mentioned. (Hampshire Co., Probate.)

Children, at least:

i. A son, b. about 1774, over 16 in 1790.
ii. A son, b. before 1790, after 1774.
iii. A son, b. before 1790, after 1774.
iv. A daughter.*

113. THOMAS [5] SHERMAN (Anthony [4], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 18 Apr. 1754, died in Lebanon, Maine, 2 Feb. 1846, aged ninety-two years. He married in Middleborough, Mass., 27 July 1781, being published in Brookfield the preceding 8 July, BETSEY KEITH, born in Bridgewater, 1 Jan. 1763, died in Lebanon, 4 Dec. 1841, aged seventy-nine years, daughter of Daniel and Lydia (Keyser) Keith.

At the time of their marriage, she was a school-teacher and he, by occupation, a mariner, becoming a master mariner later, although he may have been in the service of his country at the time for there are extant two records of his service and a deposition in his pension record shows that there were other short terms of enlistment.

Thomas Sherman, Private, Capt. Abram Washburn's company, Col. John Cushing's regiment, enlisted 20 Sept. 1776, served 59½ days; company stationed at Newport, R. I., roll dated Bridgewater; also, Capt. Nathan Snow's company, Col. Howes's regiment; enlisted 24 Sept. 1777; service, 1 month, 9 days, at Rhode Island, on a secret expedition, roll sworn to at Plymouth. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, 14: 145.)

Thomas Shermon, Bridgewater, private, Capt. Robert Orr's company of Minute-men, Col. John Bailey's regiment, which marched in Response to the Alarm of 19 April 1775; service, 4 days; also, Capt. David Kingman's company, Col. Edward Mitchell's regiment; service, 6 days; company served on an alarm at Squantum, or Braintree Farms, in March 1776; also, Sergeant, Capt. David Kingman's company, Major Eliphalet Cary's regiment; marched 30 July 1780; discharged 9 Aug. 1780; service, 11 days; company marched to Rhode Island on the Alarm of 30 July 1780. (ibid., 14: 149.)

For his services in the war he applied for a pension in York County, Maine, 12 Feb. 1834, a resident of Lebanon, aged eighty next April.

* Possibly others later than 1790. There are no Barrows births on Hardwick records and the only death is the one quoted of Eleazer Barrows. There are three marriages:
Heman Barrows and Phila Andrews of Ware, pub. 1 Apr. 1811.
Eliza Barrows and Benjamin Green, pub. 29 May 1813.
Daniel Barrows and Susanna Campwell, 12 Aug. 1813.
None of these have their deaths recorded in Massachusetts State records.

He stated that he entered service 19 Apr. 1775 in Capt. Robert Orris's Minute Co., Col. John Bailey's regiment and served four days, going to Roxbury. In June 1775, he went with Capt. Nathan Alden and his Minutemen in Col. Edward Michell's regiment to Braintree and remained four days. He volunteered on the Sabbath, leaving the meeting where he "was attending divine worship."

On 1 Dec. 1775, he went with Capt. Robt Orr in Col. John Bailey's regiment to Roxbury and remained there six weeks, returning home, 19 Jan. 1776. In March 1776, he went with Capt. David Kingman's company in Col. Edward Mitchell's regiment to Squantum and remained six days; also, in October 1776, he enlisted in Capt. Abram Washburn's company, Col. Hall's regiment, going to Newport, R. I., where he served two months, returning home to Bridgewater 1 Dec. 1776. In June 1777, he volunteered in Capt. David Kingman's company, Col. Edward Mitchell's regiment but only served seven days, the enemy having departed before the regiment arrived at Bedford. In the fall of 1777, he enlisted for two months with Capt. Packard's Infantry, Col. Hawes regiment, and served three months as Sergeant at Little Compton, R. I.

On 23 June 1778, Walter Hatch enlisted in Capt. Nathan Smith's company of Infantry and marched to Little Compton, R. I. A few days after his arrival he made an arrangement with the said Sherman to serve as his substitute; this service was performed by Sherman, Hatch returning home. Early in September 1779, Sherman enlisted with Capt. Curtis and served six weeks in Col. Hall's regiment at Little Compton. In Oct. 1780, he enlisted with Capt. Nathan Alden's company and joined Major Carey's regiment in Little Compton, where he served as sergeant for two weeks.

He stated also that he was born at Rochester, Mass., 18 April 1754, and lived there until twelve years of age when the family moved to Bridgewater, that he remained in Bridgewater until he was about thirty-six years old when he removed to Tamworth, N. H., remaining there for nineteen years and then going to Lebanon, Maine, where he has lived for the past thirteen years. He adds to his deposition that he may have made some mistakes as to officers, etc., owing to the time which has elapsed and his faulty memory, but is sure of the length of service.

Joseph Chamberlain testified to knowing Thomas Sherman in Bridgewater and to having always known him; that he entered service several times and was away from home; that he could not tell lengths of his service, but that Sherman was a man of truth and veracity. Matthew Garnet testified 23 Feb. 1833, being of New Hampton, Strafford Co., N. H., that he was out in service with Thomas Sherman in Dec. 1776 under Capt. Robert Orr for six weeks, and was also with him in Capt. Abraham Washburn's company for two months at Newport. J. S. Kimball wrote a letter to the Commissioner of Pensions in which he stated that "Mr. Sherman's health is improved and his memory much better" and that he had made a supplementary statement more definite than his original one; that "he is and for many years has been a respectable member of the Congregational Church in this town" [Lebanon]; and that he was "a man of the strictest integrity" and "was ever reputed to have been a soldier of the Revolution," etc. 29 July 1834.

Robert Young of East Bridgewater testified to acquaintance with Thomas Sherman, "when he lived here" and that he served in Captain Orr's company with him. Matthew Gannett served with Thomas Sherman in Capt. Orr's company for 6 weeks. Other testimony shows that Sherman was a member of the Congregational Church; that he had a son Thomas Sherman, Jr., and that the pensioner died 14 Feb. 1846 (sic). The testimony of Zephaniah Allen is given in full:

"I, Zephaniah Allen of Bridgewater in the County of Plymouth & Commonwealth of Massachusetts, of lawful age to give testimony do testify & say, that I am acquainted with Thomas Shearman of Lebanon in the State of Maine, formerly of Bridgewater, now East Bridgewater in said County of Plymouth, that I was brought up & Lived with Anthony Shearman the father of said Thomas Shearman till I was twenty years of age & during that time and ever since up to this date I have known & been well acquainted with said Thomas—I also well knew Walter Hatch who lived at the time of the War in the neighbourhood of said Anthony. I remember that said Walter Hatch, enlisted in the War of the Revolution, I do not recollect the year, but should think it might be in the year 1778 or 9—to go to Rhode Island, & that said Hatch went off into the Army & was gone a while & then returned home, & about the time that Hatch returned, I recollect that said Thomas Shearman, left his Fathers house to go to Rhode Island to take the place of said Walter Hatch who remained At home, said Thomas went from home & was gone some time cannot say how long, & returned home & I understood at the time that said Thomas was a soldier & the army stationed at Rhode Island & was a substitute for said Walter Hatch & did duty as a sergeant. Also I recollect that said Thomas enlisted in the Private Expedition to Rhode Island I think this was before he went to R. I. for Hatch—I remember, that uncle Thomas Shearman (he being a brother to my Mother) went from home to go into the private expedition (as it was Called) & was gone from home some weeks, cannot say how many, but am inclined to think it was about three or six weeks—I recollect that said Thomas was out with Capt. Abram Washburn after Cattle & was gone from home some time driving Cattle—I also well remember that said Thomas was out a number of other times during the Revolutionary War alarums and short campaigns, but 1 do not now remember how long at any time, nor when, nor when he went—I was young at that time, being now sixty seven years of age—

Sephaniah Allen"

Zephaniah Allen swore to this deposition before Artemas Hale at Bridgewater, 15 Nov. 1833, and Hale wrote "I also certify that I am acquainted with said Zephaniah Allen & that he is in my opinion, a person of truth & veracity & is so considered in this neighbourhood." (Pension Papers, Washington, D. C. R: 9496.)

On 20 Oct. 1852, a claim was entered by Thomas Sherman, son of above Thomas.

From the foregoing it is seen that Thomas Sherman had a continuous service of short campaigns lasting the duration of the war. At the time of his marriage he was evidently a resident of Brookfield, as his intention of marriage is found there, and his wife-to-be was of Bridgewater, unless she happened to be teaching school in Brookfield. As however their first child was born in Brookfield, it is probable that

Thomas Sherman was engaged in some way in that town. After the war was over they returned to Bridgewater where they remained until about 1795 when they moved to Tamworth, N. H. After 1810, Thomas Sherman took his family to Shapleigh, now Acton, Maine, and three years later, in 1814, finally settled on a border farm lying in Lebanon and Acton and was afterwards always identified with the former town. He became a farmer in Tamworth and also served the town as a selectman in 1797, 1799, 1804 and 1805.

Thomas Sherman appears in the census of 1790 as resident in Bridgewater, the name being spelled "Shirman", with a family of one male above sixteen, four below sixteen, and one female. In 1800, he was living in Tamworth, then in Stafford County, the census of which for that year was one of those so unfortunately burned. In 1810, Thomas Sherman was still a resident of Tamworth, with a family consisting of one male and one female over forty-five; three males between sixteen and twenty-six; one female between ten and sixteen; and one male and two females under ten.

Thomas Sherman appears in the following deeds in Plymouth County:

Joseph Allen of Bridgewater, Cordwinder, conveys to Thomas Sherman, yeoman, of Bridgewater, land in the East Parish of the town, Mehetable Allen also signs, 7 Jan. 1779. Wit: Mark Phillips, Mary Allen. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 60: 82.)

William Snell of Bridgewater sells to Thomas Sherman of the same place, yeoman, land in Pembroke, Abigail Snell releasing her dower, 19 Apr. 1786. Wit: David Snell, Molly Snell. (ibid., 65: 228.)

Thomas Sherman of Bridgewater conveys, to William Sever of Kingston, land in Bridgewater, 4 Dec. 1786. Wit: William Sever, Jr., J. P., John Chamberlain. (ibid., 65: 270.)

Thomas Sherman of Bridgewater, yeoman, and administrator of the estate of Eleazer Allen, late of Rochester, seafarer, deceased, sells to Aaron Norton of Rochester, land in Rochester, 28 Apr. 1790. Wit: Jeremiah Norton, Isaac Norton. (ibid., 86: 203.)

Thomas Sherman of Bridgewater conveys to Lot Phillips of Pembroke, land in Pembroke, Betty Sherman releasing her dower, 30 Jan. 1794. Wit: Anthony Sherman, Amos Standish. (ibid., 78: 249.)

Thomas Sherman of Bridgewater, gentleman, conveys to Jonathan Reed of Abington, land in Bridgewater, Betty Sherman releasing her dower, 26 Sept. 1794. (ibid., 77: 216.)

Thomas Sherman of Lebanon, Maine, yeoman, sells to Melville Otis of East Bridgewater, a cedar swamp in Hanson "which my father Anthony Sherman purchased, with Samuel and Japhet Allen, of Thomas Moore of Pembroke . . . and which was given me by my late father Anthony Sherman, . . . ——— 18—". This deed was witnessed by Thomas Sherman, Jr., and Thomas Rucker. Acknowledged 15 Dec. 1840. (ibid. 228: 66.) *

* There are probably other deeds in New Hampshire and Maine, but late deeds are not copied as a rule in this compilation.

No will or administration of Thomas Sherman is to be found in York County, Me.

Children:

205. i. ANTHONY [6], b. 7 Dec. 1782, Brookfield, Mass.; m. SALLY PIPER.

ii. DANIEL, b. 7 Jan. 1785, Bridgewater, d. about 1818, probably in Me.

206. iii. THOMAS, b. 30 Mar. 1787, Bridgewater; m. ELEANOR SUTHERLAND.

vi. NATHAN, b. 11 May 1794, Bridgewater, d. before 1810.

vii. LYDIA, b. 3 Dec. 1796, Tamworth, N. H., probably d. young. According to the Census of 1810, Thomas Sherman had only one daughter between 10 and 16 years of age. This must be Naomi as there is a record of her marriage, etc., so Lydia was evidently the one who deceased.

viii. NAOMI, b. 1 May 1799, Tamworth, d. 7 Sept. 1864, aged 65 yrs., 4 mos., 7 days, Sanford, Me., bur. in Lebanon; m. 21 May 1820, Lebanon, EBENEZER RICKER, b. 27 Feb. 1791, d. 1 May 1859, aged 68 yrs., 1 mo., 5 days, Sanford, bur. in Lebanon. x. HANNAH, b. 17 Oct. 1806,* Tamworth, d. after 1850; m. 16 June 1842, Lebanon, HENRY-T. MORRELL, b. 1813, Maine, d. after 1850, probably in Lincoln, Me., a carpenter. Children (MORRILL), by his first wife, ——— ———, (1) Josephine-F., b. 1838; (2) Emma-J., b. 1840; by his second wife, Hannah Sherman, (3) Hannah-S., b. 1844.

xi. MARTIN-W., b. 20 May 1810, Tamworth, d. 23 Sept. 1878, aged 68 yrs., 4 mos., at Emery's Mills, Shapleigh, Maine, bur. Lebanon; m. (pub. 20 June 1841, Lebanon) OLIVE-A. HERSOM, b. 11 Sept. 1811, Lebanon, d. 30 Sept. 1891, Sanford, Maine, bur. Lebanon, daughter of Stephen and Mary (Reynolds) Hersom. They had no children, appearing in the census of 1850 as Martin-W., aged 40 and Olive-A., aged 38, with no one in their family.

* In the census of 1850, her age is given as 40, his as 37; probably she had concealed her real age, as her husband was so much the younger. He was evidently a widower with two children when they were married.

114. LYDIA [5] SHERMAN (Anthony [3], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 31 Jan. 1756, died in Tamworth, N. H., 14 Oct. 1828. She married in Bridgewater, Mass., 22 Nov. 1781, THOMAS WHITMAN, born in Bridgewater, 6 June 1755, died in Tamworth, 15 Feb. 1810, son of Capt. Simeon and Martha (Snow) Whitman.

They removed to Tamworth in 1794 with her brother Thomas and her father. He became a leading citizen there. Administration on his estate was granted to his son, Ford Whitman, 29 Mar. 1810.

Children, first four born in East Bridgewater, Mass., rest in Tamworth, N. H.:

i. FORD WHITMAN, b. 28 Aug. 1782, East Bridgewater, d. after 1829, probably in Bangor, Maine; m. (1), 10 Jan. 1809, AZUBAH HOWARD, b. 14 Feb. 1786, Bridgewater, d. 29 Aug. 1827, daughter of David Howard; m. (2), 30 Nov. 1829, Bangor, BATHSHEBA WHITMAN, b. 6 Mar. 1797, d. probably Bangor, Maine, dau. of Capt. Isaac and Bathsheba (Allen) Whitman. Children (WHITMAN), by first wife, Azubah, (1) Octavia-Snow, b. 15 Feb. 1811; (2) Newton-Mitchell, b. 8 June 1813; (3) Orra-William, b. 27 Nov. 1815; (4) Abigail-Alden, b. 13 Sept. 1818; (5) Emeline, b. 14 July 1823; by second wife, Bathsheba, (6) A son, b. 15 May, d. 24 May 1831.

She married first in Bridgewater, 15 Feb. 1787, JOSEPH KEITH, 2ND, born in Bridgewater, 15 Oct. 1765, died there, 25 Oct. 1789, son of Seth and Abigail (Holman)

* As Abner Blaisdell, Sr., was living in 1826, aged sixty-seven, he possibly was the one who married Susanna Chesley. If so, Abner Blaisdell, Jr., married about 1837, a wife whose name is unknown.

Keith. She married secondly, TIMOTHY ALLEN, born in Bridgewater, 4 Nov. 1764, died after 1813, son of Jacob and Abigail (Bailey) Allen. Timothy Allen married first in Bridgewater 3 Apr. 1788, Celia Whitman, baptised in East Bridgewater, 3 July 1768, died in childbirth in East Bridgewater, 29 Mar. 1789, in her twenty-first year, daughter of Nathan and Betty (Allen) Whitman. He married thirdly, 13 July 1814, (published in Rochester, 8 July 1814) Thankful Snow.

Timothy Allen removed to Plymouth before 1801.

Children, first five born in Bridgewater, rest in Plymouth.

By his first wife, Timothy Allen had:

Twins, b. 26 Feb. 1789, one d. 27 and one 28 Feb. 1789.

118. JOSEPH [6] SHERMAN (Joseph [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., in 1772, died in Edgecomb, Maine, 25 Mar. 1854, aged eighty-two years. He married first, published, in Edgecomb, 12 Oct. 1796, MARY RING, born in 1772, died in Edgecomb, 14 Oct. 1834, aged sixty-two years. He married secondly, ELIZABETH (———) CLIFFORD, born 1782, died in Edgecomb, 31 May 1864.

Joseph Sherman left home when a young man, going to Newcastle, Maine, before 1797. Before 1818, he had moved to Edgecomb, where at one and the same time there were five Joseph Shermans living. With his wife, Mary, he was admitted by letter to the Edgecomb Church, 1 May 1825, and the death of Mary and of himself and of his second wife are all found upon the church records. On the 31 May 1812, Mrs. Elizabeth Clifford was also admitted and after her name is inserted "(Sherman)", evidently at some time subsequent to her marriage to Joseph Sherman and before her death, the date of which is given after this name entry.

Joseph Sherman appears in the 1850 census for Edgecomb, as aged 78 years, a farmer born in Mass.; with Elizabeth, aged 68, born in Maine; Moses Chase, aged 30, a master mariner; Susan Chase, aged 30; and Stephana Chase, aged 2, all born in Maine, in his family. There are many deeds which apparently belong to this Joseph Sherman. From 1797, when he was of Newcastle, to 1828, when he is of Edgecomb, there are sixteen transfers of property to and from this Joseph Sherman and that it is the same man is established by the fact that he was made guardian of John, Rufus, and Gardner Gove in 1816, while still in Newcastle, and later living in Edgecomb in 1818 is handling the property of his wards.

No will or administration of his has been found, but his widow Elizabeth petitioned for her dower in his estate, 5 May 1856. It is doubtful if he had any children although possibly Susan Chase who was living with him in 1850 may have been a daughter or granddaughter. It has seemed advisable to give an account of him in order to differentiate him from the other Joseph Shermans.

119. WILLIAM [6] SHERMAN (Joseph [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., about 1775, died probably in Camden, Maine, after 1810. He married "a Charlestown Lady" who probably died shortly after the birth of the two sons.

Children, probably born in Camden, Maine:

i. JOSEPH-S. [7], b. 1805, d. after 1850; m. 18 Jan. 1837, Camden, EURENA WHITTINGTON or WITHINGTON, b. 25 Jan. 1810, d. 29 Jan. 1898, aged 89 yrs., 4 days, Camden, dau. Matthew and Rachel (Bates) Withington, her father b. Fitzwilliam, N. H., her mother b. Brunswick, Maine. Joseph-S. Sherman aged 45, a sailor, and "Urena" aged 40, are listed in Camden in 1850 having Patience Gardner aged 12, and Alexander Jonson, aged 20, this last being born in N. S., in their family. Joseph-S. appears in a number of deeds, mainly pertaining to Whittington or Withington property. They had no children.

207. ii. WILLIAM, b. 1810; m. SARAH-E. SMITH.

120. AMOS [6] SHERMAN (Joseph [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 26 Oct. 1783, died there, 22 Aug. 1847, aged sixty-three years, nine months, and twenty-six days. He married, published in Marshfield, 30 Oct. 1803, NANCY (HOLMES) JOYCE, born in Marshfield, 19 Dec. 1775, died in Marshfield, 13 July 1840, in her sixty-fifth year, daughter of John and Bershabe (———) Holmes. She married first, 24 Dec. 1795, Hewitt Joyce, born in Marshfield, 23 Apr. 1770, died there, 2 Oct. 1796, in his twenty-seventh year, son of Jonathan and Abigail (Holmes) Joyce. Amos Sherman married secondly, in Marshfield, 21 May 1842, JUDITH (Peterson) (Randall) Sampson, born in Duxbury, 4 Aug. 1795, died after 1847, daughter of Luther and Priscilla (Chapman) Peterson. Judith married first, in Duxbury, 23 Dec. 1821, John Randall, who died 27 Sept. 1823, aged twenty-eight years, six months, and fifteen days. She married secondly in Duxbury, 30 Apr. 1832, Spencer Sampson, who died there, 11 Feb. 1837, aged forty-five years.

Amos Sherman was a farmer in Marshfield. He does not appear much in the records. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Amos Sherman and David Joyce, both of Marshfield, sell to Isaac Ames, Jr., of same place, land there; Rebecca Joyce and Nancy Sherman releasing their dowers, 10 Dec. 1818. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 134: 192.)

David-Thomas Joyce of Marshfield, sells to David Joyce and Amos Sherman, of same place, land there, part of homestead farm; "Sarah Jones my wife" releasing her dower, 14 Nov. 1818. (ibid., 136: 200.)

Amos Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, sells to Sumner Ames of the same place, housewright, land purchased of Benjamin Keen; Nancy Sherman releasing her dower, 12 Mar. 1841. Wit: Benjamin Keen. (ibid., 203: 220.)

At the request of the widow, Judith Sherman, who declined to serve, John Ford of Marshfield was appointed administrator of the estate of Amos Sherman of Marshfield, deceased, his bondsmen being, Nahum Packard, William Ford. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18080.)

121. ELEAZER [6] SHERMAN (Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 10 Feb. 1770, died there, 27 Jan. 1854. He married first, in Boothbay, 3 Dec. 1793*, ELIZABETH WHEELER, born about 1772, died in Boothbay, 20 Dec. 1829, probably daughter of John and Elizabeth (Knight) Wheeler. He married secondly, in Boothbay in 1830, HANNAH-S. WYLIE, born there, 10 Apr. 1786, died before 1842, daughter of Alexander and Hannah (Kennedy) Wylie. He married thirdly in 1842, SUSAN (FARLEY) BARTER, who died in Boothbay, 6 Dec. 1872, widow of John Barter.†

Eleazer Sherman was an undertaker. He lived in East Boothbay. He appears in the census of 1850 as a resident of Boothbay, aged 80 yrs.; a carpenter, b. in Maine; with Susan Sherman, aged 50; Bradford Baker, aged 30; a joiner; and Loisa Barter, aged 20.‡

Eleazer Sherman, Jr., appears in the following land records:

Edward Emerson of Edgecomb, Gent., sold to Eleazer Sherman, Jr., of Boothbay, land in Edgecomb, bounded partly on Joseph Sherman, 27 Feb. 1811, Anna Emerson releasing her dower. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 76: 108.)

Joseph Emerson of Edgecomb, yeoman, sold to Eleazer Sherman, Jr., of

* In his marriage record (State Record) he is called "Ebenezer, Jr.", but he is properly published as "Eleazer, Jr."

† The History of Boothbay states that Eleazer [7] Sherman, 3d, born 1813, son of Eleazer [6], Jr., married Susan Barter. He was thirteen years younger than she and had died without issue before 1850 if this were so, for in that year, his supposed widow, Susan was living with Eleazer [6], Jr., although she had a family of her own. On p. 21, Book A., Vol. 1, Boothbay Records, 1763–1877, is found the family of Eleazer Sherman [6], Jr.

"Eleazor Sherman Jr. Betsey his wife Parents of the underwritten children."

This is followed by the list of children and then comes:

"Mrs. Betsey Sherman parent above died Dec. 20, 1829.

So it is evident that Susan Barter was the third wife of Eleazer Sherman, Jr.

‡ Susan or Susanna Farley married, in 1816, John Barter and had, Nathaniel, William, James, John, Ann, Loisa, Daniel-W., and Henry Barter, born between 1817 and 1838.

Boothbay, housewright, land in Edgecomb, 9 Mar. 1812. Signed by Joseph Emerson, Betsey Emerson. (ibid., 139: 273.)

Eleazer Sherman, Jr., of Boothbay sold land in Edgecomb to Joseph Emerson of Edgecomb, Elizabeth Sherman releasing her dower, 9 Mar. 1812. (ibid., 101: 229.)

Eleazer Sherman of Boothbay, carpenter, sold to Daniel Sherman of Boothbay, carpenter, land in Boothbay bounded on Joseph Sherman, Roger Sherman, Elisha Sherman, 20 Jan. 1827. (ibid., 140: 233.)

On 7 May 1823, Eleazer Sherman, Jr., was appointed guardian of Benjamin Giles, Paul Giles, Eleazer Giles, and Abigail-S. Giles, minors under fourteen and was chosen for guardian by Martha Giles, Elizabeth Giles, and Samuel Giles, above fourteen, and all children of Samuel Giles, late of Boothbay, Maine. (Lincoln Co., Probate, 24: 667, 693, 819.) These were the children of his sister, Elizabeth (Sherman) Giles.

Children, born in Boothbay, Maine:

i. LYDIA [7], b. 22 Sept. 1794, death unknown; m. 7 Feb. 1815, Edgecomb, ABIEL GOVE, b. 13 Apr. 1792, son of Nathan and Judith (Tibbetts) Gove. Child (GOVE), born in Edgecomb (1) Abiel, b. about 1818, d. 1 July 1884, Boston, Mass.

122. AARON [6] SHERMAN (Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 10 July 1772, died in Newcastle, Maine, 4 Sept. 1846. He married in Boothbay, 10 May 1796, POLLY TARBELL, born in Massachusetts (Dedham?), 29 June 1777, died 29 May 1865, Sheepscot.

Aaron Sherman served in the War of 1812. In 1800 he joined the settlement at Newcastle, Maine. He was a farmer.

Nathaniel Pinkham of Boothbay, mariner, sold to Aaron Sherman of the same place, yeoman, land there, 30 Mar. 1796. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 36: 18.)

Aaron Sherman of Boothbay, yeoman sells to Nathaniel Pinkham of the same place, mariner, land there, Polly, wife of Aaron releasing her dower, 19 June 1800. (Ibid., 49: 44.)

John Taggert of Pittston, yeoman, sells to Aaron Sherman of Boothbay, land in Newcastle, Sarah Taggert releasing her dower, 30 Aug. 1800. (ibid., 45: 208.)

Nathaniel Dole of the county of Lincoln sells to Aaron Sherman of Newcastle, land in Newcastle, 17 Apr. 1801. (ibid., 47: 35.)

Samuel Waters of Balltown sells to Aaron Sherman of Newcastle, land in Newcastle, 25 Apr. 1801. (ibid., 47: 211.)

Alexander Cunningham, late of Newcastle now of Pownalborough sells to Aaron Sherman late of Boothbay, two pieces of land in Newcastle, 13 Nov. 1801. (ibid., 48: 111.)

William Patterson and William Hodge of Edgecomb, Gent., and Anna Hodge, wife of William in her right convey to Aaron Sherman of Newcastle, land in Newcastle bounded on said Sherman's land; Nancy Hodge and Mary Patterson release their dowers, 13 May 1805. (ibid., 61: 112.)

Ezekiel Stearns of Newcastle, yeoman, sells to Aaron Sherman of the same place, land there, 5 June 1830. Wit: Henry Kennedy, Samuel Kennedy. (ibid., 151: 102.)

Pension record:

Aaron Sherman served under Capt. Johnson from the 20 to the 24 June 1814, and from the 7 to 28 Sept. 1814, for this his widow applied for a pension.

Joseph Cargill of Newcastle and Robert Kennedy of Newcastle deposed that they well knew Aaron Sherman, late deceased, of Newcastle; that he was a private in the late War with Great Britain, declared by the United States, 18 June 1812; that they had lived in the same town with him and attended his funeral, he having died about ten years ago. Sworn, 29 May 1855.

On this same date, Mary Sherman, aged seventy-eight years, a resident of Newcastle declared she is the widow of said Aaron Sherman, late of Newcastle, a private in a company commanded by Capt. Samuel Cutter (?), Lt. Col. Johnson, 1st Regt. of Mass. Militia; that she was married to said Aaron 11 May 1796, her name before marriage being Mary Tabell and that her said husband died at Newcastle, 4 Sept. 1845, she now being a widow.

The record of the marriage given in the papers is, Aaron Sherman to Miss Polly Tarble, both of Boothbay, married 5 May 1796. The record at Boothbay is the "10 May" and Mary states that it was "11 May."

Aaron Sherman of Newcastle, gentleman, made his will, 12 Jan. 1846. He gave to his beloved wife Polly, all his personal and one-third of his real estate during her widowhood, then to sons Aaron and Eleazer. He made Ezra Cunningham his executor. The latter filed the will, 28 Sept. 1846. (Lincoln Co., Probate, 57: 551.)

Polly was living in her son Aaron's family in 1850, aged 78 years. Children, born in Boothbay, Maine:

212. i. Eleazer [7], b. 28 May 1797; m. Azubah-Gove Hodge.
213. ii. Aaron, Jr., b. 27 Mar. 1799; m. Maria Patterson.

123. ELISHA [6] SHERMAN (Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 13 Sept. 1774, died in Edgecomb, Maine, 26 May 1859, aged eighty-four years. He married

(published in Boothbay, 16 Nov. 1797) CATHERINE TARBELL, born in Massachusetts in 1782, died in Edgecomb, 28 May 1854, aged seventy-one years, parents unknown.

It has not been possible to find the parents of Catherine Tarbell. She may have been a sister of Polly Tarbell who married Aaron Sherman, elder brother of Elisha, and who is said to have been born in Dedham, Mass. One record sent in said that Catherine was born in Portsmouth, N. H., while the census record gives her birthplace as Mass. The appearance in her family of the name of Zachariah-T., probably Zachariah Tarbell, points to her having belonged to the Zachariah branch of the Tarbell family which is not carried out in the Tarbell genealogy. She is said to have had a sister Sarah who married James Perkins and lived in Newmarket, N. H., and that their father was taken prisoner in the Indian War and never returned, but no records verify these statements. It is interesting to note that a Zachariah Tarbell of Groton, Mass., was taken prisoner in 1707 with John and Sarah Tarbell and carried to Canada. These were the children of Thomas and Elizabeth (Wood) Tarbell and were born, Sarah in 1693, John in 1695, and Zachariah in 1700. Sarah became a Catholic in 1708, and the two boys became Indianized although they visited Groton in 1739. It is possible that they were kin to Catherine and hence the tradition of the Indian blood.

Elisha Sherman was a farmer and lived until after 1820 in Boothbay when he went to Edgecomb. He was a deacon in the Baptist Church. He appears in the census of 1850 for Edgecomb, aged 76 years, born in Maine, with his wife, Catherine, aged 68 years, born in Mass.

Children, born in Boothbay, Maine:

i. SUSANNA, b. 29 Apr. 1798, d. 12 May 1813.

124. ROGER [6] SHERMAN (Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 13 Sept. 1776, died in Bristol, Maine, 24 Mar. 1854, aged 76 years. He married in Edgecomb, 25 Dec. 1799*, ELIZABETH DUNTON, born probably in Edgecomb in 1772, died in Bristol, 7 Feb. 1854, aged eighty-two years,† daughter of Joseph and Abigail (———) Sherman.

Roger Sherman was a farmer and spent most of his life in Boothbay, but in his later days he lived in Bristol, probably with his son Stinson-S. Sherman. He appears once in the land records of Lincoln County.

Roger Sherman of Boothbay sells to Joseph Sherman of the same place, land there on Sherman Creek, bounded on Eleazer and Elisha Sherman, 10 Apr. 1826. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 136: 254.)

Children, born in Boothbay, Maine:

i. MARTHA [7], b. 11 Nov. 1800, probably died unmarried.
ii. NANCY, b. 26 May 1802; m. 1822, BENJAMIN ALLEY.
218. iii. JOSEPH, CAPT., b. 23 Mar. 1804; m. JULIA-O. HUTCHINS.

221. vii. HARTLEY-W., b. 24 Apr. 1812; m. ELEANOR-G. POOLE.
222. viii. JOSHUA, b. 20 Aug. 1814; m. KATHERINE-R. WEBBER.
ix. ELIZABETH, b. 11 June 1816; m. JOHN HUTCHINGS.
x. MARGARET, born probably about 1818; m. as second wife, 1 Jan. 1857, JAMES WENTWORTH, son of James and Susan (———) Wentworth. He married first, 19 Jan. 1840 Permilia Foster, who d. 30 July 1856, aged 41 yrs., Bristol. Apparently there were no children by the second wife.

125. JOSEPH [6] SHERMAN (Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 20 Nov. 1780, died in Edgecomb, Maine, in 1856. He married (published in Boothbay 26 Mar. 1803) in Edgecomb, 11 Apr. 1803*, SARAH DUNTON, born in Westport, 3 May 1780, died in Edgecomb in 1864, daughter of Joseph and Abigail (———) Dunton.

But little is found on the public records regarding this Joseph Sherman. He was called "Joseph Sherman 2nd" as late as 1850 and as early as 1829, due probably to the presence in Edgecomb of Joseph [6] Sherman, son of Joseph [5], who died in 1854, just two years before this Joseph Sherman passed away.

Joseph Sherman, 2nd of Boothbay, yeoman, sold to Abiel Sherman of Boothbay, land partly in Edgecomb and partly in Boothbay, 24 Mar. 1829. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 147: 513.)

Joseph Sherman appears in the census of 1850 as Joseph Sherman, 2nd, aged "79" [69 or 70], a farmer, with Sarah, aged 69; Sarah, aged 32; Joseph, Jr., aged 29; Benjamin, aged 25; Eunice, aged 25; and Susan, aged 23. In 1860, Joseph being dead, Sarah, aged 79, was living with her son, Benjamin Sherman. In her later years she was confined to her chair.

Children, born in Boothbay and Edgecomb:

i. OLIVE [7], b. 1804, aged 56 in 1860; m. ——— DUNTON and had a daughter Eunice Dunton, b. 1841. Both living with Benjamin in 1860.

223. ii. DAVID-S., b. Oct. 1805; m. SARAH-H. DEERING.

iii. JANE, b. probably 1807; m. ——— DUNTON.

iv. SARAH, b. July 1809, d. 2 Feb. 1899, aged 90 yrs., 7 mos., Edgecomb, unm. Lived with her brother Benjamin in 1860.

v. SERENA, b. 1811; m. SAMUEL SHERMAN, as first wife.

vi. WILLIAM, born probably about 1813.

vii. ELIAS, b. probably about 1815.

viii. SUSAN, b. 1819; m. SAMUEL SHERMAN as his second wife.

224. ix. JOSEPH, JR., b. 11 Dec. 1821; m. NANCY HUFF.

225. x. BENJAMIN, b. 1824–25; m. SARAH-JANE MCALLISTER.

xi. EUNICE, b. 1825; m. FREDERICK PREBLE, possibly son of Aris and Nancy (———) Preble, b. 1827. Children (PREBLE), (1) Susan; m. James Colby; (2) Laura, b. 17 Apr. 1857; m. George Huff, b. 28 Mar. 1841, d. 4 Sept. 1925, and had (a) Otis-M. Huff, b. 19 Nov. 1874; (b) Edward Huff, b. 12 Sept. 1876; (c) Esther-M. Huff, b. 12 Dec. 1882; (d) Eunice-E. Huff, b. 13 Sept. 1891.

126. WILLIAM [6] SHERMAN (Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 20 Feb. 1783, died in Edgecomb, Maine, about November 1834. He married first, published in Boothbay, 10 Aug. 1803, REBECCA DUNTON, who died about 1810, daughter of Joseph Dunton. He married secondly, about 1810, JANE (KENNEDY) SOMES, who died about 1818, daughter of Samuel, Esq., and Martha (Hopkins) Kennedy, and widow of Joel Somes. He married thirdly about 1820, ABIGAIL GRAY, who died about 1826. He married fourthly about 1827, her sister, LYDIA GRAY, who died after 1835. They were probably daughters of Amos and ——— (Ball) Gray of Squirrel Island.

The destruction of the Edgecomb records makes the very large family of William Sherman a difficult one to elucidate. A granddaughter of his, Betsey (Sherman) Clifford, with an excellent memory in 1934, added a great deal that the public records failed to clear.* The following land records appertain to this William Sherman.

Ephraim Alley of Boothbay, gentleman, sells to Mr. William Sherman of Edgecomb yeoman, land in the latter town, bounded partly on Eleazer Sherman, 2 Apr. 1808. Wit: Eleazer Sherman, Edmund Wilson. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 94: 87.)

Jeremiah Bailey of Wiscasset and Benjamin Orr of Topsham, by rights given them by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, release to William Sherman, yeoman, of Edgecomb, land in Edgecomb, 23 Nov. 1816. (ibid., 89: 101.)

Benjamin Dunton of New Sharon, Kennebec Co., yeoman, conveys to William Sherman of Edgecomb, yeoman, land in Edgecomb, 13 Mar. 1819. Wit: Jos. Parsons, James Dodge. (ibid., 101: 97.)

John Alley 3rd of Edgecomb, yeoman, sells to William Sherman of Edgecomb, land there, 30 Mar. 1819. Wit: Jos. Parsons, Jas. Dodge. (ibid., 101: 97.)

William Sherman of Edgecomb, yeoman, sells to Samuel Kennedy of Newcastle, Esq. land in Boothbay and Edgecomb, bounded on Roger Sherman, conveyed to him by Eleazer Sherman, with the buildings thereon, 16 Mar. 1820. Wit: Herman-B. Quimby, Warren Rice. (ibid., 109: 139.)

Samuel Gray of Edgecomb, yeoman, conveys to William Sherman of Edgecomb, land there; Betsey, wife of Samuel Gray, releasing her dower, 13 Mar. 1821. Wit: Thos. Cunningham. (ibid., 110: 133.)

William Sherman of Edgecomb conveys to Samuel Williams of Edgecomb, land there, 19 June 1832; Lydia, wife of William, releasing her dower, 19 June 1832. Wit: Joseph Merry, Martha Sherman. (ibid., Deeds, 155: 130.)

Samuel Williams of Edgecomb sells to William Sherman of Edgecomb, land there, adjoining said Sherman's land; Susan Williams releasing her dower, 19 June 1832. Wit: Joseph Merry, Martha Sherman. (ibid., 155: 118.)

Samuel Kennedy died about 1831 and William was made guardian to the children he had had by Kennedy's daughter Jane who died some years before.

Henry Sherman and Aaron Sherman, minors above 14 years, children of William Sherman of Boothbay, yeoman, chose him for their guardian in right of the estate of their grandfather, deceased, 10 Jan. 1831. (Lincoln Co., Probate, 29: 639.)

William Sherman, of Boothbay, appointed guardian of Jane Sherman, a minor under 14 years, daughter of said William Sherman, for estate accruing to her in right of her grandfather deceased, 10 Jan. 1831. (ibid., 29: 517.)

It is evident that William was living in Boothbay in 1831 but he must soon have returned to Edgecomb.

William Sherman died intestate.

Lydia Sherman was made Administratrix of the estate of William Sherman, late of Edgecomb, deceased, 30 Nov. 1834. She gave bond in Court with Samuel Williams and Samuel Sherman [probably her step-son] of Edgecomb. On 25 Feb. 1835, she represented that the estate was insolvent. (Lincoln Co., Probate, 33: 89, 275.)

Children, probably all born in Edgecomb:

By first wife, Rebecca Dunton,

i. WILLIAM, JR. [7], born about 1804, died about Dec. 1835, probably unm. His estate was administered by Gardner Gove, with Moses Huff, as security, 2 Dec. 1835. (Lincoln Co., Probate, 34: 90.)

226. ii. JOSEPH, b. 5 Feb. 1805; m. SUSAN DEERING.

iii. HANNAH, born about 1806; m. ——— ROBERTS; lived in Dresden, Maine.

iv. LUCY, born about 1807; m. ——— DOANE; lived in Jefferson, Maine.

v. MARTHA, born about 1808; m. after 1832, FRANCIS PREBLE, b. 31 Aug. 1814, son of Aris and Abigail (Gray) Preble.

vi. ELEAZER, born about 1809, probably died unmarried.

vii. SUSAN, born about 1810; m. ——— BUTLER; res. Boston, Mass.

By second wife, Jane (Kennedy) Somes,*

227. viii. SAMUEL-KENNEDY, b. 8 Sept. 1811, Edgecomb; m. ELIZABETH-R. POOLE.

ix. HENRY, b. about 1813, living 1831. Nothing further known of him.†

228. x. AARON, b. 1815; m. CATHERINE CHESLEY.

xi. JANE, b. about 1817; m. ——— PARSONS and ——— FRASER; res. Boston.

By third wife, Abigail Gray,

xii. ALAMANDER, twin, b. about 1823, died unm.

xiii. ROSINA, twin, b. about 1823; res. Boston, unmarried.

xiv. OLIVE, b. about 1825; nothing further found.

By fourth wife, Lydia Gray,

xv. AMANDA, b. about 1830; m. CALVIN BLEN; res. Edgecomb, Maine.

xvi. MARY, b. about 1832, probably the Mary living in William Cunningham's family in Edgecomb, in 1860, aged 32. Lived in Boston and probably did not marry.‡

* Her first husband, Joel Somes, son of David and Jane (Hopkins) Somes, was drowned very soon after their marriage.

† Mrs. Clifford stated that Henry married. A Henry Sherman with wife Catherine (Day) appears in Hodgedon, Maine, with children, the first found named William b. 1851. Possibly this was Henry the son of William Sherman but nothing has been found to prove it.

‡ The Massachusetts State records do not show the death of Mary or Rosina Sherman.

127. ROBERT [6] SHERMAN (Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 1 Sept. 1791*, died 9 Feb. 1870, aged seventy-nine years. He married in Boothbay, 14 July 1814, ESTHER REED, born there, 24 Mar. 1794, died 30 Jan. 1870, daughter of William and Martha (Reed) Reed.†

Robert Sherman went to Edgecomb to live, and is found there in the census of 1850, as Robert Sherman, aged 58, a farmer, b. Maine, with Esther, aged 56; Alice-R., aged 20; Jared, aged 18; and Joanna, aged 11, as his family. In 1860, he, aged 68, was living alone with Esther, aged 67. In 1870, neither appears, both having deceased in that year before the census was taken.

Robert Sherman served in Capt. Jacob Auld's company, Lt. Col. Ebenezer Thatcher's regiment, 20–24 June, 29 June–5 July 1814, service at Boothbay, company being raised there. (Massachusetts Militia in the War of 1812.)

Children, born in Edgecomb, Maine:

i. Lillian ———; (3) Alice, unm.; (4) Annie-M., b. 1868, d. 11 Aug. 1897, aged 29; m. Herbert Reynolds.

* Another record gives the year of his birth as 1792.

† The census of 1790, spells the name of the Reed family of Boothbay always "Reid".

‡ Another record gives her birth as 13 June 1814. Her parents were published in Boothbay, 11 Dec. 1813, and were married 14 July 1814. If she were born in June 1814 she was illegitimate and it is not probable that her parents after publishing their intentions to marry each other some months before her birth would delay the ceremony until a month after it. Her age as given in her death record makes her born in June 1814, but death records are very apt to be erroneous as to age. Unfortunately the Edgecomb records are burned.

§ He is called both Ebenezer and Eben Clisby.

‖ In the family of Robert Sherman as listed in the census of 1850, a Joanna Sherman appears, aged 11 years, making her born in 1839. As Joanna, daughter of Robert, is shown by her age at death to be identical with the Joanna born in 1824, it is obvious that she lived and that the second Joanna was not a younger daughter of the same name. The Joanna, born in 1824 was undoubtedly married before 1850 and this second Joanna was probably a grandchild. She may have been a daughter of Abiel-W. Sherman by his first wife.

viii. CHRISTIANA-GEORGIANA, b. 10 June 1828, d. 27 Oct. 1898, Dedham, Mass.; m. (1), 19 Jan. 1851, Boston, Mass., BERIAH-B. STARRATT, b. 1828, England, d. before 1856; m. 128. JOHN [6] SHERMAN (Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 10 June 1793, died in Washington, Maine, 21 Mar. 1872. He married (published in Boothbay, 27 Aug. 1814) in Boothbay, 21 Sept. 1814, EUNICE BESSE, born in Bridgewater or Watertown, Mass., 3 Nov. 1795, died in Washington, Maine, 22 June 1873, aged seventy-seven years, seven months, and nineteen days, daughter of Jonas † and Eunice (Washburn) Besse.

John Sherman served in the War of 1812.

He was a farmer and settled in Washington, Maine, where he appears once in the land records of Lincoln County.

John Sherman of Washington, farmer, sold land there to Ansel Besse of Washington, 21 May 1832. Wit: Jonas Besse, Jonas Besse, Jr.‡ (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 155: 83.)

John Sherman appears with the following family in the census of 1850 for Washington, Maine: John Sherman, aged 55 yrs., a farmer, b. in Maine; Eunice Sherman, aged 53, b. in Mass.; Lydia-A., aged 18; Silas, aged 16; Benjamin, aged 13; and Harriet, aged 11, all these children born in Maine. In 1860, still of Washington, he, aged 67; Eunice, aged "69"; Silas, aged 26; Catherine, aged 22 [evidently wife

† He is called Jonas and Jonah but the former seems more probably the correct name.

‡ In a chart sent in by a grandchild of John and Eunice (Besse) Sherman, the birthplace of Eunice is given as Bridgewater and another granddaughter stated that her grandmother had a brother named Ansel. Mitchell's History of Bridgewater states that Jonah Besse, son of Nehemiah, born 1764; married Eunice Washburn and went to Maine. Another granddaughter stated that she thought her great-grandfather's name was Jonas or Jonah, and she remembered also her mother speaking of Uncle Jonas, who was Jonas, Jr. The 1790 census gives Jonah Besse of Bridgewater as having one male above 16 (himself); one male below 16 (a son); and two females in his family (wife and daughter). Another grandchild stated that Eunice Besse was born in Watertown, Mass. It is very probable that Jonas or Jonah Besse went from Bridgewater to Watertown, where some of his children were born and then removed to Maine. Unfortunately he left no will and there is no settlement of his estate.

of Silas]; Anne, aged 2; Seth, aged 1 [children of Silas]; and Henrietta, aged 21, probably the Harriet of 1850. In 1870, John, aged 76, Eunice, aged 76, and Harriet, aged 30, are all of the family remaining at home.

129. ABIEL [6] SHERMAN (Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 4 Mar. 1799, died in Liberty, Maine, 7 June 1863, aged sixty-four years, three months, and three days. He married (published in Edgecomb, Maine, 18 Sept. 1819) LOVINA GOVE, born in Edgecomb, 19 Dec. 1798, died in Liberty, 22 Dec. 1863, aged sixty-five years, three days, daughter of David and Lydia (Alley) Gove.

Abiel Sherman settled after his marriage on land that was on the borders of Boothbay and Edgecomb and hence is called of Boothbay at the same time his children were born in Edgecomb. He farmed this land until 1829, in November of that year moving to Liberty where he settled at Sherman's Corner. In 1850, Abial Sherman aged 50, farmer, born in Maine, had the following family in Liberty, Lavinia, aged 50; Charlotte, aged 19; Edward, aged 17, a fisherman; and Bridges, aged 16, a blacksmith. In 1860, the family was, Abial Sherman, aged 61; Lavinia, aged 61; Luther, aged 36, Martha-A., aged 29 (evidently Luther's wife); William-F., aged 7; Albert, aged 4; Sharlotte, aged 11/12; evidently Luther's children and grandchildren of Abiel.

Abial Sherman of Boothbay, Gentleman, sold to George Sherman of Boothbay, land partly in Edgecomb and partly in Boothbay, bounded on Sherman's Cove and Roger Sherman; Lavinia releasing her dower, 28 Mar. 1823. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 119: 179.)

Solomon Gove, John Gove, Solomon Gove, 2d, William Gove, Patty Sampson, Susan Barry, Levina Sherman, Christina Sherman, Jeremiah Sears, Sewell Sears, Lucinda Sears, Rachel Sears, Jason Webber, and Daniel Webber, convey to George Curtis of Edgecomb, their right in a tract of land in Edgecomb "being part of that lot that David Gove formerly lived on," 21 Mar. 1829. (ibid., 149: 343.)

Abial Sherman of Boothbay, yeoman, sold to Joseph Sherman, 2d, of Boothbay, land partly in Boothbay and partly in Edgecomb bounded on Robert Sherman; Lavina releasing her dower, 24 Mar. 1829. (ibid., 147: 447.)

Nahum Ripley of Montville, yeoman, sells to Abial Sherman of Boothbay, yeoman, 100 acres of land in Liberty, 21 Mar. 1829; Polly Ripley releasing her dower. (Waldo Co., Deeds, 3: 533.)

John Davis of Liberty, yeoman, sells to Abiel Sherman of Liberty, yeoman,

* His age at death would make him born in 1839, which does not coincide with his age in 1850 according to the census.

land in Liberty, the Neck in Georges Great Pond; Joanna Davis releasing her dower, 10 Apr. 1833. (ibid., 30: 105.)

Abial Sherman of Liberty, yeoman, sells to Alfred Johnson, Esq., of Belfast, "my homestead farm containing one hundred acres . . . the same conveyed to me by Nahum Ripley", 20 Mar. 1849. (ibid., 66: 50.)

No will or administration for Abiel Sherman was found.

131. CAPT. GEORGE [6] SHERMAN (Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 8 May 1802, died there, 28 Sept. 1884, aged eighty-two years and five months. He married first, probably in Boothbay about 1825, CHRISTINA GOVE, born in Edgecomb, Maine, 25 Nov. 1804, died in Boothbay, 11 Nov. 1836, daughter of Daniel and Lydia (Alley) Gove. He married secondly, in November 1839, JANE (CLIFFORD) SHERMAN, born 1806, died 22 Oct. 1874, aged "70" years, widow of his brother Daniel Sherman. He married thirdly, 27 Jan. 1875, ANN-MARIA (CLISBY) (SMITH) GOVE, born 1824, died in Dorchester, Mass., 25 July 1894, widow of Daniel-Hood Gove.

George Sherman is always called Captain and probably was a mariner in early life, although it may have been a military title due to some militia service.

On 24 Mar. 1829, the heirs of David Gove of Edgecomb sell their rights and among them is Christina Sherman. (See Abial Sherman's account.)

George Sherman appears in the census of 1850 as a farmer in Boothbay, aged 46, with Jane, aged 44; Isaac, aged 23, a joiner; Elizabeth, aged 20; Eliza-J., aged 18; Bradford, aged 10; George-K., aged 7; and Lyman-O., aged 5, as the members of his family. The first three children were his brother Daniel's and his stepchildren; the last three were his own children.

Children, born in Boothbay, Maine:

239. i. BRADFORD-BAKER [7], b. 12 July 1840; m. ELLEN-ELIZA CLIFFORD.

132. EBENEZER [6] SHERMAN (Ichabod [5], Ebenezer [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 19 April 1787, died in Boston, Mass., 17 Sept. 1837, in his fifty-first year. He married first (published in Marshfield, 4 May 1819) NANCY SAMPSON, born 1799, died in Marshfield, 22 May 1821, in her twenty-third year, parents unknown. He married secondly (published in Marshfield, 14 Dec. 1825) JERUSHA (YORK) FOLSOM, born in Epping, N. H., 24 Sept. 1787, died in Boston, Mass., 29 Oct. 1867, aged eighty years, one month, and five days, daughter of Richard York. She married first, Joshua Folsom.

Although Ebenezer Sherman died in Boston he was buried in the Plainville Cemetery in Marshfield beside his first wife.

Ebenezer Sherman was always called "3d". He was a housewright. He lived in Marshfield until after his second marriage when he removed to Quincy and then to Boston. He appears as a resident of Marshfield in the census of 1820 with a family consisting of one male between eighteen and twenty-six and one female between twenty-six and forty-five which is an inversion as he was thirty-three and she was twenty-one.

Jedediah Ewell of Marshfield sells to Ebenezer Sherman, 3d, of Marshfield, housewright, woodland there, bounded on Thomas Joyce, Keziah Sherman, Deborah Hyland, and Ichabod Sherman, 23 Apr. 1812. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 119: 121.)

Ebenezer Sherman, 3d, of Marshfield, housewright, conveys to Samuel Hall of the same place, a salt meadow there, 5 Apr. 1826, Jerusha Sherman releasing her dower. (ibid., 157: 80.)

Ebenezer Sherman, 3d, of Quincy, housewright sells to Mark-J. Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, land there, being the land Mark-J. Sherman deeded to him, with the buildings thereon, 24 Nov. 1826. (ibid., 157: 162.)

Jerusha Sherman of Boston, widow, and administratrix of the estate of Ebenezer Sherman, late of Boston, deceased, housewright, intestate, sells at public auction his land in Marshfield to Elbridge Simmons of Marshfield, which land was set off to the said Ebenezer Sherman, in the division of the real estate of Ichabod Sherman, 16 Apr. 1816, it being woodland adjoining the homestead, 1 Feb. 1840. (ibid., 199: 194.)

Jerusha Sherman, widow, with Frederick Folsom, cordwainer, and Peter Folsom, currier, as sureties, all of Boston, bonded for Jerusha, she to be administratrix of the estate of Ebenezer Sherman, late of Boston, housewright, deceased, 16 Oct. 1837.

In her petition she stated that her husband, Ebenezer Sherman, died in Boston, 17 Sept. 1837. No list of heirs filed. She petitioned for allowance 24 Sept. 1838 and was allowed it. (Suffolk Co., Probate, 31692.)

Jerusha Sherman of Boston, widow, made her will 16 July 1863, proved 2 Dec. 1867. She gave to her son Mark Folsom; to her niece Pauline, wife of Frederick Hall; to daughter-in-law Betsey Folsom; to grandson James, son of Silas Sherman; "to my four children Paul Folsom, Silas Sherman, Eliza Wentworth, and Harriet Snapper" the residue of estate; nephew Frederick Folsom of Roxbury, to be the executor. (Suffolk Co., Probate, 48178.)

133. MARK JOYCE [6] SHERMAN (Ichabod [5], Ebenezer [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 5 Oct. 1789, died there, 9 Oct. 1863, aged seventy-four years. He married first, 4 Jan. 1820, Marshfield, BETSEY BAILEY, born probably in Pembroke, died about 1833, daughter of Caleb and Susan (Dingley) Bailey. He married secondly about 1835, PAMELA LAPHAM, born in Marshfield about 24 Mar. 1799, died there, 21 Feb. 1852, aged fifty-two years, ten months, and twenty-seven days, daughter of Jabez-Shurtleff and Pamela (Joyce) Lapham.

Mark-Joyce Sherman was a stone-cutter.

On 13 July 1829 he mortgaged his homestead to Proctor Bourne of Marshfield; and he mortgaged it again to Bourne, 21 May 1834. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 181: 76, 198: 31.) On 16 Sept. 1837, he sold the homestead to Seth-F. Sprague it being subject to a mortgage held by Proctor Bourne. (ibid., 192: 22.)

Mark-J. Sherman and Pamela his wife in her right, both of Marshfield, convey to William Hall of the same, housewright, land being part of the late homestead of Jabez-S. Lapham, deceased, 25 Sept. 1844. Wit: Mary-U. Sherman. (ibid., 216: 212.)

Mark-J. Sherman and Pamela his wife, in her right, William Hall and Nancy his wife, in her right, all of Marshfield, convey to Hewet Simons of the same place two-thirds part of homestead of late Jabez-S. Lapham, being their part of the said homestead, 25 Oct. 1844. Wit: Mary-U. Sherman. (ibid., 219: 106.)

On 29 Nov. 1845, Mark-J. Sherman sold the farm on which he then lived to John Ford of Marshfield, and on 19 Dec. 1848, he sold a piece of land to William-B. Taylor of Marshfield. (ibid., 216: 210, 230: 268.)

Mark-J. Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, conveys to "my son Avery-T. Sherman" on condition that he shall make provision for one-half of my support, all real estate in Marshfield on both sides of the road from Charles Bailey's to Ebenezer Sherman's with all buildings and the share assigned me in my late father's estate and the land I bought of my brother Josiah-H. Sherman", Pamela releasing her dower, 15 Mar. 1850. (ibid., 235: 171.)

In 1815 his aunt Keziah Sherman, then aged about sixty years, conveyed to him all the land that she had received from her father, Ebenezer Sherman's estate, for which Mark was to care for her for life. On 23 Dec. 1819, he sold this property to Ebenezer Sherman, 3d. (ibid., 190: 138, 137: 223.)

Mark-Joyce Sherman appears in the census of 1850, a stone-cutter, aged 60 years; with Permilia, aged 51; Harriet-F., aged 17; Nancy, aged 14; Moses, aged 13; and William Bailey, aged 21. In 1860, he was living with Avery-T. Sherman in Marshfield, aged 70 years, a stone-cutter, and with him were Nancy, aged 24, and Moses, aged 23.

AMES, born in Marshfield, 6 Nov. 1826,‡ died there, 14 Dec. 1915, aged eighty-nine years, one month, and eight days, daughter of Jacob and Sylvia (Kent) Ames.

Josiah-Holmes Sherman was a ship-carpenter and farmer in Marshfield.

* This death appears in the printed records of Pembroke, credited to a private record of deaths in Pembroke and adjoining towns.

† The death record of Mary (Sampson) Sherman's daughter states that Mary Sampson was born in Holbrook, Mass., which at that time was a part of Randolph. The town clerk of Randolph wrote that his records were very poor and he had no entry of her birth. The state record of death of her son says she was born in Marshfield.

‡ Calculated from her age at death.

Josiah-H. Sherman of Marshfield sold to Mark-J. Sherman of the same place, land there, "which fell to me in the division of the estate of my father Ichabod Sherman" situated on the road leading from late father's to Ebenezer Sherman 3d's; Mary Sherman releasing her dower; 6 Aug. 1831. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 174: 204.)

Josiah-H. Sherman, shipwright, sold to Benjamin and Luther Hatch of the same place and the Marshfield Cotton Wool Co., land and buildings in Marshfield; Mary Sherman releasing her dower; 15 Mar. 1831. (ibid., 169: 196.)

He sold land and a dwelling house in Marshfield to Samuel Low of Marshfield, 13 July 1849. (ibid., 233: 123.)

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

136. BENJAMIN [6] SHERMAN (Ichabod [5], Ebenezer [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 7 Jan. 1810, died in Boston, 14 Feb. 1888, aged seventy-eight years. He married first in Marshfield, 17 Nov. 1833, HULDA BURKE, born in Marshfield in 1806, died in Medford, Mass., 27 Aug. 1843, aged thirty-seven years. He married secondly in Medford, 6 May 1845, MARY-D. (———) BARNARD, born in Brighton, Mass., August 1810, died in Medford, 17 Oct. 1846, aged thirty years and two months.

Benjamin Sherman went to Medford to live after his marriage and while there sold his share of his father's estate.

Benjamin Sherman of Medford sells to Amos Sherman, Jr., of Marshfield, a wood land there which "was assigned to me in the division of the real estate of my late father Ichabod Sherman late of said Marshfield, deceased," bounded on land assigned to "my late brother Ichabod deceased" and on "my sister Mercy's share," 27 Nov. 1846.

In 1830, he was living in Marshfield, a male aged between twenty and thirty years, with a female, aged between sixty and seventy and one between ten and fifteen in his family, evidently his mother and a girl.

* State Record, Boston Deaths, 2 Mar. 1929, Mary-A. Austin, maiden name Sherman, widow of Ebenezer Austin, female aged 88-1-20, b. Marshfield, daughter of Josiah H. Sherman, born Marshfield, and Mary Sampson, born Holbrook, res. Home for Aged Women, buried Cedar Grove Cemetery.

137. ROBERT [6] SHERMAN (Valentine [5], Robert [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., about 1767, died in Islesboro', Maine, 29 Apr. 1825. He married in Islesboro', probably 8 April 1790,* EUNICE TURNER, born in Stonington, Conn., about 1769, died in Islesboro', 30 Aug. 1859, aged ninety years, daughter of Samuel Turner.†

Robert Sherman accompanied his father to Islesboro' about 1787. In 1790, he is listed in his father's family. In 1800, he appears as the head of a family in Islesboro', which consisted of a male and a female between 26 and 45 (himself and his wife); a male over 45 (his father, Valentine); one male between 10 and 16 (his son, James); and one male and three females under 10 (Susanna, Sarah, Robert, Jr., and Lydia). In 1810, his family contained one male and one female between 26 and 45 (himself and his wife); one male and one female between 16 and 26 (James and Susanna); one male and one female between 10 and 16 (Sarah and Robert, Jr.); and one male and two females under 10 (Lydia, Isaac, and Jane).

Henry Knox of Thomaston, Esq., and Lucy his wife, sold to Robert Sherman of Islesboro', Maine, land in Islesboro', 10 Aug. 1801. (Hancock Co., Deeds, 9: 47.)

Robert Sherman of Islesboro' and Eunice his wife sold land in Islesboro' to Robert Coombs of Islesboro', 1 Mar. 1808. (ibid., 263: 141.)

Robert Sherman of Islesboro', yeoman, for $1000.00 paid by Isaac Sherman of Islesboro' quits to the said Isaac all rights in certain lands in Islesboro' with the buildings thereon, "In witness whereof, I the said Robert Sherman and Eunice my wife in consideration of a comfortable maintenance during her natural life to her secured by the said Isaac Sherman in a bond of one thousand dollars bearing even date with this deed relinquishes her right to dower in the premises," 21 May 1825. Wit: Josiah Farrow, Luther Pendleton. (ibid., 47: 298.)

* The History of Islesboro' gives the date of marriage as 8 Apr. 1792 and the birth date of James, Robert's eldest son, as 8 Feb. 1788. This indicating a first marriage of Robert, both Maine records and Plymouth Co., Mass., records were searched minutely to find the first wife without success. Not only that, but the descendants said they had never heard a rumor that James was not of full blood. The Islesboro' history is frequently in error. Finally a copy of a Bible record from the Bible of James, son of Robert, was received and it gave his birth as 8 Feb. 1791 instead of 8 Feb. 1788. It is probable that the marriage date is also wrong and it may have occurred from 1788 to 1790 but probably was in 1790.

† The parentage of Eunice was sent by a descendant. Her birth is not on the Stonington town records.

As Robert Sherman had thus arranged his property, he left no will and no administration was taken on his estate.

Children, born in Islesboro', Maine:

246. i. JAMES, b. 8 Feb. 1791; m. SYBIL GILKEY.

ii. SUSANNAH, b. 13 Feb. 1793; m. 12 Feb. 1812, ABNER FARROW of Bristol, Maine, son of Ezekiel and Miriam (Hooper) Farrow.

138. STEPHEN[6] SHERMAN (Abiel[5], Elisha[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 5 Sept. 1791, died there, 19 Mar. 1882, aged ninety years and six months. He married (published in Marshfield, 10 Oct. 1818) SYLVIA DAMON, born in Marshfield, 2 Mar. 1794, died there, 30 April 1879, aged eighty-five years, one month, and twenty-eight days, daughter of Araunah and Deborah (Sylvester) Damon.

Stephen Sherman was a farmer. He lived in Marshfield until after April 1868 when he went to Hanover, remaining there only a few months and then going to Scituate. Later he returned to Marshfield again.

He appears in the census reports of 1820, 1830 and 1840, resident of Marshfield, with a constantly increasing family. In 1850, Stephen Sherman, aged 57, a farmer, of Marshfield, was living there with the following persons in his family: Sylvia Sherman, aged 54; Stephen-T.,

(2), 25 Aug. 1927, Rockland, Joseph-Stearns Mullin, b. 9 Jan. 1863, Castine, Maine, son of Perez-Babbidge and Mary-Hall (Fernald) Mullin. By her first husband, she had, Clyde-Linwood Spear, b. 26 Feb. 1890, Rockport; m. 12 Sept. 1915, Rockland, Hattie-Beatrice Stamp. Mrs. Mullin has been helpful in finding and furnishing the records of her family. She has in her possession an old mirror once the property of Molly French.

aged 23, a shoemaker; Deborah and Diantha, twins, aged 20; Cordelia, aged 14, and Elisha Fish, aged 23, a shoemaker. In the next census they were living alone and, in 1870, are not listed as residents of Marshfield.

Stephen Sherman of Marshfield, sold an acre of his home lot to his "son, Stephen T. Sherman" of Marshfield, shoemaker, Sylvia releasing her dower, 27 Sept. 1856. Wit: John Ford. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 276: 216.)

Stephen Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, sold land in Marshfield to Avery Rogers, Sylvia releasing her dower, 23 May 1864. (ibid., 323: 227.) He sold more land to Edgar Tilden, Sylvia releasing, 7 May 1867 (ibid., 347: 10); to Henry Tilden of Marshfield a piece of woodland, Sylvia releasing, 14 Apr. 1868 (ibid., 396: 24), and Stephen Sherman of Marshfield sold land there to Ann Bird, wife of Thomas Bird of Dorchester, with a house thereon, wife, Sylvia, releasing her dower, 28 Apr. 1868. (ibid., 349: 161.)

Avery Rogers of Marshfield, yeoman, sold to Stephen Sherman of Hanover, land in Marshfield, wife Lucy-J. Rogers releasing her dower, 22 May 1868. (ibid., 354: 212.)

Stephen Sherman of South Scituate sold to Ann Bird of Marshfield, wife of Thomas Bird of Marshfield, about two acres of land in Marshfield, wife Sylvia releasing her dower, 19 Dec. 1868. (ibid., 354: 211.)

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

i. Betsey [7], twin, b. 14 Oct. 1819, probably m. (published 30 Sept. 1845, Scituate) William-B. Taylor. Child (Taylor), William-T., b. 22 Aug. 1847.

ii. Lucy, her twin, b. 14 Oct. 1819; m. (published 31 July 1841, Scituate) Waters-B. Barker, b. 14 Aug. 1818, son of Ira and Deborah-B. (Sylvester) Barker. Child (Barker) Laura-A., b. 23 June 1847, Scituate. Probably others later.

iii. Sylvia-Briggs,* b. 16 Sept. 1823; m. 1846 (published 8 Nov. 1846, Scituate), Marshfield, Matthew Stetson, b. 1 July 1817, Scituate, son of Melzar and Clarissa (Stetson) Stetson, a shipwright. Children (Stetson), (1) Melvina-W., b. 15 Nov. 1847, Scituate; (2) Warren-M., b. 14 Aug. 1849, So. Scituate. Probably others after 1850.

249. iv. Stephen-T., b. 28 Oct. 1825; m. Sarah-A. Randall and Hannah-Tower Williston.

v. Deborah-F., twin, b. 1830; m. 19 Mar. 1854, Marshfield, Charles-H. Walker, b. 1833 (aged 21 in 1854), Marshfield, a nail-cutter, son of Charles and Anna-M. Walker. She gave her age as 20 instead of 24 in her marriage record, obviously to cut down her seniority over her husband.

vi. Diantha, her twin, b. 1830; m. 14 Sept. 1858, Marshfield, as second wife, Waterman Sprague, born 1817, son of Melzar and Eleanor (———) Sprague.

vii. Cordelia-A., b. 1836; m., aged 19, 14 Jan. 1855, Marshfield, Owen Clapp, b. 22 Mar. 1833, Scituate, son of Paul and Lydia (Bates) Clapp. Children (Clapp), born Marshfield, (1) Emma-J., b. 1857;

* Sylvia is called Sylvana-B. in her marriage publishment and in the birth records of her children.

(2) Lizzie-W., b. 1858. The Clapps were living with Stephen-T. Sherman, Cordelia's brother, in 1850. They probably had other children later.

139. PETER[6] SHERMAN (Abiel[5], Elisha[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 30 Sept. 1793, died in Weymouth, Mass., 13 Sept. 1875, aged eighty-one years, eleven months, and thirteen days. He married first in Marshfield, 2 Feb. 1818, RUTH EWELL, born there, 6 Jan. 1795, died in Weymouth, 16 May 1866, aged seventy-one years, four months, and ten days, daughter of Job and Rispah (Mitchell) Ewell. He married secondly in Weymouth, 13 Feb. 1867, HANNAH (BLAKE) STODDARD, born in Worcester, Mass., 3 Oct. 1802, died in Hingham, Mass., 24 Feb. 1884, aged eighty-one years, four months, and twenty-one days, daughter of Jason and Lydia (Holbrook) Blake.

Peter Sherman was a shipwright.

Peter Sherman sold land in Marshfield to Japhet Mitchell; Ruth releasing her dower, 12 July 1830. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 170: 153.)

Peter Sherman of Marshfield, Shipwright, sold to Jonathan Stetson of the same place, land there, "which was set off to my honoured father, Abiel Sherman, decesed, in the division of his father's Estate", 1 Mar. 1831; Ruth, Peter's wife, and Lucy, his mother, released their dower rights, Esther Sherman, witness. (ibid., 174: 238.)

He also sold land to Eliezer Harlow, 26 Nov. 1831, and to Nathaniel Phillips, 21 Mar. 1831; Ruth, his wife, and Lucy, his mother, releasing their dowers. (ibid., 174: 249; 172: 237.)

140. NATHAN [6] SHERMAN (Abiel [5], Elisha [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 31 Dec. 1795, died there, 2 May 1862, aged sixty-six years, four months, and twenty-two days. He married (published in Marshfield, 12 Feb. 1823) ESTHER JOYCE, born in Marshfield, 11 Aug. 1796,* died there, 31 July 1881, aged eighty-four years, eleven months, and twenty days, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Oakman) Joyce.

Nathan Sherman was a farmer. He evidently lived all his life in Marshfield and apparently had but one child.

Samuel Joyce and Oakman Joyce of Medford, James Keith and his wife Elizabeth, Nathan Sherman and his wife Esther, of Marshfield, and Albert Joyce of Weymouth make a deed of division of the property of their father Samuel Joyce of Marshfield, deceased, being in Marshfield, 8 Mar. 1850. Else, wife of Samuel Joyce, Hannah, wife of Albert Joyce, and Mahala, wife of Oakman Joyce release their dower rights in the property. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 235: 247.)

In 1850, Nathan Sherman a farmer of Marshfield, aged 54, had in his family: his wife, Esther, aged 54, his son Nathan, Jr., aged 26 and the latter's wife, Martha, aged 18. In 1860, Nathan, aged 64, and Esther, aged 64, appear in Marshfield. In 1870, Esther is keeping house alone. In 1880, Esther aged 83, "mother-in-law,"; Martha, aged 48, daughter-in-law; Amherst-F., aged 27, son [of Martha] a mariner; Edward-C., aged 24, a laborer [i.e. a farm laborer]; and Everett-W., aged 21, a laborer, were together in Marshfield.

Nathan Sherman of Marshfield, "weak in body", made his will, 2 Oct. 1859, proved 27 Sept. 1862. He gave property to his son Nathan, and to his wife Esther, he bequeathed his homestead and personal property for life. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18165.)

Child, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

i. NATHAN [7], b. 28 June 1823, d. 24 Feb. 1863, aged, 39 yrs., 7 mos., 28 days, Marshfield; m. 19 Oct. 1849, there, MARTHA PETERSON,†

* Her birth is calculated from her age at death; the State Record gives her age as 80 yrs., 6 mos., and 2 days, making her born in 1801, but her age is given as 64 in 1860, as 83 in 1880, which points out the error in the State Record.

† The Peterson Genealogy published in The New England Historical and Genealogical Register, vol. 70, p. 358, states that Martha Peterson married Stephen Sherman. This is erroneous; she married Nathan, as above.

b. 19 June 1832, Marshfield, dau. of Seth and Lydia (Curtis) Peterson. He was a soldier at time of his death. Children (SHERMAN), born in Marshfield, (1) Amherst-Turner, b. 18 Aug. 1850, living 1880, unm.; (2) Edward-Cleman, b. 28 Aug. 1855, living 1880, unm.; (3) Everett-Wilbur, b. 4 Oct. 1858, living 1880, unm.

142. ELISHA [6] SHERMAN (Ebenezer [5], Elisha [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 30 Aug. 1777, died on a fishing vessel, 30 July 1850. He married first in Marshfield, 20 Nov. 1800, MARCIA-JOYCE CURTIS, born in Scituate, 7 May 1781, died in Marshfield, 8 May 1802, aged twenty-one years and one day, daughter of Samuel and Marcia (Joyce) Curtis. He married secondly in Marshfield, 1 July 1804, LUCY HATCH, born in Marshfield, 19 Sept. 1788, died in Knox, Maine, 27 Mar. 1871, daughter of Prince and Hannah (Phillips) Hatch.

A year after his second marriage Elisha Sherman went to Knox, Maine, then a dense wilderness. Elisha was twenty-eight and Lucy was but seventeen. He bought one hundred and sixty acres of woods and on it built a log cabin. He cleared his land and made a farm. Lucy and he both worked many long and hard hours, but they succeeded in having a prosperous farm and reared a large family to successful maturity. In 1870, Lucy was living with her son Hiram-P. She was keeping house for him and was aged eighty-one years.

Henry Knox of Thomaston, Lincoln Co., Mass., sold to Elisha Sherman of the plantation of Knox, yeoman, one hundred acres of land in Knox; L. [Lucy] Knox releasing her dower, 5 Jan. 1806. (Hancock Co., Deeds, 19: 230.)

144. SAMUEL [6] SHERMAN (Samuel [5], Samuel [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Plymouth, Mass., 20 Sept. 1791, died in Plymouth, 20 Oct. 1857, aged sixty-six years. He married there, 9 May 1813, ELEANOR COVINGTON, born in Plymouth, 20 Oct. 1792, died there, 23 Feb. 1875, aged eighty-two years, three months, and three days, daughter of Thomas and Sarah (Tribble) Covington.

Samuel Sherman lived his entire life in Plymouth. He was a trader.

Thomas Covington; Daniel Doten and Sarah his wife, of Middleborough; Jacob Covington; George Cooper and Mary his wife; Caleb Finney, for the heirs of his wife Lydia, deceased; Rufus Churchill and Eunice his wife; Benjamin Dillard and Nancy his wife; Tryphena Hedge, widow; Samuel Sherman and Eleanor his wife; all of Plymouth, Fiske Ames, for heirs of wife Betsey, deceased; Uriah Howard and Lucy his wife, all of Bridgewater; Lewis Churchill and Hannah his wife of Wareham, children and coheirs of Thomas Covington, late of Plymouth, deceased, convey to Josiah Robbins of Plymouth, Esq., land and dwelling house on Water St., in Plymouth. Jacob Covington acts as attorney for the others and signs as attorney and for himself as heir. Patty, wife of Jacob Covington, and Betsey, wife of Thomas Covington, release their dowers, 5 Oct. 1827. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 160: 157.)

Samuel Sherman appears in the census of 1850 as living in Plymouth, a trader, aged 59, with Eleanor, aged 55, Tryphena aged 25, Lydia-D., aged 19, Everett-F., aged 23, a baker, and Francis-D., a grandchild, as his family. In 1860, Eleanor Sherman, aged 65, was the head of the family and had with her, Tryphena, aged 37, a dressmaker and Lydia-D. aged 29, a shoebinder.

Samuel Sherman died testate:

Samuel Sherman of Plymouth, trader, made his will 4 June 1847, proved Dec. 1857. He mentioned his wife Eleanor, and his children, Everett-F., Tryphena, and Lydia-Doten Sherman; he made a trust estate for daughter Eleanor free from the control of her husband John-E. Churchill; son Everett-F., to be executor. Wit: Jacob-H. Loud, Thomas-B. Sherman, Stephen-P. Brown. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18186.)

Everett-F. Sherman petitions 13 Nov. 1877, for administration on the estate of Eleanor Sherman who died in Plymouth, 22 Feb. 1875, stating that the heirs were, Everett-F. Sherman, Tryphena Sherman, L. D. S. Blackmer, her husband, James-W. Blackmer, all of Plymouth, and Francis-W. Churchill and Samuel E. Churchill of Brockton, children of John-E. and Eleanor Churchill. 146. ELIJAH [6] SHERMAN (Elijah [5], Samuel [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Plymouth, Mass. 11 Jan. 1788, died in "Brattleboro" [Vt.?], 19 Oct. 1856, aged sixty-nine years. He married in Plymouth, 1 Sept. 1811, CYNTHIA (DOTEN) FISH, born there in November 1788, died there, 11 Feb. 1871, aged eighty-two years and three months,* daughter of William and Jane (Bartlett) (Churchill) Doten.

* The record of death of a Cynthia Sherman, widow, of Plymouth, on 11 Feb. 1871, aged 82 yrs., 9 mos., and 16 days says that her parents were Joseph and Anna. The same date is given for the death of Cynthia Sherman, the widow of Elijah Sherman. The names that Elijah's wife, Cynthia, gave their children proves that she was the daughter of William and Jane, and unless the date is incorrectly given for her death, the state record must be in error, or there were two old ladies named Cynthia Sherman who died on the same day in Plymouth.

She married first in Plymouth, 28 Nov. 1805, Thomas Fish, Jr., of Pembroke, who died in Plymouth, 29 Sept. 1806, in his twenty-fifth year.*

Elijah Sherman was a carpenter.

viii. FRANCIS, b. 23 Aug. 1828, possibly died young.

ix. SOPHRONIA, b. 1830, living with William-D. in June 1860.

147. ISAAC MORTON [6] SHERMAN (Elijah [5], Samuel [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Plymouth, Mass., 25 Apr. 1790, died there, 9 June 1861, aged seventy-one years. He married first in Plymouth, 5 Mar. 1812, HOPE DOTEN, born about 1796, died in Plymouth, 23 Oct. 1832, daughter of William and Jane (Bartlett) (Churchill) Doten. He married secondly in Plymouth, SARAH (HOLMES) DREW, born Nov. 1785, died in Plymouth, 20 Dec. 1861, aged seventy-six years and one month, daughter of Ephraim and Lucy (Barnes) Holmes and widow of William Drew.

Isaac-Morton Sherman was a rope maker. He appears in the census of 1850, of Plymouth as aged 60, with Sally, aged 65; Leander, aged 20, a carpenter; George, aged 16; and Sally Kempton, aged 78, as members of his family.

Children, born in Plymouth, Mass.:

By first wife, Hope Doten,

i. BETSEY-DOTEN [7], b. 27 Aug. 1814, d. 5 Dec. 1834, Plymouth.

ii. ISAAC-MORTON, b. 25 July 1816, possibly died young or left the State.

266. iii. WINSLOW-B., b. 31 Dec. 1818; m. SARAH-ANN BENT.

* Thomas, son of Thomas and Ursula (Crooker) Fish, was born in Pembroke, Mass., 28 July 1782, hence was in his twenty-fifth year in September 1806. But the death records of Pembroke give as a burial in the Pembroke Centre Graveyard, Thomas, son of Thomas and Ursula Fish, died Oct. 24, 1810, aged 19 y. 5 m. 19 days, which would give them a son Thomas, b. 5 May 1791. If this is correct then their son Thomas b. 28 July 1782, died young. The Thomas who is buried in Plymouth in 1806 must have been the son of some other man and his birth is unrecorded in Pembroke.

iv. MARY-D., b. 25 June 1821, d. 20 Oct. 1891, aged 70 yrs., Taunton.
v. HANNAH-T., b. 9 Oct. 1823; m. 22 Dec. 1846, Plymouth, CYRUS-N. WILLIAMS, an artist of Easton, b. there 1825, son of Jacob and Adah Williams.
vi. ABBY-L., b. 12 Jan. 1826; m. 1 Apr. 1848, ELLIS-P. THAYER of Easton.
vii. LEANDER-LOVELL, b. 12 Nov. 1829, d. 25 May 1908, Plymouth. He served in Co. B, Third Mass. Regt., in the civil war.

By second wife, Sarah (Holmes) Drew, viii. GEORGE-W., b. 13 Mar. 1834; m. 19 Dec. 1865, Roxbury, HATTIE-E. GARDNER, b. 1847, Falmouth, dau. of Joseph and Mary Gardner. He was a coal merchant.

By her first husband Sarah (Holmes) (Drew) Sherman had ten children.

148. THOMAS [6] SHERMAN (Thomas [5], Samuel [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Plymouth, Mass., 15 Aug. 1791, died in 1824. He married in Plymouth, 30 Nov. 1814, BETSEY SEARS, born, probably in Plymouth, in 1790, died there, 23 Oct. 1839, in her forty-ninth year, daughter of Willard and Sarah (Robbins) Sears. She married secondly in Plymouth, 14 Sept. 1828, Eliab Wood, who died there 14 June 1842, in his forty-seventh year.

Administration on the estate of Thomas Sherman late of Plymouth, mariner, deceased, was granted his widow, Betsey Sherman, who gave bond with William-P. Ripley, merchant, and Lemuel Simmons, mariner, all of Plymouth, 18 Oct. 1824. She was allowed for necessaries, 21 Dec. 1824.

In 1829, Lemuel Simmons, Jr., was appointed administrator de bonis non on the estate.

The dower was allowed to Mrs. Betsey Wood, the late widow of Thomas Sherman, Jr., her daughter Betsey-S. Sherman being mentioned, 10 Aug. 1829. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18195.)

Lemuel Simmons, Jr., with George Simmons and Daniel Goddard as bondsmen, was appointed guardian of Betsey S. Sherman, a minor under 14, child of Thomas Sherman, late of Plymouth, mariner, deceased. She owned five-sevenths of a dwelling house and the reversion of the dower of the late widow, now Betsey Woods. (ibid., 18088.)

"I Betsey Sherman of Plymouth, . . . widow and administratrix of my late husband Thomas Sherman, Junr.", mariner, sells a piece of his property to Samuel Lewis, 26 June 1825, and more to him, 9 Sept. 1828. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 156: 36; 162: 66.)

Child, born in Plymouth, Mass.:

i. BETSEY-SEARS[7], born about 1817.

149. WILLIAM [6] SHERMAN (Thomas [5], Samuel [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Plymouth, Mass., 10 June 1798, died after 1863. He married in Plympton, Mass., 5 Jan. 1823, IRENE-

Shaw Standish, born in Middleborough, Mass., 6 Oct. 1800, died in Plympton, Mass., 5 Dec. 1863, aged sixty-three years, one month, and thirty days, daughter of Jonathan and Irene (Shaw) Standish.

William Sherman was living in Plympton in 1850, aged 50, a clothier, with his wife, Irena, aged 49, and his daughter Helen-M., aged 19. In 1860, he, aged 62, a farmer, was living with Irene, aged 59, in the same place. After his wife's decease, he probably made his home with one of his children. His death is not included in the State Records.

Children, born in Plympton, Mass.:

i. Irene-Inez-Standish [7], b. 16 Dec. 1823, d. 18 May 1913, aged 89 yrs., 5 mos. and 2 days, Halifax, Mass.; m. 19 Oct. 1845, Taunton, Mass., Ira-L. Sturtevant, b. 1818, Halifax, d. 30 June 1903, aged 85 yrs., 6 mos., 6 days, there, son of Dependence and Sarah (Soule) Sturtevant.*

150. JOSEPH [6] SHERMAN (Joseph [5], Ignatius [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Pembroke, Mass., 2 Oct. 1782, died in Camden, Maine, 21 May 1872, aged eighty-nine years and seven months. He married (published in Lincolnville, Maine, 16 May 1806) Sarah Kidder, born in Billerica, Mass., 23 Feb. 1778, died in Camden, 2 July 1865, daughter of William and Molly (French) Kidder.

Joseph Sherman was a farmer and his father gave him land in Camden.

Joseph Sherman served in the War of 1812, in Capt. Asher Palmer's company, Col. E. Foot's regiment, from 22 June to 23 June; from 3 Sept. to 10 Sept.; and from 21 Sept. to 23 Sept. 1814, service at Camden. (Massachusetts Militia in the War of 1812, 198.)

Joseph Sherman is listed in Camden in the census of 1850, as 67 yrs., of age, a farmer, born in Mass.; with Sarah Sherman (his wife), aged 72 yrs., born in Mass.; Darius Sherman, aged 33, born in Maine; Alitha McCobb or McColl, aged 23, born in Maine; Lydia Heyercom, aged 83, born in Mass.; and Almond [Almeraine] Sherman aged 55,

* Some or all of these may have had children. No one was found to send in records.

farmer, born in Maine. In 1860, Joseph, aged 77, and Sarah, aged 82, both born in Mass., were living with Darius aged 40, a farmer, born in Maine who also had in his family, Olive Stetson, aged 17, and Francis Monroe, aged 23, both born in Maine and listed as servants of Darius. In 1870, Joseph, aged 88, was living with Darius, aged 53, who had also in his family, Eugene-L. Sherman, aged 15, and Sarah Sherman, aged 13.

He appears in the following land records:

Daniel Clary of Belfast sells to Joseph Sherman, Jr., of Camden, yeoman, land in Belfast, 4 Nov. 1802. Wit: Sally Quen, Erastus Foote. Recorded 1832. (Waldo Co., Deeds, 11: 216.)

Israel Thorndike, David Sears, and William Prescott of Boston, Esqrs., sell to Joseph Sherman, Jr., of Camden, ⅙ of a tract of land in Camden, 30 June 1812; Anna Thorndike and Catherine-G. Prescott releasing their dowers. Wit: Justus Ashman, Maria A. Ashman. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 91: 117.)

Benjamin Cushing of Camden, Esq., sells to Joseph Sherman, Jr., of the same place, land there, 7 July 1817. Wit: Nathaniel Dillingham, John Gleason. (ibid., 98: 211.)

Jacob Holbrook of Weymouth, Mass., sells to Joseph Sherman, Jr., of Camden, land in Camden, 16 Oct. 1827. Wit: R. Chase, J. P., Wm Munro. (Waldo Co., Deeds, 4: 88.)

Joseph Sherman, Jr., of Camden, sells to Lemuel Dillingham of Belfast, gent., land in Belfast, Sally Sherman releasing her dower, 14 Jan. 1835. Wit: Edward-H. Dillingham, Joshua Dillingham, J. P. (ibid., 22: 300.)

Joseph Sherman Jr., of Camden, yeoman, sells to William Sherman of Camden, land there, Sarah Sherman releasing her dower, 14 July 1838. Wit: Ephraim Miller. (ibid., 33: 394.)

Joseph Sherman, Jr., of Camden sells to Peleg D. Griffin, land in Camden, Sarah Sherman releasing her dower, 8 Feb. 1845. (ibid., 60: 540.)

There are probably others later but the land records were examined only to 1850.

No will or administration of Joseph Sherman, Jr., has been found.

151. HENRY [6] SHERMAN (Joseph [5], Ignatius [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Camden, Maine, 23 Oct. 1788, died there, 30 Oct. 1864. He married in Northport, Maine, "26 April 1818" (should be 1813 †), ELIZABETH PENDLETON, born in Islesboro', in 1796, died in Camden, 29 Dec. 1871, aged seventy-five years, daughter of Henry and Rebecca (Alden) Pendleton.

Henry Sherman ‡ grew up in Camden but later removed to Brooks,

* Darius Sherman's will was allowed Nov. 1892. He mentioned in it, his sister Eliza Miller of Lincolnville; his sister Susan-H. Pendleton of Rockland; his brother Joseph Sherman of New Orleans, La.; his sister Mary-A. Dillingham, deceased, his brother William K. Sherman, deceased. He left a widow Antilla Sherman.

† This date of marriage is not on the Northport record but may be from a church record or family Bible. The copyist evidently read the 3 as an 8 but this must be wrong as Elizabeth was the mother of all the children and the first one was born in 1814.

‡ Some searchers say that Henry, a supposed son of Valentine Sherman, of Islesboro', married this Elizabeth Pendleton. But as Henry and Elizabeth named their first daughter Elizabeth-Sylvesta and Sylvesta was the name of Henry of Camden's mother it can not be doubted that the children all belong to him. And as another daughter is named Rebecca-A. [Alden?], it is equally evident that Elizabeth, wife of Henry of Camden was the daughter of Henry and Rebecca (Alden) Pendleton. The present compiler finds no evidence that Valentine even had a son Henry, except the statement in the History of Islesboro, for which no proof is adduced.

Maine, where his first three children were born. He then went back to Camden, apparently remaining there the rest of his life. He appears in Camden in the census of 1850, aged 61, born in Maine; with Elizabeth Sherman, aged 54; Elizabeth Rhoads, aged 20; and Reuben Pendleton, aged 30, a trader, as his family. In 1860, Henry, aged 72, was living alone with Elizabeth, aged 62. In 1870, Elizabeth, aged about 75, was living alone.

Children:

i. ELIZABETH-SYLVESTA[7], b. 13 Mar. 1814, Brooks, Maine; m. in St. Andrews N. B., Capt. THEODORE MCFARLANE, b. So. America. Her dau. Margaret McFarlane was a missionary to Labrador and later m. as second wife, Rev. F. P. Chapin and had a son studying at Amherst in 1910.

ii. MARY, b. 15 July 1815, Brooks, d. 18 Aug. 1816, there.

iii. HENRY-I. [possibly Henry-Ignatius], b. 26 Feb. 1817, Brooks, d. 1857, near New Orleans, La.; m. MARY PRAGUE. He was killed in one of William Walker's filibustering expeditions. In Jan. 1846, Henry-I. Sherman of New Orleans bought property in Camden of Dr. Joseph Huse and mortgaged it back to him the same day. (Waldo Co., Deeds, 58: 95; 57: 271.)

269. iv. JOSEPH, b. 7 Feb. 1818, Camden; m. MARY-ANN RICH.

v. REBECCA-A., probably b. 16 Oct. 1819.

vi. SARAH-A., b. 18 Feb. 1824, St. George, N. B.,* d. 18 Mar. 1825.

152. IGNATIUS[6] SHERMAN (Joseph[5], Ignatius[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Camden, Maine, 11 Oct. 1798, died there, 24 Oct. 1870, aged seventy-two years and thirteen days. He married in Camden, 21 Oct. 1827, ELITHEA GRAFFAM, born there, 15 June 1811, died there, 25 April 1892, aged eighty-one years, daughter of Capt. Jacob and Sarah (Andrews)† Graffam.

Ignatius Sherman was a farmer. He possessed the Sherman Point farm which in 1933 had been in the family for over one hundred and five years, although parts had been sold so that the farm then comprised about two hundred acres. It was considered to be the most valuable piece of realty in Camden and in 1933 was in the possession of his youngest and only surviving child, Mary-Bell-Ladd (Sherman) Perry. He was a Universalist in religious faith, an honest man known for his integrity, honored and respected by all who knew him.

He appears often in the early Waldo Co. deeds.

David Packard of Hope, yeoman, sold to Ignatius Sherman of Camden, yeoman, one-half of a saw-mill in Hope at St. George's river, 24 Apr. 1824. Wit: Jonas Wheeler, Wade Sweetland. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 125: 173.)

* If Sarah-A., was born in New Brunswick, then evidently Henry and Elizabeth went there with their family and it was probably during the stay there that Elizabeth-Sylvesta married. There may have been another child born between Rebecca and Sarah who died young and was never recorded.

† Sarah Andrews was the daughter of Amos and Susannah (Young) Andrews. She was a woman of unusual intelligence and made many foreign voyages with her husband. She was aged ninety when she passed away.

Otis Everett of Boston, merchant, sold to Ignatius Sherman of Camden, a farm in Camden on Penobscot Bay, 17 Mar. 1826. Wit: Henry Curtis, Otis Everett, Jr. (ibid., 135: 399.)

Ignatius Sherman of Camden, yeoman, sold to Joseph Sherman, Jr., of same place, yeoman, farm land there, bought of Everett of Boston, 7 Aug. 1827. Wit: Robert Chase, J. P., Joshua Dillingham. (Waldo Co., Deeds, 3: 274.)

Isaac Morse of Camden and Charles Morse of Norridgewock sold land in Camden to Ignatius Sherman of Camden, yeoman. Betsey and Sabra Morse released their dowers, 27 Aug. 1827. Wit. Robert Chase, Joshua Dillingham, Charity Swetland. (ibid., 143: 217.)

Joshua Dillingham, Robert Chase, Ignatius Sherman, James Clark, Nathaniel Dillingham and Abraham Ogier all of Camden, deed all their rights in a piece of land in Camden to the First Universalist Society of that town. Betsey, wife of Robert Chase; Elithea, wife of Ignatius Sherman; Emeline, wife of James Clark; Deborah, wife of Nathaniel Dillingham; and Anna, wife of Abraham Ogier, release their dowers in the property. [Date omitted.] (ibid., 53: 483.)

Ephraim-S. Ely of Camden, house-joiner, wife Margaret releasing her dower, sold land in Camden to Joshua Dillingham, Robert Chase, Ignatius Sherman, James Clark, Nathaniel Dillingham and Abraham Ogier, gentlemen, all of Camden, 7 Mar. 1838. Wit: Abiel Merriam, Rachel-W. Robinson. (ibid., 30: 214.)

Samuel Jones of Brooks, sold land in Brooks to Ignatius Sherman of Camden, 15 Jan. 1842. (ibid., 36: 51.) They were brothers-in-law.

Jacob Graffam of Camden sold land there to Ignatius Sherman of Camden, 1 Dec. 1842 and 9 Nov. 1843. (ibid., 50: 27, 28.)

Ignatius Sherman of Camden sold to Urban-G. Graffam of Camden, land at Goose River village, excepting a piece previously deeded by Jacob Graffam to Elizabeth-E. Graffam, a piece deeded to Joseph-A. Graffam, and a piece deeded to Martha-S. Graffam, Elithea Sherman releasing her dower, 5 Mar. 1846. (ibid., 55: 219.) On the same date, with his wife releasing her dower, he sold more land to Sarah Graffam. (ibid., 55: 220.)

James-D. Clark of Camden sold to Ignatius Sherman of same place, land there, 23 Dec. 1848.* (ibid., 61: 451.)

In 1850, Ignatius Sherman aged 50 yrs., a trader, b. Maine, was the head of a family in Camden of which the other members were, Elithea, aged 39; Ann-E. aged 19; Helen-R., aged 17; Cyrus-E., aged 15; Oliver-G., aged 13; Jacob-S., aged 7; and Emma-D., aged 4 years. In 1860, he aged 61, a farmer, worth $26,000, was in Camden, with Elithea, aged 49, Jacob-I, aged 17, Emma-D. aged 14, Mary-B.-L., aged 7; Ellen-C.-C., aged 18, born in Ireland,† Cyrus-E., aged 24; and Sophia, aged 24. In 1870, Ignatius, aged 71, had in his family, Elithea, aged 58; Emma-D., aged 24; Magie-B. aged 17; and Roscoe-A., aged 10.

* The deeds were only searched to 1850.

† It is evident that Ellen-C.-C., was the domestic and very doubtful that her name was Sherman. It is probably an error on the part of the census taker.

Children, born in Camden, Maine:

153. NATHAN [6] SHERMAN (Nathan [5], Ignatius [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born probably in Thomaston, Maine, about 1786, died in Rockland, Maine in 1871. He married about 1814, HANNAH-B. COBB, born in Camden, Maine, about 1796, died in Rockland, Maine, in Sept. 1883; * parents not found.

Nathan Sherman lived in Rockland. He became blind later in life. In 1850, with his wife, he was keeping a boarding house in Rockland and appears in the census of that year as, Nathan Sherman, Sr., aged 62, laborer, born in Maine; Hannah Sherman, aged 52; William-C. Sherman, aged 13; Mary-C. Sherman, aged 30; John-W. Norwood, aged 24, mariner; Lucy-C. Norwood, aged 24; Marzelli-E., aged 1; Silas Cross, aged 20, mariner, (evidently a boarder); Goodwin Caswell, aged 28, a house carpenter (a boarder); Amos Caswell, aged 20, a house carpenter (a boarder); Edgar-L. Sherman, aged 18 (son of his brother Asa); James Sherman, aged 16 (brother of Edgar-L); and several other boarders including a family named Rowe. In 1860, Nathan, aged 75, had in his family; Hannah-B., aged 64; Mary-C. Rankin, aged 41, (a daughter); Charles-W. Rankin, aged 4 (her son); Lucy-C. Norwood, aged 34, (a daughter); Melissa Norwood, aged 11 (her daughter). In 1870, Nathan Sherman, aged 86, blind; with

* No record was found in Camden, Maine. An Ezra Cobb from Princeton, Mass., came to Camden about ten years after she married. His name was probably McCobb.

Hannah, aged 74; Mary-C. Rankin, aged 52, a dressmaker; Charles-W. Rankin, aged 14; Caroline-A. Lovett, keeping house; and Alice-M. Lovett, aged 8, made up the household.*

154. CHARLES[6] SHERMAN (Nathan[5], Ignatius[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., in 1796, died, probably in Hope, Maine, after 1850. He married in Thomaston, Maine, 11 Aug. 1816, SUSAN COOPER, born 1796, died, probably in Appleton, Maine, after 1870, daughter of Benjamin and Lydia (Bartlett) Cooper.

Charles Sherman left Thomaston for Hope after his marriage and probably resided there all his life.

George McClellan of Tomaston, and William McClellan of Warren, merchants, sold to Charles Sherman of Tomaston, yeoman, land in Hope, 5 Mar. 1822. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 143: 220.)

Ephraim Lovett of Hope sold to Charles Sherman of Hope, 16 acres of land there, Sophia Lovett‡ releasing her dower, 24 June 1834. (Waldo Co., Deeds, 20: 401.)

* In each of these census reports, Nathan's birthplace is given as Maine which as he was the eldest child shows that his father came to Maine as soon as he was married. In each census his age gives him a different year of birth. Probably, he never furnished the records for any of them himself.

† It has been impossible to gain an address of any of these people or their descendants and the public records at Augusta do not help at all.

‡ Sophia Lovett was Charles Sherman's sister.

Charles Sherman appears in the census of 1850 as residing in Hope, Maine, a farmer, with Susan, aged 54; Frances, aged 24; Thomas, aged 19; Judson, aged 16; and Aroline, aged 11; as his family. He is not found in 1860, and probably had deceased. In 1870, Susan Sherman, aged 73, was living with Elbridge Condon in Appleton, the rest of his family being, Sarah-A. Condon, aged 30; Susan-E. Condon, aged 10; Mary-H. Condon, aged 7; and Ella-F. Condon, aged 1.

No will or administration was found for Charles Sherman.

155. ABIJAH [6] SHERMAN (Nathan [5], Ignatius [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Thomaston, Maine, 5 Sept. 1798, died in Rockland, Maine, 16 Oct. 1888. He married first (published in Thomaston, 10 Feb. 1819) HANNAH WILSON, born in St. George in 1800, died in Thomaston, 9 June 1844, daughter of ——— and Sarah (Teel) Wilson. He married secondly before 1850, THIRZA (———) PALMER, born about 1800, died before 1860.

Abijah Sherman lived in that part of Thomaston, Maine, now South Thomaston. He appears in the census of 1850 as a householder, aged 50, occupation laborer, his father, Nathan Sherman, aged 85, being a member of his household as well as his brother Thomas, the latter with his wife and four children evidently making his home with Abijah at the time. The only other person in the family was Abijah's wife Thirza, aged 49. In 1860, he aged 61, a farmer, had in his family, Amelia Watson, aged 47 and William Watson, aged 11, she being evidently his housekeeper. His second wife and his father had both passed away during the preceding decade. He became blind from cataract and remained so for many years.

Children:

i. MARY-WILSON[7], b. 14 Oct. 1819, So. Thomaston, d. Aug. 1913, Rockland, aged 94 years; m. as 3rd wife, 2 Aug. 1846, So. Thomaston, SHEPARD GRAY, b. 9 Apr. 1814, So. Thomaston, d. after 1860, son of Leverett and Rebecca (Sears) Gray. He m. (1), Hannah Thorndike. He m. (2), 12 Apr. 1841, Emeline Butler, by whom he had no children. Children (GRAY), by 1st wife, Hannah Thorndike, (1) Charles, b. about 1836; (2) Elizabeth, b. about 1838; (3) A son, b. about 1840, died young; by third wife, Mary-Wilson Sherman, (4) Adelaide-L., b. 1847; (5) Clara-Agnes, b. 1850; (6) Livingston, b. 1856. He was a carpenter.*

ii. ELIZA-B., b. 20 Jan. 1821, So. Thomaston, d. 30 Dec. 1846, there; m. GEORGE-S. GRAY, b. 27 Aug. 1846, d. after 1870, son of Leverett and Rebecca (Sears) Gray. He m. Sherman, (1) Edward-T., b. 25 Apr. 1842; (2) Mary-A., b. Mar. 1845, d. July 1845; by second wife, Mary-Jeannette Paul, (3) Eliza-M., b. about 1847.† He was a housewright.

276. iii. ALDEN-THOMAS, Capt., b. 24 Feb. 1823, Rockland; m. BETHIA-B. GLOVER.

277. iv. JUSTUS-EDWARD, b. 1 Oct. 1828, Belmont, Maine; m. REBECCA KEENE.

156. ASA[6] SHERMAN (Nathan[5], Ignatius[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Thomaston, Maine, 18 Nov. 1802, died in Hope, Maine, 21 June 1846. He married about 1827, OLIVE POTTLE, born in Lincolnville, Maine, 8 Mar. 1805, died there, 2 June 1848, daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Wentworth) Pottle. She married secondly about 1847, Abner Knight who died after 1848.

Asa Sherman went to Camden, Maine, between 1823 and 1827 and from there removed to Northport before 1835. He left the latter place for Hope before 1843. This is shown by the deeds.

Nathaniel Sherman and Asa Sherman both of Thomaston, yeomen, sell to Samuel Parkman of Boston, land in Belmont, 28 Aug. 1823. Wit: Samuel Parkman, Jr. (Hancock Co., Deeds, 44: 272.)

Hiram-O. Alden of Belfast sells to Asa Sherman of Camden, yeoman, land in Northport, deeded to him by Henry Brown, in 1829. 15 Dec. 1831. Wit: Albert Pillsbury, A. Johnson, Jr. (Waldo Co., 10: 208.)

Jacob-A. Cottrell of Northport, yeoman, sells to Asa Sherman of the same

* Census of Thomaston, 1860, gives: Shepard Gray, aged 45, carpenter; Mary W., aged 40; Adelaide-L., aged 13; Clara-A., aged 10; Livingston [possibly Leverett], aged 4; and Rebecca, aged 78, all born in Maine.

† George Gray, aged 40, House carpenter, appears in So. Thomaston, census of 1860, with Mary-J., aged 34; Edward-T. aged 18, a laborer; and Eliza-M. aged 13. The account of the family in the History of So. Thomaston, states that Eliza-M. was a child of the second wife, but if so the census is wrong in giving her age as 13. If b. in 1847, she must have been a child of the second wife. In 1870, George Gray, aged 50, was living with Mary-J., aged 44, who was keeping house.

place, land there, (satisfaction for a mortgage) being same deeded to me by Sherman; 5 Aug. 1835. Wit: Albert Pillsbury, John-H. Converse. (ibid., 20: 85.)

Asa Sherman of Hope, yeoman, sells to Amos-B. Harding, Henry-F. Harding, and Daniel Harding, all of Union, land in Appleton, 9 June 1843. Wit: Jesse-W. Payson. (ibid., 46: 291.)

Asa Sherman of Hope sells to John Graham of the same place, land in Appleton, Olive Sherman releasing her dower, 27 Apr. 1846. Wit: Ephraim-L. Sherman. (ibid., 54: 496.)

He died soon after passing this deed and left no will.

Olive Sherman of Hope, widow of Asa Sherman, who died 21 June 1846, leaving no children of age, prays that administration be granted to James-M. Beverage, 7 July 1846. James-M. Beverage of Hope was appointed, 7 July 1846. (Waldo Co., Probate, 17: 103.)

Olive Sherman lived about a year after her second marriage and died without arranging for the care of her children.

Abner Knight of Lincolnville represents that Olive-P. Knight died 2 June 1848, leaving three minor children by a former husband, viz: James Sherman, aged 13, Sarah-A. Sherman, aged 10, and Rena Sherman, aged 8, and that it is necessary that they have a guardian appointed and he suggests that Nathaniel Fernald of Lincolnville be appointed, Aug. 1848. (ibid., 19: 544.)

In 1850, Edgar-W., aged 18 and James, aged 16, were living with their uncle Nathan Sherman in So. Thomaston.

Children:

278. i. Ephraim-L.[7], b. 30 Jan. 1829, probably Camden; m. Sarah-A. Heal.
ii. Jane-Frances, b. 7 Feb. 1830, probably Camden, d. 14 Apr. 1893; m. William-F. Hall. Children (Hall), (1) Edgar-S., of Lincolnville in 1913; (2) Adelbert-A., of Lincolnville in 1913; (3) Will-L., of Camden, 1913; (4) Ella-J., of Camden, 1913; (5) Mary-E.,* who m. Cyrus-Erastus Sherman.
iii. William-Edgar, b. 9 May 1832, Northport, soon died after 1850, unmarried.
iv. James-E., b. 4 July 1834, Northport, died soon after 1850, unmarried.
v. Sarah-A., b. 1838, Northport or Hope, living 1848, prob. died young.
vi. Irene-B., b. 5 Sept. 1841, Northport or Hope, d. 1863; m. Byron Shepard.

157. THOMAS[6] SHERMAN (Nathan[5], Ignatius[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Thomaston, in 1810, died, probably in Ohio, after 1850. He married first Margaret Henderson of St. George. He married secondly (published 26 Nov. 1840) Phebe Holbrook,

* Mary-E. Sherman, late of Camden, date of death, 15 Nov. 1913, administration granted 16 Dec. 1913. She left no widower and her heirs were, Edgar-S. Hall of Lincolnville, Adelbert-A. Hall of Lincolnville, Will-L. Hall of Camden, her brothers and Ella-J. Hall of Camden, her sister. (Knox Co., Probate.) born probably in Thomaston, in 1824, died, probably in Ohio, after 1850, daughter of Capt. Jesse and Jane (Hall) Holbrook.

Thomas Sherman was living with his brother Abijah in 1850, aged 40, and had with him, his wife Phebe, aged 26; "Irene" [Jane] aged 8; Samuel, aged 7; Jesse-H., aged 5; Bethia-T., aged 1. If he had any children by his first wife, they were not living with him in 1850 and there is no mention anywhere of other children. She probably died without issue. Some time after 1850 and before 1860, Thomas Sherman and his family emigrated to Ohio.

Children, possibly born in Thomaston, Maine:

i. JANE-HALL[7], b. 17 Jan. 1842.
ii. SAMUEL, b. 1843.
iii. JESSE-HOLBROOK, b. 1845.
iv. BETHIA-THOMAS, b. 1849.

158. ASA[6] SHERMAN (Capt. Asa[5], Ignatius[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 28 Feb. 1801, died in Marshfield, 20 Feb. 1899, aged ninety-seven years, eleven months, and twenty days. He married in Kingston, Mass., 24 Feb. 1829, ANNE-PHILLIPS LORING, born in Marshfield, 14 July 1804, died there, 15 Apr. 1879, aged seventy-five years, nine months, and one day, daughter of Joshua and Hannah (Dingley) Loring.

Asa Sherman Jr., like his father began life as a mariner. He appears in the census of 1850, for Marshfield, aged 49 years, seaman, with Ann-P. aged 46; Joshua, a farmer, aged 18; Ann-M., aged 12; James-D., aged 8; and Hannah-D., aged 5 years.

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

i. ASA[7], b. 1829, d. 2 Dec. 1848, aged 19 years, Marshfield.
279. ii. JOSHUA, b. 11 Aug. 1832; m. MARY-JANE CUMMINGS.
iii. MARCELLUS, b. 28 May 1835, d. 28 Sept. 1837, aged 2 yrs., 4 mos.
iv. ANNA-MARIA, b. 20 Nov. 1837, d. June 1921, aged 83 yrs., 6 mos., 12 days, Marshfield; m. 22 Feb. 1861, there, GEORGE-W. VENTRESS, b. 29 July 1825, Marshfield, d. 7 Apr. 1897, aged 71 yrs., 8 mos., 9 days, son of Moses and Deborah (Keith) Ventress*. Apparently no children.
v. JAMES-DINGLEY, b. 27 Mar. 1842, d. 26 Jan. 1861, aged 18 years, Marshfield.
vi. HANNAH-DINGLEY, b. 27 Mar. 1845, d. 10 May 1927, aged 82 yrs., one mo., and 13 days, unmarried, Marshfield.

159. WILLIAM[6] SHERMAN (Capt. Asa[5], Ignatius[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 25 May 1813, died there, 19 May 1904, aged ninety years, ten months, and twenty-four days. He married first in Marshfield, 28 Nov. 1839, RUTH-S.-W.

* The death record of George-W. Ventress states that his father, Moses, was born in North Carolina, and his mother, Deborah Keith, in New Hampshire.

THOMAS, born in Marshfield, 13 Aug. 1813, died there, 21 June 1847, aged thirty-three years, nine months, and twenty-eight days, daughter of Bourne Thomas. He married secondly, aged forty, in Marshfield, 23 Oct. 1853, ABIGAIL-PHILLIPS HATCH, born in Scituate, 14 Jan. 1824, died in Marshfield, 18 Feb. 1918, aged ninety-four years, one month, and four days, daughter of Luther and Abigail (Phillips) Hatch.

On 6 Oct. 1844, Warren-B. Thomas, William Sherman and Ruth S. W. Sherman, his wife all of Marshfield, quit to Seth-J. Thomas of Charlestown, gentleman, all rights in estate of late father Bourne Thomas, late of Marshfield, deceased, Augusta Thomas, wife of Warren releasing her dower. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 238: 213.)

William Sherman was a farmer. He, aged 46, a farmer, appears in the 1860 census of Marshfield, with Abigail, aged 36 and Sarah-D., aged 16, in his family. In 1870 and 1880, he and his wife Abigail-P are living together in Marshfield. It is evident that he had no children by his second wife and only one by his first wife.

Child, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

i. SARAH-DINGLEY[7], b. 19 Apr. 1844; m. 18 Nov. 1869, Marshfield, JOHN-M. FORD, born about 1844, Marshfield, son of William and Clarissa-P. Ford.

160. EDWARD AUGUSTUS[6] SHERMAN (Humphrey[5], Richard[4], William[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 17 Oct. 1823, died there, 9 Dec. 1907, aged eighty-four years. He married in Rochester, 3 Jan. 1848, LOIS-CHURCH BENNETT, born there, 3 Aug. 1816, died there, 27 Aug. 1884, aged sixty-eight years, daughter of Joseph and Patience (Nye) Bennett.

Edward-Augustus Sherman was a farmer in Rochester. He appears in the census of 1850, there, aged 26, a sailor, with Louisa-C. aged 34; in 1860, Edward-A., aged 36, master farmer; Louise-C., aged 44; John-C., aged 9; Charles-C., aged 7; and Patience-J., aged four made up the family; in 1870, the household was the same but all ten years older; in 1880, Edward-A., aged 56, farmer; Louis-C. aged 63, his wife, Charles-C., his son, aged 27, a farmer; Patience-J., aged 24, his daughter; John-C., aged 30, a farmer; John-C.'s wife, Nancy-W., aged 24; and their daughter, Florence-M., aged 4, were living together. Nearly all the boys went to sea in their earlier years in the coast towns.

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

280. i. JOHN-CRANDON[7], by 8 June 1850; m. NANCY-WEBBER TABER.
ii. CHARLES-CARROLL, b. 1 Jan. 1853, d. 30 Jan. 1900, Malden; m. 22 Mar. 1880, Rochester, SARAH-W. HATHAWAY.
iii. PATIENCE-JOSEPHINE, b. 30 Oct. 1855, living 1920 in New Bedford, Mass.

161. LUTHER[6] SHERMAN (Gershom[5], Gershom[4], Gershom[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 13 Mar. 1813, died in Duxbury, Mass., 27 Dec. 1879, aged sixty-six years, nine months, and fourteen days. He married in Kingston, Mass., 31 Dec. 1835, AUGUSTA-C. BAKER, born in Duxbury, 8 Oct. 1817, died there, 13 Apr. 1891, aged seventy-three years, six months, and seven days, daughter of Elijah, Jr., and Betsey (———) Baker.

Luther Sherman went to East Bridgewater, before his marriage but returned to Marshfield before 1836. The next year he was living in Duxbury where he remained for the rest of his life.

On 1 June 1835, Polly Philips of Marshfield, singlewoman, sold to Luther Sherman of East Bridgewater, Tackmaker, all her real estate, and he "farm let . . . the same . . . to Polly . . . during her natural life . . ." and he promised to "decently support her . . . in a husband like manner . . .". Wit: Samuel Hall. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 180: 240.)

Luther Sherman of Marshfield sold (probably a mortgage deed) to Samuel Hall of Duxbury, shipwright, all the land in Marshfield conveyed to him by Polly Philips on 1 June 1835, she to have maintenance for life, 27 Jan. 1836. (ibid., 185: 212.)

Luther Sherman of Duxbury sold to Betsey Baker of Duxbury a cedar swamp in Pembroke which said Betsey had deeded to him in 1835, 2 Feb. 1837. Wit: Abner-L. Taylor. (ibid., 189: 201.)

Luther Sherman and Augusta-C. Sherman, both of Duxbury, convey to Samuel Hall of the same place, all the real estate in Marshfield that Polly Phillips deeded to said Luther, 1 June 1835, being the farm of Elisha Phillips, 15 Aug. 1838. (ibid., 196: 26.)

In 1850, Luther, aged 38, a shipwright, Augusta-C., aged 32, Luther-W. aged 14, Sally Delano, aged 78, and Amanda Baker, aged 25, made one family in Duxbury.

There was apparently but one child.

Child, born in Duxbury, Mass.:

i. LUTHER-W.[7], b. 8 Dec. 1836; m. 29 Jan. 1860, Duxbury, MARY-E. ATWILL, b. 1840, Duxbury, dau. of Samuel and Lydia (Churchill) Atwill. A mariner.

162. JACOB BARSTOW[6] SHERMAN (Gershom[5], Gershom[4], Gershom[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 17 Feb. 1824, died in Boston, Mass., 14 Mar. 1871, aged forty-seven years and one month. He married first, SABRA-C. LEWIS, born in Provincetown, Mass., in Aug. 1829, died in New Bedford, Mass., 5 Mar. 1850, aged twenty years and seven months, daughter of Almond and Hannah Lewis. He married secondly, probably in Boston about 1852, CHRISTIANA OSTMAN, born in England, 4 July 1823, died in Boston, 21 July 1873, daughter of Peter and Catherine-J. (———) Ostman.*

* Both Peter and Catherine J. Ostman are recorded as born in England.

By first wife, Sabra-C. Lewis,

i. Francis-Barstow[7], b. 2 Dec. 1849, d. 6 Apr. 1850, aged 5 months, Marshfield.

By second wife, Christiana Ostman, ii. Elizabeth-Jane, b. 29 Sept. 1853, Marshfield, d. 26 Feb. 1881, Boston.

iii. Christiana-Barstow, b. 5 Dec. 1854, Marshfield.

iv. A son, b. 9 Sept. 1856, Marshfield.

163. GERSHOM[6] SHERMAN (Gershom[5], Gershom[4], Gershom[3], Samuel[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 21 Apr. 1826, died there, 14 July 1907, aged eighty-one years, two months, and nineteen days. He married in Marshfield, 23 Nov. 1854, Ellen-Maria Rogers, born in Marshfield, 19 Feb. 1834, died in Malden, Mass., 17 Mar. 1904, aged sixty-nine years, two months, and twenty-eight days, daughter of Wales and Hannah (Little) Rogers.

He was a fireman in Boston and rose to be captain of company five. He returned to Marshfield after he retired from active work, living at Marshfield Hills where he is buried. He was a calker in youth.

Children, born in East Boston, Mass.:

i. Walter-G.[7], b. 28 Oct. 1856, d. 27 June 1875, aged 18 yrs., 9 mos., Boston.

ii. Hannah-Little-Rogers, b. 21 June 1858; m. 16 Nov. 1887, East Boston, William Bartley, born 1855, Boston, son of George W. and Susan R. Bartley. Child (Bartley), (1) Nellie.

164. ELISHA[6] SHERMAN (Deacon William[5], John[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., about 1777, baptised there with his brothers in 1781, died in Washington, D. C., in May 1806, aged "23" or "33", probably aged twenty-eight*. He married in Falmouth, Mass., 20 Jan. 1799, Tabitha Dimmick, born there, 26 June 1776, died there, 26 Aug. 1860, aged eighty-two years and two months, daughter of Gen. Joseph and Mary (Meiggs) Dimmick. She married secondly in Falmouth, 16 Jan. 1814, Elijah Bourne† who married first (published in Falmouth, 3 May 1795) Anna Green.

Children: ‡

i. Joseph[7], b. between 1799 and 1806, d. after 1813.

ii. Hannah, b. between 1799 and 1806; m. 30 Apr. 1825, ——— Phinney.

* It is probable that the age was twenty-eight, a three is often read as an eight and vice versa. The record of "33" is an evident error on someone's part as it would make him born before his parents' marriage in 1776.

† The only Elijah Bourne born in Falmouth before the marriage of Elijah and Anna (Green) Bourne was Elijah the son of John and Persis Bourne, b. 17 Aug. 1757. He would be aged thirty-three in 1788 and he has no son John nor daughter Persis. It is probable that Elijah Bourne, husband of Anna Green and Tabitha (Dimmick) Sherman was not the son of John and Persis.

‡ The Sherman children may have been born in Washington, D. C., as the father was there at the time of his death. They were both living in Falmouth when their grandfather, Deacon William Sherman, made his will in 1813.

By her second husband, Elijah Bourne, Tabitha (Dimmick) Sherman had, in Falmouth, iii. ANNA-GREEN BOURNE, b. 22 Feb. 1816.

iv. ANSELM-D. BOURNE, b. 25 Mar. 1819.

By his first wife, Anna Green, Elijah Bourne had, in Falmouth,

i. BARNABAS BOURNE, b. 6 July 1790.
ii. ELIJAH BOURNE, b. 9 Sept. 1795.
iii. SOLOMON BOURNE, b. 30 Dec. 1796.
iv. SUSANNA BOURNE, b. 19 Mar. 1798.

165. NATHANIEL[6] SHERMAN (Dea. William[5], John[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., in 1778, baptised there with his brothers, 23 Sept. 1781, was drowned in Nov. 1809, at sea, aged thirty-one years. He married (published in New Bedford, Mass., 15 July 1799) SALLY TERRY, born in Fairhaven, Mass., in Nov. 1776, died in New Bedford, 10 Jan. 1852, aged seventy-five years and two months, daughter of Benjamin and Mary (Eldridge) Terry.

Children:

i. BETSEY[7], b. about 1801.
ii. SARAH, b. about 1803.
iii. MARY, b. about 1805.

166. ZEPHANIAH[6] SHERMAN (Thomas[5], John[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 4 May 1792, bapt. there in the First church, 7 July 1793, died there, 28 Aug. 1833, aged forty-one years, three months, and twenty-four days. He married in Rochester, 9 Sept. 1821, MARGARET BONNEY, born there, 8 Sept. 1801, died there, 21 June 1880, aged seventy-nine years and eight months, daughter of Nathaniel and Lydia (McLaughlin) Bonney. She married secondly in Rochester, 31 Oct. 1844, Bradford Sherman, born in Rochester, 7 Aug. 1794, died there without issue, 10 Apr. 1863, son of Joshua and Sarah (Pope) Sherman.

Zephaniah Sherman was a housewright and farmer.

Thomas Bassett of Rochester, sold to Zephaniah Sherman of Rochester, land there, Abigail-M. Bassett releasing her dower, 29 Oct. 1819. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 140: 140.)

Zephaniah Sherman and Otis Sherman, both of Rochester, sold to Jesse Martin of Rochester, land there; Margaret, wife of Zephaniah Sherman releasing her dower, 7 Feb. 1822. (ibid., 148: 83.)

Zephaniah Sherman of Rochester, housewright, sold to Otis Sherman of the same place, gentleman, five cranes of salt works, 7 Feb. 1822. (ibid., 144: 254.)

Thomas Bassett Jr., of Rochester, sold to Bradford Sherman, Dennis Sherman, and Zephaniah Sherman, all of Rochester, land enough for nine cranes of saltworks, Abigail-M. Bassett releasing her dower, 19 Apr. 1822. (ibid., 145: 210.)

In 1823, James Snow, 2nd, of Rochester, was bonded to Zephaniah and Otis Sherman both of Rochester, the bond reciting that "whereas the above bounden James Snow has agreed to . . . support Thomas Sherman and Deborah Sherman his Wife, father and Mother of the said Zephaniah & Otis during their natural lives", etc. (ibid., 151: 29.)

Otis Sherman of Rochester, housewright, conveyed to Zephaniah Sherman of Rochester, one half the farm, "which I hold by deed from John Sherman of Rochester", 11 Oct. 1819. (ibid., 140: 159.)

Zephaniah Sherman of Rochester, housewright conveyed on the same day, 11 Oct. 1819, to Otis Sherman of Rochester, housewright, one half the land he had by deed from "my Father Thomas Sherman." (ibid., 140: 160.)

John-W. Sherman of Rochester, William-H. Sherman and Isaac-W. Sherman of New Bedford & Zephaniah-G. [T.] Sherman of Rochester by his Guardian Margaret Sherman of Rochester "quit to George-B. Sherman of Rochester their rights to a certain piece of land in Rochester with the housing, also a woodlot," formerly belonging to Zephaniah Sherman, late of Rochester, deceased, to which we are joint heirs with the said George B. Sherman," 26 May 1849. (ibid., 244: 236.)

Zephaniah Sherman died intestate.

Margaret Sherman, was bonded as administratrix on the estate of Zephaniah Sherman, late of Rochester, housewright, deceased, 6 Nov. 1833, her sureties being Thomas Sherman and James Ruggles. Her dower was assigned to her 4 Nov. 1834. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18207.)

With the same bondsmen, she was made guardian of her children John-Winslow Sherman, George-Bonney Sherman, William-Henry Sherman, Isaac-Whitney Sherman, Zephaniah-Thomas Sherman, all under fourteen, 6 Nov. 1833. (ibid., 18208.)

Her second husband also dying intestate, we find Margaret Sherman appointed 18 May 1863, administratrix on the estate of Bradford Sherman who died in Rochester, 10 Apr. 1863. The heirs were, the widow Margaret Sherman, Willis Sherman, of Rochester, a brother; Dennis Sherman of Rochester, a brother; Sarah-P. Sherman of Rochester a sister; and Urial Sherman of New Bedford, a brother. (ibid., 18090.)

Margaret Sherman died testate.

Garrison-B. Blackman of Rochester presented in Court that Margaret Sherman died in Rochester, 21 June 1880, leaving as heirs:

John-W. Sherman of Boston	children.
William-H. Sherman of New Bedford	children.
George-B. Sherman, Jr. of Rochester
Zephaniah Sherman of Brockton	grandchildren.
William-H. Sherman of Attleborough	grandchildren.
Mary Sherman of Waltham

In her will she calls herself "formerly the wife of Bradford Sherman," and gives to her son John-W. Sherman; her grandniece, Mary-W. Cromwell,* her 167. OTIS[6] SHERMAN (Thomas[5], John[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 7 Jan. 1794, died there, 25 Oct. 1875, aged eighty-one years, ten months, and eighteen days. He married in Rochester, 22 June 1822, RHODA SHEARMAN, born in Middleborough, Mass., 15 Dec. 1803, died in Brockton, Mass., 10 Apr. 1885, aged eighty-one years, four months, and twenty-five days, daughter of Job and Lucy (Thomas) Shearman.

Otis Sherman was a farmer in Rochester. He built a farmhouse not far from his father's and in 1922, it was occupied by his granddaughter. Rhoda Shearman was not a descendant of William Sherman. Her father, Job Shearman, was a son of Elkanah Shearman of Middleborough, who was a descendant of Philip Sherman†. Otis Sherman was also a carpenter. His brother Leonard Sherman married Anna Shearman, a sister of Rhoda's, and the two couples appear in the settlement of Job Shearman's estate. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18134, 18135.)

Otis Sherman appears in the census records of 1830 and 1840 as well as later ones. In 1850, the family comprised, Otis Sherman, aged 56, a farmer; Rhoda, aged 47; Phebe-T., aged 23; Job-N., aged 21; Eli, aged 19; Lucinda, aged 17; Charlotte-C., aged 15; and James-G.-B., aged 9. In 1860, it comprised, Otis aged 66; Rhoda aged 57;

* In his marriage record he is called son of "Bradford" and Margaret, an obvious error. In his death record he is called correctly son of "Zephaniah" and Margaret.

† A number of Philip Sherman's descendants spelled the name "Shearman" for several generations.

James-G.-B., aged 19, farm laborer; Job-N., aged 31, mariner; and Charlotte, aged 25, tailoress. In 1870, Otis aged 77, "at home", i.e. retired, and Rhoda, aged 66, were living alone. After his death his widow, Rhoda, made her home with her daughter Phebe in Brockton.

Otis Sherman of Rochester, housewright, conveyed to Zaphaniah Sherman of Rochester a farm tract of land held by deed from John Sherman of Rochester, 11 Oct. 1819; the same day, Zephaniah Sherman deeded to Otis Sherman, land conveyed to him, the said Zephaniah by his father, Thomas Sherman. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 140: 159, 160.)

Otis Sherman of Rochester, Gentleman, conveyed to Zephaniah Sherman of Rochester, housewright, land in Rochester, 7 Feb. 1822. (ibid., 149: 201.)

Otis Sherman of Rochester sold land there to Jesse Haskell of Rochester, 20 Apr. 1822. (ibid., 147: 147.)

Otis Sherman of Rochester sold land there to Henry Vaughan of Rochester, Rhoda Sherman releasing her dower, 15 Feb. 1839. Wit: Leonard Sherman. (ibid., 195: 163.)

168. LEONARD[6] SHERMAN (Thomas[5], John[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 13 Feb. 1800, died there, 10 Apr. 1871, aged seventy-one years, one month, and twenty-seven days. He married in Middleborough, Mass., 29 Nov. 1828, ANNA SHEARMAN, born in Middleborough, 23 Dec. 1805, died in Brockton, Mass., 16 Apr. 1885, aged eighty years, three months, and twenty-five days, daughter of Job and Lucy (Thomas) Shearman.

Leonard Sherman, a farmer, in 1841, sold land to Thomas Wood; his wife Anna releasing her dower. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 225: 240.)

He appears in the census of 1830 as a male between 30 and 40, with a female, between 20 and 30, and a male under 5 as his family. In 1840, he is between 40 and 50, his wife between 30 and 40 and he has a son and daughter between 10 and 15, a son between 5 and 10, and a son under 5. In 1850, Leonard Sherman, a farmer of Rochester, aged 50; Anna, aged 46; Elbridge, aged 17; and Joseph-L., aged 13, make up the family. In 1860 Leonard, aged 60, master farmer, with Anna, aged 54, Joseph-L. aged 22; John-W., aged 9; and Levi-W., aged 7, are all living together. In 1870, the family is the same with each ten years older, John-W., being called a shoemaker, aged 19. In 1880, Levi-W., aged 27, is living with Abraham Spooner, aged 68. The widow Anna was probably living in Brockton.

On 10 July 1871, Annice Sherman of Rochester, stated in Court that Leonard died 9 Apr. 1871 and left these heirs, herself, the widow Annice Sherman, and John-W. Sherman and Levi-W. Sherman, minor grandchildren of deceased, all of Rochester. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18148.)

169. THOMAS[6] SHERMAN (Thomas[5], John[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 17 Jan. 1804, died there, 15 July 1885, aged eighty-one years, six months, and eight days. He married in Rochester, 14 Apr. 1828, JANE-WEST BONNEY, born in Plympton, Mass., 13 Mar. 1807, died in East Bridgewater, Mass., 24 May 1893, aged eighty-six years, two months, and fifteen days, daughter of Nathaniel and Lydia (McLaughlin) Bonney.

Thomas Sherman was a farmer and carpenter in Rochester. He appears in the census of 1850 of that town as aged 46, a carpenter, b. Rochester, with this family: Jane, aged 43; Thomas, aged 17, a carpenter; Jane-M. aged 15; Nathaniel-B. aged 14; Emily, aged 6; and Lydia Bonney, aged 60, b. Kingston. In 1860, the family is listed as Thomas, aged 55, master farmer; Jane-W., aged 52; Nathaniel-B., mariner, aged 23; Emma-T., aged 15; Joseph-H. Cornwell,* aged 32; Jane-M. Cornwell, aged 25; Edward-H. Cornwell, aged 2; and Charles Cushing, aged 12. In 1870, he appears as "Tom" aged 66, farmer, worth $5500; Jane-W., aged 63, keeps house; Jane-H. Connell,* aged 35, at home; Edward-H. Connell,* aged 12; Mary-W. Connell,* aged 9; and Joseph-H. Connell,* aged 32.

No will was found for Thomas Sherman or his wife, Jane-West (Bonney) Sherman.

171. RICHARD[6] SHERMAN (Micah[5], John[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Orleans, Mass. 24 June 1791, died in Winterport, Maine, 6 Dec. 1856. He married in Winterport, 6 June 1824, ZEBIAH HOLBROOK, born in Frankfort, 8 Sept. 1800, died in Winter-

* James Smellie was born in Scotland. Juliana Parlow, his wife, was born in Rochester, Mass.

port, 9 Sept. 1894, aged ninety-four years, daughter of John Holbrook *.

Richard Sherman moved from Cape Cod to Winterport, Maine †, as a young man, probably about 1817.

Richard Sherman enlisted 19 Dec. 1814, as a private in Capt. Higgins' company, Col. Snow's regiment. (Mass. Militia in the War of 1812.)

His widow claimed a pension but he made no application for one.

The record shows that she was living in North Winterport, Waldo Co., Maine in 1886, aged 86 years old. She stated that Richard served in the company of Capt. Moses Higgins, Mass. regiment, and that his brothers Samuel, and Jonathan were in the same company. (Only Jonathan's name was found on the roll of Capt. Higgins' company, and he received a Bounty Land Warrant.) She also stated that Richard was born in Orleans, Mass., and lived there until he was twenty-six years of age. He enlisted at Rock Harbor, Orleans, having been called out for the battle there. Richard died in Winterport, Maine, Dec. 6, 1856.

Only one of his fellow soldiers was known to be living, he was very old and an imbecile (probably senile). This was probably Harvey-O. Sparrow, for in a letter to her daughter, widow Zebiah Sherman wrote, "Harvey-O. Sparrow of East Orleans was in the same Company that your father was in. He is over 90 years old."

Richard Sherman and Zebiah Holbrook were married by Thomas Snow, 6 June 1824.

David-J. Tribou and Isaac-N. Mayo had known Zebiah for 35 years and witnessed her signature. (Pension Record, W. O. 44140, War of 1812, Washington, D. C.)

He appears in several land records before 1850.

William Prescott of Boston, Esq., sells to Richard Sherman of Frankfort, 45 acres of land in Frankfort, 3 Sept. 1836. (Waldo Co., Deeds, 23: 277.)

Stevens Atwood of Frankfort sells to Richard Sherman of Frankfort, land there, 24 Oct. 1831. Wit: Thomas Snow, Ralph Ellingwood. (ibid., 22: 294.)

Moses Baker and Moses-B. Patterson of Frankfort sell to Richard Sherman of Frankfort all their rights in certain land there, 7 Apr. 1838. (ibid., 30: 272.)

Adino-P. Atwood of Bangor sells to Richard Sherman of Frankfort, land in Frankfort adjoining land on which said Richard Sherman now lives, 1 Jan. 1845. (ibid., 65: 507.)

Adino-P. Atwood of Bangor sells to Richard Sherman of Frankfort more land adjoining said Sherman's land, 6 May 1848. (ibid., 70: 7.)

Richard Sherman of Frankfort sells to John Trickey and William W. Cozzens an undivided ⅔ part of all rights in certain land there, Zebiah-S. Sherman releasing her dower, 26 Sept. 1849. (ibid., 68: 24.)

* In her death record she is said to have been born in Frankfort and her father to have been born in Wellfleet, Mass. (State Record.)

† Winterport was then called Frankfort.

Richard Sherman appears in the census of 1850 as a farmer of Frankfort, aged 58, born in Mass., with Zebiah Sherman, aged 50, born in Maine; Mercy Sherman, aged 25; Richard Sherman, aged 23, a farmer; Isa-C. [Isaac], aged 21; Eliza-S., aged 17; Jonathan, aged 14; and Franklin Holbrook, aged 11, all born in Maine, in his family.

Richard Sherman died testate:

He signed his will, 3 Dec. 1856, and in it gave to his wife Zebiah Sherman, certain property for life, and then to his eldest daughter Mercy Hardy; to oldest son Richard; to second son Isaac-H.; to daughter Eliza-S.; residue to son Jonathan, Wife Zebiah to be executrix. (Waldo Co., Probate, 248: 9.)

Children, born in Frankfort, now Winterport, Maine:

i. MERCY[7], b. 31 Mar. 1825, d. 29 Aug. 1877; m. 8 Nov. 1854, BENJAMIN HARDY. No children.

Thomas, began the manufacture of leather board in the Lower Paper Mill. Elmer-Alfred Sherman, son of Richard Sherman, Jr., and hence nephew of Isaac-H., succeeded Mr. Thomas, and the firm was given the name of Sherman and Company. Isaac-H. Sherman had no children.

vi. ZEBIAH-ANN, b. 3 Nov. 1839, d. 23 Mar. 1840, Frankfort.

172. JONATHAN[6] SHERMAN (Micah[5], John[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Orleans, Mass., 29 Mar. 1798, died in Eastham, Mass., 5 Aug. 1873, aged seventy-five years and five months. He married in Eastham, 1 Jan. 1824, MEHETABLE KNOWLES,* born in Orleans 25 July 1798, died in Eastham, 29 Dec. 1878, aged eighty years and six months, daughter of Robert and Lydia (Eldridge?) Knowles.

Jonathan Sherman settled in Eastham, Mass., after his marriage. He served in the second war with the British and according to members of the family received a pension in 1848. There seems some doubt about this. He applied for a pension as the records show:

Jonathan Sherman, wife Mehetable, Capt. Moses Higgins, Mass. Militia.

(Rejected—Service was rendered subsequent to Treaty of Peace, 17 Feb. 1815.)

* The death record of her son Amos Sherman gives his mother as Mehetable Eldridge but all the charts furnished by her descendants give her name as Knowles as does her marriage. There seems no reason to think she was a widow. Probably her mother's name was Eldridge.

"Barnstable Co., Mass., July 6, 1872, Eastham, Jonathan Sherman, aged 74, claimed service, from Sept. 2, 1814 to Dec. 24, 1814, with Capt. Moses Higgins." Wit: to signature, Michael-H. Harding, Carrie-K. Sherman. His wife was named Mehetable Knowles and they married 22 June 1824 in Eastham.

Jonathan was called out 2 Sept. 1814, to stand guard at Rock Harbor at Orleans. Service to be to closing of the Harbor or the closing of the War.

13 Sept. 1872, Supplemental statement; witnesses, Austin-B. Walker, Eliza-S. Harding.

"Other towns had paid tribute to the British as they had demanded. . . . Orleans refused and the British attempted to land at Rock Harbor about Dec. 19, 1814. The Militia was called out and a battle fought. One man (British) was killed and others wounded. Some twenty persons were taken prisoners and carried to Boston. Our vessels were taken by the English. The Government sent us a chest of fire arms."

The War Dept., did not find Jonathan Sherman's name on Capt. Higgins' Rolls. 23 Jan. 1873, Joshua Paine, Town Clerk of Eastham and Noah Doane testified that to their personal knowledge, Jonth Sherman served in Capt. Samuel Stinsons Co., "The enlistment was in Autumn of 1815."

1872, 8 July, a letter from Carrie-K. Sherman, Orleans, Mass., refers to her "father in law" and states that the Town Militia was in service previous to Sept. 22 when they were appointed a Guard at Rock Harbor, and the Militia existed after the close of the War. . . . "Father is too lame to go any distance. . . . He lives in Eastham; The house is just beyond the boundary line between Eastham and Orleans, and the Orleans P. O. is more convenient." *

1872, 22 Nov. A letter signed by Jonathan Sherman, apparently written by Carrie as he dictated it. He told the story of the encounter with the British in which they were worsted. One killed & two taken prisoners. A schooner taken by the British and manned by sixteen of their men was driven ashore off Yarmouth. Finding no way to get to Provincetown except (a neutral port) through Orleans they decided to surrender on the spot. This made eighteen prisoners.

Town Clerk's copy of Marriage Record:

Jan. 1, 1824, Jonathan Sherman & Mehitabel Knowles. (Rev. Philander Shaw.)

Death record, Aug. 5, 1873, Jonathan Sherman.

1878, Mehetabel Sherman of Eastham, aged 80; (Jonathan Sherman had said that he received a Bounty Land Warrant but could not state the number.) applied for a Bounty Land Warrant under the act of 3 Mar. 1855, Witnesses, Jonathan Higgins, Abner Freeman.

1879, 16 Dec. In reply to a query of the Comm^{r} of Pensions, the Postmaster, Amelia Snow, Orleans, Mass. stated that Mehetable Sherman had resided there but died soon after making her application.

174. WILLIS[6] SHERMAN (Joshua[5], John[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 15 Nov. 1792, died there, 2 Nov. 1866, aged seventy-four years, eleven months, and thirteen days. He married in Rochester, 2 Dec. 1821, ANNE-G. CLARK, born there, 21 Aug. 1796, died there, 22 Sept. 1877, aged eighty-one years, one month, and one day, daughter of Isaac and Anna (Delano) Clark.

Willis Sherman was a farmer in Rochester.

Willis Sherman bought land and buildings in Rochester from William Harlow and his wife Betsey of Middleboro, 19 Dec. 1820, and more land there from Nathan Sears and Hannah his wife, 1 Nov. 1822. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 142: 257; 147: 143.)

Willis Sherman of Rochester, quits to Bradford Sherman and Dennis Sherman, land in Rochester being his part of the estate of his father, Joshua Sherman of Rochester, deceased, 5 Apr. 1819. (ibid., 154: 63.)

Willis Sherman, aged 58, appears in the census of 1850 of Rochester with this family, Anna, aged 54; Lucy, aged 27; Sarah, aged 22; Sophronia, aged 21; Henry-W., aged 19; Mercy-M., aged 17; Elizabeth-P., aged 12. In 1860, the family consisted of Willis, aged 68; Anna-G., aged 63; Sarah, aged 32; and Henry-W., aged 29. In 1870, Willis having deceased, Anna, aged 73, was the head of a family having in it, Sarah, aged 42, and Henry-W. aged 39.

175. JABEZ[6] SHERMAN (Jabez[5], William[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., about 1777, died after 1820. He married about 1800, MARY ———, born in Windsor, Vt., about 1775–1780, died, probably in New York State, after 1820.

Jabez Sherman may have continued to live in Easton when his father left for Chester. The census record for Chester in 1820 lists a Jabez, aged over 45, with a female aged over 45, and one between 16 and 26 in his family. This probably refers to Jabez, Jr., but possibly was his father. It is possible that after 1805, Jabez, Jr., went out of the eastern counties and hence nothing further has been found about him. A son of his came back to Massachusetts and died in Boston.

i. AMANDER-B.[7], b. May 1805, Easton, N. Y. d. 16 Mar. 1872, aged 66 yrs., 10 mos., Boston, Mass., unm. His death record states that his father was Jabez, birthplace unknown, and his mother was Mary, b. in Windsor, Vt.; he is called "gentleman".

176. HEMAN[6] SHERMAN (Jabez[5], William[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., probably about 1779, died, probably in Queensbury, N. Y., after 1850. He married MARTHA ———, born in Rhode Island in 1783, died after 1850.

Heman Sherman was living in Warrensburgh, Warren Co., N. Y., in 1820, the family being 1 male above 45 (Heman); 1 female between 26 and 45 (Martha); 2 females under 10; 1 male under 10. In 1850,

* In 1851, he was aged 25 and she was aged 36, so she was eleven years the elder.

Heman, aged 71, b. in Mass. was living in Queensbury with Martha, aged 69, b. in Rhode Island.

On 21 May 1849, Heman Sherman of Queensbury and Martha, his wife, sell to Silence Thompson of Queensbury, land there. (Warren Co., Deeds.)

Children:

i. A son[7], b. between 1810–1820.
ii. A daughter, b. between 1810–1820.
iii. A daughter, b. between 1810–1820.*

177. RESOLVED[6] SHERMAN (Jabez[5], William[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., in 1781, died after 1850, probably in Chester, N. Y. He married, before 1820, MARY ———, born before 1794, died between 1840 and 1850.

Resolved Sherman was baptised in Rochester with his brothers and sister. His father took him to Chester, N. Y., where he apparently married and lived the greater part of his life.

Resolved Sherman appears in the census of 1820 in Warrensburgh, N. Y., with a family listed as one male between 26 and 45 (himself); one female between 26 and 45 (Mary); one male between 16 and 26; one male between 10 and 16; one female between 10 and 16; and five females under 10. In 1840 the family contained one male and one female, between 50 and 60 (Resolved and Mary); one female between 80 and 90; three females between 20 and 30; one male between 15 and 20; and one male between 10 and 15. In this year his sister, Thankful Sherman is also listed as a householder in Chester. In 1850, Resolved Sherman, aged 69, a farmer, had in his family, Joseph Sherman, aged 26; Keziah Sherman, aged 24; Harry Sherman, aged 24 carpenter and joiner; and Emmons Austin, aged 9.

In the census of 1810, he was probably the Resolved Sherman, living in Greenwich, whose family was one male and one female between 26 and forty-five (himself and wife); one female, between 16 and 26 (probably Thankful Sherman); one male and one female under 10.

Resolved Sherman and Mary his wife of Warrensburgh, N. Y., conveyed on 7 Mar. 1820, land there, to Elijah-J. Howe of Chester, N. Y. (Warren Co., Deeds, J: 188.)

On 11 Oct. 1830, Resolved Sherman of Chester and Mary, his wife, deed all right to land between the East and Middle branch of the Hudson River to Paul-S. Dillingham. Wit: Ezra-B. Smith, Phebe Sherman. (ibid., F: 478.)

Resolved Sherman and Mary his wife of Chester, Warren Co., convey to Lyman Jenks, land in Chester, 12 Apr. 1837; on 9 May 1828, Edward Wilcox and Abiah his wife and Lucretia Wilcox of Chester sell land there to Resolved Sherman; on 24 Dec. 1836, Resolved Sherman and Mary his wife of Chester, convey land there to Harris Hotchkiss. (ibid., J: 201, 228, 336.)

* Names of Shermans of Queensbury, about this time to 1850, were Burdon Sherman and wife, Hannah; Stephen Sherman and wife, Miriam; Stephen-C. Sherman and wife, Lydia; James Sherman and wife, Hannah; Asa Sherman; Nathan Sherman; Augustus Sherman; Justus Sherman and his wife, Hannah (Brown), but none of the deeds give any clue to the relationships that probably existed.

On 22 Nov. 1836, Resolved Sherman and Mary his wife of Chester convey land there to Martin Mead, wit: by Charles Higby, Clarissa Sherman. (ibid., Q: 436.)

22 Apr. 1837, Resolved and Mary Sherman of Chester sold land there to Benjamin-F. Wilson. (ibid., M: 97.)

30 Sept. 1841. "This indenture made the thirtieth day of September . . . one thousand eight hundred and Forty one Between Resolved Sherman and Mary his wife of Chester . . . New York of the first part and Clarissa Sherman of Chester . . . of the second part Witnesseth that in consideration of a Life Lease Executed to them by the said party of the second part" . . . [they confirm to Clarissa] "All that Certain Lot . . . of Land Situate . . . in Chester." (ibid., L: 484.)

On 1 May 1849, Clarissa Sherman of Chester conveyed to Joseph-P. Sherman and Harvey-P. Sherman, land in Chester, lot, 26, great lot 8. (ibid., Q: 297.) This was the land conveyed to her by Resolved and Mary, who had probably agreed that it be transferred to their sons.

It is extremely probable that Clarissa Sherman was an old lady, as she made a life lease in return for the land given her and probably she was either step-mother or sister to Resolved.

No will was found in Warren Co., for Resolved Sherman.

Children:

i. A son, b. prob. about 1803.
ii. A son, b. prob. about 1805.
iii. A daughter, b. prob. about 1807.
iv. A daughter, born about 1811.
v. A daughter, born about 1813.
vi. A daughter, born about 1815.
vii. A daughter, born about 1817.
viii. A daughter, b. about 1819.
ix. Joseph-P., b. 1824, prob. m. Keziah ———, b. 1826.
x. Harvey-P., b. 1826; m. Martha-E. ———, res. 1857, Glen's Falls.

One of these sons may have been Stillman-W. Sherman who was in Chester from 1835–42 buying and selling realty. In one deed, 6 Feb. 1838, he sold to Silence-W. Sherman. (Warren Co., Deeds.) One of the daughters was probably the Phebe Sherman who witnessed a deed of Resolved's in 1830.

178. MARTIN[6] SHERMAN (Cornelius[5], William[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 5 Aug. 1789, baptised in the First church there, 12 Sept. 1790, died in Rochester, 2 Dec. 1878, aged eighty-nine years, three months, and twenty-seven days. He married in Rochester, 8 June 1830, Cynthia (Mendall) Davis, born there, 13 Sept. 1796, died there in Dec. 1873, daughter of David and Jane (Dexter) Mendall. She married first in Rochester, 13 Nov. 1826, Nathan Davis, born there, 28 Feb. 1793, died there, 16 Feb. 1827, aged thirty-three years, son of Nicholas and Hannah (Pope) Davis.

Martin Sherman was a yeoman farmer and lived in Rochester all his life. After he reached his majority, he bought in the real estate of his father, who had died about five years earlier. His mother and his stepfather, as guardians of the minor children, sold him their share in 1817; his unmarried sister, Temperance, sold her share to him in 1812; his brother, Bartlett Sherman, sold him his share in 1824; and his sister Delia as follows:

Elisha Braley of Rochester conveys to Martin Sherman of the same all his right in his wife's being heir to the estate of her father Cornelius Sherman, deceased, with her part of her mother's dower, 24 Nov. 1812; Dilla Braley signs also. Wit: Stillman Hall, Tempa Sherman. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 27: 43.)

Jabez Gorham of Rochester, tailor, conveys to Martin Sherman of the same place, a meadow there bounding on Joshua Sherman; Thankful Gorham releasing her dower, 2 Sept. 1811. Wit: William Sherman, Rebecca Sherman. (ibid., 127: 42.)

Martin Sherman of Rochester, yeoman, and Cynthia his wife in her own right convey to Seth Pope of Rochester, gentleman, all the land in Rochester which the said Pope mortgaged to Cynthia Davis, now Cynthia Sherman, and wife of Martin Sherman, 8 Oct. 1832. Wit: Otis Sherman. (ibid., 178: 122.)

In 1860, Martin Sherman aged 69, master farmer and Cynthia aged 63, were living together in Rochester. In 1870, he aged 79 and she aged 73, were apparently living with the family of James-Gillespie-Burney Sherman.

Children, born in Rochester, Mass.:

i. LUCY[7], b. 7 Apr. 1831, d. 26 Mar. 1833, aged 1 yr., 11 mos., 19 days.
ii. MARY, b. 19 Nov. 1832, no m. or d. found for her.
iii. JULIA-H., b. 5 Oct. 1835, d. 2 Mar. 1845, aged 10 yrs., 4 mos., 27 days.

179. BARTLETT[6] SHERMAN (Cornelius[5], William[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Rochester, Mass., 29 Jan. 1801, died there, 12 Apr. 1874, aged seventy-three years and two months. He married in Rochester, 6 June 1824, MALINTHIA HAMMOND, born there, 29 Oct. 1805, died in Fairhaven, 3 Oct. 1883, aged seventy-seven years, eleven months, and four days, daughter of "Charity Hammond"*.

Bartlett Sherman appears in the census of Rochester for 1850 as aged 50, a laborer, born Rochester, Mass., his family being Melynthia, aged 45; Charles-H., aged 25, a carpenter; Malynthia-G. T., aged 21; William-L., aged 19, a laborer; Benjamin-F., aged 18, a carpenter; Edwin-A., aged 15; Theodore-T. aged 13; and Susan-A., aged 11.

* The death record of Malinthia (Hammond) Sherman gives her no father and her mother as Charity Hammond. It is probable that she was a daughter of Sylvenus and Charity (Benson) Hammond, who had children in Rochester from 1786 to 1792, and then have no more recorded. Illegitimate children were very apt to be recorded, and Malinthia's birth is not entered on the records.

In 1860, Bartlett Sherman, aged 60, was living by himself and Malinthia was living with Charles, Theodore, etc., her children. In 1870, Bartlett was still living alone. The only deed in which he appears was when he sold his inheritance to his brother.

Bartlett Sherman of Rochester, conveys to Martin Sherman of same, land in Rochester (which he held through a deed from Jonathan Westgate, deceased, of Rochester, dated 1822). He defends his brother Martin against all claims on the estate excepting any made by Abiel Nelson and Delia Westgate, 5 May 1824. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 150: 247.)

vi. EDWIN-A., b. 9 Oct. 1834, d. 27 Feb. 1863, unmarried. He left a will, dated 29 Sept. 1857 in which he mentions his "beloved mother", wife of Bartlett Sherman; his sisters, Malinthia-G. Taber, wife of James Taber, and Susan Sherman; his brothers, Charles-H. Sherman, William-F. Sherman, Benjamin-F. Sherman, and Theodore-T. Sherman.

* The death records of Charles-Henry and his wife were filed by an Austin Sherman of Middleborough. Letters to him were neither answered nor returned.

† Hugh Allen was b. in Scotland, Jane Ellis was b. in Lubec, Maine.

‡ The death record of William-Francis Sherman was filed by ——— Sherman, a son, of Medford, Mass. In 1912, Alton-C. Sherman was living in Medford and, in 1926, he was still living there. Letters to him were neither answered nor returned. It is probable that he was identical with Elton-H. Sherman.

NOTE.—There were probably children born to some of these sons and daughters of Bartlett Sherman, but it has been impossible to locate descendants and when the person filing the death records has been sent a letter in self-addressed envelope it has neither been returned nor answered.

180. FREDERICK[6] SHERMAN (Isaac[5], Samuel[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Wells, Maine, 8 May 1795, died there, 27 Feb. 1858. He married in Wells, 17 May 1818, ELIZABETH GARDNER, born in Maine, died after 1860.

Little can be learned of the activities of Frederick Sherman. In 1860, Elizabeth Sherman, aged 64, born in Maine, was head of a household in Wells, with a family consisting of Mary-A. Lowell, aged 28, "servant"; Sarah-R. Lowell, aged 9, born in Mass.; Henrietta Lowell, aged 6, born in Maine; and Emma-E. Lowell, aged 3, born in Maine. As Mary-A. Lowell was her daughter it is strange that she should be called her servant.

Children, born in Wells, Maine:

i. HARRIET[7], b. 18 Sept. 1818.

ii. JOSEPH, b. 25 Mar. 1821.

iii. MARY-A., b. 1832; m. 7 Apr. 1851, No. Bridgewater, SIMON LOWELL, b. 1827, Washington, N. H., probably died between 1857–1860, son of John and Rebecca (Cheney) Lowell. Children (LOWELL), (1) Sarah-R., b. 1851; (2) Henrietta, b. 1854; (3) Emma-E., b. 1857.

181. IVORY[6] SHERMAN (Isaac[5], Samuel[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Wells, Maine, 30 Sept. 1797, died, probably at sea, in 1819. He married in York, Maine, 18 Mar. 1814, SALLY YOUNG, born about 1791, died in York, 23 Nov. 1849, aged fifty-eight years, daughter of John and Hannah (Banks) Young.

Ivory Sherman was a mariner. In 1817 he was living in Kittery, removing later to York.

Jeremiah Bradbury of York was appointed guardian of Parthenia and Sally Sherman, minors under fourteen, children of Ivory Sherman, late of York, deceased, 27 Nov. 1819. (York Co., Maine, Probate Records, 27: 174.)

Sally Sherman died testate.

Sally Sherman of York, widow, in her will made 4 Oct. 1849, proved 1 July 1850, gave one-half of her estate to her daughter, Parthenia Goodwin, wife of Charles-E. Goodwin, and her children; and one-half to her daughter Sally Goodwin wife of James Goodwin and her children. She made Caleb Eastman, executor and George Williams of York, blacksmith, trustee. Wit: James-S. Douglas, Alexander McIntire. (ibid., 65: 189.)

Children, possibly born in Kittery, Maine:

i. PARTHENIA[7], b. about 1815, d. 23 June 1851, aged 36, York; m. (pub. 12 Nov. 1847, York) CHARLES-E. GOODWIN, b. 1826, probably son of John-W. Goodwin. No children in 1850.

ii. SALLY, b. about 1817, d. 15 Sept. 1854, aged 37 years, York; m. (pub. 30 Nov. 1844, York) JAMES-W. GOODWIN, b. 1811 son of Timothy and Dorcas (Moulton) Goodwin. No children in 1850.

182. ISAAC[6] SHERMAN (Isaac[5], Samuel[4], John[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Wells, Maine, 25 Sept. 1803, died in Boothbay, Maine, in February 1887, aged eighty-four years. He married first about 1840, SARAH CROSS, who died about 1844. He married secondly in Augusta, Maine, 22 Oct. 1846, MARY-JANE DEARBORN, born in Jefferson, Maine, June 1829, died in Boothbay, 9 Aug. 1893, aged sixty-four years and two months.

Isaac Sherman was a farmer. He appears in the census of 1860 in Edgecomb, Maine, aged 48, with wife, Mary-A., aged 30; Nathaniel-C., aged 17; William-H., aged 12; and Sarah-J., aged 9. His age is evidently entered wrongly, as he was fifty-seven but possibly he had given the impression that he was younger because he was so much older than his wife and she may have furnished the enumerator with the ages. He seems to be a little uncertain about his real age in every census wherein he appears. In 1870, still of Edgecomb, he gives his age as sixty [should be 67]; Mary-J., his wife, aged 42; Isaac-G. aged 30, a sailor; William-H., aged 32 [should be 23], a fisherman; Sarah-J., aged 20, in domestic work; and Grace-M. aged 3, being the members of his family. In 1880, he is listed as aged 73 [should be 77], born in Maine, father born in Massachusetts, and mother born in Maine; while his wife, Mary-J., aged 52, his son, Isaac-G., aged 37, and his son, William-H., aged 30, were all born in Maine, as were also the parents of all three.

After his first marriage he lived in Boothbay for awhile and then went to Augusta where he stayed until after 1854. He then moved to Edgecomb where he remained for over twenty-five years moving shortly before his death to Boothbay, possibly to live with his son Isaac-Greenleaf Sherman.

He left no will and no administration was taken on his estate.

Children, born in Boothbay and Augusta, Maine:

By first wife, Sarah Cross,

i. ISAAC-GREENLEAF [7], b. 5 Apr. 1842, Boothbay, d. 20 Jan. 1907, there; m. 3 Sept. 1894, Boothbay Harbor, MRS. LUCY-JANE MERRY. He was a sailor in youth but later became a painter. No children found.

ii. NATHANIEL-C., b. 1843, aged 17 in 1860, possibly died unmarried.

By second wife, Mary-Jane Dearborn,

295. iii. WILLIAM-HARTWELL, b. 2 Aug. 1847, Augusta; m. EVA DODGE.

iv. SARAH-JANE, b. 16 June 1850, Augusta; m. JOSEPH-BURNELL [8] SHERMAN.

v. MARIA, b. 15 May 1852, Augusta, d. 9 Aug. 1854, there.

183. PRINCE[6] SHERMAN (Prince[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], John[2], William[1]), born probably in Ware, Mass., about 1777, death not known. He married MARGARET LACEY, born in Ireland, died in Toronto, Can.

Prince Sherman was a cooper. He lived in Edwardsburg now the town of Cardinal, Ontario.

Children:

i. MARGARET [7],* b. possibly about 1820; m. HENRY MCCULLOUGH.

296. ii. IRA, b. 11 Dec. 1826, Perth, Can.; m. SARAH-JANE SMITH.

iii. JOHN, b. 1828, d. 1 Oct. 1914; m. ELLEN-F. SMITH. Charts sent to his son Judson were not returned by the postal service nor by him.

184. PHILO[6] SHERMAN (Prince[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Hinesburgh, Vt., 14 May 1787, died in Leeds Co., Ont. Can.†, 29 (sic) Feb. 1861. He married in Bastard, Ont., 15 Sept. 1806, BEULAH KNAPP, born probably in New York, 12 Jan. 1792, died in Leeds Co., Ont. 18 Mar. 1851, daughter of Ebenezer and Lydia (Marks) Knapp.

Ebenezer Knapp, father of Philo Sherman's wife, married secondly Christiana Bailie, and, after his death, evidence for some reason was desired to prove his first marriage. His will and the documentary evidence of his first marriage are given here to prove the parentage of Beulah Knapp, her descendants seeming in doubt as to her parentage.

* Margaret is not given on the chart sent in by her grandniece, but is put on the chart sent by her nephew.

† He died probably in Bastard, but possibly in Kitley.

"A Memorial to be registered pursuant to the Statute in such case made and provided of a will in the words following that is to say:

In 1935, some old papers were discovered in the farmhouse once occupied by Philo Sherman and sent to the compiler of this genealogy. They consisted of a will, a deposition in fragments, a receipt, and an indenture. The will was one made by Philo (or as he spelled the name Philow) Sherman. The deposition related to Ebenezer Knapp, the receipt was from his widow, and the indenture one between Israel Knapp and Philo Sherman. Later another piece of the deposition was discovered by another search. These papers are all given here: In nearly all the wills of these Canadians it will be seen that no attempt is made to name all the heirs. Apparently the sons were given land by deeds or in some way their claims against their parent's estates were satisfied before the wills were drawn and then the testator gave the residue to whom he pleased.

The deposition after the fragments found were aligned reads as follows:

noch Palmer of the town of ty, being duly Sworn, before the Justices of the Peace of Said county aforesaid, makes Oath and says—that he was well acquainted with Ebenezer Knapp, formerly of the town of Chatham aforesaid and latterly of Upper Canada, a colony of Great Britain, and knew Said Knapp, in Canada aforesaid lived aneighbour to him, both in Chatham and in Canada: and he also further Says—that he was well acquainted with his Wife when said Ebenezer Knapp married hir by the name of Lydia Marks that the said Ebenezer Knapp was married to the Said Lydia Marks about forty one or two Years ago and this deponent further says—that he was present at their marriage and was married by Samuel Wheeler Esquire then an acting Justice of the peace of the town of Canaan in Said County of Columbia, and further this deponent Saith not

Philow Sherman

The will and other papers of Philo Sherman will be quoted later.

Philo Sherman evidently lived, until after his children were all born, in the township of Kitley. Just when he removed to Bastard is not known but probably the land given by Ebenezer Knapp to his daughter Beulah was more advantageous than the holdings of Philo in Kitley. He appears there in a census of Kitley, taken 1 July 1812, as a male between 16 and 50 years of age, with two males under 16 and one female in his family. That is, himself, his wife Beulah, a son who died before 1828 and his son Ebenezer.

He served in Capt. Jeremiah Day's company of militia, in 1822, 1823, 1824, 1825, being "under 40".

Either he or his son Valentine-William-Orrison Sherman purchased a Bible, it being H. & E. Phinney's Stereotype Edition, published at Cooperstown, N. Y., 1835. It is probable that it belonged to Philo Sherman and descended to this son. It is badly worn and torn in some places, destroying some of the dates. It is now in the possession of Rev. Glen-W. Sherman of Clinton, Ont., who made a literal copy of the entries and that they may be preserved and available to any descendant, this copy is placed here.

BIRTHS
Ida Lenora Derbyshire
born May [17th 1861*]

Bion Bernard Derbyshire
born Jan, [26th 1860*]

It seems probable that the Bible was at one time in the possession of Maria (Sherman) Derbyshire, daughter and eldest child of V.-W.-O. Sherman and that, about 1861, it passed out of her possession into that of John-Alexander Sherman, father of the present holder, for the last two Derbyshire children born in 1864 and 1866 are not entered in it.

On 3 Jan. 1829, Uri Scovill sold to Philo Sherman, for £100, 100 acres of land in Bastard. (B. & S., p. 15.) On 16 Oct. 1844, Philo Sherman sold this same land to Orre Knapp for £250. (A. K. 118, B. & S.)

On 9 Feb. 1849, he sold for £200 one hundred acres in Bastard to his son Valentine-W.-O. Sherman. (A. K. 217, B. & S.)

Among the old papers was a letter which speaks for itself:

"Kings College Office
Toronto 26th April 1838

Mr. Philo Sherman

I received Your letter of the 21st Inst. respecting lot N°. 2 in the 10th Con of Bastard and I can not but express my Surprize that you should have taken possession of it without due Authority for it might have been promised to some other person. As that however, fortunate for You is not the Case you will be confirmed in the occupation of it, upon paying up whatever Rent may have accrued since you took Possession, and a satisfactory Certificate must be transmitted to this Office (Charge free) signed by 2 or 3 reputable Neighbours, stating the Period you have occupied it—The College Leases are for 21 Years from the time of taking Possession of the Lot The Rates are 10 Dollars p annum, 20 Dollars p annum & 30 Dollars p annum for the respective Periods of 7 Years each—None of the College Lots are sold under 20s P acre

I remain
Yours & c
Jos. Wells
Bursar of Kings College."

This letter is folded and addressed on outside:

"Mr Philo Sherman
2. 10th Concession Bastard
Post Office
Kings College Officer Farmersville"

There is no stamp for at that time the receiver paid the postage.

The old will was made when he was a comparatively young man. It apparently was never recorded and possibly was never taken to court. It is inscribed on the outside "Mr Sherman's" and under that is printed "P. Sherman's will." No later will is found in the registry.

"In the name of God Amen I Philow Sherman of Bastard in the County of Leeds in the district of Johnstown and Province of Upper Canada yeoman being somewhat sick of body but of sound and perfect mind and memory blessed be God for all his mersies, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following revoking all others ——

Firstly I give demise and bequeath to my Son Ebenezer Sherman his heirs and assigns forever the Westerly half of that farm now occupied by James Kilborn being the South West Quarter of Lot Number Two in the Ninth Concession of Bastard containing fifty acres——————————

Thirdly to my daughter Julian Sherman I give demise and bequeath to her and her heirs forever the Northerly half of that farm occupied by Cyrus Spencer being the front half of the rear half of Lot Number Seven in the eight (sic) Concession of Bastard containing fifty acres.

Fourthly I give demise and bequeath to my daughter Lydia Adeline Sherman and her heirs forever the Southerly half of said farm now occupied by Cyrus Spencer being the rear half of Lot Number Seven in the Eighth Concession of Bastard containing fifty acres.

Fifthly I hereby publish and declare that the above demised and bequeathed real estate shall not come into the possession nor be possessed by any of my children to whom it is respectively demised untill the expiration of the following times namely that Ebenezer Sharman shall come into the possession of the land bequeathed to him when Valantine William O. Sherman shall attain the full age of Twenty one years and not before—that Valantine William O Sherman shall come into the land be queathed to him when he attains the age of Twenty one years and not before and the Girls shall come into possession of that bequeath (sic) to the(m) when the(y) (sic) attain the age of Eighteen years respectively

Sixthly I give demise and bequeth to my beloved Wife Beulah Sherman that farm on which I now live during her natural Life being part of the East half of Lot Number Seven in the Ninth Concession of Bastard Containing Seventy five acres and at the death of said Beulah I bequeath the said farm on which I now live to my youngest child Thirza Sharman and her heirs forever

Seventhly I give demise and bequeath to the said Ebenezer Sherman Two cows shortly due from Francis Kinnaird and Eighteen Sheep shortly due from Cyrus Spencer and likewise a yoke of Two year old oxen now in the possession of Cyrus Skinner

Eightly I give demise and bequeath to the said Valantine Sherman when he becomes of age a yoke of young oxen a cow and five sheep

Lastly I give demise and bequeath to my beloved Wife Beulah Sherman for the use and bringing up of the family all the residue of my personal property together with the rents and profits of the lands and tenements already bequeathed untill such times as they shall respectively come into the possession of the Children to whom they are bequeathed and likewise all my stock, farming utensils and debts

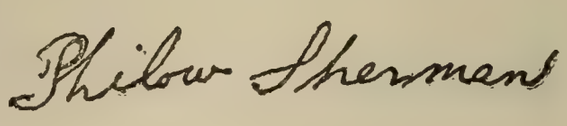
I hereby nominate Constitute and appoint my beloved wife Beulah Sherman and my friends Ithamer Knap and israel Knap executrix and Executors to this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other and former wills by me made

Signed Sealed Published and declared as the last Will and Testament of the above mentioned Philow Sherman the Twentieth day of April one thousand Eight hundred and Thirty in presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names in presence of each other and of the Testator



John Blakely, Elias-A. How, Roxcy-A. Day.

It is evident that Philo Sherman had more children than he entered in the Bible. Those who died before its purchase are omitted. The census shows that he had two sons in 1812, the Bible shows but one birth before that date. The long gaps between the children suggests that there were others who died very young.

Children, born in Kitley, Leeds Co., Ont.:

i. A son [7], b. about 1808, d. between 1812 and 1828.

ii. EBENEZER, b. 27 Oct. 1810, d. 29 Jan. 1849; m. 15 May 1836, ——— ———. The Bible merely gives the date of marriage. If he left children the family now living seem to know nothing of them.

186. THOMAS [6] SHERMAN (Prince [5], Samuel [4], Samuel [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Hinesburg, Vt., or Kitley, Ontario, Canada, about 1792, died, probably in Bastard, Ontario, between 21 Nov. 1843 and 17 Jan. 1844. He married, probably in Bastard about 1818, JANE MCCLURE, born in county Kerry, Ireland, probably about 1795–1800, died after 1875, parents unknown. She married secondly between 13 Aug. 1844 and 4 Jan. 1854, Ezra * Lillie, who died between 16 June 1874 and 4 Nov. 1875.

Thomas Sherman settled in Bastard after his marriage, probably in the village of Plum Hollow. He, under forty years of age, served in Capt. Jeremiah Day's company of militia in 1825.

The following deed of his is on record:

"A Memorial † to be registered pursuant to the statute . . . of an indenture dated the seventeenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty three made between Philow Sherman of the Township of Bastard County of Leeds and district of Johnstown and province of Upper Canada yeoman of the one part and Thomas Sherman of the Town County district and Province aforesaid yeoman of the other part purporting to be a deed of bargain and sale whereby the said Philow Sherman for and in consideration of the sum of fifty five pounds lawful money of Upper Canada hath granted . . . unto the said Thomas Sherman his heirs and assigns forever all . . . that certain tract or parcel of land being the front end of Number Nine in the Ninth Concession of Bastard . . . containing fifty acres . . . which said Indenture . . . is witnessed by Ezra Lillie of Bastard yeoman and the Memorial thereof is hereby required to be registered by me Philow Sherman the grantee therein mentioned. As witness my hand and seal this twenty eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty four. Signed and Sealed in presence of John Blakely, Ezra Lillie." Signed "Phillow Sherman" (Seal).

* Last will and Testament of Ezra Lillie, of the Township of Bastard, yeoman, dated 16 June 1874, witnessed by Ephraim Haskin and Eleanor Haskin, Registered 4 Nov. 1875. He gave to grandsons Byron-D. Lillie and Wilbert-E. Lillie, premises where dwelling house now stands; remainder of real estate to son Orson-V. Lillie and grandson Paul-Lewis Lillie, also land to sons Orson-V. and William-T. Lillie. Personal Estate to be divided between said sons, Orson-V. and William-T. Lillie, equally, excepting household goods and furniture of every description which is willed by "my beloved wife Jane Lillie" to be disposed of as she thinks proper. (Book 6, No. 128, Registry of Wills, Brockville.)

† In Canada, they do not just make a literal copy of a will or deed but copy up the provisions of such a legal transference and it is then sworn to by a witness.

"The within Named Ezra Lillie maketh oath and saith that he was personally present and saw the within Memorial signed and sealed and the deed to which it relates duly executed. Ezra Lillie."

"Sworn before me at Brockville the 5th day of February 1844 David Jones Register." (Registry of Deeds, Brockville, Can.)

On the outside of the deed was written, "Received the deed of which this is a Memorial, 4 January 1854, Philo Sherman, Jane X Lillie, her mark." (Registry of Deeds, Brockville, Ont., Liber S. 303.)

This deed from his brother seems to be the only item of his history to be found. He is said to have had a family Bible but it has not been located if in existence. He died testate and left his property to his only son. Doubtless he had portioned off each daughter when they married.

"A Memorial to be registered . . . of a will dated the twenty first day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty three made by Thomas Sherman of Bastard . . . yeoman of and concerning all the freehold estate of the said Thomas Sherman in the words following. I give demise and bequeath to my beloved wife Jane Sherman all my real or freehold estate with all the privileges and appurtenances to the said freehold estate belonging during her natural life or as long as she may continue a widow after my decease. I also give demise and bequeath to my son Philo Sherman his heirs and assigns forever the reversion of the said estate being all my freehold property lying in the ninth concession of Bastard aforesaid being parts of lots Numbers Nine and Ten as described in certain deeds of bargain from Philo Sherman, Rebecca Wood and Charles Tackaberry to me respectively The said landed property not to come into the possession or enjoyment of the said Philo Sherman my son before the death or marriage of the said Jane Sherman my wife which said Will is witnessed by John Blakeley of Bastard Esquire and Ezra Lillie of Bastard yeomen and Eleanor Lillie of Bastard spinster and this Memorial thereof is hereby required to be registered by me Jane Sherman one of the devise and Executrix in the said will mentioned as witness my hand and seal this seventeenth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty four. Signed and sealed in presence of John Blakely, Ezra Lillie 187. THOMAS [6] SHERMAN (Reuben [5], Samuel [4], Samuel [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Ware, Mass., 30 June 1792, died there, 17 Oct. 1856, aged sixty-four years. He married in Ware, 21 May 1820, LOVISA GOULD, born in Ware, 12 Feb. 1792, died there, 18 Aug. 1866, aged seventy-four years, daughter of David and Lovisa (Downing) Gould.

Thomas Sherman was a yeoman farmer and lived throughout his life in Ware. In 1814, he served under Capt. Ephraim Scott in the Ware company.

He appears in the following deeds:

Thomas Sherman of Ware, yeoman, conveys to Joseph Cummings of Ware, gentleman, land bounding on Reuben Sherman, 4 Mar. 1820. Wit: Joseph Cummings, Judah Crosby. (Hampshire Co., Deeds, 45: 454.)

Thomas Sherman of Ware sells to Earl Sherman of Ware, two pieces of land there, Lovisa Sherman releasing her dower, 29 Nov. 1826. Wit: William Hatten, Saml Daughaty. (ibid., 56: 479.)

Joseph Cumming of Ware quits right to certain land there to Thomas Sherman, Sally Cummings, releasing her dower 21 Nov. 1826. Wit: Sophronia Cummings, Sarah Cummings. (ibid., 55: 330.)

Thomas Sherman of Ware mortgaged to the Massachusetts Hospital Life Insurance Co., a certain farm on which he then lived in Ware, bounded on Earl Sherman and others, being 140 acres and buildings, Lovisa Sherman releasing her dower, 30 Nov. 1826. Wit: Joseph Cummings, Minerva Gould. (ibid., 49: 746.)

We, David Gould and George Gould both of Groton, Tompkins county, N. Y., Gentlemen, and Samuel Gould, yeoman, and Thomas Sherman, yeoman, and Lovisa Sherman, Seamstress, and Joel Rice, Gentleman, and Margaret-J. Rice, Seamstress, and Minerva Gould, Single-woman, all of Ware, quit to Downing Gould and John Gould, both of Ware, all right in the real estate of which Lovisa Gould, late of Ware, deceased, died seized, which descended to her as an heir of John Downing, late of Ware, deceased, 3 Jan. 1827. Wit: Joseph Cummings, Estes Cummings, Solomon-B. Davis, Anna Sherman, Lodicy Pearl. (ibid., 55: 483.)

Thomas Sherman of Ware, yeoman, conveys to Ephraim Richards of Enfield, land in Ware, being land formerly owned by Earl Sherman and subject to a mortgage, 6 Apr. 1829. Wit: Epaphras Clark. (ibid., 62: 59.)

* This is stated by the family but the State records of Mass., fail to substantiate it. In 1888, Melissa and her family were living in New Jersey.

Reuben K. Eveleth of Enfield, yeoman, sells to Thomas Sherman of Ware, yeoman, land in Ware, bounded on Thomas Sherman and Swift River, 11 June 1831. Wit: Epaphras Clark, Ruth-M. Clark. (ibid., 67: 12.)

Thomas Sherman of Ware, yeoman, sells to Willard Aldrich and Hiram Aldrich of Ware, land there, bounding on Thomas Sherman, Aaron Gould, Solomon Welch, and Ellis Hall, Lovisa Sherman releasing her dower. Wit: David-G. Sherman, et al. (ibid., 76: 421.)

Thomas Sherman of Ware leases to Dorcas Sherman of Ware, single woman, the south square room in the house now occupied by the said Thomas Sherman, for her to occupy as long as she remains unmarried, 31 Mar. 1840. Wit: L. Marcy, Royal Bosworth. (ibid., 104–437.)

Thomas Sherman died intestate.

Lovisa Sherman petitions for administration upon estate of Thomas Sherman of Ware who died 17 Oct. 1856, she being his widow. Administration was granted her and she gave bond, with Aaron Gould and Estes-F. Tisdale as her sureties, 25 Oct. 1856. On 1 Mar. 1858, she enters a petition in court stating that she is the widow of Thomas Sherman of Ware, deceased; that she is sixty-six years of age, is sick with the palsy and has one minor son, aged 20 years and asks that provision for necessaries may be granted to her from the estate; witnessed by Mary Sherman. On 2 March, Lovisa Sherman, by her attorney Thomas-F. Sherman, petitioned for power to sell the personal estate and, 13 March, her dower was assigned her.

Lovisa Sherman was discharged by the court as administratrix, in May 1858. She had had a paralytic stroke. She had two sons of age, one settled in Alabama and the other then in California. Otis Lane was appointed Administrator de bonis non, and the estate declared insolvent. Among the creditors were Elizabeth-W. Sherman, Thomas-F. Sherman, and Mary Sherman all of Ware. (Hampshire Co., Probate, Box 246.)

Otis Lane of Ware, administrator de bonis non of the estate of Thomas Sherman of Ware, deceased, sells the real estate of Thomas Sherman and the reversion of the widow's dower to Thomas-F. Sherman of Ware, 130 acres, boundaries given in a deed, 10 Oct. 1793, from Thomas Legate to Reuben Sherman and from Reuben Sherman to Thomas Sherman, dated 16 Feb. 1814, the land being in Ware and subject to a mortgage to Ephraim Richards, the widow's dower, "and also to an incumbrance in favor of Dorcas Sherman", 28 Dec. 1858. Wit: W.-S.-B. Hopkins.

He married first in Ware, 6 Mar. 1824, ANNA PEARL, born 1800, died in Ware, 15 Aug. 1841, probably daughter of John and Achsah (———) Pearl. He married secondly in Belchertown, in 1843 or 1844, CATHERINE WHITMAN, born in 1803, died in Ware, 30 Dec. 1845, aged forty-two years, daughter of Capt. James and Catherine (Smith) Whitman. He married thirdly, in Stafford, Conn., 19 July 1846, CHLOE-H. THOMPSON, born in New Hampshire, in 1817, parents and death not found.

* Dr. Warren-Sheldon Webb was the youngest of fourteen children. He joined the Baptist church when about eighteen. Being graduated from Colgate with degree A.B., in 1849, he was in that year induced to take charge of an academy in Tennessee. Soon after he was married and ordained. It was his purpose to devote his life to the ministry but receiving an invitation to the presidency of Grenada Female College, Grenada, Miss., he went there, arriving 1 Sept. 1851. Six year later he left Grenada having so built up the college that it was the largest school for girls in the State. For the next fourteen years he served as pastor in several parishes, finally being elected to the presidency of Mississippi College. It was entirely due to the efforts of this very fine man that the college survived at all.

† Dr. Warren Sherman Webb, educated at Mississippi College and Louisville Medical School, became a practising physician but died 29 Mar. 1921. He m. 23 Nov. 1898, Emma-Antoinette Reiter, b. 23 July 1875, Memphis, Tenn., dau. of Henry and Augusta (Ritter) Reiter. Mrs. Webb has been most helpful to the compiler. She has two sons, Warren-Sherman Webb, Jr., b. 25 Oct. 1900, Memphis, and Henry-Reiter Webb, b. 2 Mar. 1903, Memphis; m. Marie Rippetoe, and two grandchildren, Henry-Reiter Webb, Jr., b. 7 Jan. 1929, and Haven-Noel Webb, b. 25 Dec. 1930, both in Memphis.

‡ Murray Latimer B.S., B.A., M.A. is professor of Greek at Mississippi College. He was born in Crawford, Copiah Co., Miss., in 1872, son of John-Francis and Adeline (Lewis) Latimer, was educated at Mississippi College and the University of Chicago. He married 3 June 1900, Lura-Myrtle Webb, who died 27 Dec. 1913, leaving four children, (1) Murray-Webb Latimer, b. 6 Jan. 1901; (2) John-Francis Latimer, b. 16 May 1903; (3 & 4) Margaret & Catherine Latimer, twins, b. 19 Aug. 1910. Professor Latimer has also been most helpful.

Earl Sherman mortgaged his farm in Ware in 1826, his wife Anna releasing her dower. (Hampshire Co., Deeds, 49: 746.) He sold land there to Thomas Sherman of Ware, wife Anna releasing, 28 Mar. 1829. (ibid. 60: 621; 64: 12.)

Earl Sherman of Ware, yeoman, sold to John Wilder of Ware, yeoman, "A certain farm situate in Ware aforesaid . . . bounded . . . beginning at Thomas Sherman Southwest corner on the East Bank of Swift reiver so called from thence Easterly on the South line of said Thomas Sherman's farm," etc., Anna Sherman, wife of Earl, releasing her dower, 4 Oct. 1828. (ibid., 60: 214.)

Earl Sherman of Ware quits to Mark Doolittle of Belchertown, all right to certain land in Belcherton, 10 Dec. 1829. (ibid. 61: 528.)

It is probable that Earl Sherman and his family left Ware and did not return there for a number of years. He was apparently living in Vernon, Conn., about 1839. He appears in the Census of 1850 as a resident of Ware, aged 56, a laborer, born in Mass., his family being: Clower [Chloe], aged 33, born in N. H.; William, aged 15, born in Mass.; Cordelia-A., aged 2, born in Mass.; William Akers, aged 18, a laborer, and John Ward, aged 14, a laborer.

No will or administration of Earl Sherman has been found.

Children:

By his second wife, apparently no children.

By his third wife, Chloe Thompson,

v. CHARLES, b. 19 Feb. 1847, Ware, d. 4 Apr. 1847, aged 1 mo., 15 days.
vi. CORDELIA-A., b. 31 Mar. 1848.

Possibly there were other children but no public record has been found of their births or deaths.

189. SNOW [6] SHERMAN (Ebenezer [5], Samuel [4], Samuel [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Ware, Mass., 25 July 1789, died there, 21 Apr. 1847, aged fifty-seven years and nine months. He married in Warren, Mass., 30 Jan. 1816, BETSEY COLLINS, baptised in Truro, Mass., 2 Dec. 1792, died in Ware, 1 May 1872, aged seventy-nine years, daughter of Treat and Sarah (Cobb) Collins.*

No clue to the parentage of Betsey Collins existed in Hampshire or Hampden counties. The deed following, found in Maine, pointed to Suffolk County, Mass., but even after the will of Ebenezer Collins and the deeds in Suffolk County were read, no proof existed. The vital records of Truro gave the clue which finally placed Betsey on her family tree.

Snow Sherman and Betsey Sherman, wife of said Snow Sherman, both of Ware, for $1,000.00 paid them by Susan Collins of the city of Boston, Mass., widow of Ebenezer Collins, dec'd, late of said Boston, quit to her all right to the real estate of said Ebenezer Collins, wheresoever situate; also the following quit to her for their rights, John Dyer of Provincetown and Hannah-B. Dyer,

* It was so difficult to find the parents of Betsey Collins that it may be well to show the proof of her parentage. Working forward it is easy, working backwood it was arduous.

TREAT COLLINS, son of Benjamin and Jerusha (———) Collins, born 16 Feb. 1748–49, Truro, living 1826. He married in Truro, 7 April 1774, SARAH COBB. Their children born and baptised in Truro were:

i. RICHARD, b. 30 Nov. 1774, bapt. 9 Apr. 1775, prob. died young.
ii. EBENEZER, b. 21 Mar. 1777, bapt. 4 May 1777, died young.
iii. SARAH, b. 14 Mar. 1779, bapt. 9 May 1779; m. (pub. 16 Jan. 1798, Truro), JOSHUA DYER. Their son John, b. 13 Nov. 1802, d. 15 May 1885, Provincetown, aged 82 yrs., 6 mos., 2 days; m. Hannah-B. Sanborn, b. Hampton, N. H., d. 4 Apr. 1883, Provincetown, aged 73 yrs., 9 mos., and 11 days. He was evidently the only surviving child in 1844. Sarah was living in 1822.
iv. FREEMAN-COBB, b. 28 Apr. 1782, bapt. 2 June 1782.
v. ABIGAIL, b. 7 Oct. 1784, bapt. 27 Mar. 1785, d. 2 Sept. 1838, aged 54, Worcester; m. (1), about 1807, ——— SHERBROOK, who d. before 1815, probably in Belchertown; m. (2), 26 Jan. 1815, Palmer, SAMUEL FLEMING, b. in Palmer, d. there, 13 Nov. 1871, aged 98 years, son of David and Sarah (Longhead) Fleming. Children (SHERBROOK) by first husband, (1) Freeman, b. about 1810, of Syracuse, N. Y., 1844; (2) Susan, b. about 1812; m. 31 Dec. 1832, Hosea Pease, of Belfast, Maine, in 1844; (FLEMING) by second husband, (3) John, b. abt. 1816; m. 7 May 1840, Palmer, Lucy Monroe; (4) Elizabeth, b. about 1817; m. bef. 1844, George-C. Leach; (5) Sarah-M., b. about 1819; m. John Allen before 1844; (6) George, b. 1820, d. 20 Sept. 1822, aged 2 yrs.; (7) George, b. 1822; m. 29 Oct. 1845, Palmer, Melissa Keith; (8) Sylvanus, b. about 1824; (9) Samuel-L., b. about 1826; (10) Henry, b. 1829, d. 18 Jan. 1830, aged 1 yr. Palmer. Some of these children may have been twins as they all signed a deed in 1844.
vi. SYLVANUS, b. 29 July 1787, bapt. 23 Sept. 1787.
vii. BETTY, bapt. 2 Dec. 1792, birth not recorded; m. SNOW SHERMAN.
viii. EBENEZER, bapt. 19 July 1795, birth not recorded, d. 29 Oct. 1844, aged 49, Boston; m. 25 Nov. 1823, Dudley, SUSAN TYSON.

When this record is compared with the deed that furnished the clues it is evident that the parentage of Betsey or Betty Collins is proven. (State Vital Records, Palmer, etc., Vital Records, Truro Vital Records, Suffolk Probate and Deeds, Waldo Co., Maine Deeds.) his wife; Freeman Sherbrook of Syracuse, N. Y. and Mary-Ann Sherbrook his wife; Hosea Pease and Susan Pease, his wife, of Belfast, Maine; George Fleming of Palmer; George-C. Leach and Elizabeth, his wife, of Boston; John Allen and Sarah-M., his wife, of Lynn; Sylvanus Fleming of Palmer; Samuel-L. Fleming of Cambridge; and John Fleming and Lucy, his wife, of Palmer, 19 Nov. 1844. (Waldo Co., Maine, Deeds, 51: 442.)

Ebenezer Collins of Boston made his will, 4 Sept. 1826, proved 10 Feb. 1845, gives to wife Susan Collins, she to be executrix; to three sisters, each $5.00; to parents annually, $90.00, on decease of one then the other to receive $60.00 per year. (Suffolk Co., Probate, 34188.) The will was filed in 1844 but the heirs objected to the probate, 10 Dec. 1844. Susan evidently settled with them and the will was finally proved. At the time of Ebenezer's death apparently his parents were deceased and only his sister Betsey Sherman was living the other sisters being represented by their children.

There are also in Suffolk Co., Mass., a number of deeds pertaining to the property of Ebenezer Collins, being quitclaims of the heirs to Susan Collins, the widow, and to each other. The references for these are, vol. 533; 96, 118, 134, 135, 267; vol. 536: 11, 236; vol. 538: 30, 85; vol. 537: 285; vol. 563: 190; vol. 568: 110, 111; and vol. 691: 193. This last deed is the mortgaging of the land and buildings in Boston that belonged to Ebenezer Collins, by the widow Susan Collins of Braintree, 14 Dec. 1855, which mortgage was satisfied in 1862. Snow Sherman and Betsey his wife are the grantors in 533: 135; 538: 85; and 563: 190.

These deeds are all similar to the ones at Belfast, Maine.

There are a few deeds recorded in Hampshire County pertaining to Snow Sherman.

Snow Sherman of Ware, yeoman, conveys to Josiah Woodward of the same place, land on the road to Enfield, Betsey Sherman releasing her dower, 10 Mar. 1818. Wit: Ebenezer Sherman, Ebenezer Collins. (Hampshire Co., Deeds, 42: 557.)

Snow Sherman of Ware quits to Ebenezer Sherman of Ware all right to certain land there, 27 Feb. 1819. (ibid., 32: 302.)

Snow Sherman of Ware, yeoman, conveys to Ebenezer Sherman of Ware, all his right to more land in Ware, 14 Nov. 1829. (ibid. 61: 472.)

After Snow Sherman's death, his widow continued to live in Ware where she had already purchased property.

Joseph Hartwell of Ware conveys to Betsey Sherman, the wife of Snow Sherman land and buildings in Ware, occupied by the widow of William Page as dower in his estate Clarissa Hartwell releasing her dower, 13 Apr. 1845. (ibid., 109: 180.)

Joseph Harding of Ware sells to Betsey Sherman of Ware, widow, land in Ware Village Elizabeth Harding releases her dower, 7 Sept. 1847. (ibid., 121: 137.)

Betsey Sherman "(a widow of Ware)" sells Helen Chilson land in Ware on Bank St., 19 Dec. 1863. (ibid.)

Betsey Sherman died testate.

"I Betsey Sherman of Ware . . . do this tenth day of July [1861] . . . make this my last will and Testament.

I hereby constitute and appoint my son Freeman C. Sherman now of Brookline in this State to be Sole Executor of this my last will . . .

I give devise and bequeath to each of my children, Elizabeth Livermore, Charles Sherman, George Sherman, Freeman Collins Sherman and to the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society each an Equal share of the proceeds of My Real Estate . . .

I give and bequeath to my daughter Eliza Livermore and to my son Freeman Collins Sherman, All my personal estate". Wit: Francis DeWitt, George H. Cutler, Charles Phipps.

Freeman-C. Sherman of Worcester represents in Court that Betsey Sherman of Ware died 1 May 1872, leaving no husband and as her heirs at law and next of kin:

Eliza Livermore, wife of Winthrop Livermore of Spencer, daughter.

Charles Sherman of Red Bluff, Calif., son.

Another son George Sherman died last Sept. leaving a widow and four minor children who now live in Wyandotte, Kansas.* The widow's name is Elizabeth Sherman.

And your petitioner, a son, who prays for probate of the will, June 1872. (Hampshire Co., Probate, Box 215; paper 340.)

Freeman C. Sherman of Worcester, executor of the last will of Betsey Sherman of Ware, sells to Arvin Warren, the real estate of the said deceased on the corner of Bank and High Sts., in Ware, 26 Sept. 1872. (Hampshire Co., Deeds, 301: 509.)

He married in Carver, Mass., 5 May 1802, MARY BARROWS, born in Plympton, 3 Dec. 1781, died probably in Middleboro' before 1850, daughter of Andrew and Sarah (Perkins) Barrows.

A year or so before his death Jabez Sherman moved to Middleborough. He was a hatter.

Jabez Sherman of Carver sells to Caleb Lucas and Warren Lucas of Carver, all his homestead farm there, bounded on Eliab Warren and the Barrows, Mary, releasing her dower, 9 Mar. 1831. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 170: 284.)

On 7 Oct. 1832, Jabez Sherman of Carver conveys to Jabez Sherman Jr., of Middleborough all his real estate in Carver and all his stock of hats and his tools. (ibid., 183: 231.)

He died intestate and insolvent.

Administration on the estate of Jabez Sherman of Middleborough, deceased, intestate, was granted to Mary Sherman, his widow, who gave bond with Elbridge-G. Alden and Edson Ellis, 6 Oct. 1835. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18131.)

* In 1849, the widow Betsey Sherman had the four starred children recorded in Ware, evidently all of her family who had survived to that date.

† The births of Jabez and his wife Mary are recorded in Carver, a town set off from Plympton in 1790. As they were both born before that date, they were born in Plympton and the entry on the Carver record must have been made much later than the dates of their births.

* The following erroneous record might make one conclude that Levi Sherman was married twice but that is not so: Elista Sherman d. Carver, 5 Sept. 1873, aged sixty-nine years (b. 1804), daughter of Levi Sherman and Phebe Vaughan. (Mass. State Record.) This is probably twisted, for she was the daughter of Levi and Phebe (———) (Dunham) Vaughan. Elista is evidently a mistake for Calista, born 23 Aug. 1804, who m. Andrew Sherman.

192. MICAH [6] SHERMAN (Rufus [5], John [4], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Plympton, Mass., 28 Feb. 1783, died in Carver, Mass., 18 Feb. 1868. He married in Carver, 1 Apr. 1804, MERCY RANSOM, born about 1786, died in Carver, 24 Apr. 1842, in her fifty-seventh year, probably daughter of Joseph and Lydia (Thomas) Ransom.

Micah Sherman appears in the census of 1850, as a farmer in Carver, aged 67 yrs.; with Lucy Faxon, aged 38; Lucy-M. Faxon, aged 13; Lydia Sherman, aged 26, and Albert Sherman, aged 21, as his family. In 1860, he aged 77, had Polly Faunce, aged 73, as housekeeper, and his son Albert-A., aged 31, a moulder, living with him.

Micah Sherman of Carver held by a deed from his honored mother Lydia Ransom, her homestead farm in Carver, she to have full enjoyment of the premises during her life, 23 Mar. 1813. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 124: 12.)

John and Deborah Barrows sold land in Carver to Micah Sherman, 27 Apr. 1821. (ibid., 143: 115.)

Micah Sherman of Carver, yeoman, conveyed to Lucy Sherman, relict of Rufus Sherman, deceased, of Carver, the share of the latter's estate that he received as an heir of said Rufus, 7 June 1850. (ibid., 238: 104.)

Children, born in Carver, Mass.:

He married about 1830, CHARLOTTE BRANDENBURG, born in Beverley, Mass., about 1810, died in Raynham, Mass., 26 June 1896, aged eighty-five years, eight months, and eighteen days, daughter of Christian and Rebecca (Woodbury) Brandenburg.†

Only one child found, born in Boston, Mass.:

315. i. NATHANIEL-B.[7], b. 6 Oct. 1833; m. ELIZABETH-COFFIN PARKER and ANNA (MCLEAN) MANSFIELD.

198. CHARLES [6] SHERMAN (Asa [5], John [4], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Plympton, Mass., 29 Apr. 1802, died there, 24 Mar. 1882, aged seventy-nine years, ten months, and twenty-four days. He married in Plympton, 3 Oct. 1852, LUCY-B. KITTERELL, born in Kingston, Mass., 6 Feb. 1817, died in Plympton, 25 Oct. 1866, aged fifty years, eight months, and nineteen days, daughter of Joshua-Parker and Lucy (Bryant) Kitterell.

Charles Sherman did not marry until he was fifty. In 1850, he was living with his brother Zacheus. In 1860, Charles Sherman, blacksmith, aged 58; Lucy aged 44; Mary-S., aged 7; Charles-H., aged 4, and Nelly-W., aged 2, were living in Plympton. In 1870, Charles, aged 68; Polly-S., aged 17; Charles-H., aged 14; and Nellie-W. aged

* In the census of 1860, Algernon-S. Sherman aged 28, a farmer, Nancy, aged 69, [his mother] and Sarah-C., aged 11 [his niece] were living together. In 1880, Algernon-S., aged 49, had as housekeeper, Mary-C. "Bird", aged 39, and her son Edwin-A. "Bird" was living with them. It seems apparent that this name was copied wrongly and should be Reed and that it was probably this same Mary C. Reed whom Algernon-Sidney Sherman married thirty years later.

† Charlotte's father was born in Prussia, her mother was the daughter of Curtis and Bethia (Lovitt) Woodbury.

12, are listed and in 1880 Charles, aged 78, a farmer ill "with consumption" was living with his son Charles-H., aged 24.

199. GEORGE [6] SHERMAN (Asa [5], John [4], William [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Plympton, Mass., 5 Aug. 1803, died there, 20 Apr. 1847, in his forty-fourth year. He married first, in Plympton, 7 Oct. 1824, BETSEY DREW, born in Plymouth about 1804, died in Plympton, 15 Dec. 1833, aged twenty-nine years, ten months, and twenty-seven days*, daughter of Nicholas and Azubah (Wood) Drew. He married secondly in Plympton, 28 May 1837, BETSEY-ROBBINS ELLIS, born in Carver, Mass., 10 July 1809, died in Elmira, N. Y., 12 Jan. 1887, aged seventy-seven years, daughter of James and Susanna (Vaughan) Ellis.

George Sherman did not live to appear in the 1850 census. In that year, his widow, aged 42, was living in the almshouse, but probably not as a pauper. She may have been housekeeper there. In 1860, she was living in Wareham, aged 51, with her daughter Susan-M. aged 14, and Joseph Ellis, aged 45, the head of the household being apparently, Hannah Weston, aged 58, her sister, the wealthy widow of Daniel Weston, Jr. of Wareham. Joseph Ellis was Betsey's brother.

George Sherman of Plympton, conveyed to John Sherman, Jr. of Plympton, a woodlot there, that he bought of Isaac Loring, Betsey releasing her dower; 8 Sept. 1832. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 176: 46.)

George Sherman of Plympton, yeoman, conveyed to Oliver Parker and Henry-L. Thomas, of Plympton, a woodland there, "the same conveyed to me by will from my Hon[d] Father Asa Sherman, deceased," 12 Apr. 1837. (ibid., 191: 278.)

* This age is given on her gravestone, the town records give the same date of death but her age as thirty years, nine months, and twenty-seven days.

George Sherman of Plympton conveyed to Alfred Murdoch of Carver, land and buildings in Carver, "it being the same farm that Alfred Murdoch purchased of Betsey and Hannah Ellis by deed formerly owned and occupied by James Ellis, Esq. deceased," 10 Apr. 1837. (ibid., 186: 271.)

George Sherman of Plympton, yeoman, sold to Barzillai-E. Wright, of Plympton, tract of land that formerly belonged to his father, Asa Sherman, deceased; 12 Apr. 1837. (ibid., 191: 182.)

George Sherman of Carver *, "Innholder, or farmer," sold to Capt. Lathrop Barrows the farm and buildings which he purchased of Alfred Murdoch, Betsey-R. Sherman releasing her dower; 3 Apr. 1838. Wit: John Sherman, Hannah Ellis. (ibid., 193: 161.)

George Sherman of Plympton sold to Jonathan Parker of Plympton, all real estate formerly belonging to Asa Sherman, deceased, of Plympton, excepting what he (George) had already sold, Betsey-R. Sherman releasing her dower; 2 Apr. 1838. (ibid., 196: 168.)

George Sherman of Plympton sold to Henry Sturtevant of Raynham, the "farm where I now live in Plympton", referring to father Asa Sherman, deceased; Betsey-R., wife of George, and Polly Sherman, widow of Asa, both release their dowers in the property; 7 Oct. 1843. Wit: Zacheus Sherman. (ibid., 218: 21.)

George Sherman of Plympton conveyed to Jonathan Parker of Plympton, land in Plymouth and Carver near Darby pond, Betsey R., his wife, and Polly, the widow of Asa Sherman, both releasing their dowers, 7 Oct. 1843. (ibid., 211: 179.)

George Sherman and Betsey-R. Sherman sold to Thomas Sturtevant of Halifax, a saw mill in Plympton, 1 Jan. 1846. (ibid., 216: 197.)

Betsey-R. Sherman of Plympton, widow of George Sherman deceased, sold to Winslow Bradford of Plympton, land and buildings there formerly owned by Gideon Bradford, 18 May 1849. (ibid., 236: 31.)

Apparently George Sherman sold little by little all he had inherited and his wife's property. He never purchased any real estate so far as the records show. He left no will and no administration was taken on his estate.

200. EBENEZER[6] SHERMAN (Capt. John[5], John[4], William[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Plympton, Mass., 20 Apr. 1788, died in Carver, Mass., 17 Dec. 1864, aged seventy-six years, seven months, and twenty-seven days. He married (published in Carver, 5 Apr. 1815) ABIGAIL MORTON, born in Carver, 5 July 1793, died there, 20 Sept. 1856, aged sixty-three years, daughter of Job and Patience (Crooker) Morton.

Ebenezer Sherman was a farmer. He is listed in the census of 1850 as a resident of Carver, aged 62; with wife, Abigail aged 57; Abigail, aged 29; Marcus-M., aged 19; and Ebenezer, aged 15. In 1860, Ebenezer Sherman, aged 72, a farmer, was living with Abigail Sherman, aged 38, who was keeping house.

He served in the War of 1812 with Great Britain.

He appears in the land records several times before 1850.

201. JOHN[6] SHERMAN (Capt. John[5], John[4], William[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Carver, Mass., 14 Apr. 1791, died in Plympton, Mass., 30 Apr. 1845, aged fifty-four. He married first in Nov. 1813, ELEANOR BARNES, born in Plymouth, Mass., 26 Nov. 1794, died in Plympton, 4 Aug. 1827, aged thirty-two years, eight months, and eight days, daughter of William and Mercy (Carver) Barnes. He married secondly in Plympton, 24 May 1829, SALLY (RANSOM) MORTON, born in Carver, 4 Dec. 1793, died in Plympton, 15 July 1859, daughter of Benjamin and Rebecca (Phinney) Ransom, Sally Ransom married first (published 2 Jan. 1813, Carver), Nathaniel Morton of Plymouth.

* The Vital Records or Carver (printed) give the date, 15 Aug. for the birth of the twins. A nephew of theirs gave the date, 5 Aug. instead.

John Sherman moved back to Plympton and was identified with that town. He bought land there in 1824, selling his property in Carver.

John Sherman, Jr., of Carver, sold to Ebenezer Sherman of Carver, undivided half part of land which he, the said John Sherman Jr., bought of Isaac Dunham; his part of a cedar swamp in the great lot in South meadow; and his right in a pew which he purchased of Dunham; Ellen, his wife, releasing her dower; 28 Feb. 1824. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 152: 62.)

Isabella Thomas, widow, John-B. Thomas, Esq., and Joshua-B. Thomas all of Plymouth convey to John Sherman, Jr., of Plympton, land there, Mary, wife of John-B. Thomas releasing her dower; 3 Mar. 1824. (ibid., 151: 83.)

After Eleanor's death, John was appointed guardian of their minor children, Lydia, Mercy, Eleanor and Betsey-W. Sherman, 2 Dec. 1833, and after his death, his widow was made guardian of their daughter, Sally-Ransom Sherman.

Administration on the estate of John Sherman, late of Plympton, deceased, was granted to Henry Sherman of Carver, who gave bond in court with Anthony Sherman and Reuben Sherman of Carver as sureties. His heirs were his widow Sally-R. Sherman, and Betsey-W. Sherman, John Sherman, Eleanor Saunders, wife of John-C. Saunders, Mercy-C. Vaughan, George Sherman and Lydia Sherman, widow, and they appear in the division of his estate.

Sally Sherman, of Plympton, made her will, Jan. 1859, proved 1859. She gave to her daughter Rebecca-F. Averill, wife of Alexander-M. Averill; to daughter Sally-R. Sherman, wife of George-W. Sherman, residue to son John Sherman and he to be executor. Wit: Henry Sherman, Nelson Sherman, Anthony Sherman. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18181.)

202. REUBEN[6] SHERMAN (Capt. John[5], John[4], William[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Carver, Mass., 28 Mar. 1797, died in Plymouth, Mass., 25 Apr. 1879, aged eighty-two years and twenty-eight days. He married in Carver, 4 Nov. 1821, PRISCILLA-PALMER HAMMOND, born in Carver, 3 Aug. 1804, died in Plymouth, 23 Feb. 1887, aged eighty-two years, six months, and 20 days, daughter of Benjamin and Hannah (Sturtevant) Hammond.

Reuben Sherman apparently spent his life in Carver, his children being recorded there but the first two also being found on the Plympton records. It is probable that he was for a few years living in the latter town and, after his return to Carver, entered all his children on the Carver records. He appears in the following deed:

Hannah Hammond of Carver, widow of Benjamin Hammond, late of Carver, deceased, conveys to son Benjamin Hammond, of Carver, yeoman, all her dower in certain premises in Carver, and Josiah-S. Hammond, physician, of Plympton, Benjamin Ransom, Lucy Ransom, Reuben Sherman, Priscilla Sherman, Hannah-S. Hammond, and George Hammond all of Carver quit all right in saw mill, two pews, etc., of honoured father, Benjamin Hammond, to Benjamin Hammond, 5 Aug. 1840. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 199: 80.)

Children, recorded in Carver, first two probably born in Plympton:

i. ELIZABETH-D.[7] [or B.], b. 3 Mar. 1820, d. 8 Dec. 1900, aged 78 yrs., 9 mos., and 5 days, Carver; m. iii. REUBEN, b. 19 Sept. 1834, Carver, drowned in Wenham Pond, 20 Jan. 1846, aged 12 yrs., 4 mos., 1 day.

203. HENRY[6] SHERMAN (Capt. John[5], John[4], William[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Carver, Mass., 23 Dec. 1806, died there, 12 Oct. 1895, aged eighty-nine years, six months, and nineteen days. He married first in Carver, 9 Feb. 1832, HANNAH-NELSON CROCKER, born there, 30 Apr. 1809, died there, 9 Oct. 1833, aged twenty-four years, daughter of Eleazer and Lucy (Nelson) Crocker. He married secondly in Carver, 12 Apr. 1840, CHRISTIANA CROCKER, born in Carver, 8 Apr. 1815, died there, 30 Nov. 1842, aged twenty-seven years and seven months, daughter of Heman and Rebecca (Pratt) Crocker.

Henry Sherman like his brothers, a farmer, lived all his life in Carver.

On 19 June 1840, Henry Sherman and Lucy Sherman of Carver, conveyed to Ebenezer Sherman of Carver, a woodland formerly owned by Eleazer Crocker of Carver, dec'd. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 203: 216.)

In 1850, Henry Sherman, a farmer, aged 44, was living in Carver with Nelson Sherman, aged 9; Hannah-C. Sherman aged 7; and Lucy Sherman, aged 63.* In 1860, Henry Sherman aged 54, a farmer, worth $5120.00; Nelson Sherman, aged 19, worth $1350.00; and Hannah-C. Sherman aged 17, worth $1350.00, were living together in Carver.

On 13 Feb. 1858, Nelson Sherman and Hannah-C. Sherman, minor children of Henry Sherman and heirs to the estate of Heman and Rebecca Crocker, late of Carver, deceased, being above 14 years of age, chose their father, Henry Sherman, for their guardian. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18160.)

* Lucy Sherman was his step mother and also his mother-in-law. She was Lucy (Nelson) (Crocker) Sherman. Her daughter and only child, Henry's first wife, and her niece Christiana Crocker, his second wife, both having passed away, she was keeping house for Henry.

Children, born in Carver, Mass.:

i. NELSON[7], b. 14 Mar. 1841, d. 8 Oct. 1922, aged 81 yrs., 6 mos., 24 days; m. 15 Feb. 1866, Carver, MARY-A. WILBUR, b. 16 Feb. 1846, Taunton or Raynham, d. 11 Mar. 1913, aged 67 yrs., 2 mos., and 25 days, daughter of Reuben-C., and Nancy-A. (Evans) Wilbur.

ii. HANNAH-CROCKER, b. 25 Nov. 1842, d. 17 Dec. 1930, aged 88 yrs. and 23 days, Middleboro, Mass.; m. 27 Nov. 1864, Carver, JOSEPH-WILLIAM SHERMAN, son of Joseph-Ransom and Betsey-W. (Cobb) Sherman. See his account.

204. ANTHONY[6] SHERMAN (Capt. John[5], John[4], William[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Carver, Mass., 2 Feb. 1809, died there, 17 Aug. 1859. He married in Carver, 19 May 1844, HANNAH (TILSON) COLE, born in Carver, 7 Feb. 1817, died there, 6 Nov. 1866, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Barrows) Tilson. She married first (published in Carver, 7 Feb. 1835) Bradford Cole, born in Carver, 3 Apr. 1813, died there, 29 Aug. 1840, in his twenty-eighth year, son of Hezekiah and Jane (Bradford) Cole.

Anthony Sherman was a farmer in Carver, Mass. He is listed in the census of 1850 there as Anthony Sherman, aged 41, a farmer, with Hannah, aged 33; Lydia, aged 5; John, aged 3; and Bartlett-B. Cole, aged 12 years, as his family. In 1860, Hannah, aged 43; Lydia, aged 14; John, aged 12; and Bartlett-B. Cole, shoemaker, aged 21, were living together. They were according to the valuation of the estates of Hannah Sherman and Bartlett-B. Cole in comfortable circumstances.

Anthony Sherman left no will. Hannah petitioned the court to have Jacob-H. Loud appointed administrator stating in her petition that the deceased left besides herself two minor children. Loud was appointed, 26 Sept. 1859. Division was made to Lydia-D. Leach, wife of Thomas-M. Leach of Plympton and to John Sherman, a minor. Jacob-H. Loud being the latter's guardian. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18083.)

Lydia-D. Sherman over 14 years of age and John Sherman under 14, children of Anthony Sherman, late of Carver, deceased, chose Jacob-H. Loud for the guardian, 11 June 1860. (ibid., 18141.)

Jacob-H. Loud presented in Court, 12 Dec. 1866, that Hannah Sherman died in Carver, 6 Nov. 1866, her heirs being, Bartlett-B. Cole, a son; Lydia-D. Leach, wife of Thomas-M. Leach, of Plympton, a daughter, and John Sherman, of Carver, a minor son. They assent to the probate of her will, John Sherman's guardian, Jacob-H. Loud, acting for him. The will mentions "mother Betsey Tillson" and was made, 4 Aug. 1860. (ibid., 18124.)

205. DR. ANTHONY[6] SHERMAN (Thomas[5], Anthony[4], William[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Brookfield, Mass., 7 Dec. 1782, died in Loudon, N. H., in 1813. He married in Loudon, 3 Feb. 1808, SALLY PIPER, born in Loudon, 9 Mar. 1788, died in Gilmanton, N. H., in 1820, daughter of Lieut. Samuel and Sally (Norris) Piper.

Dr. Anthony Sherman studied medicine with Dr. Boyden of Gilmanton, attending a course of lectures there. He formed a partnership with Dr. Daniel Jacobs in December 1807. Unfortunately Dr. Sherman contracted tuberculosis and was too ill to practice in 1812, so the partnership was dissolved by mutual consent, 23 Mar. 1812. Dr. Sherman then returned to Loudon where he passed away a year later.

Children, born in Gilmanton, N. H.:

i. BETSEY-KEITH,[7] b. 31 July 1808,* d. 5 Sept. 1850, Moretown, Vt.; m. 17 Nov. 1824, Gilmanton, BRACKETT-LEAVITT PRESCOTT, b. 20 Mar. 1797, d. after 1853 probably Ellenburg, N. 206. THOMAS[6] SHERMAN (Thomas[5], Anthony[4], William[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Bridgewater, Mass., 30 Mar. 1787, died in Lebanon, Maine, 8 Dec. 1862, aged seventy-five years, eight months, and eight days. He married in Ludlow, Northumberland Co., New Brunswick, Jan. 1818, HELEN (ELEANOR) SUTHERLAND, born "in Miramuchi" N. B., 1 Mar. 1800, died in Lebanon, 3 Dec. 1868, aged sixty-eight years and nine months, daughter of Robert * and Elizabeth Sutherland.

* On a chart filled in by a descendant of Enoch-Wood-Piper Sherman, Betsey-Keith's birth is given as 31 July 1809 which is of course impossible if Enoch's birth was 12 January 1810. The record given for Betsey's birth by other authorities as occurring in 1808 is obviously correct.

As a young man Thomas Sherman went to New Brunswick being called "of Ludlow, parish" in his marriage record. Ludlow parish is on the Miramichi river. After the birth of the first child he returned to Maine. He lived for a few years at Shapleigh and then settled in Lebanon. He appears in the census of 1850 as a resident of that town, his family being, Thomas Sherman, aged 64, a farmer, b. Maine (sic); Elinor, aged 49, b. Maine (sic); George, aged 19, b. Maine; Elinor, aged 16, b. Maine; Enoch, aged 14, b. Maine; John, aged 12, b. Maine; George Johnson, aged 12, b. Maine; Robert Johnson, aged 9, born Maine.

Thomas Sherman applied for a pension under the act of 7 June 1842, for service in the war of 1812 but his claim was not allowed because he did not serve six months and a resolution of the Senate barred all serving under that specified time.

Robert Sutherland, the father, was one of twenty-one children, ten pairs of twins, he being the only single child in the family. (From the family records of George Walter Chamberlain, genealogist, of Malden, Mass.) uce and income of all my improved lands to be improved and carried on in a good and husbandlike manner by my executors hereafter named, their heirs or assigns. Provided that instead of one sixth part of the hay and pastureing, my said executors, their heirs or assigns, shall keep for the said Ellen Sherman dureing her lifetime two good cows in good order and condition also a good safe horse and good carriages and harnesses suitable for all seasons of the year of which she shall have the full use at all times and also shall be furnished with a driver at all times. I also give her the said Ellen the two good cows afore mentioned. Also the use and entire control of one third part of my dwelling house viz. the Southwest square room, with the corner bed room that opens out of it, also, a priviledge of one third part of the cellar under said house, one third part of the chambers a priviledge of passing through the front entry and through the kitchen to the cellar or elsewhere, also an equal priviledge in the wood house, also a sufficiency of good dry wood, fully prepared for fire place or stove as she shall choose to keep a fire at all times when a fire is needed.

Second To my daughter Mary Wentworth I give the sum of one hundred dollars.

Third I give to my daughter Sarah Dingley the sum of three dollars.

Fourth I give to my son Thomas Sherman Jun. the sum of five dollars.

Fifth I give to my daughter Noamia Carlile the sum of three dollars.

Sixth I give to Julia Johnson my daughter the sum of three dollars.

Seventh I give to my son Joseph K. Sherman the sum of three dollars.

Eighth I give to my son George W. Sherman the sum of three dollars.

Ninth I give to my daughter Ellen Sherman the sum of five dollars, all and each of the foregoing legacies to be paid to the persons before mentioned within one year after my decease, by the executors to this my last will and testament, hereafter mentioned.

Tenth I give and bequeath to my sons Enoch P. Sherman and John W. Sherman all the remainder and residue of my estate both real, personal and mixed on the condition of the payment of the legacies and the fulfillment of all the foregoing.

Eleventh I ordain and appoint my aforementioned two sons, Enoch P. and John W. Sherman, sole executors of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament in the presence of the witnesses named below, this twentieth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

207. WILLIAM[7] SHERMAN (William[6], Joseph[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Maine, possibly in Camden, in 1810,* died in Calais, Maine, 13 Oct. 1883. He married, probably in Calais about 1837, SARAH-E. SMITH, born in New Brunswick, Canada, 1815–1817, died in Calais, 10 Dec. 1875.

William Sherman probably grew to manhood in Camden, Maine, as family tradition states that he came to Calais from that town. It is probable that his parents both died while he was a minor and that he was left to the care of his Camden relatives. He was evidently in Calais by the time of his marriage although it is possible that it was his marriage that made him settle there. He appears in the Calais census of 1850, as William Sherman, aged 39, a millman, worth $300, born in Maine, with Sarah-E., aged 35, born in New Brunswick; Charles-W. aged 11; Webster, aged 8; Willard, aged 8; Julia, aged 5; Joseph aged 3; Horatio-N.-S., aged 1 month, all born in Maine; and Mary-Ann Reddich, aged 17, born New Brunswick, as his family. In 1860, William Sherman, aged 50, lumberman, born Maine, is still in Calais, his family being, Sarah, aged 43, born New Brunswick; Charles-W., aged 21; Daniel-W. aged 19, mill laborer; Willard-G., aged 19, mill laborer; Julia-H., aged 17; Joseph, aged 14; Horatio-N. aged 10.

328. vi. HORATIO-NELSON,‡ b. 1850, m. EVA-HANNAH GALLEGHER.

208. AMOS[7] SHERMAN (Amos[6], Joseph[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 7 Nov. 1807, died there, 6 May 1870, aged sixty-two years, five months and twenty-nine days. He married in Marshfield, 29 Oct. 1831, ALMIRA CURTIS, born in Duxbury, Mass., 26 Oct. 1805, died in Marshfield, 21 Nov. 1898, aged ninety-three years, and twenty-six days, daughter of William and Olive (Joyce) Curtis.

Amos Sherman was a farmer. He appears in the census of 1850, as a resident of Marshfield, aged 42 yrs., born in Mass.; with Almira, aged 44; Beulah, aged 16; Amos-Jr., aged 13; and Joseph, aged 9, as

* William Sherman was aged 39 in 1850, when the census was taken. He was aged 50 in 1860, so he was born by these two records, 1810–1811. A descendant states that he was born in 1806. As the first two records are given by himself when he was in the prime of life they are more apt to be accurate than the last which is probably from his age at death. Sarah was aged 35 in 1850 and 43 in 1860, therefore born 1815–1817, the same descendant stating that she was born in 1811. This authority also states that she was born in Calais, but the two census records agree in stating that her birthplace was New Brunswick.

his family. In 1860, Amos, aged 52, Almira, aged 54, and Joseph, aged 19, a shoemaker, were living together in Marshfield. In 1880, Almira, aged 74, appears as head of a household in Marshfield, the rest of the family being, Joseph, aged 39, a farmer; Angeline-J., aged 36, his wife; William aged 17, works in shoe shop; and Amos, aged 6.

On 1 Apr. 1848, Amos Sherman of Marshfield, yeoman, with Almira releasing her dower sold land in Marshfield to Calvin Sherman of Medford. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 232: 13.) There are other deeds of Amos[7] Sherman.

He married, about 1824, AZUBAH-GOVE HODGE, born 16 Nov. 1803, died in Pittston, 14 Sept. 1875, aged seventy years.

Eleazer Sherman went to Patricktown Plantation (now Somerville, Maine) before his children were born. He appears there in the census of 1850 with the following family: Eleazer Sherman, aged 53, a farmer; Azubah, aged 46; Mary-T., aged 25, and Hinckley-S. Morton, aged 23 a shoemaker. His son Fuller-G., was already married.

Timothy Waterhouse of Patricktown Plantation sold to Eleazer Sherman of Newcastle, 90 acres of land in Patricktown Plantation, 9 Dec. 1819. Wit: Aaron Sherman, Temperance Gilpatrick. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 107: 239.)

James Bridge and Ruel Williams of Augusta sold to Eleazer Sherman of Newcastle, lands in Patricktown Plantation, 8 Dec. 1819. (ibid., 109: 38.)

Thomas-L. Winthrop of Boston, Esq., sold to Eleazer Sherman of Newcastle land in Patricktown Plantation, 3 Dec. 1819. (ibid., 109: 37.)

Reuel Williams and Robert-C. Vose of Augusta conveys to Eleazer Sherman of Patricktown Plantation and John Plummer, the third, of Whitefield, land in Patricktown Plantation, 6 Aug. 1828. (ibid., 152: 119.)

John-D. Rust of Appleton, sold one-third of a saw-mill in Appleton to Eleazer Sherman of Patricktown Plantation, 3 Mar. 1848, and on 6 Jan. 1849, sold him one-sixth of a saw mill in Appleton. (Waldo Co., Deeds, 61: 394, 473.)

Eleazer removed later to Pittston where he died.

Children, born in Patricktown Plantation:

336. i. FULLER-GOVE[8], b. 1 Nov. 1823; m. HARRIET-LOUISA BRADBURY.
ii. MARY-P., b. 13 Aug. 1825, d. 26 Oct 1905, aged 80 yrs., 2 mos., 13 days, unmarried.

213. AARON[7] SHERMAN (Aaron[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 27 Mar. 1799, died in Newcastle, Maine, 8 Oct. 1880, aged eighty-one years. He married in Edgecomb, Maine, in November 1820, MARIA PATTERSON, born in Edgecomb, 8 Jan. 1799, died in Newcastle, 7 Jan. 1881, aged eighty-two years, daughter of Capt. Elias and Martha (Clifford) Patterson.

Aaron Sherman was a farmer. He was an infant when his father moved to Newcastle and hence some of his descendants give his birthplace as in that town but it occurred in Boothbay before his father changed his dwelling place.

Aaron Sherman, aged 51, a farmer, is listed in the 1850 census of Newcastle, with this family: Maria, aged 51; Adeline, aged 22; Sophronia, aged 19; Charlott, aged 17; Lorenda-A., aged 15; Edward-F. aged 13; Alden-E. aged 10; Mary, aged 78, born in Mass.; Albion, aged 26, a teacher.

339. ix. EDWARD-FRANKLIN, b. 10 Oct. 1856; m. MINNIE-J. HARRIS.
340. x. ALDEN-ELEAZER, b. 2 May 1839; m. MARY-ELIZABETH EATON.

214. JOHN ALLEY[7] SHERMAN (Elisha[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 25 July 1807, died between 1887 and 1898. He married (published in Augusta, Maine, 17 Oct. 1829) RUTH-GODFREY JACKSON, born in Sidney, Maine, in 1811, died in Augusta, 15 Sept. 1898, aged eighty-seven years, daughter of John and Ruth (Godfrey) Jackson.

John-Alley Sherman was a blacksmith. He was living in Sidney in 1850, and in Newcastle in 1860. The census of 1850 of Sidney gives him as John Sherman, aged 42, "Black Smith", with the following family: Ruth-G., aged 40; Lydia-A., aged 19; Martha-A., aged 16; Melvil, aged 14; Daniel, aged 12; John, aged 10; Elizabeth, aged 8; Charles, aged 6; George, aged 3; Abigail Hersom, aged 17; Abigail Crowell, aged 48. In 1860, the census of Newcastle shows only the following left in the family; John Sherman, aged 51, blacksmith; Ruth-G., aged 49; John, aged 20; Mary-E. aged 18; Deville-G., aged 11; Benjamin-J., aged 9; Clarence-A., aged 7. These records are confusing for oftentimes one of two names will be used at one time and the other one at another. It seems probable that "Deville G." is really Arvilla-J. omitted from 1850 census if born 1849, as is given by the census of 1860. If not she was twin with Benjamin-Jackson. In spite of many letters it has been impossible to learn more of this family.

Children:

i. LYDIA-A.[8], b. 1831, probably either married or deceased by 1860.
ii. MARTHA-ANN, b. 1834; m. before 1860, went to Oregon, where she died leaving a son.
iii. MELVIL-JACKSON, b. 1836, d. Baton Rouge, La., of typhoid fever. Member of Co. D, 21st Maine Volunteers; m. LOVINA ROBBINS. May have left children.
341. iv. DANIEL-W. b. 1838; m. MARY-H. CLARK, MARY KING and MARY-E. (JACKSON) HENDERSON.
v. JOHN-HENRY, b. 1840, d. after 1860, probably in Augusta, Maine.
vi. MARY-ELIZABETH, b. 1842; m. after 1860 and had a daughter Bethia now (1935) Mrs. Julian Dodge.*
vii. CHARLES-PURBECK, b. 1844, not in census of 1860 when he would be 16 yrs. old. viii. GEORGE-NOBLE, b. 1847, not in census of 1860 when he would be 13 yrs. old.
ix. ARVILLA-JACKSON, b. Feb. 1849 (census) or 1851, d. 5 July 1906, aged 55 yrs., 5 mos.
342. x. BENJAMIN-JACKSON, b. 3 Apr. 1851; m. ABBIE-ELLA HOMESTEAD.
xi. CLARENCE-AUSTIN, b. 1853, possibly living later in Gorham, Maine. A "C.-A. Sherman" married Sadie Austin, b. China, Maine, and had (1) Mabel-E., b. 17 Feb. 1892, d. 3 Apr. 1893, aged 1 yr., buried Saco; (2) Melville-E., b. 8 Nov. 1894, Saco; (3) E.-L., b. 29 Oct. 1896, Vassalboro. This may be the family of Clarence-Austin, son of John-Alley. Letters to Clarence-E. Sherman, Gorham, Maine, were neither answered nor returned.

215. ZACHARIAH T.[7] SHERMAN (Elisha[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 5 May 1810, died there, 27 July 1885, aged seventy-five years. He married in 1839, SOPHIA WATERMAN, born in Litchfield, Maine, 24 October 1811, died in Boothbay, 19 Nov. 1887, aged seventy-six years, daughter of Dr. Sylvanus and Abigail (Jackson) Waterman.

According to the census of 1850 for Boothbay, Zachariah Sherman, a farmer, aged 40, born in Maine, was living there with a family consisting of Sophia, aged 38; Emila-H., aged 10; Eliza-E., aged 8; Oliver-G., aged 6; Sophiah-E. aged 4; and Litta, aged 1. In 1880, Zachariah Sherman, aged 70 and Sophia Sherman, aged 68, were living with their daughter Emily-Adell Greenleaf in Boothbay.

216. ROBERT[7] SHERMAN (Elisha[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 11 July 1812, died, probably in Edgecomb, after 1880. He married (published in Augusta, Maine, 2 Feb. 1834) BATHSHEBA-ELLIS MOREY, born in Wayne, Maine, about 1813, died after 1880, parents unknown.

Robert Sherman went to Edgecomb and farmed there. He appears in the census of 1850, a resident ot that town, as Robert Sherman 2nd, aged 38, having with him Bethsheba-E., aged 37; Mary-E., aged 15; Elisha-W., aged 14; Charles-H., aged 12; Lydia-H., aged 7; William-P., aged 5; and Ellen-A., aged 4. In 1860, he, aged 47; "Ellis", aged 46; Elisha, aged 23, a fisherman; Charles-H., aged 21; Lydia-H., aged 17; and Ellen-A., aged 14 were still living in Edgecomb as a family. In 1870, Robert Sherman, aged 57; Bathsheba, aged 56; had their son-in-law John-E. Reed, aged 35, a ship master, and their daughter "Hattie-L. Reed" (Lydia-Harriet) aged 27, without occupation, living with them. In 1880, Robert Sherman, aged 66, and Bathsheba, aged 65, his wife, had Howard Morey, aged 17, boarding with them.

Children, born in Edgecomb, Maine:

i. MARY-E.[8], b. 1835, living 1850, either m. or d. before 1860.

ii. ELISHA-W., b. 1836; "Elisha W. Sherman, aged 27, son of Robert Sherman 2d, b. Boothbay & Bathsheba-E., b. Wayne; m. 10 July 1864, Newcastle, SARAH-C. PATTERSON, dau. Elias, b. Newcastle, and Agnes, b. Edgecomb." (State record.)

vii. ELLEN-A., (Nellie), b. 1846; m. WILLIAM OTIS, b. 19 Apr. 1833, son of William and Sarah (Perkins) Otis.

217. CHARLES ELISHA[7] SHERMAN (Elisha[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 1 Oct. 1820, died in Cairo, Ill., 18 Oct. 1863, aged forty-three years. He married first in Boothbay, 8 Sept. 1850, MARY-JANE GILES, born in Boothbay, 19 Aug. 1826, died in Edgecomb, Maine, 24 Apr. 1855, aged twenty-nine years, daughter of Charles and Martha (McFarland) Giles. He married secondly in Edgecomb, 21 Oct. 1856, MARY-CAROLINE DODGE, born in Edgecomb, 27 June 1830, died there, 11 Nov. 1905, daughter of Alexander and Susan (Cargill) Dodge.

In June 1850, Charles-Elisha Sherman was living with Thomas-C. Dodge, aged 28, and Caroline Dodge, aged 20, he being aged 29, in Edgecomb. This Caroline Dodge was apparently his future second wife. Also, in 1850, a Wilmot Trask was living with the Dodges, probably another boarder. In 1860, Charles-E. Sherman, a brickmaker, aged 40, was living in Edgecomb, with Caroline Sherman, aged 29; Nellie, aged 3; and "Jennie" [Mary-Viola] aged 1 yr. In 1870, Mary-C. Sherman, aged 39, was head of the household, with a family listed as follows: Clara-E. aged 18, "domestic servant"; Rufus-J., aged 17, "farm-laborer"; Nellie-F. aged 12, at home; Mary-V., aged 10, at home; Charles-E. aged 9, at home.

In 1860, after their own mother's death and their father's remarriage, Rufus-J. Sherman, aged 8, was living with George Huff, aged 67 and his wife Esther Huff, aged 63, who also had in their family, Martin Huff, aged 23, a mariner, and Edward-G. Huff, aged 20. Clara-E. Sherman, Rufus's own sister was living with Thomas Emerson, aged 35, a farmer, and his wife, Mary-E. Emerson, aged 32, who also had in their family a Warren Huff, aged 9 years. It is probable that the Huffs were relatives of Mary-Jane Giles.

Charles-Elisha Sherman was a brick manufacturer, a farmer, and a selectman of Edgecomb. He was also a trustee of the public schools. He enlisted 10 Sept. 1862, in Co. F., 28th Maine Regiment, served as a corporal and died on his way home from the war.

Mary-C. Sherman, widow of Charles-E. Sherman of Edgecomb, petitioned for her dower in his property, 4 Oct. 1864. (Lincoln Co., Probate, 56: 325.)

Children, born in Edgecomb, Maine, excepting the second child: By first wife, Mary-Jane Giles, Leone Bradley from Stillwater, and had (a) Sherman-Douglas Baxter, b. 18 June 1921, Ilion.

344. v. CHARLES-ELISHA, b. 7 Dec. 1860; m. MARY-ELLA BAKER.

218. CAPT. JOSEPH[7] SHERMAN (Roger[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 23 Mar. 1804, died there, 8 Oct. 1878, aged seventy-four years and seven months. He married, probably in Edgecomb, Maine, about 1828, JULIA-O. HUTCHINS, born there in Sept. 1812, died in Boothbay, 6 Feb. 1895, aged eighty-four years and five months, daughter of Capt. Samuel and Dorcas (Alley) Hutchins.

Capt. Joseph Sherman was a master-mariner. He lived in Edgecomb, Maine, where he is listed in the census of 1850 with his family: Joseph Sherman, aged 45, mariner; Julia, aged 38; Caroline-E.-M., aged 19; Ursula-P., aged 18; Angelette, aged 14; Adelaide, aged 13; Adrianna-Frances, aged 2; Joseph-B., aged 1 mo. In 1860, Capt. Joseph, aged 55; Julia, aged 48; Adrianna-F., aged 12; and Joseph-B., aged 10, all born in Maine, appear. In 1870, Joseph Sherman, sailor, aged 66; Julia-Q. (sic), keeping house, aged 59; Clinton Sherman, aged 17, farm laborer, made up the family. In 1880, Julia was living with her son Joseph-B. and was aged 69 years.*

* Her age as given on her gravestone makes her born in 1810, but in 1850, she stated she was 38, and in 1860, she is aged 48, making her born in 1812; in 1870, she is 59 and in 1880, 69, making her born in 1811. The month of the census would account for the year's variation and the two years of the death record is suggestive of the fact that the ages of elderly people is apt to be exaggerated.

He appears in the following land records:

Joseph Sherman "2d" of Boothbay, gentleman, sells to Ebenezer Prebble, of Boothbay, yeoman, land with buildings on it, in Edgecomb and Boothbay, Julia Sherman releasing her dower, 10 Mar. 1830. Wit: Thomas Cunningham, Benjamin Alley. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 149: 404.)

Joseph Sherman "3d" of Edgecomb, yeoman, sells to Samuel Sherman of Boothbay, land in Boothbay, on easterly side of Sherman's Creek, bounded on heirs of Daniel Sherman, and land of Elisha Sherman, 1 Mar. 1841. Wit: Joseph Merry, Stinson Sherman. (ibid., 175: 120.)

Joseph Sherman, "3d" of Edgecomb, sells to Stinson Sherman of Boothbay, yeoman, land in Edgecomb and Boothbay, bounded on George Sherman; Robert Sherman, 1 Mar. 1841. Wit: Joseph Merry. (ibid., 175: 127.)

No will or administration of this Capt. Joseph Sherman was found. Children, probably all born in Edgecomb, Maine:

i. DORCAS[8], (probably), b. about 1829; m. (pub. 1 Oct. 1845, Augusta, Maine) JOSEPH COLMAN of Vassalboro, Maine.
ii. CAROLINE-E.-M., b. 1831, either died or married before 1860.

345. ix. JOSEPH-BURNELL, b. May 1850; m. SARAH-JANE SHERMAN.
x. CLINTON-D., b. 1853, d. 24 July 1877, aged 24 yrs.

219. SAMUEL[7] SHERMAN (Roger[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 17 Dec. 1806, died after 1870. He married first, probably in Edgecomb, Maine, about 1845, SERENA SHERMAN, born in Edgecomb in 1811, died after 1850*, daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Dunton) Sherman. He married secondly before 1870, SUSAN SHERMAN, born 1819, died in Edgecomb, 21 Aug. 1899, aged eighty years, daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Dunton) Sherman and sister of Serena, his first wife.

Samuel Sherman was a fisherman. He appears as a resident of Edgecomb in 1850, his family being, Samuel Sherman, aged 43; Serena, aged 39; Allen-A. (Ellen), aged 2; Millard-Fillmore, aged 3 months. In 1870, Samuel-A. Sherman, aged 63, and Susan, aged 50 who was "keeping house" were the entire family. Whether the son born in 1849 had deceased or simply left home has not been found.

* It is stated by the person copying the gravestones that this one was too deeply sunken to be read.

Children, probably born in Edgecomb, Maine:

i. ELLEN-G.[8], b. 6 Nov. 1847, d. 30 Dec. 1852, aged 5 years and 2 mos., buried in lot with her mother.
ii. MILLARD-FILLMORE, b. 1849. Nothing further found.

220. STINSON S.[7] SHERMAN (Roger[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 21 Mar. 1810, died in Bristol, Maine, after 1860. He married probably about 1845–1850, SUSAN-C. BLEN, born probably in Dresden, Maine, in 1822, died in Bristol, after 1860, parents unknown.

Stinson-S. Sherman, as soon as he was twenty-one years of age, bought a piece of land in Boothbay and Edgecomb that had been the property of his father who sold it to Stinson's eldest brother Capt. Joseph, he having in turn sold the property, evidently the homestead to his brother-in-law, Ebenezer Preble.

Ebenezer Prebble of Boothbay sells to Stinson Sherman of Boothbay, mariner, one half a tract of land in Boothbay and Edgecomb, bounds Robert Sherman, George Sherman, it being that half of the farm that said Prebble bought of Joseph Sherman, 18 Apr. 1831. (Lincoln Co., Deeds, 132: 21.)

Before 1851, he had moved to Bristol, Maine where he kept a store at Clarke's Cove, and both he and his wife are buried in the Harrington Cemetery in Bristol.

He appears in the census of 1860 for Bristol as Stinson-S. Sherman, aged 50, a merchant; with Susan-C., aged 38; Pickering, aged 9; and Sewall, aged 7, as his family.

Children, born in Bristol, Maine:

i. PICKERING-P.[8], b. 1851, d. 25 July 1876, Chelsea, Mass., aged 25 yrs., a clerk and married. He was buried in Bristol, Maine.
ii. SEWALL, b. 1853, died in Insane Hospital in Augusta and buried in Bristol.

221. HARTLEY W.[7] SHERMAN (Roger[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 24 Apr. 1812, died in Edgecomb, Maine, 10 May 1882, aged seventy years. He married about 1834 ELEANOR-G. POOLE, born in Edgecomb, 20 Oct. 1815, died in Edgecomb, 5 Nov. 1897, aged eighty-two years and two days, daughter of John Poole.*

Hartley-W. Sherman appears in the census of 1850, aged 38, a farmer, with Eleanor-G., aged 34; Elizabeth, aged 15; Martha-E., aged 12; Ruth-A. aged 8; Hartley-R., aged 6; and Samuel-F., aged 3, as his family. In 1860, Hartley Sherman, aged 48; Ellen, aged 44; Elizabeth, aged 23; Martha-E., aged 20; Samuel-J., aged 12; Edmund, aged 9; and Alden-L., appear in the census. In 1870, the family con-

222. JOSHUA[7] SHERMAN (Roger[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 20 Aug. 1814, died in Boothbay Harbor, 20 Mar. 1895, aged eighty-one years. He married about 1840, KATHERINE-R. WEBBER, born 1814, died after 1880, daughter of James and Margaret (Ellison) Webber*.

Joshua Sherman was a ship-carpenter. In 1880, he, aged 65, was living in Boothbay, with his wife, Katherine-R., aged 65, who was keeping house, his daughter Charity-C., aged 38, also keeping house; his daughter Melvina-C., aged 25, also keeping house; and his granddaughter Rosa-Belle. There were probably other children but Joshua did not appear in other census records and no other children were found.

Children:

i. CHARITY-C.[8], b. 1842.
ii. MELVINA-C., b. 1855.

223. DAVID S.[7] SHERMAN (Joseph[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine in October 1805, died there, 6 May 1876, aged seventy years and seven months. He married about 1828, SARAH-H. DEERING, born about 1806, died in

* They came from Liverpool, Eng.

Edgecomb, 7 Aug. "1888" [probably 1883], aged seventy-six years and nine months.

David Sherman was a farmer in Edgecomb, Maine. He appears in the census of 1850, there, aged 44, with Sarah, aged 43; Osburn, aged 20; Silas, aged 17; Serena, aged 15; Elizabeth-E., aged 12; Alfred-D., aged 9; and Otis, aged 4. In 1860, David Sherman, a farmer, aged 54, with Sarah, aged 53; Alfred, aged 18; and Otis, aged 14, are listed in the census of Edgecomb. In 1870, David Sherman, aged 65, with Sarah, aged 64, and Otis, aged 23, are all that are left at home. Before the next census in 1880, David had died and probably Sarah was living with a child of hers, for she does not appear in the census.

Children, probably all born in Edgecomb, Maine:

346. i. OSBORNE[8], b. 1830; m. MARY-ELIZABETH GOVE.
347. ii. SILAS-D., b. 21 Nov. 1832; m. JULIA-E. SOMES.
iii. SERENA, b. 1835.
iv. ELIZABETH-E., b. 1838; m. MELVILLE AMES.
348. v. ALFRED-D., b. 14 Oct. 1841; m. ADELIA-ANN QUIGLEY.
vi. OTIS, b. 1846.

224. JOSEPH[7] SHERMAN (Joseph[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine, 11 Dec. 1821, died there, 24 Aug. 1863, aged forty-two years and eight months. He married in Boothbay, 13 Mar. 1853, NANCY HUFF, born in Boothbay, 10 Dec. 1836, died in Hallowell, Maine, 21 Jan. 1926, daughter of Joseph and Hannah (Meader) Huff.* She married secondly before 1866, Asaph-A. Carlton.

Joseph Sherman served in the Civil War in Company F, 28th Maine Volunteers. He was a farmer. After his death and Nancy's remarriage she went to Winterport and while there petitioned for a guardian for her children.

Nancy Carlton of Winterport, representing that Joseph Sherman, late of Edgecomb, deceased, left children, Everett-A., Emma-D., and Joseph-A., all under fourteen and needing a guardian, asked that her husband Asaph-A. Carlton be appointed. (Lincoln Co., Probate, 38: 468.)

Joseph Sherman appears in the census of 1860 of Edgecomb, a day laborer, aged 39, with Nancy aged 25; Everett, aged 6; Emma aged 7; and Joseph, aged eleven months.

Children, born in Edgecomb, Maine:

i. EVERETT-A.[8], b. about 1854, d. 10 Oct. 1886, aged 31 yrs., Rockland.
ii. EMMA-LEONORA, b. 22 Nov. 1855; m. CHARLES-E. HASKELL, son of John-W., and Eliza (Clark) Haskell. Child (HASKELL), born in Rockland, (1) Jessica-Josephine, b. 13 Jan. 1878, B.A., Wellesley College; M.A., Columbia University; a teacher.
iii. JOSEPH-ALLEN, b. 20 June 1859, res. 1928, Tewksbury, Mass., unm.

* The History of Boothbay gives the date of Nancy's birth as 10 Dec. 1834, and her mother as Hannah Stoddard. The record of death as filed in the State House, Augusta, Maine give them as above.

225. BENJAMIN [7] SHERMAN (Joseph [6], Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine in 1824 or 1825, died in Boothbay, Maine, about 1871. He married about 1860 or 1863, SARAH-JANE MCALLISTER, born in Maine, about 1840, died after 1880, parents unknown. She married secondly, about 1872, GILMAN BURNHAM, born 1852, died after 1880, son of ——— and Hannah (———) Burnham.

Benjamin Sherman was a farmer and after his father's death took charge of the family. He did not marry until after 1860 and probably about 1863. He first appears in the census of 1850, aged 25 years, a member of his father's household. In 1860, Benjamin Sherman of Edgecomb, aged 35, a farmer, born in Maine, has with him, Sarah Sherman, aged 48 [his unmarried sister]; Sarah Sherman, aged 79 [his mother]; Olive Dunton, aged 56 [another sister]; Eunice-O. Dunton, aged 19 [probably his niece]. In 1870, Benjamin Sherman aged 46; has with him Sarah-J., aged 31; keeping house; George-E., aged 9, attending school; Thomas-J., aged 3, at home; and Sarah-E., aged 3 months. In 1880, the following family is found in Edgecomb, Gilman Burnham, aged 28, a farmer, b. Maine, both parents b. Maine; Sarah Burnham, aged 37, wife, b. Maine; Jennie Burnham, aged 7, daughter at school; Nellie Burnham, aged 5, daughter at school; Hattie Burnham, aged 2, daughter; Hannah Burnham, aged 76, mother, helps in family, her father born in France; George Sherman, aged 18, step-son, farm laborer.

Children, born in Boothbay, Maine:

226. JOSEPH [7] SHERMAN (William [6], Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine, 5 Feb. 1805, died there in July 1873, aged sixty-eight years. He married (published in Edgecomb, 27 Nov. 1830) SUSAN DEERING of Bath, Maine, born in Edgecomb in May 1809, died there in 1879, aged seventy years, daughter of David and ——— (Trask) Deering.

Joseph Sherman was a farmer. He appears in the census of 1850

* It was stated by Mrs. Clifford that George-Ellsworth was an adopted son, a relative of Sarah-Jane McAllister's. When Benjamin Sherman died it seems probable that his own children were taken by his relatives but that Sarah took the adopted son to live with her and her new husband. As the 1860 census was taken in June, if Mrs. Clifford is incorrect in her statement that he was not Benjamin Sherman's own son, then Benjamin married soon after the census was taken in 1860.

in Edgecomb as "Joseph Sherman 4 th", aged 44, farmer, having in his family, Susan Sherman aged 44; Albert, aged 19; Mary, aged 12; Ann, aged 9; Betsey, aged 7; and Bernette, aged 3. In 1860, Joseph, aged "48" [should be 54], farmer; Susan, aged 49; Bernette, aged 19 [should be 13]; Betsey, aged 17; and Ann, aged 21, is the family as enrolled by a careless census-taker who omitted entirely Elbridge-Jasper Sherman, the youngest of the family, then aged about eight years. In 1870, "Joseph Sherman, 2nd", aged 65, had in his family; Susan, aged 62, "keeping house"; Bernette, aged 22, "domestic service",* and Elbridge-J., aged 16, "farm-laborer."

Children, born in Edgecomb, Maine:

iv. ANNE-ELIZABETH, b. Aug. 1841, d. after 1860; m. ISAAC-CLEVELAND CLIFFORD, b. , d. , son of Benjamin and Abigail (Preble) Clifford. Both may have died before 1880, leaving a child Leroy, b. 1875, living with his uncle Elbridge-Jasper when the census was taken.

v. BETSEY,† b. 14 Nov. 1844, living 1935; m. 14 May 1865, WOODBRIDGE CLIFFORD, b. 16 Aug. 1846, d. before 1933, son of Benjamin and Abigail (Preble) Clifford. Child (CLIFFORD), born in Edgecomb, (1) Everett, b. 14 Aug. 1866. Several infants died at birth.

vi. BERNETTE, b. Jan. 1847, d. 4 July 1909, Edgecomb; m. WILLIAM-C. WILLIAMS. Lived East Edgecomb. Children (WILLIAMS), (1)

* It was apparently the custom to list the younger members of a family who remained at home helping their parents as in domestic service if a girl and as a farm laborer or just laborer if a boy. These terms did not have the meaning they had later.

† In the spring of 1934, Betsey (Sherman) Clifford in writing the compiler and filling in charts stated, "My grandparents were all dead long before I was born. My mother told me that my grandmother Sherman was half Indian good blood. I never knew my fathers brothers they were all dead before I was born except Samuel [and] Aaron I am the only one left and am 89 living alone." She gave the names of her uncles by marriage and where they lived, not always supplying the first names. The census of 1850 did not discover them in any town searched.

Hattie, b. ; m. Royal Giles; (2) Viola, b. ; (3) Byron, b. ; (4) Ruby, b. ; m. Harold Dodge.

vii. SARAH, b. May 1850, d. 1852, Edgecomb.

227. SAMUEL KENNEDY [7] SHERMAN (William [6], Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine, 8 Sept. 1811, died after 1870. He married in Newcastle, Maine, 3 June 1839, ELIZABETH-R. POOLE, born in Maine, 19 Sept. 1817, died after 1870, parents not found.

Samuel-Kennedy Sherman was about seven years old when his mother died and he went to Newcastle to live with his grandfather, Samuel Kennedy, Esq. He remained there until 1860 and probably all his life, being engaged in farming. In 1850, he is found in the census there, aged 39 years, a farmer, having in his family, Elizabeth, aged 33; Sarah-E., aged 10; Martha-J., aged 9; Eunice-H., aged 9; Nancy-O., aged 6; Amasa, aged 4; David-L.-F., aged 1; and Emily Poole, aged 13. In 1870, he, aged 63, a farmer; Elizabeth, aged 51, keeping house; David-L., aged 22, farm laborer; Atwood-A., aged 17, railroad laborer; and Lovina-W., all born in Maine, are living together in Newcastle.

Samuel-Kennedy Sherman served as a member of the 16th regiment, company K., Maine Volunteers, in the war between the States.

Children, born in Newcastle, Maine:

i. SARAH-E.[8], b. 16 Oct. 1840; m. 30 Sept. 1858, Gloucester, Mass., GEORGE POOLE, b. 20 Aug. 1837, Gloucester, son of George and Lovina (Whalen) Poole.

ii. MARTHA-J., b. 24 Oct. 1841, a twin; m. 16 May 1863, Charlestown, JOSEPH-C. PAYNE, b. 1840, Roxbury, son of Joseph-C., and Matilda (———) Payne.

iii. EUNICE-ELLEN, b. 24 Oct. 1841, a twin; m. 25 Dec. 1860, Newcastle, JOSEPH CUNNINGHAM, b. 2 Apr. 1831, Newcastle, son of Charles and Mary (Hutchings) Cunningham. Children (CUNNINGHAM), born in Newcastle, (1) Alexander, b. 13 May 1862; (2) Margaret, b. 15 Oct. 1863; (3) Ann-Amelia, b. 12 Dec. 1864.

228. AARON [7] SHERMAN (William [6], Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine, in 1815, died there, 27 Oct. 1862, aged forty-seven years. He married about 1835, CATHERINE CHESLEY, born in Maine in 1814, died after 1860, parents not found.

Aaron Sherman's mother died when he was a small boy probably about two or three years old. His father was appointed his guardian in 1831 when his grandfather died. His father, passing away while he was still a minor, another guardian had to be appointed.

Aaron Sherman, minor above fourteen, chose John Cunningham of Edgecomb as his guardian, 13 Jan. 1834, who had for sureties, Ezra Cunningham and Ebenezer Cunningham. (Lincoln Co., Probate, 35: 181.)

Aaron Sherman remained in Edgecomb and probably all his children were born there. He was killed in a mill, being caught in the machinery.

He appears in the census of 1850 as Aaron Sherman 3rd, a resident of Edgecomb, aged 33 [35], a mariner, b. in Maine, with Catherine, aged 36; George, aged 13; Edward, aged 10; Willard, aged 8; Danforth, aged 5, Mary-C., aged 3, and Margaret-E. aged 9/12, yrs., all born in Maine. In 1860, he, aged 44; Catherine, aged 47; Edward-T., aged 20; Willard, aged 18; Danforth-G., aged 16; Mary-E., aged 14, Margaret-M., aged 11; Sarah-Ann, aged 7, appear in the census.

Probably after his death, the family were scattered for nothing further has been found of them.

Children, born in Edgecomb, Maine:*

i. GEORGE [8], b. 1837.
ii. EDWARD-T., b. 1840.
iii. WILLARD, b. 1842.
iv. DANFORTH-G., b. 1844.

vi. MARGARET-M. (E), b. Oct. 1849.
vii. SARAH-ANN, b. 1853.
viii. MARTHA-J., b. 1854, d. 20 Nov. 1858, aged 4 yrs.

229. ABIEL W.[7] SHERMAN (Robert [6], Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine, 15 Aug. 1818, died after 1849. He married first about 1839, CLEMENTINE-E. CLIFFORD, who died soon. He married secondly, probably about 1844, ABIGAIL-A. CARD.

Children:

By first wife, Clementine-E. Clifford,

i. JOANNA,[8] probably, b. abt. 1839. A Joanna, aged 11, was in Robert Sherman's family in 1850 and was probably the daughter of Abiel Sherman.

* The ages are gleaned from the two census records, the initials of middle names being from the 1860 one as probably the more accurate with the 1850 variation in parenthesis.

By second wife, Abigail-A. Card,

ii. HOWARD-P., b. 1846.
iii. GEORGIANNA, b. 1849.

230. JARED [7] SHERMAN (Robert [6], Eleazer [5], William [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine, 16 Jan. 1832, died there in 1882. He married about 1859, EMILY BAKER, born in Edgecomb, in Jan. 1834, died there, 10 June 1907, aged seventy-three years and three months, daughter of John and Mary (Sherman *) Baker, and half-sister of Harriet Baker.

Jared Sherman appears in the census of 1860 as living with Allen Brown in Edgecomb as follows: "Jerode" Sherman, aged 26, farm laborer, b. Maine, and Emily Sherman, aged 28. In 1870, Jared, aged 37, a farmer; Emily, aged 36; Roscoe-J., aged 7; Emma-G. aged 5; and Stanton, aged 3, all b. Maine, made up the family in Edgecomb. In 1880, Jared Sherman, aged 47, engaged in farming, b. Maine, both parents b. Maine, had with him, Emily, aged 45, his wife, keeping house; Roscoe-J., aged 17, a son, working on farm; Gertrude, aged 15, a daughter, at school; Stanton-D., aged 13, a son, at home; Walter, aged 10, a son, at school; Winnie-N., aged 6, a daughter, at school, all b. in Maine.

242. AVERY THOMAS [7] SHERMAN (Mark-Joyce [6], Ichabod [5], Ebenezer [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 26 May 1825, died there, 26 Mar. 1862, aged thirty-six years and ten months. He married in Marshfield, 8 Nov. 1848, FRANCES-E. TAYLOR, born in Plymouth, Mass., 27 Jan. 1830, died in Rockland, Mass., 21 Jan. 1914, aged eighty-three years, eleven months, and twenty-five days, daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Maxim) Taylor.* She married secondly in Marshfield, 11 Apr. 1865, James-C. Phillips born in Marshfield, in 1838, died in Chelsea, 2 Jan. 1909, aged seventy years, son of James-C., and Hannah (Joyce) Phillips.

Avery-T. Sherman of Marshfield, shoemaker, conveys to "my step mother Pamela Sherman, one-half of the real estate conveyed to him by his father Mark-J. Sherman, Frances-E. Sherman releasing her dower, 5 Mar. 1850. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 235:171.)

In 1850, Avery-T. Sherman a shoemaker, married within the year, appears as of Marshfield, with a family consisting of himself, his wife, Frances-E.; Josiah Crowell, aged 24, Hannah Crowell, aged 19, this couple also married within the year, Hannah being Avery-T.'s sister. In 1860, Avery-T., aged 34, a shoemaker; Frances, aged 30; Laura-A., aged 10; Alice-W., aged 7; Cordelia-F., aged 1 month; Mark-J., aged 70, a stonecutter; Nancy, aged 24; and Moses, aged 23, a shoemaker, were all included in one family.

John Baker was appointed administrator of the estate of Avery-T. Sherman, late of Marshfield, deceased, who died 26 Mar. 1862, leaving a widow, Frances-E. Phillips, now wife of James-C. Phillips and minor children, Laura-A. Sherman, Alice-W. Sherman, and Cordelia-F. Sherman, all of Marshfield, 1865. (Plymouth Co., Probate, 18086.)

James-C. Phillips, Frances-E. (Taylor) Sherman's second husband was a soldier of the civil war. He died in the Soldiers Home in Chelsea. They had children, among them a son, Waldo Phillips.

243. SPENCER WINSOR [7] SHERMAN (Ichabod [6], Ichabod [5], Ebenezer [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 20 Oct. 1822, died there, 12 August 1886, aged sixty-three years, ten months, and eight days. He married in Cohasset, Mass., 24 Nov. 1853, ELIZA-T. HIGHLAND, born in Scituate, Mass., 1833.

Spencer-Winsor Sherman was a shoemaker. In 1860, he was living in Marshfield aged 38; with Eliza, aged 25; Selinda, aged 4; and Stephen-W., aged 2. In 1870, he, aged 47, a shoemaker; with Eliza aged 37, keeping house; Selinda-W., aged 16, at school; Stephen-W., aged 11, at school; and Otis-C., aged 6, at school, form the family. In 1880, Spencer, aged 65, works in shoe-shop; Eliza-T. aged 47, wife; Stephen-W. son, aged 22, at home; and Otis-C., aged 18, at home, are still in Marshfield.

He appears in the list of 1864, as aged 41, a shoemaker, lame.

The son, Stephen-W., is called in the record of his birth, "Seth-W." Perhaps the parents changed his name soon after his birth.

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

i. SELINDA-W.[8], b. about 1855, aged 4 in 1860, aged 16 in 1870.
ii. STEPHEN-WILBUR, b. 10 Dec. 1857.
iii. OTIS-CARVER, b. 4 July 1862.*

244. AUGUSTUS FRANCIS [7] SHERMAN (Josiah-Holmes [6], Ichabod [5], Ebenezer [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 7 Dec. 1827, died in Duxbury, Mass., 21 Jan. 1899, aged seventy-one years, one month, and fourteen days. He married (published in Marshfield, 23 November 1857) EMILY-M. LOCKWOOD, born in Fairfield, Conn., 10 Nov. 1838, died in Duxbury, 18 Mar. 1918, aged seventy-nine years, four months, and eight days, daughter of Marquis and Mary-Jane (Booth) Lockwood.

Augustus-Francis Sherman was a shoemaker and farmer. According to the census of 1850, he, aged 23 years, was living with Minot Harrington a shoemaker in Marshfield. In 1860, he, aged 31; with Emily-M., aged 21; Emily-M., aged 1; and Eunice-M. Lockwood, aged 16, a seamstress, were living together in Marshfield. In 1870, he is listed as Augustus, aged 42, farm laborer; with Emma, aged 33, keeping house; Emily-M., aged 11, at school; Lucy-F. [Mary-F.?], aged 9, at school; Lounsbury, aged 7, at school; Orietta, aged 5, at school. Before 1870, they removed from Marshfield, possibly to Duxbury as they died there.

* Otis-Carver Sherman's birth is given on the State records as son of Spencer and Mary, an obvious error. The birth place of his mother is given as "Cohasset."

In 1864, Augustus-F. was on a list of men liable to be enrolled in the militia, as "aged 36, Shoemaker, lost one eye."

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.;

i. EMILY-MARIA [8], b. 14 Jan. 1859.
ii. MARY-FRANCES, b. 24 Nov. 1861.
iii. LOUNSBURY, b. 5 June 1860.
iv. ORIETTA, b. 2 Sept. 1868.

245. PELEG SAMPSON [7] SHERMAN (Josiah-Holmes [6], Ichabod [5], Ebenezer [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 24 Nov. (or 15 Nov.) 1830, died in Marshfield, 27 Apr. 1920, aged eighty-nine years, five months, and twelve days. He married in Boston, 22 Oct. 1854, SUSAN-E. MALLARD, born in East Cambridge, Mass., 1 Apr. 1833, died in Marshfield, 5 Mar. 1905, aged seventy-one years, eleven months, and four days, daughter of George Mallard.

Peleg-Sampson Sherman was a ship-carpenter and as a young man went to Boston where he continued to live for several years after his marriage. By 1860, he had returned to Marshfield and appears in the census of that year as living there, aged 27, a shipwright, with Susan-E., aged 27, his wife, and their daughter, Ada-E, aged 4 years. In 1870, Peleg-S. Sherman, ship-carpenter, aged 40 and Susan-E., aged 38, were living together in Marshfield. The enumerator or the copyist must have omitted the daughter for she was living and would be only fourteen so probably was with her parents. In 1880, Peleg-S. aged 49 and Susan-E., aged 47, were the whole family.

Child, born in East Boston, Mass.:

i. ADDIE-L.[8], b. 22 Feb. 1856, drowned, 3 May 1876, aged 20 yrs., 1 month, 11 days, Marshfield. She is called, Ada-E., in the census of 1860.

246. JAMES [7] SHERMAN (Robert [6], Valentine [5], Robert [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Islesboro, Maine, 8 Feb. 1791, died there, 14 Apr. 1866, aged seventy-five years and two months. He married in Islesboro, 11 Jan. 1816, SYBIL GILKEY, born in Islesboro, 25 Aug. 1793, died there, 10 Nov. 1873, aged eighty years, daughter of Thomas and Mercy (Ames) Gilkey.

James Sherman was a farmer in Islesboro.

vii. JAMES, b. 17 May 1888, grad., Hartford Theological Seminary; for a short time pastor of church in West Hartford. In 1915, commissioned head of Y.M.C.A., in Bordeaux, France (Foyer du Soldat). After the War, Head of Y.M.C.A., in Turkey. While convoying supplies to Armenia, 1 Feb. 1920, he was killed by Turkish bandits and buried in Syria. He married MARJORIE WITTER, b. in India, daughter of a missionary, who married (2), Rev. Stewart McClelland, now (1933) Pres. of Lincoln Memorial University, Cumberland Gap, Tenn. Children (1), Marjorie-Lois, b. 14 Feb. 1916, Geneva, Switzerland; (2) James, b. 15 Oct. 1917, Bordeaux, France.

viii. GEORGE-WATERHOUSE, b. 20 Sept. 1891, engaged in "Y" work in France before the entry of the U. S. into the War, establishing the first Y.M.C.A., camp back of the American army. Later enlisted in France in the 11th aerial Corps and was commissioned 2nd Lieut. in Aviation. After the war assisted his brother James in "Y" work in Turkey. Res. Milford, Del., 1933.

ix. JONAS-GLEASON, b. 7 May 1894, was a Corporal in the World War in the Heavy Artillery. After the War returned to Colby College where his brothers had also been educated, and was graduated from there in 1920. He taught in the Camden High School, then in college in Marshall, Texas, and finally was graduated from the Union Theological Seminary in New York.

Robert Sherman of Islesboro, yeoman, sold to Stephen and Daniel Warren of Islesboro, land there, Catherine-P. Sherman releasing her dower, 25 Dec. 1837. Wit: Dodge Pendleton, Benjamin Warren. (Waldo Co., Deeds, 29: 8.)

Catherine is stated to have lived from the age of one year in the same house, hence it is evident that the young couple must have lived with her parents and later inherited the homestead. Robert's purchase of the ninety-three acres of land occurring before his marriage indicates that this was not the homestead property as unless he rented it to his future father-in-law Catherine would have lived elsewhere for the interim between February and October.

Robert appears in the census of Islesboro for 1850, as aged 50, a farmer, with this family: Catherine-P. Sherman (his wife) aged 48; Catherine-M., aged 22; Royal-G., aged 20, mariner; Roanna-C., aged 16; Hudson, aged 12; Orisee-A., aged 7; and Justina-J., aged 5.

Catherine Sherman appears as the head of the family in 1860, it being: Hudson, aged 22, a farmer; Orisa, aged 17: Justine, aged 14; Daniel Thomas, aged 29, mariner; Roanah Thomas, aged 24 (should be 26); Chester-C. Thomas, aged 3; and Leroy-T. Willey, aged 22. Evidently her eldest sons and daughter were married and in homes of their own and her daughter Roanna was married and living with her mother. Mrs. Thomas continued to live with her mother and cared for her in her old age. Catherine was ninety-one when the History of Islesboro was written and the author of it says of her: "She is known as aunt Katy by the whole town, and regarded with homage and respect in the estimation of the old and young . . . Many is the kind act she has done for her neighbors when in sickness or distress, and she will long be remembered after she has passed away. In the house where she now lives she has lived ninety years being but one year old when her father built the house . . . Her retentive memory is bright and clear, and her faculties are unimpaired."

No probate papers regarding Robert Sherman's estate were found. Probably no action was taken at the time of his death but the widow and unmarried children lived on in the homestead. Twenty-five years after his death, his heirs divided his property. His son Royal-Gilkey Sherman had previously sold his share.

Nelson Gilkey, as owner of the share of Royal-G. Sherman, an heir with Clementine Thomas, Orisee-A. Pendleton, Justina Sherman and Hudson-N. Sherman, to property of Robert Sherman, deceased, subject to the dower of Catherine Sherman, widow, in the estate, divides the homestead with the others, 12 June 1877. (ibid., 43: 112.)

ix. JUSTINA-J., b. 4 Feb. 1846, living 1892; m. ONSLOW THOMAS, b. 10 Nov. 1846, Islesboro, lost at sea, son of Benjamin and Jane (Pendleton) Thomas.

248. ISAAC [7] SHERMAN (Robert [6], Valentine [5], Robert [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Islesboro, Maine, 4 July 1802, died there, 22 April 1844, aged forty-two years. He married in Islesboro, 29 May 1825, SUSAN AMES, born there, 22 Oct. 1803, died after 1850, daughter of Jabez and Jane (Gilkey) Ames.

Isaac Sherman was a farmer in Islesboro and dying a comparatively young man but little can be found about him.

Isaac Sherman of Islesboro sold to John Payne of the same place a houselot there, 21 Oct. 1831, "Susanny" releasing her dower. (Waldo Co., Deeds, 29: 234.)

Susan Sherman is listed as the head of a family in Islesboro in 1850, all her children appearing with her excepting the eldest daughter, who was married and in a home of her own. Ten years later Susan is found living with Edson Sherman and having with her, Stephen-Van Buren and Melvina.

Isaac left no will and no administration papers were found in Waldo Co.,* Probate.

* Waldo Co., was established from Hancock Co., in 1827.

260. LORENZO [7] SHERMAN (Ebenezer [6], Ebenezer [5], Elisha [4], Ebenezer [3], William [2], William [1]), born in Marshfield, Mass., 28 May 1819, died in Pembroke, Mass., 16 Sept. 1897, in his eightieth year. He married in Pembroke, 5 Sept. 1849, SUSAN-JANE MAGOUN, born in Pembroke, in 1819, died in Pembroke, 3 Nov. 1902, aged eighty-three years, daughter of Daniel and Mary (Pincin) Magoun.

Lorenzo Sherman was a shipjoiner. He appears as a resident of Marshfield in 1850, a carpenter, aged 31 with Susan-J, aged 31, the other member of his family. In 1860, he, a joiner, aged 42; Susan-J., aged 41; Lorenzo-S., aged 10; and Daniel-A., aged 7, make up a household. In 1870, he had left Marshfield, probably going to Pembroke but assuredly becoming a member of the Episcopal Church in Hanover before this.

St. Andrews Church record gives "1847, 5 Sept. At the house of Mr. Daniel Magoun, Pembroke, Mr. Lorenzo Sherman of Marshfield & Miss Susan Jane Magoun of Pembroke." The printed vital statistics of Pembroke give the date of marriage as 1849.

Children, born in Marshfield, Mass.:

272. ALVIN [7] SHERMAN (Charles [6], Nathan [5], Ignatius [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Hope, Maine, 29 Dec. 1819, died in Appleton, Maine, 6 June 1883. He married in Appleton, 30 June 1847, LOWLY-ANN PERRY, born in Appleton, 7 Nov. 1823, died there, 29 Mar. 1913, aged ninety years, daughter of Henry and Lowly-Ann (Howe) Perry.

Alvin Sherman was educated in the common schools. He was a farmer and mill-operator, the first of several who ran saw-mills in the woods around Appleton. With his father, he made the long journey to Boston, about four hundred miles, by ox-team to procure necessaries for the family in their home in the wilderness. He served as selectman and tax collector in Appleton. Mrs. Sherman was a true pioneer's wife, very patient and cheerful, never too tired after coping with the inevitable hardships of a new settlement to exert herself to aid others. At the end of her long life and after thirty years of widowhood she saw all that she and her husband had toiled for come to pass; her children, all in honorable positions in life, with respect and gratitude in their hearts for all that their parents had done for them.

Alvin Sherman appears in the census of Appleton in 1870, aged "50" years [should be 51], a farmer, with Lowly-Ann, aged "56" [should be 47]; Willard, aged 22; Alice, aged 15; and Charles, aged 12. In 1870, Alvin, aged 62, farmer and millman; Lowly-Ann, aged 56, his wife; Willard, aged 32, son; Alice aged 23, [wife of Willard], daughter; Albert, aged 2, "granddaughter", are the family.

276. CAPT. ALDEN THOMAS [7] SHERMAN (Abijah [6], Nathan [5], Ignatius [4], Samuel [3], Samuel [2], William [1]), born in Rockland, Maine, 24 Feb. 1823, died there, 26 Apr. 1896, aged seventy-five years, two months, and two days. He married in Thomaston, Maine, 17 Oct. 1843, BETHIA-B. GLOVER, born in South Thomaston, Maine, 2 Oct. 1825, died in Rockland, 22 July 1901, aged seventy-five years, nine months, and twenty days, daughter of Charles * and Almira-W. (Sayward) Glover.

In 1850, Capt. Alden-Thomas Sherman was living with his father-in-law in Rockland. The census being Charles Glover, aged 55, carpenter, b. Mass.; Almira-W. Glover, aged 46, b. Mass.; Thomas-B. Glover, aged 20, b. Maine, as are all the rest of the family; Charles-C. Glover, aged 17; William-H. Glover, aged 15; Eliza-T. Glover, aged 12; Edward-R. Glover, aged 10; Lucy-A. Glover, aged 8; Abby-A. Glover, aged 5; Lydia-P. Sayward, aged 73, [probably b. Mass. although the census says, "Me."]; Alden-T. Sherman, aged 27, laborer;

* According to Bethia's death record her father Charles Glover was born in Duxbury.

Bethia-B. Sherman, aged 25; George-A. Sherman, aged 5; Ellen-F., aged 1. In 1860, Alden-T is called "Austin"-T., and he was aged 38, a master-mariner, his family being, Bethia-B., aged 34; George-A., aged 15; Ellen-F. aged 11; Myra-W., aged 7; and Emma-E., aged 5. In 1870, Bethia Sherman, aged 44, was keeping house in Rockland, having in her family, Myra-W. aged 17; Emma-E., aged 15; and Julia-F., aged 7. It is probable that Capt. Sherman was on a voyage in 1870, and possibly he had not been heard from for a long time; he may even have been considered lost.

Valentine-William-Orrison Sherman was a farmer, a magistrate, and served as a lieutenant in the Canadian militia. For many years he was in the postal service. He received land from his father in 1849 (vide ante) and mortgaged property to Orra Knapp. A notice dated 16 Mar. 1905, registered 25 Apr. 1905, Adeliza Knapp, (Executor of Orra Knapp) to Philo-O., John-A., William-I., Robert-V., Joseph-P., Miriam, Gertrude, Mary, and Eleanor Sherman, Maria Tackaberry, Mary-L. Eyre, and Beulah-S. Palmer, of exercising power of sale in a mortgage given by Valentine-W.-O. Sherman and wife to Orra Knapp. (No. 4347. Registry at Brockville.) The same land was granted to John-A. Sherman in 1905, consideration $2220.00. (ibid., 349.) Valentine-W.-O. Sherman died testate.

"I Valentine William Orrison* Sherman of the Township of Bastard, County of Leeds, Province of Ontario and Dominion of Canada Esquire, being of sound and disposing Mind and Memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made First I hereby constitute and appoint My wife Harriet Sherman to be sole Executor of this my last will, directing my said Executrix to pay all my just debts funeral and testamentary expenses Secondly, I give devise and bequeath all my personal and real estate, all my household furniture, goods and chattels and effects whatsoever and wheresoever unto my wife Harriet Sherman during her natural lifetime, or as long as she remains my widow and then and after her decease it is my will and desire that all my real estate shall go to my son Orra K. Sherman during his lifetime and then and after his decease it is my will and desire that all my real estate be equally divided among my surviving children. I declare this to be only my last will and testament.

* This name is spelled "Orson," "Orrison," "Orason" and once "Oliver". Apparently it was correctly "Orrison."

In witness whereof I have herunto set my hand and seal this fifth day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

Signed V. W. O. SHERMAN."

Witnesses: Ambrose Derbyshire, Charles Tackabery.

Charles Tackabery swore to the will, 22 Sept. 1892, stating that the testator died on the eighth day of April 1892 and that he owned a part of lot Number 2., etc. (General Registry at Brockville, Ont., No. 1430.)

300. PHILO McCLURE [7] SHERMAN (Thomas [6], Prince [5], Samuel [4], Samuel [3], John [2], William [1]), born in Kitley Township, Ont., Can., about 1819, died in Toledo, Kitley Township, 1 Mar. 1895, aged seventy-six. He married in Brockville, Ont., about 1844, LYDIA-ROSELLA WOOLWORTH*, born May 1823, died 1897, Toledo, buried at Motts Mills, Toledo, daughter of Joshua and Philetta (———) Woolworth.

Philo-McClure Sherman was a farmer. He owned and farmed land in several places but none of them far from the St. Lawrence River or his native town.

On the 7 Jan. 1854, Philo McL. Sherman and his wife conveyed land in Kitley to Ransom Wood, for £112.10s. (Brockville Registry, A.K.K. 182, B & S.)

On 5 Nov. 1849, Philo McClure Sherman and his wife, Lydia-Rosella, conveyed land to William Humphries. (A.K.L. 355.)

Philo-McClure Sherman died testate:

"I Philo McClure Sherman of the Township of Kitley in the County of Leeds Province of Ontario and Dominion of Canada farmer—being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make and publish this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

* One record stated that she was born in Vermont, another that she was born in Connecticut, and still another that she was born in Wisconsin. It was also stated that she was an "aunt" to the 5 & 10 Cent Woolworths. The Woolworth Genealogy omits her. Her birth is not recorded in Connecticut nor in Vermont. A Joshua Woolworth, son of Reuben and —— (Crossman) Woolworth, born in Massachusetts, 1794, is said to have lived in Mt. Morris, N. Y., and is the only Joshua listed in the genealogy who could have been father of Lydia but the Woolworth Genealogy is a very poor piece of work.

1st I hereby constitute and appoint my wife Lydia Rosella Sherman and my son Franklin Sherman to be Executrix and Executor respectfully (sic) of this my last will directing my said Executrix and Executor to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses and the legacies hereinafter given out of my Estate. 2nd after the payment of my said debts and funeral expenses I give to my son Jefferson Morley Sherman the sum of fifty dollars to be paid to him after my death. 3rd I give devise and bequeath all my messuages lands Tenements and hereditaments and all my ready money securities for money and all other my real and personal estate and effects whatsoever and whersoever unto my said wife Lydia Rosella Sherman to be hers during the term of her natural life except my household furniture which I give to her absolutely 4th My will and desire is that after the death of my said wife Lydia Rosella Sherman the property hereinbefore enumerated as being bequeathed to her for her lifetime shall become the property of my son Franklin Sherman absolutely. 5. I devise to my said wife Lydia Rosella Sherman all the rest and residue of my real and personal estate. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty-ninth day of October in the Year of our Lord one Thousand eight hundred and ninety one.

Thomas-Franklin Sherman bought in his father's estate from Otis Lane, the administrator, in 1858 and mortgaged it to David-P. Billings of Ware, 1 Jan. 1859. He was a farmer, a butcher, and an assessor of Ware for twenty-two years. He appears in the census of 1860 as aged 29 years, a farmer worth $1700, born in Mass., his family containing, Lovisa Sherman, aged 68, Mary Sherman, aged 27, John Pease, aged 10. In 1870, Thomas Sherman, aged 39, works in the market, worth $6000, was living with Sarah-J. Sherman, aged 35, who was keeping house.

302. SAMUEL[7] SHERMAN (Thomas[6], Reuben[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Ware, Mass., 7 Aug. 1837, died in Yorkshire, N. Y., 8 Oct. 1869. He married in Yorkshire, 5 Jan. 1865, LUCY-OLIVE DALEY, born in Yorkshire, 5 Jan. 1843, living there 26 Sept. 1922, in her eightieth year, daughter of Erastus and Olive-Adelaide (Simons) Daley.

Samuel Sherman and his wife were evidently married on her twenty-second birthday. He only lived four years after his marriage. For a short time the family were in Chicago but soon returned to Yorkshire where Mrs. Sherman continued to live after her husband's death. On 26 Sept. 1922, she wrote the compiler the following letter. The handwriting is firm and clear and the letter might have been written by one much younger.

"The blanks refering to the records of the Sherman family are at hand. I have filled out to the best of my ability one of them. As you may observe my married life was of few years duration, and tho' the members of the family of my husband, with whom I am acquainted, are specially dear to me, I have small interest at this time in tracing the various lines making up the family history. Frankly I may confess, that sort of research has never greatly appealed to me—and as I am near my eightieth birthday cannot be of service further to your undertaking."

She filled out two charts on a second appeal.

303. FREEMAN COLLINS[7] SHERMAN (Snow[6], Ebenezer[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], John[2], William[1]), born in Ware, Mass., 21 Mar. 1833, died in New Haven, Conn., 18 Dec. 1911, aged seventy-eight years, eight months, and twenty-seven days. He married in Greenwich, Mass., 26 Nov. 1857, MARCIA-S. DOUGLAS, born 1835, died after 1911, daughter of Jeremiah and "Eucla" (———) Douglas.

Freeman-Collins Sherman was living in Brookline in 1861, in Worcester in 1872 and 1873 being in the employ of the Worcester Gaslight Company in the latter year. He removed to New Haven, Conn., where he held a position with the New Haven Gaslight Company for years.

In his will, dated 2 Oct. 1909, he left his property to his wife and two sons, Charles-D., and Edward-F., in equal proportions. He owned no real estate but his personal property valuation proved him to have been a man in comfortable circumstances.

Children:

i. CHARLES-D.[8], residing in New Haven in 1911, but not there according to the directory in 1913.

ii. EDWARD-F., residing in Los Angeles, Calif., in 1911.

She was graduated from Radcliffe College, Cambridge, Mass., with degree A.B., in 1894, and from Simmons College, Boston, dept. of Library Science, with degree S.B., in 1913, as of the class of 1904. She taught in private schools from 1894–1903, spending one year in Bramwell, W. Va., as an instructor; from 1904 to 1928 she was in library work holding for over three years the position of librarian of the Narragansett Library, in Peace Dale, R. I., and the rest of the time being Librarian of the Radcliffe College Library. In 1897, a translation of Prosper Mérimée's Columba made by Miss Sherman was published by the Thomas Y. Crowell Company. In 1928, she retired from her position at Radcliffe because her mother needed her, but retained a connection with the college, doing research work for them. Her life has been too busy to accept the many honors offered her but she served at one time as President of the Graduate Club of Simmons and at another as President of the Art Club in Peace Dale, R. I. She served for seven years as a member of the Board of Management of Radcliffe College Alumnae Association and has had various terms as official in other collegiate associations.

H., 17 Sept. 1832, JULIA-MARIA HOIT, born in Sandwich, 15 Nov. 1807, died in Lynn, Mass., 18 June 1884, aged seventy-six years, seven months, and three days, daughter of Gen. Daniel and Sarah (Flanders) Hoit.

Enoch-Wood-Piper Sherman was a Sergeant in a cavalry company in the 19th N. H., Militia, 11 July 1830, becoming its Captain, 27 Aug. 1833. He served as Adjutant of this regiment and was commissioned its Colonel, 20 Sept. 1837. He resigned from the service 11 June 1840, probably because of his intended removal to Vermont.

He was apprenticed to Daniel Hoit in 1826 to learn the trade of merchandising. In 1831, at the age of twenty-one years he became a partner in the store, and a year later married the daughter of his partner. The partnership was dissolved 28 May 1839, he going to Middlesex, Vt., where he opened a store of his own, but this not proving so successful as he wished, he returned to Sandwich and again entered into partnership with his father-in-law. This was in 1843 and he lived only a few months after the renewal of the partnership, dying of typhoid fever. After his death, his widow kept a school for young ladies in Hanover, N. H.

Fuller-Gove Sherman lived in Pittston in the part that later became Randolph, Maine. At the time of his death he was said to be the oldest Free Mason in Maine.

The following newspaper item gives some facts about him:

"RANDOLPH, Nov. 18.—Fuller G. Sherman of this town, who passed his 93d birthday on Nov. 4, is said to be the oldest Free Mason in Maine. He is a 32d degree Mason, having joined the order 70 years ago. He was made a Master Mason in Unity Lodge at Thorndike in 1846. The Royal Arch degree was conferred upon him in Lebanon Chapter in 1865, and shortly afterward he became a Knight Templar.

Mr. Sherman has lived in Randolph since 1851. He was born Nov. 4, 1823, at Somerville, Me. (then known as Patricktown), the son of Eleazer and Azubah Sherman. In 1849 he married Miss Harriet Louisa Bradbury of Montville, and to them were born two sons, Daniel and George, both of this town, and two daughters, Mrs. James Hardy and Mrs. Edward McMinnie of Boston. Shortly after his marriage Mr. Sherman came to this town and established a cooperage business, in which he was very successful. He was the pioneer in this business in this locality, making the first casks and syrup barrels manufactured here." *

341. DANIEL W.[8] SHERMAN (John-Alley[7], Elisha[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born, probably in Sidney, Maine, in 1838, died in Vassalboro, Maine, 30 Mar. 1911, aged seventy-three years. He married first about 1865, MARY-H. CLARK who died 24 Feb. 1866. He married secondly about 1868, MARY KING, born in Whitefield, Maine, in Nov. 1840, died there, 18 Jan. 1870, aged twenty-nine years and two months, daughter of Cyrus and Hannah (Carleton) King. He married thirdly in Augusta, Maine, 27 January 1877, MARY-E. (JACKSON) HENDERSON, born in Fairfield, Maine, 7 May 1847, died in Vassalboro, 26 July 1910, daughter of Benjamin and Mary (Nash) Jackson.*

Daniel-W. Sherman was an honest, industrious farmer. His children were raised by their respective grandparents and hence could tell little of his various marriages, his brothers and sisters, or their children.

Children:

By first wife, Mary-H. Clark,

i. FRANKLIN-W.[9], b. 9 Jan. 1866, living 1935, unmarried, in North Edgecomb, Maine.†

By second wife, Mary King,

ii. MARY-KING, b. 19 Dec. 1869, living Whitefield, 1935; m. 19 June 1891, Augusta, HERBERT-LINCOLN AVERILL, b. 22 Sept. 1863, Alna, Maine, died 1927, son of Miles and Lauretta (Pottle) Averill. He was an electrical engineer and for some years had charge of the electric plant in Columbus, Ga. No children.

342. CAPT. BENJAMIN JACKSON[8] SHERMAN (John-Alley[7], Elisha[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Sidney, Maine, 3 Apr. 1851, living 1935. He married in Albion, Maine, 15 Sept. 1878, ABBIE-ELLA HOMESTEAD, born in Skowhegan, Maine, 11 Sept. 1852, daughter of John and Harriet (Smiley) Homestead.

* The State Vital Records give the death of Mary-E. Sherman at Vassalboro, 26 July 1810, daughter of Benjamin and Mary (Nash) Jackson, husband's name omitted. Her father born in Sidney. She was aged 63 yrs., 2 mos., 19 days. There can be no doubt that this was the third wife of Daniel-W. Sherman.

† He stated that his grandfather John-Alley Sherman had twelve children but was unable to give names of more than six.

Capt. Sherman is a retired ship-captain. He has lived in Vassalboro, Augusta, Albion, and is now a resident of Vassalboro, again.

Child, born in Vassalboro, Maine:*

i. HARRIET-PAULINE [9], b. 12 Nov. 1882; m. VERNON-C. SAMPSON.

343. CHARLES H.[8] SHERMAN (Robert[7], Elisha[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine, 21 July 1838,* died in Newcastle, Maine, 13 July 1911, aged seventy-two years, eleven months, and twenty-two days. He married first† ——— ———. He married secondly about 1870, JOSEPHINE REED, born in Boothbay, Maine, 8 June 1847, died in Newcastle, 2 Sept. 1922, aged seventy-four years, nine months, and twenty-five days,‡ daughter of John and Sarah (Pinkham) Reed.

Children:

By first wife, ——— ———,

i. RUFUS [9], b. prob. about 1865.
ii. CLARA, b. prob. about 1867.

By second wife, Josephine Reed, iii. CHARLES-E., b. 1872. Charles-E. Sherman, aged 30, a barber, of Newcastle, b. Edgecomb, son of Charles-H., b. Edgecomb, and Josephine Reed, b. Boothbay; m. 7 Mar. 1902, Damariscotta, Maine, LENA-M. CROOKER, b. Damariscotta, aged 29, daughter of Charles-W., & Alice-B. (Stinson) Crooker.

iv. NELLIE, b. prob. about 1874.
v. VIOLA, b. prob. about 1876.

344. CHARLES ELISHA[8] SHERMAN (Charles-Elisha[7], Elisha[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine, 7 Dec. 1860, was living in Boothbay Harbor in 1935. He married in Boothbay, Maine, 14 June 1887, MARY-ELLA BAKER, born in Boothbay, 10 Apr. 1859, living 1935, daughter of Nathan-Snow and Abigail (Carlisle) Baker.

Charles-Elisha Sherman was educated at Eastman's Business School. He has been a valuable man to his community, serving as selectman, postmaster, water commissioner, school commissioner, etc., also he has been State fishwarden. For many years he ran a livery stable but is now retired.

Child, born in Boothbay Harbor, Maine:

i. CHARLES-ELISHA [9], Jr., b. 26 Jan. 1891, was killed 19 July 1918, Chateau-Thierry, France. He left home, 2 Oct. 1917, trained at

* Records furnished the compiler gave to Benjamin-Jackson Sherman, a daughter Angelina who married Lucien Williams of St. Johnsbury, Vt. As Capt. Sherman in filling in his own chart does not mention her it is evidently a mistake. Angelina may have been a sister.

† Mrs. Betsey Clifford stated that he was married twice and listed the children of each wife.

‡ His date of birth and that of his wife are calculated from their age at death, although an imperfect record gives his as 13 July 1838.

Camp Devens, Mass., being a member of Battery B., 303d Field Artillery; transferred later to the Depot Brigade at Camp Devens. He went to Camp Merritt, N. J., 27 Feb. 1918; sailing from there on the S.S. Mount Vernon. In France he was transferred to Co. M., 103d Infantry, formerly the old Second Maine regiment. He was unmarried.

345. JOSEPH BURNELL[8] SHERMAN* (Capt. Joseph[7], Roger[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine, in May 1850, died in Boothbay, Maine, 25 Nov. 1911, aged sixty-one years, five months, and twenty-five days. He married about 1873, SARAH-JANE SHERMAN, born in Augusta, Maine, 16 June 1850, died there in 1923, daughter of Isaac[6] and Mary-Jane (Dearborn) Sherman.

Joseph-Burnell Sherman was a brickmason. He is found by the census of 1880, living in Edgecomb with his family: Joseph-B. Sherman, aged 30, brickmason; Sarah-J. Sherman, his wife, aged 30; Ralph-B. Sherman, son, aged 6; Clinton-E. Sherman, son, aged 3; and Julia-Q. Sherman, his mother, aged 69, all born in Maine and the parents of each born there. In her later years, Sarah-Jane (Sherman) Sherman became insane.

Children:

i. RALPH-B.[9], b. 1874, Edgecomb, Maine, blacksmith, aged 22 yrs.; m. 18 Aug. 1896, CORA-A. FICKETT, b. 1872, Millbridge, dau. of Emery-N., and "Rienzi" (———) Fickett. (State Vital Record.)

ii. EARL-C. (evidently Clinton-E.), b. 1877, Deering, Maine; m., aged 19, 27 June 1896, Edgecomb, SADIE-L. DODGE, aged 18, b. Edgecomb, dau. of Parker and Fannie (Fields) Dodge. (ibid.)

346. OSBORNE[8] SHERMAN (David-S.[7], Joseph[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William,[2] William[1]), born, probably in Edgecomb, Maine, in 1830 or 1831, died there 15 Nov. 1901, aged seventy-one years. He married about 1853, MARY-ELIZABETH GOVE, born in Edgecomb, about 5 Oct. 1831, died there, 11 Mar. 1912, aged eighty years, five months, and six days, daughter of Nathan and Betsey (Clifford) Gove.

Like the rest of the Shermans of Lincoln Co., Osborne Sherman was a farmer. The Gove Genealogy, p. 801, states that both he and his wife became insane.

Osborn Sherman, aged 28, farmer, with Addaline, aged 5; and Abby, aged 2, appear in the census of 1860. His wife is not listed in this census and it is possible but not probable that he had two wives Mary-Elizabeth Gove and Mary-H. ———. In 1870, Osborn Sherman aged 39, farmer and house-joiner, Mary-H. [E.], aged 37, keeping house; Ada-C. 15, at home; Abbie-H. aged 12, at home; Nellie-M. aged 6, at home; and George-A., aged 4, at home, are all in Edgecomb. In 1880, Osburn Sherman, aged 50, a farmer, has as his family, Mary-H., aged 49, his wife, keeping house, Ada-C., his daughter, aged 25, doing housework; Abbie-H., aged 22, his daughter, doing housework; and Nellie-M., aged 15, at home.

* It is possible that his name was Joseph-Burrill Sherman. It appears with both spellings but more often with Burnell as the middle name.

Children, born in Edgecomb, Maine,

i. ADALINE-C.[9], b. 1855.
ii. ABBY-H., b. 1858.
iii. ALFRED-S., b. 9 Jan. 1861, d. 9 Jan. 1863, aged 2 yrs., 21 days, Edgecomb.
iv. NELLIE-M., b. 17 Sept. 1864; m. ——— COLE, separated from him and worked in the Waltham Watch Factory, Waltham, Mass.
v. GEORGE-A., b. 1866, probably died before 1880. He is not listed with his family in that year but possibly was living with some one else.

347. SILAS D.[8] SHERMAN (David-S.[7], Joseph[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine, 21 Nov. 1832, died there, 10 Nov. 1904, aged seventy-one years, eleven months, and twenty days. He married in Newcastle, Maine, 18 Nov. 1853, JULIA-E. SOMES, born in Jefferson, Maine, 30 June 1835, died in Edgecomb, 23 Apr. 1903, aged sixty-eight years and ten months, daughter of John and Anne (Adams) Somes.

Silas Sherman, aged 30 [28], a brickmaker, was in Newcastle in 1860, his family consisting of Julia, aged 30 [25]; Curtis [Artis], aged 5; and William, aged 4.

Children, recorded in Hallowell, Maine, first two probably born in Newcastle, Maine:

432. i. ARTIS-F.[9], b. 4 Dec. 1854; m. ELLA-A. (WAUGH) HEATH.
433. ii. WILLIAM-O., b. 21 Jan. 1857; m. ROSE-B. TAYLOR.

349. GEORGE ELLSWORTH[8] SHERMAN† (Benjamin[7], Joseph[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Boothbay, Maine, 21 Apr. 1861, living in Edgecomb, Maine in 1934. He married in Bar Harbor, Maine, 20 Oct. 1887, SARAH-FRANCES JOHNSTON, born in St. Johns, N. B., 7 May 1866, probably living 1934, daughter of John and Jane-Ann (Chamberlain) Johnston.

George-Ellsworth Sherman is a carpenter and Deacon in the Baptist Church.

Children, first three born in Everett, Mass., rest in Edgecomb, Maine:

i. BENJAMIN-HARRISON[9], b. 17 July 1889; m. MARY CAMPBELL.
ii. GUY-W., b. 17 June 1892, d. 29 July 1892, Everett.
iii. ROY-L., b. 17 May 1893, d. 6 July 1893, Everett.

v. CHESTER, b. 19 Feb. 1898. d. 22 Feb. 1898, Edgecomb.
vi. THOMAS-H., b. 2 Mar. 1901; m. EMMA-L. HAGGETT, res. Damariscotta.

* Did not answer letters or charts.
† As the record of marriage of Benjamin Sherman and Sarah-Jane McAllister has not been found and as the statement that George-Ellsworth Sherman was an adopted son rests on the recollection of an old lady, it has seemed best to include him in this book with this explanation, although it is probable that he had no Sherman blood.

vii. THEODORE-V. b. 17 Feb. 1904; m. GLADYS-E. WHITE, res. Wiscasset.
viii. RUTH-E., b. 20 May 1909; m. HAROLD BREWER, res. Boothbay Harbor.

350. ALBERT SMITH[8] SHERMAN (Joseph[7], William[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine, 25 Dec. 1832, died in Westbrook, Maine, 5 Mar. 1915, aged eighty-four years, two months, and ten days. He married MARTHA DUNTON, born in Newcastle, Maine, 27 Sept. 1835, died in Alna, Maine, 8 Jan. 1908, aged seventy-two years, four months, and twelve days, daughter of Joseph and Olive (Sherman) Dunton*.

Children:†

i. EMMA.[9]
ii. HATTIE.

351. ELBRIDGE JASPER[8] SHERMAN (Joseph[7], William[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine, 19 Jan. 1852, died there, 9 Jan. 1918, aged sixty-six years. He married in Edgecomb, in October 1885, MARY-ELLEN (PITCHER) BURNS, born in Washington, Maine, 6 Nov. 1854, died in Edgecomb, 9 June 1917, aged sixty-three years‡, daughter of Peleg and Persis (Danforth) Pitcher. She married first David Burns.

Elbridge-Jasper Sherman was a farmer and lived in Edgecomb all his life. He appears in the census of 1880, as Elbridge Sherman, aged 26, a farmer, having in his family, Mary Sherman, aged 42, a sister; and Leroy Clifford, aged 5, a nephew, the latter probably a son of Isaac-Cleveland and Anne-Elizabeth (Sherman) Clifford.

Children, born in Edgecomb, Maine:

i. IRVING[9], b. 18 Oct. 1886, d. 6 Oct. 1918, France. The State Record states that Private Irving Sherman of 90th Division, No. 2,721,535, died in France, 6 June (sic) 1918, aged 36, b. Edgecomb, of Elbridge, deceased and Mary-E. Pitcher.
ii. ALBERT-ELBRIDGE, a twin, b. 15 Mar. 1892; m. MOLLY CAMPBELL, res. Edgecomb, 1934.

352. ROSCOE JARED[8] SHERMAN (Jared[7], Robert[6], Eleazer[5], William[4], Ebenezer[3], William[2], William[1]), born in Edgecomb, Maine,

* In her death record she is called "widow" of Albert Sherman, and in her husband's record he is called "widower", this last being obviously the correct statement.

† One of these daughters married Frank Marston of Cumberland, Maine. Letters bearing return address were neither answered nor returned.

‡ Her death record at the State House, Augusta, Maine, states that she died in Edgecomb having resided there for fifty years, her previous residence being Rockland, It gives the date of death as 9 June 1917 but her age as "66–7" stating that she was born in Rockland, that she was wife of Elbridge Sherman and daughter of Pelig Pitcher, born Washington and Persis Danforth, born Freedom, Maine. The data above regarding her were furnished by her son.

30 Apr. 1861, died in Dedham, Mass., 23 Oct. 1932. He married in Dedham, 18 June 1892, CHARLOTTE-M. (WHITNEY) COBB, born in Boston, Mass., 28 Aug. 1860, probably living 1935, daughter of Luther-Warren and Ruth-Eliza (Tefft) Whitney. She married first ——— Whitney, by whom she had two children.

Roscoe-Jared Sherman was an architect and builder. After his marriage the family lived in Dedham, Hyde Park, and again in Dedham.

Frank-Edgar Sherman was educated in the public schools of Sullivan and after being graduated he worked for some years in the stone quarries there. At the age of eighteen he went to Bar Harbor and worked for several years in the retail stores of the town. He next opened a store of his own and soon after was associated with the late Abel Hunt of Bangor in the undertaking business, being trained at the Massachusetts Embalming College. He managed the Bar Harbor branch and also was the Bar Harbor agent of the American Express Company. With his wife, he for several years conducted the Hotel Sherman in Bar Harbor. After retiring from the hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman started the merchandising business that later developed into the present F. E. Sherman department store of which he is president, continuing his activity in undertaking and embalming, an occupation that is a prominent department of the F. E. Sherman Company. Mr. Sherman has spent the last twenty-five winters in Florida, active in real estate development and citrus fruit growing in Orange County in that State, owning important groves, and residential and business properties in and near Orlando.

Mr. Sherman is a life-long Democrat, an Odd Fellow, a Mason, and a Shriner. For over thirty years he has been the treasurer of St. Saviour's Episcopal Church in Bar Harbor.

He married in Maine, 23 Oct. 1889, ANNIE-E. SMITH, born in Sullivan, 19 June 1863, living 1934.

William-Henry Sherman received his early education in the public schools of his native town. Although not a college man, he was a great reader and regarded as one of the most scholarly and cultured men in his community. He became a resident of Bar Harbor in his early years and was employed as a printer's boy in the office of the Mount Desert Herald. On the establishment of the Bar Harbor Record, he became one of its editors but resigned later to establish a printing press of his own which he successfully operated for many years. He served as a correspondent for several metropolitan papers and wrote articles for the souvenir and guide books that he later published to advertise the town of Bar Harbor. In 1914, being urged thereto by his business associates, he established the Bar Harbor

Times and, two years later, bought the Bar Harbor Record consolidating the two papers. A year later he retired from active newspaper work, selling his interests to the Sherman Publishing Company of which his nephew, Albion-Franklin Sherman, became vice-president and general manager, Mr. Sherman retaining the office of president until a few months before he died, when he sold his stock to his nephew.

In addition to these interests, Mr. Sherman had conducted for many years a stationery, novelty, and book store but had left for a number of years the active management to his daughters, Dorothy and Hilda Sherman. During the ten years previous to his death he became interested in realty and associated his son Roger with him in this enterprise. He owned and promoted the DeGregoire Park Development, owned the Musgrave cottages on the Shore Path and other real estate in Bar Harbor. For fifteen years before his death, like his elder brother, Frank-Edgar Sherman, he spent his winters in Orlando, Fla., interesting himself in real estate and citrus fruits.

Mr. Sherman was a Democrat and assistant postmaster of Bar Harbor under Grover Cleveland. He was town clerk of Bar Harbor from 1899 to 1919, resigning then on account of ill-health, having been elected year after year without opposition. He was a representative to the State Legislature in 1913, a member of the board of county commissioners from 1910 to 1916, and the candidate for State senator in 1916. He was a Mason.

liam [1]), born in Pottsville, Pa., 22 June 1857, was killed in St. Petersburg, Fla., 10 Nov. 1914. He married MARY-CARROLL PLATT, who survived him and returned to her native place.

Edwin-Franklin Sherman was a photographer. He lived for some years in Camden, N. J., and then went to St. Petersburg, Fla., where he entered into partnership with Mr. J. P. Walsh, and became well-known in his profession. During the night of the tenth of November, his house was entered by two negroes, former servants, whom he had discharged the preceding Saturday. They shot Mr. Sherman, assaulted his wife, and robbed the house. Evans, one of the negroes, was lynched the next day. Mr. Sherman's body was taken back to Camden for burial.

Mr. Sherman had no children but is carried forward in this book because he had been collecting for years material for a Sherman Genealogy. The compiler of this one regrets very much that she has never been able to obtain access to his papers as he undoubtedly had much material that she has not been privileged to obtain. It is said that his papers were sent to his sister but if so they were probably not preserved.

He married in Whitman, 3 Apr. 1926, LEILA-BLISS LITTLE, born in Sandwich, Mass., 30 June 1899, living 1935, daughter of Oscar-Dana and Lottie-Pitman (Sweet) Little.

Earland-Joseph Sherman entered the service of the United States, 2 Apr. 1917, at Plymouth, Mass., as a private in the Fifth Infantry, M.V.M. He was assigned to Co. D., 101st Infantry, in the 26th Division, A.E.F., and went to France where he participated in the following battles: Aisne-Marne; Belleau Woods; Chateau Thierry; Meuse-Argonne; Seicheprey; Soissons; and St. Mihiel. He was in the defense sector at Toul and was wounded 25 July 1918. He was honorably discharged on 17 July 1919 at which time he was Military Police on Light Duty, with the 161st regiment. He has lived in Whitman, Mass., Pawtucket, R. I., West Bridgwater, Mass., and again in Whitman where he resided in 1935. Mrs. Sherman is a registered nurse.

Children, born in Whitman, Mass.:

i. EARLAND-JOSEPH [11], b. 14 Jan. 1927.
ii. GEAN-MARILYN, b. 27 Dec. 1934.

APPENDIX

1. OTIS SHERMAN, born in Marshfield, Mass., in Sept. 1768 or 1770, died 3 Mar. 1855*, aged eighty-five years, Scituate, Mass. He married first in Pembroke, Mass., 13 Nov. 1794, JANE HOWARD, born 1770, died in Scituate, 27 May 1822, aged fifty-two years, parents unknown. He married secondly, published in Scituate, 23 Mar. 1823, ELIZABETH BARKER, born in Hanson or Hanover, Mass., 15 May 1799, died in Scituate, 11 Dec. 1844, aged sixty-five years, daughter of Joshua and Mary (Copeland) Barker.†

There is no clue to the parents of Otis Sherman to be found in the probate and deeds of Plymouth Co. A great deal of work failed to show anything of his ancestry or if he belonged to the Marshfield Shermans. According to some records he was born in Marshfield, but one makes his birthplace Scituate. His children are not recorded anywhere but the probable ones are given in this account.

He appears in the following deeds:

Charles Turner, Jr. of Scituate, attorney for Charles Torrey of Scituate, deceased intestate sells to Otis Sherman of Marshfield and Jacob Vinal of Scituate, land in Scituate, 5 Nov. 1816. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 133: 31.)

Jacob Vinal of Scituate sells to Otis Sherman of Scituate, yeoman, one half a house and lot which he purchased with him, Clarissa releasing her dower, 23 Apr. 1817. Wit: Israel-H. Sherman, Keziah Merritt, Lydia Cudworth‡. (ibid., 132: 155.)

Otis Sherman of Scituate, yeoman, conveys to Israel-H. Sherman of Scituate, shipwright, and Charles Sherman, now resident in Duxbury, clothier, one acre at Wheelwright Corners with house and barns thereon that he bought of Charles Turner, Esq., Administrator of Charles Torrey, late of Scituate deceased, 4 May 1829. Wit: Ammiel Curtis. (ibid., 165: 241.)

We, Israel Sherman of Scituate, shipwright and Charles Sherman of Duxbury, clothier, in consideration of a deed from our Honored Father Otis Sherman of Scituate, 4 May 1829, of his house, barn, and land, and one other deed from Doc^{r} Elisha James & Widow Lucy Otis, § do grant to him all the land and buildings which the above deed describes during his life and we stand bound unto said Otis Sherman and his wife Elizabeth, etc., 24 Oct. 1829. Wit: Ammiel Curtis, Seth Thomas.

* His parents are not given in the death record.

† Joshua Barker of Boston and Mary Copeland married 28 Oct. 1766.

‡ Ambrose Merritt married Keziah Cudworth, Melzar Cudworth married Lydia Merritt. Ambrose and Lydia Merritt were children of Amos and Lydia (Bailey) Merritt; and Melzar and Keziah Cudworth were children of Zephaniah and Elizabeth (Studley) Cudworth. No relationship was indicated between them and Jacob Vinal or Otis Sherman.

§ Lucy Little b. 1782 married Ensign Otis, Jr., who d. in 1822. Lydia-Young Little m. Elisha James. She was b. 10 Oct. 1790. They were evidently daughters of James Little of Marshfield who married Lydia Young, 4 Apr. 1782, Scituate. The property was probably Young estate, possibly Little, and adjoined the land purchased of Charles Turner, the Torrey property. No relationship with the Shermans indicated.

Nabby Barker, Isaac Hobart, Jr., and Lettice Hobart, wife of Isaac, all of Hanson, with Otis Sherman and Elizabeth his wife of Scituate, sell to Lemuel-B. Hatch of Hanson, gentleman, land in Hanson which was given by will to Nabby, Lettice and Elizabeth by their father Joshua Barker, 23 June 1829. Wit: Ezra Phillips, Isaac-B. Barker. (ibid. 165: 264.)

Otis Sherman of Scituate in consequence of rights which I received from Israel-H. Sherman, etc., convey in this deed to my son Israel-H. Sherman three parcels of land in Scituate, 19 Nov. 1841. (ibid., 206: 257.)

We, Sarah Stetson, Ruth Briggs, Rhoda Lord, Sarah Lord, Nabby Barker, Otis Sherman, Elizabeth Sherman, Lucinda Copeland, James Waterman, Huldah Waterman, Samuel Tolman, Joseph-C. Tolman, all of Scituate, Martin Beal, Sarah Beal and Desire Sampson of Hanson, Elizabeth Turner of Hingham, Nabby Copeland, Susan Copeland, and Joanna Copeland of Fairhaven, Huldah Carey, and Fanny Wing of New York City, convey to Cornelius Church of Scituate, woodland in Hanson, 14 June 1842. (ibid., 208: 29.) The preceding deed is one from James and Huldah Waterman, his wife, to Robert Eells of Hanover, the executor of the last will of Hannah Copeland, deceased. It was probably Copeland property and Otis Sherman was interested through his second wife's mother Mary Copeland.

On 20 Jan. 1845 Otis Sherman applied for administration on the estate of Elizabeth Sherman, a married woman, who died in Scituate. He was bonded with Israel-H. Sherman and Ebenezer-T. Fogg, as sureties. (Plymouth Co., Probate, file 18116.)

The Scituate Vital Records gives the birth of "Otis Sherman, husband of Jennie Howard" as Sept. 1768, from the gravestone in Groveland Cemetery. The State vital records give Otis Sherman, b. Marshfield, d. 3 Mar. 1855, Scituate, aged 85 years, farmer, married; parents not given. He was probably 87 when he died.

Children: *

2. i. Otis, Jr., b. prob. abt. 1796; m. Angeline Wheton or Whitton.
3. ii. Israel-H., b. Nov. 1802; m. Clarissa Stetson.
4. iii. Charles, b. about 1803; m. Sally-Turner Peterson.
iv. Solomon [?] b. 1811, d. 26 Jan. 1839, aged 28, at sea.
v. Mary [?] b. 12 May 1816; m. George-Washington Brown, b. 10 June 1815, Scituate, son of Benjamin and Anna (Witherell) Brown.

2. OTIS SHERMAN, son of Otis and Jane (Howard) Sherman, born probably in Scituate or Pembroke, Mass., about 1796, died after Nov. 1830. He married in Hanson, Mass., 9 Mar. 1828, Angeline Wheton [or Whitton], born in Pembroke, Mass., 4 Nov. 1803, died in Hanson, 16 Sept. 1831, aged twenty-seven years, ten months, and two days, daughter of Oliver and Lucy (Howland) Wheton or Whitton.

* Otis Sherman appears in the census of 1800 as living in Scituate with this family, one male between 26 and 45 (himself, aged 32); one female, over 45; and two males under 10. He evidently had two sons born before 1800. His wife was still living, aged about 30, but is not listed, and the female over 45 might have been his mother, her mother, or a housekeeper.

The Scituate vital records, give the record of death of an Otis Sherman, buried 2 Oct. 1828, aged 52 in Lowell, Mass., from a church record. If this is correct he was born 1776 and there were two contemporaneous Otis Shermans which is greatly to be doubted. If he were 32 instead of 52, he might be the son of Otis and Jane (Howard) Sherman but as the last recorded child of Otis, Jr., was born 2 Aug. 1831, his father must have lived until 1830. When Angeline died she is called "wife of Otis, Jr." and not his widow.

Children, born in Scituate, Mass.:

i. Lucy-Jane, b. 17 Aug. 1829, evidently named for her two grandmothers; m. 2 Jan. 1853, Lowell, Richard-H. Doe, b. 1828, Highgate, Vt., son of Jacob and Lydia (———) Doe.

ii. Otis-Williams, b. 2 Aug. 1831, d. 14 Mar. 1832, aged seven months, Scituate.

3. ISRAEL H. SHERMAN, son of Otis and Jane (Howard) Sherman, born, probably in Scituate, Mass., in Nov. 1802, died 17 June 1893, Scituate, aged ninety years and seven months.* He married in Scituate, 16 Nov. 1834, Clarissa Stetson, born in Scituate, 17 July 1812, died in Hingham, Mass., 17 Mar. 1895, widowed, aged eighty-two years and eight months, daughter of Melzar and Clarissa (Stetson) Stetson.

Israel-H. Sherman of Scituate, shipwright, conveys to Joseph-C. Tolman of Scituate, ship-joiner, a meadow in Scituate called Stoney Brook, conveyed to him by Anthony Collamore, guardian for said Tolman, in 1835, Clarissa releasing her dower, 24 July 1845. (Plymouth Co., Deeds, 217: 234.)

Israel-H. Sherman, of Scituate, deeds to Joseph and Charles Damon, of the same place, a salt marsh there, Clarissa relinquishes her dower, 27 June 1846. (ibid., 239: 145.)

Israel-H. Sherman appears in the census of 1850 as a resident of Scituate, aged 47 yrs with a family consisting of Clarissa, aged 37; Jane-H., aged 11; Warren-H., aged 9; Clarissa-S., aged 1, and Otis Sherman, aged 80.

Nothing was examined after 1850.

Children, born in Scituate, Mass.:

i. Warren-S[tetson?], b. Aug. 1836, d. 1 Nov. 1836, aged 3 months.

ii. Jane-Howard, b. 31 Aug. 1838; m., aged 19, 28 Mar. 1858, Scituate, Peleg-Thomas Brown, aged 22, son of John Brown 2nd., a nail maker, b. Scituate. (State rec.)

iii. Warren-Hobart, b. 27 Feb. 1841; m., aged 28, 9 Oct. 1869, Scituate, Lucy-Florence Young, aged 15, b. East Bridgewater, dau. of Charles-P. and Sarah (Hardy) Young; m. (2), aged 31, 1872, Sevilla-Agnes Parker, aged 27, b. Annapolis, N. J. (sic) dau. of William-A., and Charlotte (Nevill) Parker. In his first marriage he is called a "farmer," in his second, a "phrenologist."

* The record states that his father was born in Marshfield.

iv. CLARISSA-STETSON, b. 27 Feb. 1841. If correct she was twin with Warren-Hobart.

4. CHARLES SHERMAN, son of Otis and Jane (Howard) Sherman, born in Scituate, Mass., about 1803, died in Lowell, Mass., 28 Feb. 1865, aged sixty-two years. He married in Duxbury, Mass., 1 May 1831, SALLY-TURNER PETERSON, born there, 19 Sept. 1812, died there, 2 Sept. 1837, aged twenty-five years, daughter of Frederick and Lydia (Ames) Peterson.

Children, born in Duxbury, Mass.:

i. FREDERICK-PETERSON, b. 4 Mar. 1832, d. 28 Jan. 1908, Duxbury, aged 75 yrs., 10 mos., 24 days; m. 2 Oct. 1853, Duxbury, SARAH FREEMAN, b. 1832, dau. of Martin and Nancy (———) Freeman. He was at the time of his death a retired merchant and was survived by a wife.

ii. LYDIA-BRADFORD, b. 20 May 1837, d. 14 Oct. 1932, Plymouth, aged 94 yrs., 4 mos. 24 days; m. 9 Feb. 1865, Duxbury, HENRY-GLOVER VINAL, b. 10 Mar. 1839, Scituate, d. before 1932, son of Thomas and Chloe (Jenkins) Vinal.

INDEX TO PERSONS

INDEX

FOREWORD

This index is not a complete listing of every name and every spelling of each name in this book.

1. If a person appears more than once on a page, he or she is listed only once regardless of the fact that the name may be spelled differently. As Mehitable once and Mehetabel the next time, John once, and Jn°, the next time.

2. If a last name appears with an incorrect spelling it is listed under a correct one.

3. The witnesses to deeds are not indexed unless they happen to belong to the Sherman family.

4. The names of ancestors given in the pedigree line back from each head of a family are not listed.
